* This season, "flexible scheduling" for Sunday Night Football may be used up to twice between Weeks 5-10, and at the NFL's discretion during Weeks 11-17; for Monday Night Football at the NFL's discretion in Weeks 12-17; for Thursday Night Football it may be used up to twice between Weeks 13-17. During the flex-scheduling windows, the games initially scheduled for Sunday Night Football (on NBC), Monday Night Football (on ESPN or ABC) and Thursday Night Football (on Amazon Prime) are tentatively scheduled and subject to change. Only Sunday afternoon games (or those listed as TBD) are eligible to be moved to Sunday night, Monday night or Thursday night, in which case the initially scheduled Sunday/Monday/Thursday night game would be moved to Sunday afternoon. Sunday afternoon games may also be moved between 1:00 p.m. and 4:05 p.m. or 4:25 p.m. ET. As in prior seasons, for Week 18, the final weekend of the season, the scheduling of the Saturday, Sunday afternoon, and the Sunday night games is not assigned. The schedule for Week 18 will be announced no later than six days prior to that week's Saturday game (January 6, 2024).

SHAREHOLDERS

- The Green Bay Packers have been a publicly owned, nonprofit corporation since 1923. They were first organized as the Green Bay Football Corp., and then reorganized in 1935 as Green Bay Packers, Inc.
- There are approximately 5,204,625 shares owned by 538,967 stockholders — none of whom receives any dividend on the initial investment.
- The corporation is governed by a board of directors and a seven-member executive committee.
- One of the more remarkable business stories in American history, the team is kept viable by its shareholders — its unselfish fans. Even more incredible, the Packers have survived during the current era, permeated by free agency and the NFL salary cap. And, thanks in large part to Brown County's passage of the 2000 Lambeau Field referendum, the club will remain solvent and highly competitive well into the future due to its redeveloped stadium.
- Fans have supported the team financially on several occasions, including six stock sales: 1923, 1935, 1950, 1997, 2011 and 2022.
- To protect against someone taking control of the team, the articles of incorporation prohibit any person from owning more than 200,000 shares.

GREEN BAY PACKERS 2023 MEDIA GUIDE

Research: Nate LoCascio, Claire Trattner, Cliff Christ

Proofreading: John Watters, Nate LoCascio, Claire Trattner, Cliff Christ

Writing: Tom Fanning, Nate LoCascio, Jason Wahlers, Sarah Quick, Aaron Popkey, Katie Hermesen, Cliff Christ

Additional editorial, writing, design and research assistance: Autumn Thomas-Beenenga, Melanie Marohl, Cathy Dworak, Bobbi Jo Eisenreich, Brent Hensel, Tom Pigeon, Eric Goska, Green Bay Press-Gazette and Milwaukee Journal Sentinel archives and special acknowledgement to previous communications/public relations staff members and interns.

Cover: Designed by Treena Scharbus; TreeHouse Design.

Other photos: Evan Siegle, Corey Wilson, Vernon Biever, James Biever, Matt Becker, Harmann Studios, The Associated Press, AP Images, Getty Images, the Stillier-Lefebvre collection (including the Neville Public Museum), Duke Bobber, Tyler Gajewski, Brenda Spaude, Steve Ryan, Keegan Wright, NFL Photos, David Elliott, the Green Bay Press-Gazette, Rick Wood (Milwaukee Journal Sentinel), Cathy Dworak, Bobbi Jo Eisenreich, Tom Hauck, Elkus Manfredi Architects, Wild Blue Technologies and all sports information departments from schools of draft choices and undrafted free agents, recent and years past.

The team wishes to thank the following for their invaluable help in producing this guide: the entire staff at Elías Sports Bureau (including Seymour Siwoff, Steve Hirdt, Santo Labombarda, Alex Stern, Peter Hirdt, Chris Thorn, Frank Labombarda, John Labombarda, Kevin Hines, Ken Hirdt, Tom Hirdt, Randy Robles, Bob Rosen, Bob Tracy, Bob Waterman, Matt Martingale, Todd Betzag, Sal D'Agostino, John Carson, Chris Slowik, Dan Hopard, Dennis Hirdt, John McCarthy, Ben Rosenberg and Jennifer Gionaqui); TruMedia; Sportradar; STATS LLC; pro-football-reference.com; Brown County Library (Mary Jane Herber); Jostens Corporation (Ken Westland & Bob Skoronski); the NFL communications department (including Mike Signora, Zak Gilbert and Sam Drexler); Paul Spinelli; NFL player personnel (Joel Busser); NFL Films; the Pro Football Hall of Fame (Pete Fierle and Saleem Choudhry); the Packers Hall of Fame (Tom Murphy); Z.D. Studios (including Jason Albert); CoSIDA and the sports information departments at its member schools; colleagues at other NFL teams; and Press Pass Ink (Shirley Cleereman).

Most of the historical data covering the Packers' first 50 years from 1919 to 1968 was taken from the team's official records; Packers press books and press guides dating to the early 1930s; interviews with former players, staff members and fans dating to the 1920s; the Brown County Library's local history department; and the pages of the Green Bay Press-Gazette. George Whitney Calhoun, co-founder of the Packers, worked for the paper for 40 years as a telegraph editor, city editor and sports editor and continued to write columns in retirement about Packers history until his death in 1963. For nearly 30 years, from 1919 to 1947, Calhoun also doubled as the Packers' publicist. In addition, he was the team's secretary for nearly 20 years and a member of its board of directors for nearly 35 years.

Additional historical input was derived from the writings of Val Schneider, Art Bystrom, John Walter, Art Daley and Lee Remmel of the Green Bay Press-Gazette and Bud Lea and several others from the Milwaukee Sentinel and The Milwaukee Journal.

The following books also were used as sources: the annual NFL Record & Fact Book, Total Packers, Total Football II, the NFL Encyclopedia and The Packer Legend by John Torinus. Other valuable information was gleaned from Ron Wolf, Eric Goska, John Maxymuk, Rick Gosselin, David Dolan, Guy Hankel, Joe Cronin, and John Karl and family.

ADMINISTRATION & COACHES

MARK MURPHY

PRESIDENT & CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Mark Murphy, possessor of extensive experience in professional football and sports administration, is in his 16th year as the Packers' President and CEO.

Under Murphy's guidance, the organization continues to rank as one of the NFL's premier franchises, with highly successful operations both on and off the field. On the field, the team has compiled a 164-97-2 overall record (.627), the NFL's second-best mark during Murphy's tenure. Additionally, the club has made 11 playoff trips, including a team-record eight straight (2009 to 2016), advanced to five NFC title games and earned a victory in Super Bowl XLV. Off the field, the club continues to perform well in its business efforts, which allows the organization to support football operations. The fan experience at Lambeau Field, a top priority for the organization, continues to be ranked among the best in sports.

It was a direction both Murphy and the organization envisioned when Murphy was elected by the Packers' Board of Directors as the franchise's 10th Chief Executive Officer on Dec. 3, 2007. He began his work with the organization as president-elect on Jan. 1, 2008, and then formally took over on Jan. 28, 2008.

"I am honored to have been selected and very appreciative of this tremendous opportunity," Murphy said the day of his election. "The Packers are one of the great franchises in all of professional sports, with a rich history and incredible fan support. These are successful times for the Packers. On the field they're performing well, and off the field, they're in great shape, too. I look forward to being a part of that continued success."

Murphy, who holds a law degree and an MBA in finance, brought a unique and highly qualified background to his role as head of one of the NFL's flagship franchises, first drawing from a deep understanding and appreciation of the game that comes from an eight-year playing career with the Washington Redskins. Later, he served a combined 16 years as director of athletics at Colgate University and Northwestern University, and was an assistant executive director of the NFL Players Association and a trial attorney with the U.S. Department of Justice.

In addition to his playing career and work with the NFL Players Association, Murphy had maintained his ties to the NFL through his work on the Commissioner's Player Advisory Committee (1994-2002) as well as the NFL Youth Football Committee (2002-2011). Additionally, his NFL experience includes Super Bowl wins as a player (XVII, 1982) and as a CEO (XLV, 2010), believed to be the first such achievement in league history.

NFL commissioner Roger Goodell, recognizing the unique experience and skills Murphy brought to the NFL as the Packers' CEO, in 2008 appointed him to the NFL's Management Council Executive Committee, the NFL owners' committee whose responsibility was to serve as the bargaining team during negotiations with the NFL Players Association which resulted in a 10-year Collective Bargaining Agreement in 2011, and a new CBA in 2020 that extends through the 2030 season. The position has afforded Murphy the opportunity to regularly contribute at the league level, ensuring the organization has a voice in NFL matters.

"Mark's rare blend of experiences makes him integral to the future of the Packers and the NFL," said Goodell when appointing Murphy. "His accomplishments as an NFL player, his work with the NFLPA, and now his leadership of the Packers, provide a unique perspective to the league and also to the players. He's very effective in discussions with NFLPA executives. Mark is a bright and thoughtful individual who understands what needs to get done to create a system that benefits all sides for years to come. He is very reasonable and wants what's best for fans, the game and players, as we all do."

Murphy also serves on the Health and Safety Committee, the College Relations Committee, the Player Safety Advisory Panel and the NFL Foundation Committee. He also served on the Competition Committee for a number of years.

Upon joining the Packers, Murphy broadened his knowledge of the franchise, its operations and its standing in the community by meeting with employees, shareholders, fans and members of the Board of Directors, as well as many community groups.

Among his first initiatives was to update the organization's strategic plan, a process involving all the leadership positions of the organization, including the Executive Committee and football operations. The process created core objectives to serve as a backdrop for all key business decisions. In a move to enhance those objectives, Murphy restructured the management of the organization, which included creating a new senior-leadership staff overseeing administration and finance, communications, football operations, human resources, legal, marketing and fan engagement, and sales and corporate partnerships. The structure reflects the growth the organization has experienced in recent years and gives broader coverage across all operations with more people involved on a senior-management level. Likewise in 2018, Murphy restructured the football operation with the head coach, general manager and executive vice president/director of football operations reporting to the president and CEO, a move that has improved communication and collaboration.

Murphy also is directing the organization's master plan involving Lambeau Field, the Lambeau Field Atrium, the practice facilities, and property the organization owns adjacent to the stadium. Under his guidance since 2008, more than $600 million has been invested in Lambeau Field, all financed without public tax money. Included in the projects were an expansion and renovation to the stadium and Atrium that included a new distributed-audio sound system (2011), two then-new HD video boards and Bellin Health Gate on the north end of the stadium (2012), 7,000 additional seats in the south end zone served by the South Gate (2013), a larger Oneida Nation Gate and new football facilities (2013), the American Family Insurance Gate, a redeveloped Harlan Plaza and new Packers Pro Shop (2014), a new Packers Hall of Fame and restaurant, 1919 Kitchen & Tap (2015), a renovation of suites and club seats (2017), an upgrade of the stadium concourses, including renovated concessions and enhanced sound systems and larger video monitors (ongoing), new video boards (2023), expanded football facilities, including new team meeting rooms, position meeting rooms, coaches' offices and a new larger conditioning rehabilitation and instructional center (CRIC) (2023).

To support the Lambeau Field projects, Murphy directed the Packers' fifth and sixth stock sales, efforts that netted the organization more than $129 million combined. More than 466,000 shares were sold during the offerings, ending in 2011 and 2022, respectively, with more than 426,000 new shareholders joining the Packers' ownership ranks.

To the west of Lambeau Field, Titledown has dramatically taken shape over the last several years. The 45-acre mixed-used real-estate development that was announced in 2015 is building upon the success of the renovated Lambeau Field and complements the vibrant business and hospitality clusters in the area that have experienced enhancement in recent years. Titledown, which opened in 2017, has become a destination for visitors and residents alike with its public park and plaza a hub of activity year-round, including snow-tubing lanes on Ariens Hill and an ice-skating rink and trail in the winter. The public park also has a 100-yard artificial-surface football field and a state-of-the-art playground. Lodge Kohler, a four-diamond hotel; Bellin Health Titledown Sports Medicine & Orthopedics; and Hinterland Restaurant and Brewery have been successful anchor tenants. Opening in 2019 was TitledownTech, a joint venture between the Packers and Microsoft aimed at driving regional economic growth and job creation by helping businesses transform their operations through technology and digital innovation. The TitledownTech building also houses additional entertainment and commercial properties, including an "entertainment" concept – The Turn powered by Topgolf Suites – and an experiential Associated Bank branch, as well as the BelAir Cantina (opening this fall). Titledown also features townhomes, an apartment building (Titledown Flats) and the five-story U.S. Venture Center office building, with both residents and workers now enjoying the ability to live, work, play and create.

Among the other initiatives Murphy has directed are the enhancement of the organization's retail operations, including the purchase of a distribution center for the Packers Pro Shop, and the establishment of a customer relationship management (CRM) program, with both efforts upgrading customer service to Packers fans.

Murphy also has worked to increase the number of outside events utilizing Lambeau Field, including Kenny Chesney concerts in 2011 and 2015, a Billy Joel concert in 2017, a Paul McCartney concert in 2019 and LZ Lambeau in May 2010, a welcome back for Wisconsin Vietnam veterans. In September 2016, the Lambeau Field College Classic, presented by Carmex, saw the LSU Tigers play the Wisconsin Badgers in the stadium's first college football game since 1981. Wisconsin is scheduled to return to Lambeau Field on Sept. 5, 2026, to face Notre Dame, a date that had to be rescheduled from 2020 due to COVID-19. Additionally, soccer made its Lambeau Field debut in 2022, with Bayern Munich facing Manchester City in a friendly on July 23. The organization and Greater Green Bay also were selected to host the 2025 NFL Draft, which will deliver an estimated $94 million impact to Wisconsin. Additionally, Murphy has ensured the organization remains a strong community partner, with a charity impact of more than $9 million in the past year.

Inside the organization, Murphy continues to grow and develop the team's human resources, with new programs addressing diversity, equity and inclusion and leadership development.

The 68-year-old Murphy joined the Packers after 4½ years (2003-07) as director of athletics at Northwestern University. At the Big Ten Conference school, Murphy oversaw a 19-sport program with a $40 million budget and 160 full-time employees. During his tenure, the school won eight individual national championships and three NCAA team titles. Additionally, the university won nine conference team championships and 34 individual Big Ten titles. A total of 49 Wildcats earned first-team All-America distinction. On the football field, the Wildcats participated in two bowl games during Murphy's tenure after playing in just four previous contests in the program's history. The Wildcats ranked among the top 30 in the U.S. Sports Academy Directors' Cup standings for the last three years of Murphy's tenure and in 2007 finished sixth among Big Ten schools for the third straight year after previously not placing higher than ninth.

The school's athletic success under Murphy was achieved while its student-athletes continued to excel off the field. The NCAA Graduation Success Rate (GSR) data released in October 2007 reported Northwestern's rate at 98 percent, tying it with Notre Dame and Navy for No. 1 in the nation.

Prior to his tenure at Northwestern, Murphy served as director of athletics at Colgate University in Hamilton, N.Y. (1992-2003), the school from which he graduated in 1977. During his 11 years at the helm, the university experienced a renaissance of its football program, going from 0-11 in 1995 to three consecutive appearances in the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs. In 2003, the year after Murphy's departure to Northwestern, the team made it to the championship game; the achievement of that squad – a non-scholarship program – remains one of Murphy's proudest moments.

Colgate's other teams experienced success as well, with numerous programs making NCAA tournament appearances and the school's student-athletes achieving graduation rates among the highest in Division I. A proud alumnus, Murphy had the honor of delivering the address for the university's 2012 graduation ceremony.

Emil Fischer (July 25, 1947–Feb. 2, 1953)

¹Russ Bogda (Feb. 2, 1953–Feb. 22, 1958)
²Dominic Olejniczak (April 28, 1958–May 3, 1982)
³Robert Parins (May 3, 1982–June 5, 1989)
⁴Bob Harlan (June 5, 1989–Jan. 28, 2008)
⁵Mark Murphy (Jan. 28, 2008–present)

¹Bogda submitted a letter of resignation on Dec. 13, 1957, due to health reasons, but the executive committee rejected it. He died on Feb. 22, 1958. In the interim, Dominic Olejniczak was elected executive vice president and carried out Bogda's duties.

²Olejniczak was officially elected president on April 28, 1958.

³Parins replaced Olejniczak as principal executive officer on Oct. 11, 1981, but wasn't officially elected president until May 3, 1982.

⁵Murphy was named on Dec. 3, 2007. He assumed the duties on Jan. 28, 2008.

A former All-Pro safety for the Washington Redskins, Murphy enjoyed an eight-year career (1977-84) after originally signing with the team as an undrafted free agent in 1977. He was a co-captain from 1980-84, a period that included two Super Bowl teams (1982-83). He enjoyed his finest season in 1983, leading the NFL with nine interceptions and earning consensus All-Pro honors as well as a trip to the Pro Bowl. Murphy posted 24 INTs from 1980-83, the most in the NFL over that four-year span. He was named as one of Washington's "70 Greatest Players," as well as one of the team's 80 greatest players, and also is a member of the club's 50th Anniversary Team.

Joe Gibbs, the Hall of Fame former coach of Washington who led the team during Murphy's 1981-84 seasons, was appreciative of the player's contributions and lauded the Packers' hiring of Murphy.

"Mark meant a lot to the organization the years he was here and played," Gibbs said. "He was a great person along with being one of the brightest and most competitive people we've had here."

Gibbs had an influence on Murphy as well, as the Packers' CEO attributes much of his leadership style to what he learned from the successful Washington coach.

"He had many leadership traits that I admired and tried to incorporate into my own leadership style," said Murphy. "He had a very natural way about him with the way he related to people, and he tried to be accessible. He was a very effective communicator, too, as most great leaders are. And when he worked with you, he was very fair and sincere. All those skills and traits fueled his awesome ability to motivate his teams."

A natural leader among his teammates, Murphy served as Washington's player representative to the NFL Players Association from 1980-84, including the position of vice president of the players union (1983-84). While a representative, he served on the players' bargaining committee during the 1982 players' strike. Those experiences have served him well in his role on the NFL's Management Council Executive Committee.

During his days with Washington, Murphy earned an MBA in finance from American University in Washington, D.C., attending classes full-time in the offseason and evening classes in-season. Upon completion of his playing career in 1985, he joined the NFL Players Association as assistant executive director. While with the NFLPA, Murphy served on the bargaining team, including during the 1987 players' strike, developed the agent-certification system and strengthened the PA's degree-completion and career-counseling programs.

While with the NFLPA, he started work on a law degree from Georgetown University and ultimately finished his studies full-time after leaving the Players Association. Upon receiving his law degree in 1988, he worked at a Washington, D.C., law firm (Bredhoff and Kaiser) before becoming a trial attorney with the U.S. Department of Justice in 1989.

During a four-year career with the Department of Justice, he primarily represented government agencies in trials. Then, in 1992, his alma mater called and he returned to the sports realm.

Born in Fulton, N.Y., Murphy spent some of his formative years in the Houston area before moving back to the Buffalo-area community of Clarence. He was a three-sport star (football, baseball and basketball) at Clarence Central High School and was named the best all-around athlete in Western New York during his senior year. His baseball talents drew attention from major-league scouts. In 2002, he was inducted into the Greater Buffalo Sports Hall of Fame in recognition of his achievements both on and off the field. In February 2016, Murphy returned to Clarence Central High School to present a golden football as part of the NFL's 50th Super Bowl celebration.

Murphy and his wife, Laurie, who also is a Colgate graduate, have been involved in the communities in which they've lived, donating their time to numerous organizations. While in Chicago, Murphy served on the bid committee for the 2016 Olympics, which eventually were awarded to Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. While at Colgate University, Murphy formed the Hamilton Youth Basketball League and served as its commissioner. Heavily involved in the community while with Washington, Murphy was named the team's "Miller Man of the Year" in 1984 in honor of his work off the field.

In Green Bay, Murphy continues a busy schedule of meeting with fans and shareholders, as well as speaking to a variety of business and community groups. He also has given his time to several community organizations to help their causes, including Big Brothers Big Sisters. Murphy also serves on the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay's council of trustees and co-chaired a recent capital campaign. Additionally, Murphy is an advisory board member of the Positive Coaching Alliance, an organization created to transform the culture of youth sports to give all young athletes the opportunity for a positive, character-building experience, and is vice chairman of USA Football's board of directors. In 2021, Murphy was the recipient of the Rotary Club of Green Bay's Free Enterprise Award in recognition of his leadership of the Packers' significant business growth and positive community impact.

Mark and Laurie are active supporters of foster-care services in Brown County and have had the pleasure of serving as foster parents in the community. Laurie established the JAS (Journey to Adult Success) House in downtown Green Bay for teenagers who age out of foster care. She is also involved in a number of national and local organizations whose missions support hunger relief, as well as housing and education for underserved populations. In addition, Laurie established "Ladies of Lambeau," an inclusive group of women who are associated with the Green Bay Packers. The group hosts an annual hands-on event at Lambeau Field which benefits a variety of nonprofit organizations.

Mark and Laurie have four adult children: Katie, a graduate of Harvard who played basketball for the Crimson and lives in Chicago with her husband, Eugene Kornel, son, Richard, and daughter, Isabelle, and works at Linden Capital Partners; Emily, a graduate of Middlebury (Vt.) College with a degree in Chinese and the University of Michigan with a master's in social work who lives with her husband, Robert Kraynak, and daughters, Louise, Dorothy and Willa, and is a social worker in Door County, Wis.; Brian, a graduate of Amherst (Mass.) College, where he played football for the Lord Jeffs, and the University of Texas with an MBA who is the co-founder of Ranch Rider Spirits Company, specializing in craft cocktails, and lives with his wife, Hayley, in Atlanta; and Anna, a graduate of Northwestern University who also earned her MBA from its Kellogg School of Management and is a leadership coach in Los Angeles where she lives with her husband, Tali.

Away from work, Mark enjoys playing golf, fishing and participating in various forms of exercise, including bicycling, cross-country skiing and walking.

MISC.

Ed Policy, an executive with significant sports and legal experience, is in his sixth year as the Green Bay Packers' chief operating officer and general counsel, a position he was promoted to on Jan. 17, 2018, after serving six years as the organization's vice president and general counsel.

Policy, who started with the Packers on Aug. 1, 2012, has an extensive background that includes work in professional football with the Arena Football League and the NFL, and broad legal experience with litigation, sports labor relations, sports facility construction and commercial real estate.

In addition to directing the organization's legal affairs, Policy represents the Packers at the NFL level on legal matters and leads the organization's communications, marketing and fan engagement, sales and business development, security, and development and hospitality departments.

Policy also leads the club's endeavors to develop Titledtown, a 45-acre mixed-use real estate development immediately west of Lambeau Field. Titledtown is maximizing its unique location to attract visitors, spur regional economic growth, offer amenities to residents and complement the greater Green Bay area's draw as an excellent location to live, work, play and visit on a year-round basis. A chief component of the development spearheaded by Policy is TitledtownTech, a joint venture with Microsoft that consists of a venture capital fund, an innovation lab and a new-venture studio.

"Ed's been an outstanding leader for us and has shown tremendous growth in recent years," said Packers President and CEO Mark Murphy. "His work on Titledtown has been excellent, and will be invaluable to the organization and community for years to come. I'm confident that Ed will continue to excel in his role."

Policy's professional sports experience includes nine years (2001-09) with the Arena Football League, including a period (2008-09) in which he served as commissioner, president and CEO. He also served as deputy commissioner and president (2006-08), chief operating officer (2004-06) and executive vice president-strategic league development and legal affairs (2001-04). During his tenure with the league, he oversaw all business and operations of the AFL, including strategic development, legal affairs, sales, finance, marketing, broadcasting, digital media, football operations, labor relations, events and human resources.

Policy also served as an executive consultant with the NFL (2009-10), a position in which he advised and assisted NFL senior management in strategic and development matters and also worked with senior executives on special projects within various business areas.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Joined the Packers organization as vice president and general counsel on Aug. 1, 2012; promoted to chief operating officer and general counsel on Jan. 17, 2018.
- Professional experience includes nine years in executive leadership roles with the Arena Football League, including commissioner, president and CEO, and a year as an executive consultant with the NFL.
- Broad legal experience includes litigation, sports labor relations, sports facility construction and commercial real estate.
- Three-time recipient of the SportsBusiness Journal's Forty Under 40 award in recognition of his achievements in sports business, and a member of the Forty Under 40 Hall of Fame.
- A native of Youngstown, Ohio, and a graduate of the University of Notre Dame and Stanford University Law School

Before joining the Packers, the 52-year-old Policy served as president of a fully funded startup company developing a sports media and entertainment property. He had served in that role since September 2010.

Earlier in his professional career, Policy practiced law at Thompson Hine LLP in Cleveland (1999-2001), where his work included litigation, sports labor relations, sports facility construction and commercial real estate, and also at Heller Ehrman in San Francisco (1994-99). He is a member of the state bars of California and Ohio, and a member of the Sports Lawyers Association. He is a three-time recipient of the SportsBusiness Journal's Forty Under 40 award in recognition of his achievements in sports business, and a member of the Forty Under 40 Hall of Fame.

A Midwestern native, Policy was born and raised in Youngstown, Ohio. He earned a bachelor's degree with honors in accounting with an emphasis in finance from the University of Notre Dame in 1993 and a law degree from Stanford University in 1996. In the Green Bay community, he serves on the boards of directors of the Brown County United Way, the Greater Green Bay Community Foundation, the Greater Green Bay Convention and Visitors Bureau and the Green Bay YMCA, as well as on the community leadership council of Achieve Brown County.

He and his wife, Christy, have two sons, Carmen, 15, and Luke, 12.

BRIAN GUTEKUNST

GENERAL MANAGER

Entering his 25th season overall with the Packers and sixth as the team's general manager, Brian Gutekunst was named to his position on Jan. 8, 2018. During his time with the club, he has helped lead the Packers to 16 playoff appearances, 12 division titles, six appearances in the NFC Championship Game and a Super Bowl title (XLV).

In his five seasons leading the Packers' personnel department, Gutekunst (GOO-tuh-kunst) has maintained an aggressive approach to building the roster, leading to immediate results. For three consecutive seasons (2019-21), Green Bay posted 13 wins and captured the NFC North crown while also earning the No. 1 seed in the NFC in back-to-back seasons (2020-21). It marked the first time in NFL history a team recorded three consecutive 13-win seasons and the 39 wins from 2019-21 are the most in franchise history over a three-season span. The Packers have the top record in the NFC (47-19, 712) since 2019, and were the only NFC team and one of only four NFL teams to make the playoffs each season from 2019 to 2021.

"We could not be more excited to elevate Brian to the position of general manager," said team President and Chief Executive Officer Mark Murphy at the time of Gutekunst's promotion. "He has earned this opportunity throughout his 19 years with the Packers, proving to not only be a skilled talent evaluator, but a trusted and collaborative leader. His time under the direction of former Packers general managers Ron Wolf and Ted Thompson will undoubtedly serve him well as we work toward our next Super Bowl championship. I am confident that he is the man that will help get us there."

Over his first five seasons constructing the roster, Gutekunst acquired 13 players who earned All-Pro honors from The Associated Press, were named to the Pro Bowl or selected as alternates, or were named to the PFWA All-Rookie team. His first pick as the team's general manager, CB Jaire Alexander, is a two-time AP All-Pro selection (2020, 2022) and also was named to the Pro Bowl in both of those seasons. He joined Charles Woodson (four) and Herb Adderley (seven) as the only Packers cornerbacks to be named to multiple AP All-Pro teams. Drafted by Gutekunst in 2019, G/T Elgton Jenkins was named to the Pro Bowl in 2020 and 2022 and also garnered All-Rookie honors in '19. LB Rashan Gary, a first-round selection by Gutekunst in 2019, ranked No. 3 in the NFL among linebackers in 2020-21 in QB hits (39), No. 6 in pressures (84) and No. 8 in sacks (14½) and was named a Pro Bowl alternate in 2021.

While the draft will remain the most important avenue with which Gutekunst builds the roster, his free-agent signings and other roster maneuvers have been extremely effective in strengthening the Packers. This was again evident in 2022 as his March signing of CB/KR Keisean Nixon helped lead a resurgence of Green Bay's special teams. Nixon posted a league-best 1,009 yards on kickoff returns and earned first-team All-Pro honors last season, becoming the first Packers kick returner to earn a spot on the AP All-Pro team since it added the position in 1976. In June 2021, Gutekunst added LB De'Vondre Campbell, who went on to earn first-team All-Pro honors in his first season in Green Bay, the first Packers inside LB to earn first-team AP All-Pro recognition since Ray Nitschke in 1966. Gutekunst also added fifth-year CB Rasul Douglas during the 2021 season, signing him off the Arizona Cardinals' practice squad in October. Douglas went on to appear in 12 games with nine starts for the Packers, posting a team-high five INTs and two INT TDs (tied for No. 1 in the NFL) on his way to being named a Pro Bowl alternate.

Following a trade that sent WR Davante Adams to the Las Vegas Raiders for their first (No. 22 overall) and second-round (No. 53 overall) picks, Gutekunst entered the 2022 NFL Draft with 11 selections. He used the No. 22 overall pick on LB Quay Walker,

- Built a roster that led Green Bay to three consecutive 13-win seasons (2019-21), three straight NFC North crowns and a pair of No. 1 seeds in the NFC (2020-21). It marked the first time in NFL history a team recorded three straight 13-win seasons and the 39 wins from 2019-21 are the most in franchise history over a three-season span.
- Has acquired 13 players who have earned AP All-Pro honors, were named to the Pro Bowl or selected as alternates, or were named to the PFWA All-Rookie team.
- In both 2021 and 2022, signed a veteran free agent that went on to earn first-team All-Pro honors from The Associated Press in their first season in a Green Bay uniform (LB De'Vondre Campbell in 2021, CB/KR Keisean Nixon in 2022).
- His first pick as Packers general manager, CB Jaire Alexander, is a two-time AP second-team All-Pro selection (2020, 2022) and was named to the Pro Bowl in both of those seasons.
- His first two drafts (2018-19) as Green Bay's general manager featured three players (Alexander, G/T Elgton Jenkins and S Darnell Savage) named to the PFWA All-Rookie team, one of only six NFL clubs to place three-plus offensive/defensive players on the All-Rookie teams in 2018-19.
- Signed one of the most impactful free-agent classes in team history in 2019 (S Adrian Amos, LB Preston Smith, LB Z'Darius Smith and G/T Billy Turner). Z'Darius Smith was named to the Pro Bowl in 2019 and 2020 and earned second-team AP All-Pro honors in 2020, while Preston Smith (2019, 2022) and Amos (2019) were named Pro Bowl alternates.
- Served as the Packers' director of player personnel for two seasons (2016-17) after working as Green Bay's director of college scouting for four seasons (2012-15).
- First joined the Packers in 1997 as a scouting intern before being hired full time in December 1998 as the East Coast scout; spent one year as a scouting assistant with the Kansas City Chiefs in 1998.
- Played two years of college football for the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse before becoming an assistant coach for the team for his final two years at the school (1995-96) after a shoulder injury cut short his playing career.

who earned All-Rookie honors from the PFWA last season after leading the team in tackles (119) and forced fumbles (three). On the second day of the draft, Gutekunst packaged two second-round selections (Nos. 53 and 59 overall) in a trade with the Minnesota Vikings for the No. 34 overall pick, which he used to select WR Christian Watson from North Dakota State. Watson produced one of the most impressive rookie campaigns by a WR in team history, tying for No. 1 in the NFL among rookies in 2022 in TD catches (seven) and ranking No. 5 among rookies in receiving yards (611). His seven TD receptions rank No. 3 in team history among rookies behind only Billy Howton (13 in 1952) and Max McGee (nine in 1954). Additionally, Watson became only the third player in franchise history (Johnny "Blood" McNally, 1931; Don Hutson, 1941) to post seven-plus receiving TDs and multiple rushing TDs in a season and just the second NFL rookie WR to accomplish that feat (Chase Claypool, 2020). Watson joined WR Romeo Doubs, one of two fourth-round picks by Gutekunst in 2022, to become only the third rookie WR duo in NFL history to each have 40-plus catches and three-plus receiving TDs. Seven members of the Packers' 11-man draft class went on to start multiple games for the team in 2022, combining for 48 starts between them, the most by a Green Bay draft class since 2006 (66).

Gutekunst's fourth draft in 2021 saw him make nine selections as he infused the roster with talent from major-college programs and addressed several needs. With the No. 29 pick in the first round, the Packers selected CB Eric Stokes from the University of Georgia, who played in 16 games with 14 starts as a rookie and registered 55 tackles (43 solo), a team-high 14 passes defended (tied for No. 11 in the NFL) and an INT. In the second round, Gutekunst turned to offense and selected C/G Josh Myers from Ohio State, one of only two offensive linemen to start every game for Green Bay last season. Seven of the nine members of the 2021 class appeared in 20-plus games for the Packers over the past two seasons, with three of them (Stokes, 25; Myers, 23; G/T Royce Newman, 22) starting at least 20 contests.

For the third time in as many drafts, Gutekunst made a first-round trade in 2020, swapping pick No. 30 and a fourth-round selection (No. 136) for the Miami Dolphins' pick at No. 26, and used that selection on Utah State QB Jordan Love, who enters the 2023 season as the Packers' starting quarterback. In the second round, Gutekunst fortified the Packers' backfield with the selection of Boston College RB AJ Dillon, one of only two running backs in the league (Steelers RB Najee Harris) to rush for 750-plus yards and play in all 17 games each of the last two seasons (2021-22). G Jon Runyan (sixth round, Michigan) was the only Packers rookie to appear in every game in 2020 and has started 33 contests over the last two seasons, the most among Green Bay offensive linemen over that span.

In his second offseason managing the Packers' roster in 2019, Gutekunst secured one the most successful free-agent classes in team history, signing four marquee players and immediate starters in LBs Preston Smith and Za'Darius Smith, S Adrian Amos and G/T Billy Turner. The group proved instrumental in the Packers' run to three consecutive NFC North division titles and back-to-back appearances in the NFC title game following the 2019 and 2020 seasons.

Preston Smith, who came to Green Bay after four seasons (2015-18) with Washington, was named a Pro Bowl alternate in 2019 after ranking No. 8 in the NFL with a career-best 12 sacks and finishing No. 2 on the team with 29 QB hits and 43 QB pressures. He was again named a Pro Bowl alternate following the 2022 season. Za'Darius Smith, who was originally selected in the fourth round of the 2015 NFL Draft by the Baltimore Ravens, made his first career Pro Bowl in 2019 as an injury replacement and was again named to the Pro Bowl in 2020 while also earning second-team AP All-Pro honors. His 26 sacks from 2019-20 are the most ever by a Packer in his first two seasons with the team. Additionally, the Smiths became the first duo in NFL history to both register 12-plus sacks in their first season as teammates, the first tandem in team history (since 1982) to both register 12-plus sacks in the same season and only the second duo in Packers history (since 1982) to each have 10-plus sacks in a season (DE Reggie White with 13 and LB Bryce Paup with 11 in 1993). Amos was the only Packer to start every game from 2019-22 and posted 80-plus tackles and five-plus passes defended in each of those seasons.

Gutekunst entered the 2019 NFL Draft with 10 picks, including two first-round selections, and for the second consecutive draft maneuvered in the first round to get a player he wanted. At No. 12 overall, Gutekunst selected Gary out of the University of Michigan. Gutekunst then packaged the No. 30 pick with a pair of fourth-round selections in a trade with Seattle for the No. 21 overall pick that he used on University of Maryland S Darnell Savage. Savage started all 14 games he appeared in during the 2019 season and ranked No. 2 on the team with two INTs on his way to earning PFWA All-Rookie honors. In the second round, Gutekunst selected Jenkins out of Mississippi State, who played in all 16 games and started the final 14 contests of the season at left guard as a rookie in 2019. He was named to the PFWA All-Rookie team, only the second Packers guard to be selected since 1974 (Daryn Colledge, 2006). Jenkins put together an even more impressive second campaign in 2020 as he started all 16 games, opening 12 at LG, three at C and one at RT en route to his first Pro Bowl selection. He became just the third offensive lineman in franchise history to make the Pro Bowl within his first two seasons in the NFL (Deral Teteak, 1952 as a rookie; Charley Brock, 1940 in his second season). Jenkins saw action at four different spots on the line in 2020 (LT, LG, C, RT) and became the first Green Bay offensive lineman to start games at guard, center and tackle in the same season since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger. Returning from a season-ending knee injury in 2021, he was selected to the Pro Bowl following the 2022 season.

Armed with a league-high 12 selections entering the 2018 NFL Draft, Gutekunst was active. The first round saw him trade the Packers' selection (No. 14) to New Orleans for the Saints' first-round pick (No. 27) and a fifth (No. 147) in 2018, and a first in 2019. Moments later, Gutekunst traded the No. 27 pick, a third (No. 76) and a sixth (No. 186) to Seattle for their first (No. 18) and a seventh (No. 248). With the No. 18 choice in the first round, Green Bay selected Alexander out of Louisville. Alexander was named to the PFWA All-Rookie team, becoming just the second Packers CB to be honored since 1974 (Casey Hayward, 2012). A pair of wide receivers, fifth-round pick Marquez Valdes-Scantling (38 receptions, 15.3 avg.) and sixth-rounder Equanimeous St. Brown (21 receptions, 15.6 avg.) became the first rookie duo in team history to each register 20-plus catches with an average of 15-plus yards per reception.

Prior to his promotion, Gutekunst served as Green Bay's director of player personnel (2016-17) and director of college scouting (2012-15) after spending his first 13 seasons with the club as a college scout. He served as an East Coast regional scout for his first two years (1999-2000) before switching to the Southeast region (2001-11).

Possessor of prior professional scouting and college coaching experience upon joining Green Bay on a full-time basis late in 1998, Gutekunst gained his first NFL experience in the summer of 1995 when he assisted the coaching staff of the New Orleans Saints with the offensive line during training camp. Gutekunst's initial exposure to the Packers came in the summer of 1997 when he worked as an intern in the team's scouting department.

His first full-time appointment in professional scouting was in 1998 as a scouting assistant for the Kansas City Chiefs. After one year with the Chiefs, Gutekunst returned to the Packers when he was named a college scout for the East Coast by Wolf on Dec. 30, 1998.

Gutekunst earlier had played two years of college football for the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse. He then became an assistant coach for the team during his final two years at the school (1995-96) after a shoulder injury cut short his playing career. Serving as a linebackers coach during the 1995 season, he helped the school to the Division III national championship as the Eagles finished with an unblemished record of 14-0. Gutekunst has a degree in sports management.

He and his wife, Jen, reside in Hobart with their daughters, Marley, 18, Joie, 17, and Kacey, 12, and son, Michael, 14.

RUSS BALL

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Russ Ball, entering his 35th season in the NFL, begins his 16th season in Green Bay and sixth as the organization's executive vice president/director of football operations after serving 10 seasons as vice president of football administration/player finance. During his time with the Packers, Ball has helped lead the team to 11 playoff appearances, eight NFC North crowns and a Super Bowl title (XLV).

Named to his current position on Jan. 8, 2018, Ball brings a vast array of experience to the Packers' front office and is highly involved in all team decisions both on and off the playing field. He is responsible for negotiating player contracts and managing the salary cap, in addition to the daily supervision of football-administration departments including equipment, video, logistics and team travel, corporate travel, player engagement, family programs and fields.

"Since joining the Packers in 2008, Russ has proven to be invaluable," said Mark Murphy, Packers President and Chief Executive Officer. "His salary-cap management and negotiating abilities are well known, but he has also provided tremendous leadership throughout football operations and served as a valuable liaison between the football and business sides of the organization. His diverse skills will remain important to our success moving forward."

Before coming to Green Bay, Ball spent six seasons (2002-07) with the New Orleans Saints, the final two as vice president of football administration and the first four as senior football administrator. His responsibilities with the Saints included monitoring the salary cap, contract negotiations and roster management, as well as maintaining the team's compliance with NFL and Management Council regulations. Ball also coordinated different areas of the football operations, and was involved in several other administrative functions with the club.

During his time in New Orleans, Ball also served in a similar capacity with the New Orleans VooDoo of the Arena Football League from 2004-07. He was selected by the Saints to attend the 2005 NFL Managers Program at Stanford University's Executive Education Graduate School of Business.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Joined the Packers organization as vice president of football administration/player finance on Feb. 14, 2008, and was promoted to executive vice president/director of football operations on Jan. 8, 2018.
- Entering his 35th season in the NFL, having previously worked for the New Orleans Saints, Washington Redskins, Minnesota Vikings and Kansas City Chiefs.
- Responsible for negotiating player contracts and managing the salary cap, as well as the daily supervision of football-administration departments including equipment, video, logistics and team travel, corporate travel, player engagement, family programs and fields.
- Began his NFL career with the Chiefs in 1989 as assistant strength and conditioning coach.

Ball spent the 2001 season as director of football administration for the Washington Redskins, where his duties included managing the salary cap as well as team operations, as he oversaw the video, athletic training, equipment, strength and conditioning, and player development departments.

Ball served as senior football administrator for the Minnesota Vikings from 1999-2000, where he assisted with salary-cap management and player contracts. He began working in the NFL with the Kansas City Chiefs and spent 10 seasons (1989-98) there, the final two in football operations as administrative assistant to then-head coach Marty Schottenheimer. Ball began his career with the Chiefs as an assistant strength and conditioning coach.

A 1981 graduate of the University of Central Missouri, Ball was a four-year letterman at center for the Mules. He served as head strength and conditioning coach at the University of Missouri from 1982-89 and earned his master's degree in human performance from Missouri in 1990.

Ball was born in Moberly, Mo. He and his wife, Diana, reside in Green Bay. Away from football, Ball enjoys spending time with the couple's two children, Andrea and Joe, daughter-in-law, Ellie, and his granddaughter.

NICKNAME ORIGIN

The nickname "Packers" appeared in print for the first time in the Aug. 13, 1919, edition of the Green Bay Press-Gazette. It was the first story written about Green Bay's newly formed football team, which held its organizational meeting two days earlier in the paper's editorial department.

The Indian Packing Co. was the team's sponsor, hence, the Press-Gazette's Aug. 13 story referred to the team as both the "Packers" and the "Indians." On Aug. 15, the Press-Gazette used only the nickname "Packers," and that's who they've been ever since.

It's uncertain who coined the nickname, but it almost certainly was one of two Press-Gazette staff members: Val Schneider, who was writing the paper's sports column at the time, or George Whitney Calhoun, city editor at the time and the football team's co-founder along with Curly Lambeau.

With Indian Packing as a sponsor in 1919 and 1920, and Acme Packing as the sponsor in 1921, the nickname was a natural. But the Packers were expelled from what is now the NFL in January 1922 for using three Notre Dame players in a non-league game against Racine.

Green Bay was readmitted to the league six months later, but disavowed any connection to Acme Packing and stopped calling themselves the Packers. The Press-Gazette used Bays and Blues as alternatives, but fans and out-of-town writers resisted the change and the name Packers endured.

PAUL BANIEL

VICE PRESIDENT OF FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

Paul Baniel is in his 15th year heading up the Green Bay Packers' financial operations and is in his 12th year serving as vice president of administration for the organization.

In addition to leading the daily operation of the club's finance, facility and information technology departments, Baniel (BAN-yel) represents the Packers at the NFL level on economic issues and leads strategic initiatives of the organization. He was integrally involved in Lambeau Field's $312 million expansion and renovation project in 2013, drawing on his experience with major projects with the Milwaukee Brewers and Potawatomi Hotel and Casino while in leadership roles in those organizations. Additional projects since 2013 include the team's $55 million project to renovate the stadium suites and club seats and ongoing updates to Lambeau Field's concourses and other guest amenities. He also is contributing to the work in Titletown, the organization's mixed-use real estate development on nearly 45 acres of land immediately west of Lambeau Field that is maximizing its unique location to attract visitors, spur regional economic growth, offer amenities to residents and complement the greater Green Bay area's draw as an excellent location to live, work, play and visit.

Baniel, a Certified Public Accountant and Chartered Global Management Accountant, also oversees the audit process and works closely with the organization's treasurer, the Board of Directors' audit and investment committees, and the stadium district.

"Paul is a key leader in our organization," said Packers President and CEO Mark Murphy. "His experience in professional sports has been an important asset to the organization, especially during our recent significant work on Lambeau Field. We appreciate his strong leadership within the organization and the impact he has on our development efforts around Lambeau Field, including Titletown."

Baniel, who joined the Packers on July 30, 2009, moved to Green Bay from Milwaukee, where he had spent more than six years (2003-09) as the chief financial officer of Potawatomi Hotel and Casino. At Potawatomi, he helped lead the planning and construction of a $240 million expansion of the facility, which opened in 2008.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Last name is pronounced BAN-yel.
- Joined the Packers as vice president of finance in August 2009; named vice president of finance and administration in July 2012.
- Beginning his 37th year in the sports and entertainment industry, including 16 years with the Milwaukee Brewers and six years with Potawatomi Hotel and Casino.
- A CPA and CGMA, received his accounting degree with honors from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee.

Prior to that, Baniel worked 16 years for the Milwaukee Brewers from 1986 through 2002. He served as the team's vice president of finance as well as treasurer and secretary for the final seven years of his tenure (1995-2002), coordinating the financing for the construction of what was then called Miller Park.

Baniel, 61, also worked for three years (1983-86) at the Milwaukee office of PricewaterhouseCoopers, a worldwide public accounting firm, before joining the Brewers.

A Milwaukee native, Baniel graduated from Hamilton High School in nearby Sussex and earned his accounting degree with honors from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee in 1983. He earned his CPA certification that same year and is a member of several financial and accounting organizations, including the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the Wisconsin Institute of Certified Public Accountants, Financial Executives International, and the Institute of Management Accountants. In the community, he serves on the board of directors for the Greater Green Bay Community Foundation and previously served on the boards of directors of The New North and Special Olympics Wisconsin.

Baniel and his wife, Nancy, reside in Green Bay and have four grown children: Nick, Claire, Mary and Abby.

In his spare time, Baniel enjoys travel, golf, bicycling, hiking and spending time with his grandson.

CRAIG BENZEL

VICE PRESIDENT OF SALES & BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT

Craig Benzel, a 25-year member of the Packers' sales and marketing team, is in his 10th year as the Packers' vice president of sales and business development.

Benzel, who was promoted to the position on May 12, 2014, oversees sales and business development, premium seating, ticketing, the Packers Hall of Fame, Lambeau Field stadium tours, stadium services, broadcast business operations and shareholder services.

In eight of the last 10 years, Benzel and the sales and business development teams led the organization to record local revenues. He also oversaw the launch of a Milwaukee sales office, major renovations to the Lambeau Field suites and club areas and the addition of the Johnsonville Tailgate Village and cellular DAS building. Additionally, he helped steer a concourse renovation that has significantly improved the Lambeau Field food and beverage experience with new "grab and go" concession stands, while also adding temperature-controlled fan gathering spaces in the US Cellular Loft and Miller Lite Endzone Bar. He also directed the restructuring of the Packers' media sales, service and operations, bringing those areas in-house to provide more exclusive Packers content to fans and better serve team partners, while significantly growing the organization's digital and social sales opportunities. Additionally, Benzel and the ticketing team transitioned Lambeau Field to a mobile ticketing environment that offers fans added security and greater flexibility.

Prior to his current role, Benzel had served the previous 12 years as director of marketing and corporate sales, a position in which he expanded the team's partnerships and added innovative new inventory in premium seating, among other accomplishments.

"Craig is a valuable member of our senior staff," Packers President and CEO Mark Murphy said. "His experience with the organization has served him well in his expanded role, particularly with our business partners, who are key to the success of

GABRIELLE DOW

VICE PRESIDENT OF MARKETING & FAN ENGAGEMENT

Gabrielle Dow, possessor of 29 years of diverse experience across professional sports, entertainment and venues, is in her 10th year as the Packers' vice president of marketing and fan engagement.

Dow, who was named to the position on May 12, 2014, oversees the Packers' retail operations, digital and broadcast, marketing, brand engagement, business research and analytics, and game presentation.

In her nine years with the Packers, Dow and her team have enhanced the gameday experience with a variety of new elements in Lambeau Field, including pyrotechnics and a revamped music selection, along with "Get Loud Lambeau," a fan-engagement campaign that encourages game attendees to support and energize the players and coaches. Dow also introduced a new fan-spirit initiative, "Green and Gold Friday," enhancing the fan tradition of wearing Packers colors and gear to work, school and in the community each Friday to ramp up support and enthusiasm for the team. Additionally, her team led the Packers' "100 Seasons" celebration of the team's rich history, which included the club's 100th season in 2018 and was capped by the franchise's 100th birthday on Aug. 11, 2019. In 2022, the team introduced new player-introduction set pieces with side LED screens. This past offseason, Dow and her team oversaw a renovation to Lambeau Field's TundraVision LED boards, which doubled the size of the main video boards and feature 4K video technology. Additionally, scoreboards at the 50-yard line were expanded while the stadium's audio system was replaced and enhanced.

Since 2019, Dow helped lead the effort with the NFL to host the NFL Draft at Lambeau Field and surrounding areas. In 2023, the state of Wisconsin, the city of Green Bay and the Green Bay Packers were awarded the 2025 NFL Draft. The draft is expected to bring as many as 240,000 fans to the state and upwards of $90 million in economic impact to the state of Wisconsin.

"Gabrielle has been a great addition to the Packers," Packers President and CEO Mark Murphy said. "Her experience and new initiatives have been excellent for the organization and our fans. She's had an immediate impact in revenue areas, including the Packers Pro Shop. We look forward to her continued work in enhancing the connection with our fans and in their experience following and supporting the team."

Dow joined the Packers from the Baltimore Ravens, where she served as vice president of marketing for eight years, a position in which she oversaw the team's marketing, promotions, sponsor activations, brand management, game entertainment and fan-affinity efforts. With the Ravens, Dow created successful fan initiatives such as "Purple," a first-ever female fan club that has grown to 25,000 members, and launched the Ravens' own "Purple Friday" campaign, creating an engaging Baltimore tradition that kids and fans of all ages participate in every Friday during the football season.

Dow's other professional sports experience includes two years (2003-05) with the NHL's Florida Panthers, where she directed the marketing of hockey, concerts and family entertainment, and four years (1999-2002) with AEG, marketing the NBA's Los Angeles Lakers, as well as the Staples Center, Kodak Theatre and The Forum.

The 51-year-old Dow was honored as one of Maryland's Top 100 Women by the Maryland Daily Record in recognition of her professional accomplishments, community leadership and commitment to mentoring. Additionally, in March 2014 she received an Executive Management Award from SmartCEO, an award that honors executives who have gone above and beyond to support and lead their organizations.

Dow also teaches a sports marketing and innovation MBA course to graduate students at St. Norbert College in nearby De Pere, Wis. In the community, she serves on the boards of directors of Special Olympics Wisconsin, the Fox Cities Performing Arts Center and the Green Bay Country Club.

Born in San Francisco, Dow earned her bachelor's, MBA and law degrees from the University of Oregon. She and her husband, Jeff, a Port Washington, Wis., native, have maintained strong ties to Wisconsin, as Jeff's parents live in Port Washington and his extended family runs a dairy farm in Lomira, Wis. The couple has a daughter, Danielle, 18, and a son, Jackson, 14.

HISTORY OF THE "G"

Before his third season as head coach and general manager of the Packers, Vince Lombardi elected to decorate the team's helmets with a logo that has become one of the most iconic in American sports. Lombardi decided to place a green and white "G" directly above the earholes of the team's mostly gold helmets.

Typical of the times and particularly Lombardi, no big deal was made of the unveiling, either beforehand or after. The "G" was introduced at an intrasquad game played Aug. 5, 1961, at old City Stadium. The game was played there because the field at the Packers' new stadium – now Lambeau Field – had been recently reseeded and wasn't ready for use.

It was understood at the time that the "G" stood for Green Bay and that hasn't changed. Lombardi settled on the "G" before he won his first NFL championship.

As can best be determined, the development and design of the "G" was carried out by a select few in addition to Lombardi: Gerald "Dad" Braisher, the Packers' equipment manager; John Gordon, a part-time assistant to Braisher and an art student at St. Norbert College; and workers at Romo Display Advertising Inc. of Green Bay.

It's uncertain who conceived the logo, but Lombardi and Braisher would have been the likely candidates. Gordon sketched it before Romo took his drawing and turned it into an artistic rendering. But, clearly, it never would have come to be without Lombardi's approval.

The original Packers "G" was shaped like a football, flattening gradually from its height toward the ends. That "G" was abandoned following the 1969 season, a year after Lombardi left to coach Washington, and replaced with a "G" that is shaped more like an oval, measuring 3.125 inches at its tallest point and five inches at its widest point.

NICOLE LEDVINA

VICE PRESIDENT OF HUMAN RESOURCES

Nicole Ledvina is in her 10th year as vice president of human resources with the Green Bay Packers.

Promoted to her position on Jan. 21, 2014, Ledvina has been with the organization since 2003, serving as the director of human resources prior to her promotion.

"Nicole has been a great asset to the Packers during her time with the organization," Packers President and CEO Mark Murphy said. "She's been a valuable member of our leadership team and senior staff, and has shown tremendous growth during her time here. She's highly respected throughout the entire organization and contributes greatly to our success."

In addition to overseeing all human-resource matters for the organization, the 48-year-old Ledvina leads strategic planning and staff-development efforts, while also coordinating the organization's Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion initiatives. Professionally, she is a member of the Society for Human Resources Management (SHRM), through which she has a certification as a Professional in Human Resources (PHR). Additionally, she serves as vice chair of Packers Heritage, Inc.

JASON WAHLERS

VICE PRESIDENT OF COMMUNICATIONS

Jason Wahlers, now in his 13th season with the Packers, is entering his sixth year as vice president of communications, a position to which he was promoted on Jan. 23, 2018.

"I'm really excited for Jason. He has done a great job for us during his seven years here, and is very deserving of this promotion," said Packers President and CEO Mark Murphy at the time of Wahlers' promotion. "He is highly respected throughout the organization and will be a great addition to our Senior Staff."

Wahlers oversees communications while also leading the community-outreach and public-affairs departments.

"Jason brings a wealth of public-relations expertise to this new position. He has also developed a comprehensive skill set to ensure that our entire organization is effectively communicating with our fans, our customers and our community," said Packers chief operating officer and general counsel Ed Policy. "His talent and perspective have been invaluable, and I am excited to have him taking a broader role in the organization."

Wahlers, 45, joined the Packers in July 2011 as the director of public relations. Over his tenure, he has been in charge of the communication for the head coach and general manager as well as directing a staff that serves as the media contact for assistant coaches and the entire roster. Wahlers' role also sees him serve as a principal contact for the National Football League and broadcast networks.

Prior to joining the Packers, he worked as the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' public relations manager for six years (2005-10), serving as the main media-relations contact for players and as-

MILT HENDRICKSON

DIRECTOR – FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Milt Hendrickson enters his 19th NFL season and fifth with the Packers in 2023. He joined Green Bay on Jan. 24, 2019, as director – football operations after spending the previous 14 seasons (2005-18) in the personnel department of the Baltimore Ravens.

With the Ravens, Hendrickson was a player personnel assistant in 2005, worked primarily with the pro personnel staff in 2006-07, was promoted to Midwest area scout after the 2008 NFL Draft, was named mid-regional scout following the 2013 NFL Draft and was promoted to national scout after the 2016 NFL Draft. During his time in Baltimore, the Ravens won a Super Bowl and four division titles, appeared in the playoffs eight times and won 138 games (including postseason), the sixth most in the NFL over that span.

Prior to joining the Ravens, Hendrickson was a coach in high school and college. After serving as the team captain for both the football and baseball teams at Luther College, he went on to earn his master's degree in exercise and sports science-sports administration from the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse. In 1996, he was the assistant offensive line coach at UW-La Crosse. From 1997-99, Hendrickson was the head varsity football coach at De Soto (Wis.) High School, where his teams were Division 6 state semi-finalists in both 1998 and 1999. In the spring of 2000, he served as De Soto's head baseball coach, leading the team to a 27-0 record and the Division 3 state title. During his various coaching roles at the high school, Hendrickson also taught lan-

JON-ERIC SULLIVAN

VICE PRESIDENT OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Jon-Eric Sullivan begins his 20th season with the Packers and second as vice president of player personnel. Promoted to his current role on July 22, 2022, Sullivan previously served as co-director of player personnel for four seasons (2018-21) and two seasons (2016-17) as the director of college scouting. Sullivan also served as a college scout covering the Central Plains region (2008-11) and the Southeast region (2012-15) after working as the team's National Football Scouting representative to the annual NFL Scouting Combine and authoring evaluations of all prospective seniors in the Southwest region.

Sullivan joined the team's football operations department on July 12, 2004, having previously served as a scouting intern during Green Bay's 2003 training camp.

Sullivan played his junior and senior seasons (1998-99) as a wide receiver at Gardner-Webb University in Boiling Springs, N.C. As a senior, he was named to the all-conference team after leading the Bulldogs with 43 receptions. Previously, he played at the University of South Carolina from 1995-97 before transferring to Gardner-Webb.

Sullivan attended high school at Fork Union (Va.) Military Academy, where he was an all-state defensive back his junior year, pacing state players with nine interceptions, and then an all-state receiver as a senior. Sullivan lettered twice in football, while also receiving two letters each in indoor and outdoor track. As a senior, he was all-state in track as a member of the state-champion 400-meter relay team after placing third at the state meet in the 300-meter hurdles as a junior.

Following his college football career, Sullivan served as a student-assistant receivers coach at Gardner-Webb for one season. Though

MATT MALASPINA

DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

Matt Malaspina (mal-eh-SPEEN-ah) enters his 26th NFL season and his seventh with the Packers in 2023. He was promoted to his current role on May 25, 2018. Malaspina joined the Packers as a college scout on Feb. 8, 2017, after spending 12 seasons (2005-16) with the San Francisco 49ers.

Malaspina finished his tenure with San Francisco as the team's director of college scouting for four seasons (2013-16). He oversaw the daily operations of the college scouting department and the staff. For the three years (2010-12) prior, Malaspina was a national scout, primarily serving in the Southeast region. He also assisted the department by cross-checking the top prospects in college football.

For five seasons (2000-04), Malaspina worked under former Packers general manager Ted Thompson in Seattle, serving as an area scout for the Seahawks. While in Seattle, he covered the Northeast and Southeast regions. Malaspina spent the 1999 season evaluating college prospects from the Southeast region for the Carolina Panthers. He also spent 1998 with National Football Scouting.

Before returning to coach for the Knights, Malaspina played center in the Canadian Football League for the Shreveport Pirates in 1994 and participated in training camp in 1995.

SAM SEALE

NATIONAL SCOUT

Sam Seale, a 10-year NFL veteran as a player, heads into his 28th season with the Packers and his sixth as a national scout. Promoted to his current role on May 25, 2018, Seale spent the 2012-17 seasons as a West regional scout for the Packers.

In 2017, Seale was recognized as the NFC Scout of the Year at the Fritz Pollard Alliance Meeting, which took place during the NFL Scouting Combine.

Seale began his NFL playing career after being picked in the eighth round of the 1984 NFL Draft by the then-Los Angeles Raiders. After one year as a wide receiver (1984) and three seasons as a defensive back/kick returner (1985-87) for the Silver and Black, Seale headed south to play for the then-San Diego Chargers for the next four seasons (1988-91).

After becoming a full-time starter (at cornerback) for the first time in his pro career in 1989, Seale appeared in all 16 games for San Diego in both 1990 and '91. He then returned to the Los Angeles area in 1992 to play one additional season for the Raiders and appeared in one game with the Los Angeles Rams in 1993.

In 121 career games, Seale recorded 11 interceptions, returning one for a touchdown in 1985. He also scored once on a fumble recovery (in 1988 with San Diego).

A four-time letterman (1980-83) as a running back for Western State College (Colo.), Seale averaged 5.3 yards per carry as a collegian while leading the team twice in both rushing and receiving. He also earned NAIA All-America honors in track,

- A 1984 draft pick by the then-Los Angeles Raiders, spent four seasons each with the Raiders (1984-87) and the then-San Diego Chargers (1988-91).
- A four-year letterman at Western State College (Colo.) as running back, led the team twice both in rushing and receiving. Was inducted into the Western State College Hall of Fame in 2002.

competing in the 60-, 100- and 200-meter events. The political science major was an All-Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference pick two seasons in football and four times in track. Seale was inducted into the Western State College Hall of Fame in 2002.

While attending Orange (N.J.) High School, Seale was an all-state performer in football his senior year and in track as a junior and senior. He earned four letters as a running back/defensive back for the football team while also lettering twice in track as a sprinter.

He and his wife, Elizabeth, reside in San Diego and have two sons, Ricky (Sam Jr.), 31, and Samir, 29, and a daughter, Shi-Ann, 24. Ricky is the all-time leading rusher in San Diego prep history and was a four-year letterman (2011-14) at Stanford University.

RICHMOND WILLIAMS

DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

Richmond Williams enters his 16th year with the Packers in 2023 and fifth as director of pro personnel after being elevated to the position on June 11, 2019. He previously spent two seasons as a pro scout (2017-18) and five seasons as a college scout (2012-16). He also served as the team's National Football Scouting representative to the annual NFL Scouting Combine and authored evaluations of all prospective seniors in the Southwest region. Williams spent the 2007 training camp as a scouting intern with the Packers.

In May 2022, Williams represented the Packers at the NFL's inaugural Coach and Front Office Accelerator in Atlanta, which brought together 60 diverse head-coach and general-manager prospects from all clubs.

In 2007, Williams volunteered as an assistant in the football office at his alma mater, the University of Iowa. His duties included helping coaches plan their recruiting trips and breaking down defensive game film.

Prior to working in the football office, Williams lettered two years as a cornerback for Iowa. He earned the Iowa "Team Leader" award all four years of his career, given by the coach-

Williams was a two-sport athlete in football and track and field at North Augusta (S.C.) High School. He played cornerback and wide receiver and was a state-champion long jumper as a senior, also participating in the 4x100-meter relay.

Nicknamed "Richey," Williams is married to his wife, Fiory. The couple has a daughter, Delina, and a son, Adonai.

The seven-member Executive Committee of the Green Bay Packers presently is composed of: (back row) Karl A. Schmidt, Member; Daniel T. Ariens, Secretary; Mark H. Murphy, President; Donald J. Long Jr., Member; Michael D. Simmer, Treasurer; (front row) Susan M. Finco, Vice President and Lead Director; and Marcia M. Anderson, Member.

Now in their 105th season of existence and their 103rd season in the National Football League, the Green Bay Packers are a team and an organization unique in both structure and accomplishment. They represent – from an organizational standpoint – the only publicly owned franchise in the 32-team NFL. On the field, they have won 13 NFL championships, more than any other franchise.

The Packers have been a community-owned team since 1923 when the Green Bay Football Corporation was founded. After it was forced into receivership in 1933, the franchise was reorganized in 1935 as Green Bay Packers, Inc., which is still operating today.

While the Packers still think of themselves as community-owned, their community has grown since 1923 to reflect their worldwide fan base. There are approximately 5,204,625 shares owned by 538,967 shareholders. A seven-member executive committee elected from a board of directors governs the corporation. The committee directs corporate management, approves major capital expenditures, establishes broad policy and monitors management's performance in conducting the business and affairs of the corporation.

MATT LAFLEUR

HEAD COACH

15th NFL Season > Fifth Season as Packers Head Coach coach on Jan. 8, 2019.

"We are very excited to welcome Matt as the next head coach of the Green Bay Packers," said Packers President and CEO Mark Murphy on the day of LaFleur's hiring. "We found a coach with the background and experience that we think will get us back to playing winning football. We're also excited about the person — he is bright with a great work ethic and a perfect fit for Green Bay and the organization."

In his first four seasons leading the Packers, LaFleur has authored one of the greatest starts to a head-coaching career in NFL history. Per the Elias Sports Bureau, his 47 wins are the second most in league history by a head coach in his first four seasons in the NFL, trailing only George Seifert (52 in 1989-92). Green Bay's 47-19 (.712) regular-season record since 2019 ranks No. 3 in the NFL and No. 1 in the NFC. With a 13-4 record in 2021, LaFleur led the Packers to a third straight NFC North crown while also earning the No. 1 seed in the NFC for the second consecutive season. He became the first coach in NFL history to post 13-plus wins in three straight seasons and his 39 wins from 2019-21 passed Seifert (38) for the most wins by an NFL head coach in his first three seasons in the league (Elias). LaFleur's 39 wins from 2019-2021 are also tied for the third most by a coach over any three-season span in league history, trailing only Mike Ditka's 40 victories with the Chicago Bears from 1985-87 and Andy Reid's 40 wins with the Kansas City Chiefs from 2002-22 (Elias).

Green Bay's success under LaFleur has been highlighted by its domination of the NFC North, success at Lambeau Field and owning the month of December. In his first four seasons, he has captured three division titles while going 18-6 against NFC North opponents, a .750 winning percentage that ranks as the best in the history of the NFC North/Central (min. 10 games, Elias). Overall, LaFleur has guided the Packers to a 27-6 record (.818) in the regular season at home, the top mark in the NFL since 2019. Green Bay finished the 2021 campaign with an 8-0 record at Lambeau Field, the only NFL team to be undefeated at home that season, and it marked the third straight season the Packers won seven-plus home games, tied for the second-longest streak in team history (2010-12) behind only a five-season stretch from 1994-98. Green Bay is 15-0 in the month of December under LaFleur, marking the longest winning streak by a head coach at the start of his career in the month of December (Elias). LaFleur is also 18-2 during the regular season in December/January, a .900 winning percentage that ranks No. 1 in the NFL since 2019.

Since taking command of Green Bay's offense in 2019, LaFleur has helped the Packers rank No. 1 in the NFL in giveaways (59), No. 2 in time of possession (32:00), tied for No. 3 in sacks allowed (122) and No. 7 in scoring offense (25.8 ppg). The offense continued to excel under LaFleur in 2022 as QB Aaron Rodgers finished the season No. 7 in the NFL in TD passes (26) and No. 10 in completions while also tying for No. 5 with 53 completions of 20-plus yards. RB Aaron Jones led the team with a career-high 1,121 rushing yards and ranked No. 2 in the league among RBs with an average of 5.26 yards per carry. WRs Romeo Doubs (41, three) and Christian Watson (41, seven) became only the third rookie WR duo in NFL history to each have 40-plus receptions and three-plus TD receptions in a season. Watson is also only the third player in team history to have seven-plus receiving TDs (seven) and multiple rushing TDs (two) in a season (Johnny "Blood" McNally, 1931; Don Hutson, 1941). Watson's seven receiving TDs were the third most by a Packers rookie in team history while he and Doubs both finished in the top 10 among NFL rookies in TD receptions last season. Additionally, the Packers

AT A GLANCE ...

- Named the Packers' 15th head coach on Jan. 8, 2019.
- Per the Elias Sports Bureau, his 47 wins are the second most in NFL history by a head coach in his first four seasons in the league, trailing only George Seifert (52). Green Bay's 47-19 (.712) mark since 2019 is the third-best regular-season record in the NFL and the best in the NFC.
- In his first three seasons leading the Packers (2019-21), guided Green Bay to a trio of 13-win seasons, three NFC North crowns and two appearances in the NFC Championship Game.
- Is the only head coach in NFL history to not lose back-to-back games in his first 49 games.
- Finished second in voting for The Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year in 2021.
- Became just the sixth head coach since 1970 to lead his team to the conference championship game in both of his first two seasons as a head coach, joining Jim Harbaugh (2011-12), Rex Ryan (2009-10), Barry Switzer (1994-95), Seifert (1989-90) and Don McCafferty (1970-71).
- Oversaw a Packers offense that led the NFL with 509 points in 2020, the second-highest total in team history (560 in 2011). Green Bay was the only team to rank in the top 10 in the NFL in 2020 in all of the following categories: total offense (389.0 ypg, No. 5), yards per play (6.29, No. 3), passing offense (256.6 ypg, No. 9), passing yards per play (7.81, No. 2), rushing offense (132.4 ypg, No. 8) and yards per carry (4.78, No. 7).
- Helped guide QB Aaron Rodgers to back-to-back NFL Most Valuable Player awards in 2020 and 2021 as he became only the fifth player in NFL history to win consecutive MVPs.
- Has guided the Packers to three of the top four seasons in team history for fewest giveaways (11 in 2020, 13 in 2019 and 2021).
- Is entering his 15th season in the NFL in 2023, having also served as an offensive coordinator for two seasons (Los Angeles Rams, 2017; Tennessee Titans, 2018), a quarterbacks coach for six seasons (Washington Redskins, 2010-13; Atlanta Falcons, 2015-16) and an offensive assistant for two seasons (Houston Texans, 2008-09).
- During his first 10 seasons in the NFL, was a part of offensive staffs that helped their teams rank in the top 10 in the league in total yards seven times (2008-09, 2012-13, 2015-17). Was on a staff that helped its offense finish in the top five in the league in scoring three times, highlighted by No. 1 rankings in 2016 with the Falcons and in 2017 with the Rams.

- Tutored Falcons QB Matt Ryan, who led the league with a 117.1 passer rating in 2016, the seventh highest in a season in NFL history, on his way to being named NFL Most Valuable Player and Offensive Player of the Year by The Associated Press.
- Has coached the league MVP (Rodgers, 2020-21; Ryan, 2016) or the NFL's Offensive Player of the Year (Rams RB Todd Gurley, 2017; Ryan, 2016) in four of the last seven seasons.
- Began his coaching career in 2003 at his alma mater, Saginaw Valley State. Has six seasons of coaching experience at the collegiate level, having also worked at Central Michigan (2004-05), Northern Michigan (2006), Ashland University (2007) and Notre Dame (2014).

ranked No. 7 in the NFL in sacks allowed (32), including just 17 in Weeks 7-18, which was tied for the third fewest in the league over that span. Green Bay ranked No. 5 in the NFL in time of possession (31:23), its fourth straight season finishing in the top five in the league in the category.

In 2021, the Packers finished the season ranked No. 10 in the NFL in total offense (365.6 ypg) and total points (450). The offense was led by spectacular individual seasons from Rodgers and WR Davante Adams. For the second consecutive season under LaFleur, and the fourth time overall, Rodgers was named the NFL's Most Valuable Player by The Associated Press and the Pro Football Writers of America. He led the league with a passer rating of 111.9, joining Steve Young (six times), Roger Staubach (four) and Ken Anderson (four) as the only players to lead the league in passer rating at least four times since 1970. Adams set new single-season team records for receptions (123) and receiving yards (1,553) in '21 as he became the first player in team history with three 100-catch seasons (2018, 2020-21). He also became the first player in league history to post 115-plus catches, 1,350-plus receiving yards and 11-plus receiving TDs in back-to-back seasons (2020-21).

Green Bay's defense has also shown consistent improvement under LaFleur the past four seasons. Named to his position on Feb. 9, 2021, by LaFleur, defensive coordinator Joe Barry guided the Green Bay defense to a No. 6 league ranking in passing defense (197.0 ypg) in 2022, the fewest allowed by the Packers since 2010 (194.2 ypg). Green Bay was tied for No. 4 in the league with 17 INTs last season, with 16 of them coming in Weeks 7-18, the most in the NFL over that span. The Packers gave up 28 points or less in 16 of 17 games, tied for the most in the league in '22. In 2021, Green Bay finished in the top 10 in the NFL in total defense (328.2 ypg, No. 9) and passing defense (219.1 ypg, No. 10). The 2021 season marked just the eighth time since 1970 that Green Bay finished the regular season in the top 10 in both total offense and total defense (2020, 2010, 2009, 1998, 1997, 1996, 1994).

Several players have enjoyed individual success in LaFleur's four years at the helm, with 12 Packers earning All-Pro, Pro Bowl or All-Rookie honors over the past four seasons. CB Keisean Nixon earned first-team AP All-Pro honors as a kick returner in 2022, the first Packer to earn the honor since the position was added in 1976. He was joined by CB Jaire Alexander, who garnered second-team honors. Alexander was also selected to the Pro Bowl with G/T Elgton Jenkins, and LB Quay Walker earned a spot on the PFWA's All-Rookie team last season. Adams, LB De'Vondre Campbell and Rodgers were named first-team AP All-Pro in 2021 while Adams, DL Kenny Clark and Rodgers were selected to the Pro Bowl. In 2020, Adams, T David Bakhtiari, C Corey Linsley and Rodgers earned first-team AP All-Pro honors, the Packers' most first-team selections since 1967 (six), while Alexander and LB Zia Darius Smith earned second-team All-Pro recognition. The 2020 Pro Bowl roster featured Adams, Alexander, Bakhtiari, Jenkins, Jones, Rodgers and Smith. The Packers' seven selections tied for the most in the NFL in 2020 (Baltimore, Kansas City and Seattle), and were the most original selections for Green Bay since seven players were selected in 2011. Six of the players were named starters in 2020 (all but Jones), giving Green Bay its most starter selections since 1967 (eight).

Since his first day addressing the team, LaFleur has emphasized the importance of the ball, both protecting it on offense and taking it away on defense. For the fourth straight season in 2022, Green Bay finished on the positive side of the turnover margin (plus-2, t-No. 12 in the NFL). Since 2019, the Packers rank No. 2 in the NFL in turnover margin (plus-34). From 2019-21, Green Bay ranked in the top two in the NFL for fewest giveaways, ranking tied for No. 1 in 2021 with 13 (Minnesota and Seattle), No. 1 in 2020 with a team-record 11 and No. 2 in 2019 with 13. It marked the first time in NFL history that a team had 13 or fewer giveaways in three consecutive seasons, and Green Bay's 37 total giveaways during that period were tied for the fewest giveaways over a three-season span in NFL history (New England, 2015-17). Overall, the Packers are 33-2 under LaFleur when winning the turnover margin, and their 28 zero-giveaway games from 2019-21 were the most in league history over a three-season span. Green Bay finished the 2021 season ranked No. 3 in the NFL in turnover differential (plus-13), tied for No.

7 in 2020 (plus-7) and tied for No. 3 in 2019 (plus-12). On defense, the Packers were tied for No. 11 in the NFL with 24 takeaways in 2022 and tied for No. 4 in the league with 17 INTs. In 2021, Green Bay was tied for No. 8 in the NFL with 26 takeaways and tied for No. 6 with 18 interceptions in 2021. In 2019, the Packers were tied for No. 7 in the league with 25 takeaways and tied for No. 3 with 17 INTs. Overall, Green Bay is 42-6 under LaFleur when forcing at least one turnover, an .875 winning percentage that ranks No. 1 in the NFL since 2019 (TruMedia).

For the second consecutive season in 2020, LaFleur led Green Bay to a 13-3 record and an NFC North title while also earning the No. 1 seed in the NFC for the first time since 2011. According to Elias, he was the sixth head coach since 1970 to lead his team to the conference championship game in both of his first two seasons as a head coach, joining Jim Harbaugh (2011-12), Rex Ryan (2009-10), Barry Switzer (1994-95), Seifert (1989-90) and Don McCafferty (1970-71). Additionally, Green Bay's 13-win improvement over the previous two seasons (13 wins in 2017-18) marked the biggest two-season victory improvement by a head coach in franchise history from the two seasons prior to him taking over, eclipsing the previous mark held by Vince Lombardi (15 victories in 1959-60 after the Packers won four games in 1957-58).

Following a productive first season in 2019, Green Bay's offense exploded under LaFleur in 2020. The Packers led the NFL with 509 points, the second-highest total in team history (560 in 2011), including a league-best 12 games with 30-plus points. Green Bay was the only team to rank in the top 10 in the NFL in all of the following categories: total offense (389.0 ypg, No. 5), yards per play (6.29, No. 3), passing offense (256.6 ypg, No. 9), passing yards per play (7.81, No. 2), rushing offense (132.4 ypg, No. 8) and yards per carry (4.78, No. 7). Additionally, the Packers were the only NFL team to have three different players (Adams-18, Jones-11, TE Robert Tonyan-11) with 10-plus TDs in 2020.

In their second season in LaFleur's offense in 2020, Rodgers and Adams turned in outstanding individual performances. Rodgers was named the NFL's Most Valuable Player by AP and by the PFWA after leading the NFL with a 121.5 passer rating, the second-highest single-season mark by a quarterback in NFL history behind only his 122.5 rating in 2011. In addition to leading the NFL in passer rating, Rodgers also led the league in passing TDs (team-record 48), completion percentage (team-record 70.7) and interception percentage (0.95), the first QB to lead the NFL in all four categories since Young in 1992. Adams set the franchise record to that point for receptions in a season with 115 and tied WR Sterling Sharpe (1994) for the most receiving TDs in a season with 18 (tied for No. 3 in NFL history). Adams became the first player in NFL history to have 18-plus TD receptions and 100-plus catches in a season. Additionally, he led the NFL in receiving TDs, receiving yards per game and receptions per game in 2020, the first NFL player to lead the league in all three categories since Sharpe in 1992.

In LaFleur's first year leading the team in 2019, Green Bay finished the regular season with a 13-3 record on its way to an NFC North crown and the No. 2 seed in the NFC as he became just the fifth coach in league history to win 13-plus games in his first season as a head coach. He guided the Packers to their biggest one-year win improvement in club history (plus-seven wins) and became the first head coach to lead Green Bay to the playoffs in his first season. He joined Mike McCarthy as the only head coaches in club annals to lead the team to the NFC Championship Game in their first playoff appearance, and he became the first NFL coach to do so since Harbaugh led the 49ers to the NFC title game in 2011.

LaFleur guided the Packers to a 6-0 record in NFC North games in 2019, just the second time that Green Bay had gone undefeated in the division (2011) since the league went to a divisional format in 1967. He joined Jim Caldwell (2011) and Steve Mariucci (1997) as the only coaches in NFL history to post a perfect divisional record and 13-plus wins in the regular season in their first season as a head coach.

Green Bay's defense also took a step forward with LaFleur at the helm in 2019 as it allowed 19.6 points per game (No. 9 in the NFL). It marked the first time Green Bay had finished in the top 10 in the league in the category since 2010, which was also the last time the Packers allowed fewer than 20 points per game. The average of 19.6 points per game allowed was a 5.4-point decrease from 2018 (25.0 ppg.), the biggest one-year improvement in scoring defense for the Packers since 1996.

LaFleur came to Green Bay after spending two seasons as an offensive coordinator, first with the Los Angeles Rams in 2017 and then with the Tennessee Titans in 2018. He also coached quarterbacks for two seasons with the Atlanta Falcons (2015-16) and four seasons with the Washington Redskins (2010-13). LaFleur got his start in the NFL coaching reds with the Houston Texans as an offensive assistant in 2008-09.

During his first 10 seasons in the league, LaFleur was a part of offensive staffs that helped their teams rank in the top 10 in the NFL in total yards seven times (2008-09, 2012-13, 2015-17). In three of those seasons, LaFleur was on a staff that helped its offense finish in the top five in the league in scoring, highlighted by No. 1 rankings in 2016 with the Falcons and in 2017 with the Rams.

In his lone season with the Titans, LaFleur guided the offense to a No. 7 league ranking in rushing (126.4 ypg) as Tennessee registered 11 games with 100-plus rushing yards, tied for No. 2 in the NFL in 2018. Tennessee's ground game was led by third-year RB Derrick Henry, who finished No. 7 in the NFL in rushing yards (1,059) and tied for No. 3 in rushing TDs (12), the most by a Titan since RB Chris Johnson's 14 rushing TDs in 2009. RB Dion Lewis added 517 rushing yards as Tennessee was one of only three teams in the league (Denver and Seattle) to feature both a 1,000-yard back and a 500-yard back in 2018.

Despite missing three full games and parts of others due to injuries, Titans QB Marcus Mariota set a single-season franchise record with a 68.9 completion percentage, good for No. 6 in the league in '18, and posted a career-high average of 7.64 yards per attempt, the top mark by a Titans QB (min. 200 att.) since Steve McNair in 2003 (8.04). In Week 12 at Houston, Mariota completed 22 of 23 passes for 303 yards and two TDs with no INTs, a 95.7 completion percentage that was the second-best single-game mark in NFL history (min. 20 att.) behind only Chargers QB Philip Rivers' 96.6 percentage recorded the previous day vs. Arizona.

Under LaFleur's direction, Tennessee's offense had one of its finest seasons in team history when it came to taking care of the football, finishing tied for No. 7 in the league with 18 giveaways, tied for the fourth fewest in a season in franchise annals. The Titans set a single-season team record with only six fumbles lost on the season, which was tied for No. 4 in the NFL in 2018. The offense also contributed to the Titans being called for only 82 penalties on the season, the fewest in the league in 2018 and the fewest in franchise history in a 16-game season (since 1978).

As offensive coordinator for the Rams in 2017, LaFleur was part of a staff that helped the team improve its win total by seven games (4-12 to 11-5) as Los Angeles took home the NFC West crown for the first time since 2003. The Rams led the league in scoring with an average of 29.9 points per game, more than doubling their average from 2016 (14.0 ppg) as they became the first team in the Super Bowl era (since 1966) to go from last to first in the NFL in scoring in one season. The Rams also finished in the top 10 in the league in total offense (No. 10, 361.5 ypg), rushing offense (No. 8, 122.1 ypg), passing offense (No. 10, 239.4 ypg) and third-down percentage (No. 9, 41.1).

RB Todd Gurley was named AP Offensive Player of the Year after leading the league in yards from scrimmage (2,093) and rushing TDs (13) and ranking No. 2 in the NFL with a career-high 1,305 rushing yards. QB Jared Goff finished in the top 10 in the league in passer rating (No. 5, 100.5), passing yards (No. 10, 3,804), passing TDs (t-No. 5, 28) and INT percentage (No. 5, 1.47). The Rams threw only seven INTs on the season, the fewest in the NFL in 2017 and tied for the fewest in a season in franchise history (1969).

LaFleur joined the Rams after serving as the quarterbacks coach for the Atlanta Falcons in 2015-16. In 2016, he was a member of an offensive staff that helped the Falcons win the NFC title and set franchise records for total offense (415.8 ypg), points scored (540), passing offense (295.3 ypg) and yards per play (6.7). LaFleur tutored QB Matt Ryan as he set single-season franchise marks for passing yards (4,944), completion percentage (69.9) and TD passes (38) along with an average of 9.26 yards per attempt that ranked

No. 1 in league history among QBs with 500-plus attempts. Ryan led the league with a 117.1 passer rating, the seventh highest in a season in NFL history, on his way to being named NFL Most Valuable Player and Offensive Player of the Year by AP.

LaFleur spent the 2014 season coaching quarterbacks at the University of Notre Dame, where he helped QB Everett Golson throw for 3,445 yards and 29 TDs, both good for No. 3 in single-season school annals. Golson completed a school-record 25 consecutive passes in a game vs. Syracuse, eclipsing the previous mark of 14 straight held by three different quarterbacks.

From 2010-13, LaFleur served as quarterbacks coach for Washington. In 2012, he tutored rookie Robert Griffin III, who became the first QB in team history to win AP Offensive Rookie of the Year and the first Washington rookie QB to be selected to the Pro Bowl. Washington finished 10-6 on the season, taking home its first NFC East crown in 13 years. Griffin completed 258 of 393 passes (65.6 percent) for 3,200 yards and 20 TDs with just five INTs, and set NFL rookie records for passer rating (102.4), interception percentage (1.27) and rushing yards by a QB (815). Washington ranked No. 4 in the league in 2012 in scoring (27.3 ppg), the second-best average in team history (27.7 in 1999), and led the NFL with a franchise-low 14 giveaways on the season.

In 2011, veteran QB Rex Grossman started 13 games and posted career highs for completions (265) and passing yards per game (242.4) under LaFleur's direction. In his first season in Washington, LaFleur helped the team finish No. 8 in the league in passing offense (244.6 ypg), the team's best average since 1999 (245.4 ypg). Veteran QB Donovan McNabb started 13 contests in 2010 and ranked No. 8 in the league with an average of 259.8 passing yards per game.

LaFleur's first NFL coaching experience came with Houston as an offensive assistant in 2008-09, where he was part of a staff that helped the Texans rank in the top five in the league in total offense and passing offense in both of those seasons. In 2009, LaFleur assisted offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach Kyle Shanahan with the QBs as the Texans ranked No. 4 in the league in total offense (383.1 ypg), highlighted by a passing game that ranked No. 1 in the NFL (franchise-record average of 290.9 ypg) as QB Matt Schaub led the league and set single-season team records for passing yards (4,770) and completions (396). In 2008, LaFleur assisted wide receivers coach Larry Kirksey as Houston ranked No. 3 in the league in total offense (382.1 ypg) and No. 4 in passing offense (266.7 ypg), with WR Andre Johnson leading the NFL in receptions (team-record 115) and receiving yards (1,575).

In 2007, LaFleur served as the offensive coordinator at Ashland (Ohio) University, where he helped the Eagles score a then-school-record 440 points and average 528.2 yards of offense per game on the way to an NCAA Division II postseason appearance, the team's first since 1997.

LaFleur began his coaching career as an offensive assistant at Saginaw Valley State in 2003 before working as a graduate assistant at Central Michigan in 2004-05. He also coached quarterbacks and wide receivers at Northern Michigan in 2006.

Born Nov. 3, 1979, in Mount Pleasant, Mich., LaFleur played quarterback at Saginaw Valley State (2000-02), where he guided the Cardinals to three straight NCAA Division II playoff appearances and earned second-team All-Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference honors in all three seasons. He ranks No. 3 in school history in passing yards (7,699), completions (560) and passing TDs (67). LaFleur began his college career as a wide receiver at Western Michigan (1998-99) before transferring to SVSU.

Following his college career, LaFleur played in the National Indoor Football League for the Omaha Beef in 2003 and the Billings Outlaws in 2004.

LaFleur's younger brother, Mike, is currently the offensive coordinator for the Los Angeles Rams. Their father, Dennis, was a starting linebacker on Central Michigan's 1974 national championship team and went on to be a defensive assistant coach for the Chippewas for 22 seasons (1976-97). Following his time at CMU, Dennis also served as the head coach for four seasons and as an assistant coach for 13 seasons at Mount Pleasant (Mich.) High School.

LaFleur and his wife, BreAnne, reside in De Pere with their two sons, Luke and Ty.

RICH BISACCIA

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

22nd NFL Season > Second Packers Season

Entering his 22nd season coaching in the NFL, Rich Bisaccia begins his second year with the Packers in 2023 as the team's special teams coordinator while adding the title of assistant head coach this season.

Named special teams coordinator on Feb. 8, 2022, by Head Coach Matt LaFleur, Bisaccia (bis-SOTCH-ee-uh) was promoted to assistant head coach/special teams coordinator on March 10, 2023. He came to Green Bay after spending the previous four seasons with the Oakland/Las Vegas Raiders, serving as the team's assistant head coach/special teams coordinator and then taking over as interim head coach for the final 12 regular-season games in 2021. Bisaccia has 40 years of coaching experience, including 21 seasons in the NFL as a special teams coordinator with the Packers (2022), Raiders (2018-21), Dallas Cowboys (2013-17), San Diego Chargers (2011-12) and Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2002-10). This is the 12th season that he has held the title of associate head coach or assistant head coach in the NFL. Bisaccia has led his units to top-10 finishes in Rick Gosselin's special teams rankings eight times during his career (No. 7 in 2002 and 2007, No. 9 in 2008, No. 2 in 2009, No. 2 in 2009, No. 6 in 2012, No. 4 in 2013 and 2015, No. 5 in 2017).

In Bisaccia's first season with the Packers in 2022, he helped guide CB Keisean Nixon to first-team All-Pro honors from The Associated Press as Nixon became the first kick returner in franchise history to earn a spot on the team since the position was added in 1976. Nixon ranked No. 2 in the NFL with an average of 28.8 yards per kickoff return, the top single-season mark in team annals among players with 30-plus returns. He posted a league-best 1,009 yards on kickoff returns, just the third player in franchise history to lead the NFL in the category (Al Carmichael in 1956 and 1957, Dave Hampton in 1971). Nixon led the NFL in kickoff returns of 50-plus yards (five) and 30-plus yards (11), the most by a Packer in both categories dating back to 2000. Green Bay ranked No. 4 in the league in average starting field position after kickoffs (26.6), the top mark posted by the Packers since 2010 (27.4). Also under Bisaccia's direction, veteran K Mason Crosby connected on 25 of 29 field goals (86.2 pct.), including a 96.0 percentage (24 of 25) on kicks from inside 50 yards that ranked No. 5 in the NFL (min. 10 att.). The Packers finished the season ranked No. 22 in Gosselin's special teams rankings, a 10-spot improvement from their No. 32 ranking in 2021.

After being named interim head coach by Las Vegas on Oct. 11, 2021, Bisaccia guided the team to a 7-5 finish as the Raiders posted a 10-7 mark and made their first postseason appearance since 2016. Las Vegas ended the regular season with four straight wins, including a 35-32 overtime victory in Week 18 vs. the Los Angeles Chargers to secure a playoff berth. Bisaccia received votes for both the NFL Coach of the Year and the NFL Assistant Coach of the Year in 2021 from AP.

P AJ Cole led the league with an average of 50.0 yards per punt in 2021 and ranked No. 5 in the league with a net average of 42.5 yards, earning first-team AP All-Pro recognition and his first Pro Bowl selection. K Daniel Carlson set a single-season franchise record with 150 points (tied for No. 1 in the NFL), including a team-record 40 field goals, tied for the second most in a season in NFL history. Carlson earned second-team AP All-Pro honors and was named the AFC Special Teams Player of the Week in Weeks 2, 12, 17 and 18, the first NFL kicker to earn the honor four times in a season.

Under Bisaccia's direction in 2020, Carlson set a single-season team record for FG percentage by posting a 94.3 mark (33 of 35) on his way to scoring 144 points, tied for No. 1 in the NFL on the season. WR Hunter Renfrow ranked No. 2 in the league with an average of 11.5 yards per punt return, while DE Maxx Crosby earned AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors in the season finale when he blocked two field goals to preserve the win. Crosby's two blocked kicks were tied for the most in a single game by an NFL player since at least 2000 as he joined DT Richard Seymour (2011) as the only Raiders since 2000 to block two kicks in a game.

Bisaccia tutored Cole in 2019 as he set team rookie records for punting average (46.0), net punting average (39.4) and punts inside the 20 (33, No. 5 in the NFL). The Raiders were No. 8 in the NFL in opponent kickoff return average (20.9) after ranking No. 22 in the league in the category in 2018. In Bisaccia's first year with the club in 2018, WR Dwayne Harris ranked No. 2 in the league with a 14.1-yard average on punt returns, highlighted by a franchise-record 99-yard TD return vs. Denver in Week 16.

In Bisaccia's five seasons with the Cowboys (2013-17), he guided a unit that ranked No. 5 in the NFL over that span in kickoff return average (24.2), highlighted by a No. 3 ranking in 2017 (24.8 avg.) and a No. 4 ranking in 2013 (25.5 avg.) after ranking No. 29 in the league in the category in 2012. Bisaccia's unit pinned opponents inside the 20-yard line a league-high 34 times in 2017, the second most in a season in team history, and the Cowboys also led the league in yards allowed on punt returns with just 75, the third fewest in team history.

In 2015, K Dan Bailey tied for the league lead in FG percentage (30 of 32, 93.8 percent) on his way to earning his first career Pro Bowl selection, and in 2014, Bisaccia tutored Louis-Philippe Ladouceur as he became the first long snapper in team history to earn Pro Bowl recognition. In Bisaccia's first year with the Cowboys in 2013, Harris ranked No. 2 in the NFL with a 30.6-yard average on kickoff returns and No. 3 with a 12.8-yard average on punt returns, while Bailey connected on 28 of 30 field goals (93.3 pct.) and set a single-season franchise record for the most field goals of 50-plus yards with six.

Before joining the Cowboys, Bisaccia spent two seasons with the San Diego Chargers, serving as the special teams coordinator in 2011 before adding assistant head coach to his duties in 2012. He guided the team to a No. 10 ranking in net punting average (39.7) in '11 after the Chargers finished last in the league in 2010 (28.3 avg.). P Mike Scifres ranked No. 6 in the NFL in punting average (47.5) in 2011, while WR Richard Goodman ranked No. 4 in the league with an average of 27.5 yards per kickoff return, the No. 2 mark in team history. In 2012, Scifres set a single-season franchise record for punting average (48.3), checking in at No. 3 in the NFL in the category.

Bisaccia entered the NFL coaching ranks in 2002 as special teams coordinator for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, where he would coach for nine seasons (2002-10). He served as the special teams coordinator from 2002-07 before adding the responsibility of assistant head coach and running backs coach in 2008. Bisaccia served as the associate head coach/special teams coordinator in 2009-10. During his nine seasons with the Buccaneers, he guided his units to top-10 rankings over that span in kickoff return average (No. 4, 23.0), opponent kickoff return average (No. 6, 21.0), fewest kickoff/punt returns surrendered for TDs (t-No. 4, five), punts placed inside the 20 (No. 7, 229) and opponent field goals blocked (t-No. 1, 12).

In 2009, the Buccaneers led the NFL in kickoff return average (26.3) and ranked No. 2 in opponent kickoff return average (19.1). Tampa Bay led the league with six blocked kicks on the season, the second-best single-season total in franchise history. The 2008 campaign was highlighted by rookie Clifton Smith, who became the first Buccaneer to be selected to the Pro Bowl as a kick returner and also earned second-team APAll-Pro honors after ranking in the top five in the NFL in both punt return average (No. 2, 14.1) and kickoff return average (27.6).

In 2006, Bisaccia helped the Buccaneers rank No. 1 in the NFL in opponent kickoff return average (18.4) and guided LS Dave Moore to his first career Pro Bowl selection. In 2005, Josh Bidwell became the first punter in team history to earn Pro Bowl honors and earned second-team All-Pro recognition after ranking No. 3 in the NFL in punting average (45.6).

In his first season with the Buccaneers in 2002, Bisaccia was part of a staff that guided the franchise to its first Super Bowl title. K Martin Gramatica was tied for the NFL lead with 32 FGs, connecting on 5 of 6 from 50-plus yards. Tampa Bay ranked No. 4 in the league in kickoff return average (24.1) and No. 6 in average opponent starting field position after kickoffs (26.7), highlighted by 18 drives started inside the 20 (tied for No. 2).

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Bisaccia spent 19 seasons coaching at the collegiate level. From 1999-2001, he coached at Mississippi, serving as the running backs coach and special teams coordinator with assistant head coach duties for his final two seasons. He tutored RB Deuce McAllister, who earned All-Southeastern Conference honors in 1999 and 2000 before being selected in the first round of the 2001 NFL Draft by the New Orleans Saints. Bisaccia spent five seasons (1994-98) as the running backs coach, special teams coordinator and recruiting coordinator at Clemson. Under his guidance, the Tigers set a single-season school record with eight blocked kicks in 1997 and blocked 15 kicks from 1995-97, the most in school annals over a three-season span.

Prior to Clemson, Bisaccia spent six seasons (1988-93) at South Carolina, beginning as a graduate assistant for tight ends and wide receivers in 1988. He then served as a volunteer assistant for three seasons, first working with defensive ends and special teams (1989-90), followed by tight ends and special teams (1991). Bisaccia served as the running backs coach/special teams coordinator in 1992-93. He began his coaching career in 1983 at Wayne State in Nebraska, coaching defensive backs and special teams, and then tutored quarterbacks and wide receivers for the Wildcats from 1984-87.

Bisaccia was a four-year starter (1979-82) at defensive back for Yankton (S.D.) College, serving as a team captain in 1982 and twice earning All-South Dakota Intercollegiate Conference honors (1981-82). He signed as a free agent in 1983 with the Philadelphia Stars of the USFL.

Bisaccia was born June 3, 1960, in Yonkers, N.Y., and attended New Fairfield (Conn.) High School. He and his wife, Jeanne, have three daughters, Michele, Elizabeth and Maddie, a son, Richie, and five grandchildren, Joel, AnnaJean, Cash, Everett and Ace.

PACKERS HAVE DEMONSTRABLE ECONOMIC IMPACT ON THE COMMUNITY

The Packers are the only franchise in professional sports to be owned and sustained by their fans; the steadfast, unwavering support of the community has been fundamental to the Packers' success over the last century. In the same vein, it's clear the Packers have a quantifiable and tangible economic impact on the Greater Green Bay community, from tourism and taxes to job creation and wage generation.

A 2009 economic impact study commissioned by the Green Bay/Brown County Professional Football Stadium District demonstrated the effects of the Packers on the local economy. The study found that the total economic impact of the Packers and the renovated Lambeau Field on the community was an estimated $281.5 million in 2009, which included the Packers' 10 home preseason and regular-season games that year ($12.3 million each of those weekends). The South End, which opened in 2013, included the addition of approximately 7,000 new seats and now generates a spending impact of approximately $11 million each year. Including the expansion, today's estimated annual economic impact is in excess of $300 million.

Additionally, the Titledown development adjacent to Lambeau Field has helped generate further entertainment and tourism spending, as well as job creation, an economic impact that is expected to grow in future years as the development continues to expand.

JOE BARRY

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

22nd NFL Season > Third Packers Season

Entering his 22nd season coaching in the NFL, Joe Barry begins his third year with the Packers in 2023 as the team's defensive coordinator.

Named to his position on Feb. 8, 2021, by Head Coach Matt LaFleur, Barry came to Green Bay after spending the previous four seasons with the Los Angeles Rams (2017-20) as assistant head coach/linebackers. He spent two years (2007-08) with Detroit and two seasons with Washington (2015-16) as a defensive coordinator.

In his first two seasons (2021-22) with Green Bay, Barry has helped the Packers rank in the top 10 in the NFL in interceptions (t-No. 4, 35), takeaways (t-No. 6, 50), defensive penalties (No. 6, 62), passing defense (No. 7, 208.0 ypg) and opponent passer rating (No. 9, 87.6). Green Bay's 50 takeaways in 2021-22 were its most over a two-season span since 2011-12 (61).

In 2022, Barry guided Green Bay to a No. 6 league ranking in passing defense (197.0 ypg), the fewest allowed by the Packers since 2010 (194.2 ypg). Green Bay was tied for No. 4 in the league with 17 INTs, with 16 of them coming in Weeks 7-18, the most in the NFL over that span. The Packers gave up 28 points or less in 16 of 17 games, tied for the most in the league in '22.

In his first season with Green Bay, Barry helped the Packers rank in the top 10 in the league in total defense (No. 9, 328.2 ypg), passing defense (No. 10, 219.1 ypg), INTs (t-No. 6, 18) and takeaways (t-No. 8, 26) despite playing without a pair of 2020 second-team All-Pro selections for much of the season in LB Za'Darius Smith (one game played) and CB Jaire Alexander (four games played). The 328.2 yards allowed per game were the fewest by Green Bay since 2010 (309.1 ypg) and the 26 takeaways were the most recorded by the Packers since 2014 (27).

During his four seasons with the Rams, Barry was a part of a defensive staff that helped the team rank No. 2 in the NFL over that span in sacks (192), tied for No. 2 in takeaways (104) and INTs (63), No. 7 in overall defense (329.9 ypg) and No. 9 in scoring defense (21.5 ppg), one of only three teams in the league (New Orleans, Pittsburgh) to finish in the top 10 in all five categories. Barry's linebackers accounted for 91 sacks from 2017-20, No. 7 in the NFL over that span, as well as 12 INTs (tied for No. 6) and 26 forced fumbles (No. 7).

The 2020 season saw the Rams lead the league in both scoring defense (18.5 ppg) and overall defense (281.9 ypg), the first time in franchise history that the team led the NFL in both categories. Los Angeles also led the NFL in pass defense (190.7 ypg) for the first time in team annals and ranked No. 2 in the NFL with 53 sacks. Under Barry's tutelage, LB Leonard Floyd posted a career-high 10½ sacks in his first season with the Rams after recording 11½ sacks in his previous three seasons (2017-19) with Chicago. Floyd also ranked No. 2 on the team in both QB hits (career-high 19) and tackles for a loss (career-best 11).

Under Barry's guidance in 2019, LB Cory Littleton led the team and ranked No. 8 in the NFL with a career-high 134 tackles (78 solo) while also posting 3½ sacks, two forced fumbles, nine passes defended and two INTs. Littleton's 22 passes defended from 2018-19 led all NFL linebackers and was the best two-year total since Panthers LB Luke Kuechly registered 22 from 2014-15.

Barry helped Littleton to a career year in his first season as a starter in 2018 as he registered a team-high 125 tackles (career-high 90 solo), a career-best four sacks, a career-high three INTs and 13 passes defended, the most by an NFL linebacker in 2018 and the most by a Rams LB since Sportradar

In Barry's first season with the Rams in 2017, his linebackers helped the team to top-five rankings in both takeaways (28, No. 5) and sacks (48, No. 4), including five INTs from the linebackers (tied for No. 1 in the NFL). LBs Alec Ogletree (team-high 128) and Mark Barron (108) both registered 100-plus tackles, with Barron tying for the league lead among LBs with a career-high three INTs and Ogletree ranking tied for No. 2 among LBs with 10 passes defended.

From 2015-16, Barry served as the defensive coordinator for the Washington Redskins, where he helped the club rank No. 3 in the NFL over that span in forced fumbles (39), tied for No. 10 in sacks (76) and tied for No. 11 in takeaways (48). In 2016, Barry's defense was tied for No. 9 in the NFL with 38 sacks, with LB Ryan Kerrigan ranking No. 8 in the NFL with 11 sacks and LB Trent Murphy adding a career-high nine sacks, the first time since 2009 that Washington had two players register nine-plus sacks in the same season.

In Barry's first season with Washington, the team was tied for the league lead in both forced fumbles (22) and opponent fumble recoveries (15). Washington was tied for No. 8 in the NFL in 2015 with 27 takeaways, including 26 in the final 14 weeks of the season, tied for No. 3 in the league over that span. Barry's defense ranked No. 17 in scoring defense (23.7 ppg) after Washington was tied for No. 29 in the category in 2014 (27.4 ppg).

Before joining Washington in 2015, Barry spent the previous three seasons (2012-14) coaching linebackers for the San Diego Chargers, where he was a part of a staff that helped the team to No. 9 rankings in overall defense in both 2012 and 2014. In Barry's first season, the Chargers registered 38 sacks (tied for No. 11 in the NFL), 21 of which were tallied by the team's linebackers, including a team-best 9½ from Shaun Phillips. Demorrio Williams posted two INT returns for TDs in '14, the first San Diego LB to do so in a season since 1979.

Barry spent the 2010-11 seasons as linebackers coach at USC, his second stint coaching at his alma mater. He tutored LB Malcolm Smith in 2010, a seventh-round pick of Seattle in 2011 who would go on to be named MVP of Super Bowl XLVIII with the Seahawks. Barry came to USC after one season as linebackers coach with Tampa Bay in 2009, his second stint with the Buccaneers.

From 2007-08, Barry served as the defensive coordinator for the Detroit Lions, where he helped the team rank No. 1 in the league over that span in opponent fumbles recovered (34) and tied for No. 1 in forced fumbles (47). The Lions were tied for No. 3 in the NFL with 35 takeaways in 2007, the most posted by Detroit from 2001-22, and registered 37 sacks, tied for No. 9 in the league.

Barry came to Detroit after coaching the linebackers in Tampa Bay for six seasons (2001-06), a stretch that saw the Buccaneers lead the league in passing defense (177.2 ypg) and rank No. 2 in scoring defense (17.4 ppg), overall defense (285.7) and interceptions (123) over that span. He was part of a staff that helped Tampa Bay's defense to top-10 rankings in five consecutive seasons (2001-05), one of only two teams to do so over that span (Pittsburgh), including No. 1 overall finishes in both 2002 and 2005.

Barry tutored Hall of Fame LB Derrick Brooks, helping him earn first-team AP All-Pro honors three times (2002, 2004-05), Pro Bowl recognition in all six of those seasons and a spot on the NFL's All-Decade Team for the 2000s. Brooks was named the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year in 2002, the same season that Tampa Bay won its first Super Bowl title, and posted 170 tackles (117 solo) and a career-high five INTs. Brooks racked up 218 return yards on those INTs in '02, the most by a linebacker in a season in NFL history, and he became the only LB in league history to return three INTs for TDs in a season. LB Shelton Quarles also earned the lone Pro Bowl selection of his career under Barry's tutelage in 2002 after ranking No. 2 on the team with 159 tackles (84 solo) along with a career-high two INTs.

Barry's first NFL coaching position came in 2000 when he served as a defensive quality control coach for the San Francisco 49ers. He spent the previous five seasons in the collegiate coaching ranks, serving as the linebackers coach at UNLV (1999), the linebackers/defensive ends coach at Northern Arizona (1996-98) and as a graduate assistant/defensive line at USC in 1995.

Barry played linebacker at the University of Michigan from 1989-90 before transferring to USC and earning two letters for the Trojans in 1992-93. His father, Mike, coached 28 seasons at the collegiate level, two seasons in the USFL and three seasons with the Detroit Lions (2006-08). Barry's father-in-law, Rod Marinelli, retired in February 2022 after coaching 26 years in the NFL.

Barry was born July 5, 1970, in Murphysboro, Ill. He and his wife, Chris, have two daughters, Camryn and Lauren, and twin sons, Nick and Sam.

EARNING THE HONOR

While the Packers achieved the ultimate team success on the field in 2010, winning the franchise's 13th world championship and fourth Super Bowl, there were also a number of individual accolades that accompanied the collective accomplishment.

When the initial voting for the Pro Bowl was released, five Green Bay players (T Chad Clifton, S Nick Collins, WR Greg Jennings, LB Clay Matthews and CB Charles Woodson) were named to the NFC's all-star team. Following the addition of three alternates (WR Donald Driver, LB A.J. Hawk and CB Tramon Williams), the Packers' list grew to eight players. The eight selections were tied for the third most in team history and were the largest representation the organization had on the Pro Bowl roster since it sent nine in 1967.

Fortunately, though, none of the Packers' selections ever appeared in the game (played Jan. 30, 2011), as they were preoccupied with preparations for the upcoming Super Bowl XLV on Feb. 6.

A look at the most-represented Packers teams in terms of Pro Bowl selections since the game's inception following the 1938 season. The Packers played as a team in the 1939 game and therefore that year isn't included.

CHRIS GIZZI

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COORDINATOR

10th Season as NFL Coach > 10th Packers Season

Chris Gizzi enters his 10th season on Green Bay's coaching staff in 2023 and his fifth as strength and conditioning coordinator, having been promoted to the position on Feb. 18, 2019, by Head Coach Matt LaFleur.

Originally hired by the Packers on Feb. 7, 2014, Gizzi spent five seasons with the organization (2014-18) as a strength and conditioning assistant. Prior to coming to Green Bay, he spent the 2013 season as an assistant football strength and conditioning coach for the University of North Carolina. Before joining the Tar Heels at the start of the college football season, Gizzi served as a strength and conditioning intern with the Packers during the 2013 offseason and training camp. His first coaching experience came in 1998 when he served as a graduate assistant defensive coach at the Air Force Academy. He also served as a defensive quality control coach at Air Force in 1999.

Green Bay had 26 players play in all 17 games in 2022, tied for No. 3 in the NFL behind only Jacksonville (30) and Philadelphia (27). In his first season as strength and conditioning coordinator, the Packers had 28 players appear in all 16 regular-season games, the most in the NFL in 2019. For Green Bay, it tied the top mark posted by the team from 2000-19, matching the number of players to play in all 16 games in 2000 and 2014.

As a player, Gizzi entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent with the Denver Broncos in 1998. A 1997 graduate of the Air Force Academy, the linebacker participated in the Broncos' offseason program in '98 and '99, but spent both seasons on the reserve/military list while honoring his commitment to the United States military.

Upon completing his military duty in 2000, Gizzi returned to the Broncos and played in all four preseason contests before he was released by the team in the final roster reduction. Gizzi was acquired by the Packers off waivers on the eve of the 2000 regular season and spent time on both the 53-man roster and the practice squad during his first season with the club. The first-year linebacker played in 11 games and ranked No. 5 on the club with eight special teams tackles.

Gizzi returned to the Packers in 2001 and appeared in 12 games, making the first and only start of his career in Week 3 at Carolina. He tallied four tackles (three solo) in the 28-7 win over the Panthers and finished the season with nine tackles (six solo) before he was placed on injured reserve in Week 15.

A two-year starter and three-time letterwinner (1994, 1996-97) at Air Force, Gizzi played in 38 games for the Falcons, finishing his career with 342 tackles (155 solo), 36 tackles for a loss and 10 sacks. The standout defender earned back-to-back Western Athletic Conference Defensive Player of the Year awards in 1996-97, becoming only the second player in the Academy's

The 48-year-old Gizzi holds a B.S. in psychology from Air Force, an M.S. in human performance and injury prevention from California University (Pa.) and a doctorate from A.T. Still University. Gizzi is also certified as a sports performance coach by USA Weightlifting, a certified strength and conditioning specialist by the National Strength and Conditioning Association and a performance-enhancement and corrective-exercise specialist by the National Academy of Sports Medicine.

Gizzi was born March 8, 1975, in Cleveland, Ohio, and currently resides in Green Bay. He and his wife, Jennifer, have two daughters, Alice, 12, and Abigail, 8, and two sons, A.J., 10, and Atticus, 6.

TITLETOWN: GREEN BAY, WIS.

On Dec. 6, 1961, three days after the Packers clinched the Western Conference title and were assured of playing host to the NFL Championship Game in Green Bay for the first time, civic leaders adopted the nickname "Titletown, U.S.A."

Some 110 men and women from all walks of civic and business life in Green Bay agreed to the idea – the brainchild of Jack Yuenger, the Green Bay Press-Gazette's advertising manager at the time – during a breakfast at the old downtown Beaumont Hotel. Festivities were to start following the Packers' final regular-season game in Los Angeles on Dec. 17.

The group made plans to hang Titletown banners and signs in the downtown area; held a number of events, including a Christmas party for the Packers on Dec. 23 at the Brown County Veterans Memorial Arena; and wrote a song, "Titletown, U.S.A.," to the tune of "Mr. Touchdown."

The community enthusiastically greeted the idea to the point where it still uses the nickname, and the Packers did their part on Dec. 31 by beating the Giants, 37-0, in the first postseason game ever played at what is now Lambeau Field.

ADAM STENAVICH

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Seventh Season as NFL Coach > Fifth Packers Season

being promoted on Jan. 31, 2022.

Stenavich (STEN-uh-vitch) originally joined the team as offensive line coach on Jan. 24, 2019, and then was promoted to offensive line/run game coordinator by Head Coach Matt LaFleur on March 1, 2021. Stenavich came to Green Bay after spending two seasons as the assistant offensive line coach for the San Francisco 49ers (2017-2018). Prior to that, he spent six years in the college ranks, including stints as the offensive line coach at San Jose State (2015-16) and Northern Arizona (2014).

Since joining Green Bay's staff in 2019, Stenavich has helped the Packers rank No. 1 in the NFL over that span in giveaways (59), No. 2 in time of possession (32:00), tied for No. 3 in sacks allowed (122), and No. 7 in scoring (25.8 ppg). In his first season as offensive coordinator in 2022, he helped guide the Packers to a No. 7 ranking in the NFL in sacks allowed (32), including just 17 in Weeks 7-18, which was tied for the third fewest in the league over that span. Green Bay ranked No. 5 in the NFL in time of possession (31:23), its fourth straight season finishing in the top five in the category. RB Aaron Jones led the team with a career-high 1,121 rushing yards in 2022 and ranked No. 2 in the league among RBs with an average of 5.26 yards per carry.

Despite being without five-time All-Pro T David Bakhtiari (knee) for all but one game in 2021, Stenavich's line helped Green Bay rank in the top 10 in the league in passing offense (No. 8, 253.8 ppg), total offense (No. 10, 365.6 ppg), scoring (No. 10, 26.5 ppg), giveaways (t-No. 1, 13) and time of possession (No. 1, 32:43). The Packers allowed one or fewer sacks in seven games on the season, tied for No. 8 in the NFL, despite using seven different starting combinations on the line due to injuries. The line protected QB Aaron Rodgers as he threw 38 TD passes with just four INTs for a league-leading 111.9 passer rating on his way to being named the NFL's Most Valuable Player by The Associated Press for the second straight season.

In 2020, Stenavich coached a line that helped the Packers rank No. 1 in the NFL in scoring (31.9 ppg), giveaways (team-record 11) and time of possession (32:29), tied for No. 2 in sacks allowed (21), No. 5 in total offense (389.0 ypg) and No. 3 in yards per play (6.29). Green Bay allowed one sack/zero sacks in a league-high 13 games in 2020, tied for the most in a season in team history (2004), as Rodgers threw a franchise-record 48 TD passes and just five INTs for a 121.5 passer rating. The line helped pave the way for Jones to set a single-season franchise mark for yards per carry (league-best 5.49) among players with 200-plus attempts, surpassing FB Jim Taylor's mark of 5.42 yards per carry in 1962. Bakhtiari and C Corey Linsley both earned first-team AP All-Pro honors, while Bakhtiari and G/T Elgton Jenkins were both named to the Pro Bowl roster. Bakhtiari received All-Pro recognition for the fifth consecutive season, while his Pro Bowl selection marked the third of his career. Jenkins became just the third Packers offensive lineman (Charley Brock, 1940; Deral Teteak, 1952) to make the Pro Bowl within his first two seasons.

In 2019, Stenavich helped guide Bakhtiari to second-team AP All-Pro honors and his second Pro Bowl selection (first as an original selection). Stenavich's line helped the offense to a No. 2 ranking in the league in giveaways with 13 and a league-best nine zero-giveaway games. The line blocked for Jones, who led the team with 1,084 yards rushing on 236 carries (4.6 avg.), the first 1,000-yard rusher for the Packers since Eddie Lacy in 2014. Jones had a career-best 16 rushing TDs, which was tied for the most in the NFL in 2019 and was the second most in team history behind only Taylor (19 in 1962). Stenavich also tutored Jenkins, who became only the second Packers guard to be selected to the PFWA All-Rookie team since 1947 (Daryn Colledge, 2006).

In 2018, Stenavich helped coach a San Francisco offensive line that cleared the way for second-year RB Matt Breida to rush for 814 yards and three TDs on 153 carries, an average of 5.32 yards per carry that ranked No. 4 in the NFL. His rushing average was good for No. 3 in franchise history among players with 150-plus attempts in a season, trailing only FB Joe Perry (6.06 in 1954) and RB Frank Gore (5.43 in 2006). As a team, the 49ers posted 60 runs of 10-plus yards on the season, good for No. 8 in the league.

San Francisco's line also provided time for its quarterbacks to throw for 4,247 yards in 2018, the most by the club since 2000 (4,400 yards). Combined with San Francisco's 4,235 passing yards in 2017, it marked the first time that the 49ers registered back-to-back 4,200-yard passing seasons since 1993-95. The line helped protect QB Nick Mullens in '18, who threw for 2,277 yards in his first eight career games (Weeks 9-10, 12-17), the fourth most in the league by a quarterback since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger. Despite losing starting QB Jimmy Garoppolo to a season-ending knee injury in Week 3, the 49ers would go on to rank No. 13 in the league in rushing offense and No. 15 in passing offense, one of only eight NFL teams to finish in the top half of the league in both categories in 2018.

In his first season on San Francisco's staff in 2017, Stenavich helped tutor a line that contributed to the 49ers averaging 349.2 yards per game, good for No. 12 in the NFL, including an average of 245.3 passing yards per game (No. 9 in the league). San Francisco racked up 3,925 net passing yards, the most by the team since 2000 (4,239). The 49ers came on strong in the second half of the season, ranking No. 2 in the league with an average of 400.3 total yards per game in Weeks 10-17 as the club won six of its final seven games.

Stenavich helped coach T Joe Staley, who earned Pro Bowl recognition in 2017. Staley and the line cleared the way for the offense to register runs of 10-plus yards on 13.0 percent of its carries in '17, which ranked No. 5 in the league. RB Carlos Hyde led the team with 938 yards and eight TDs on 240 attempts (3.9 avg.), with Breida adding 465 yards and two TDs on 105 carries (4.4 avg.).

Prior to joining the 49ers, Stenavich spent two seasons (2015-16) coaching the offensive line at San Jose State. In 2015, his line helped clear the way for the offense to rush for 2,378 yards and 24 TDs with 2,882 passing yards and 21 TDs to become just the second team in school history to register 2,000-plus rushing yards/20-plus rushing TDs and 2,000-plus passing yards/20-plus passing TDs in a season (1976). T Wes Schweitzer earned second-team All-Mountain West Conference honors and was selected by the Atlanta Falcons in the sixth round (No. 195 overall) of the 2016 NFL Draft. Another one of Stenavich's linemen, T Nate Velichko, earned honorable mention All-Mountain West recognition in '15 after spending the previous season at right guard.

Stenavich joined San Jose State after spending the 2014 season as the offensive line coach at Northern Arizona. His line helped the Lumberjacks rank No. 16 in the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) in passing offense (272.5 ypg) and No. 34 in total offense (419.5 ypg). NAU's line cleared the way for three different backs to register 100-yard rushing games on the season, with a pair of linemen earning All-Big Sky Conference honors (T Joe Gurski, second team; G Eric Rodriguez, third team).

Stenavich began his coaching career in 2011 at his alma mater, the University of Michigan, as a strength and conditioning intern. He then served as an offensive graduate assistant for the Wolverines for two seasons (2012-13). A left tackle at Michigan (2002-05), Stenavich earned first-team All-Big Ten honors in both of his final two seasons, also taking home the Hugh R. Rader Jr. Award as Michigan's top offensive lineman as a senior in 2005.

Following his collegiate career, Stenavich signed with the Carolina Panthers as an undrafted free agent in May 2006, but was released by the team in the final roster reduction. He was signed to Green Bay's practice squad in November 2006 and spent the final six weeks of the season with the Packers. In the spring of 2007, he was allocated to the Amsterdam Admirals of NFL Europa by the Packers and went to training camp with Green Bay that season. Stenavich was with the Dallas Cowboys in training camp in 2008 and then was on the Houston Texans' practice squad in 2008-09.

Born March 11, 1983, in Marshfield, Wis., Stenavich earned first-team all-state honors as a senior at Marshfield High School. He and his wife, Katie, have two daughters, Hadley and Maggie, and two sons, Tim and Joseph.

JERRY MONTGOMERY

DEFENSIVE LINE/RUNNING GAME COORDINATOR

Ninth NFL Season > Ninth Packers Season

Jerry Montgomery begins his ninth season with the Packers in 2023 and second as defensive line/running game coordinator after being promoted on March 17, 2022. Prior to his promotion, he spent four seasons (2018-21) as defensive line coach and three seasons (2015-17) as defensive front assistant for the Packers. Montgomery joined the Packers after coaching at the collegiate level for 11 seasons and at the high-school level for two seasons. He has been a part of 11 teams as either a player or coach that have earned postseason berths.

In 2022, Montgomery was part of a staff that helped Green Bay rank No. 6 in the NFL in passing defense (197.0 ypg) and tied for No. 4 in interceptions (17). The Packers defense also finished the 2022 season ranked No. 5 in the NFL in goal-to-go percentage (63.64), No. 8 in third-down percentage (37.63) and No. 10 in first downs/game (18.9).

In 2021, Montgomery was part of a defensive staff that helped the Packers finish in the top 10 in the NFL in total defense (328.2 ypg, No. 9), passing defense (219.1 ypg, No. 10), takeaways (26, t-No. 8) and interceptions (18, t-No. 6).

Under Montgomery's guidance, DL Kenny Clark has become one of the NFL's best interior defenders. Clark earned his second Pro Bowl selection in 2021 (2019), joining Henry Jordan (1960-61, 1963, 1966) and Dave Hanner (1953-54) as the only Packers defensive tackles to make multiple Pro Bowls.

In 2019, Clark earned his first career Pro Bowl nod and matched his career high (2018) with six sacks. Additionally, according to NFL Next Gen Stats, Clark's 49 QB pressures ranked No. 2 in the NFL in '19 among players who played at least 75 percent of their snaps on the interior defensive line, trailing only Rams DT Aaron Donald (69). Clark also ranked No. 2 on the team with a career-high 89 tackles (52 solo), including 11 tackles for a loss (tied career high).

In 2018, the line contributed to a defense that tied for No. 8 in the NFL with 44 sacks, the most by the Packers since they posted the same number in 2013. In his third season as a pro, Clark was No. 2 on the team with a career-high six sacks despite missing three games due to injury. Named a Pro Bowl alternate, Clark posted a career-best 11 tackles for a loss and led the line with 73 tackles (46 solo).

Montgomery's third season in Green Bay in 2017 saw him help guide DT Mike Daniels, who earned his first Pro Bowl selection while ranking No. 4 on the team with five sacks to go along with a career-high 72 tackles. Clark led the defensive line with 78 tackles, and his 4½ sacks in December were the second most in the NFL among DTs.

Montgomery spent two seasons (2013-14) as the defensive line coach at Oklahoma, where he also played a big role in recruiting, being named Scout.com's Big 12 Recruiter of the Year after the 2014 season. After joining the Oklahoma staff on Feb. 25, 2013, he helped revamp the Sooners' defensive line with young players that included Charles Tapper, a 2013 All-Big 12 first-team selection by the conference's coaches. In his first season, OU led the Big 12 and ranked No. 10 in the nation in opponent third-down conversions (60). The Sooners also led the Big 12 in total defense (350.2 ypg) and pass defense (212.5 ypg) and ranked second in turnover margin (plus-9), run defense (137.6 ypg) and opponent third-down percentage (33.7).

In his two years at Michigan, the Wolverines posted a 19-7 record and limited opponents to 18.6 points per game, and two of Montgomery's linemen, Mike Martin and Craig Roh, earned second-team All-Big Ten honors. In 2012, the Wolverines earned a berth in the Capital One Bowl and ranked No.

13 among FBS schools in total defense (320.0 ypg). In 2011, Michigan allowed 131.7 rushing yards per game, third best in the Big Ten, and finished 11-2 with a victory in the Sugar Bowl.

Montgomery helped produce three All-Mountain West Conference linemen in two years at Wyoming. In his first season, he guided John Fletcher to an All-MWC first-team selection and Mitch Unrein to All-MWC honorable mention and selection as the 2009 New Mexico Bowl Defensive MVP. In Montgomery's second season, Josh Biezuns earned second-team All-MWC honors.

Montgomery's tenure at Northern Iowa began as a graduate assistant/defensive tackles coach in 2006 and finished with two years (2007-08) as the defensive line coach. The Panthers advanced to the FCS playoffs all three seasons, won the 2008 Missouri Valley Football Conference title and finished with 12 wins in both 2007 and 2008. UNI ranked in the top 10 in total defense among FCS teams in both 2007 and 2008.

In two years as defensive line coach at UNI, Montgomery had three all-conference selections both seasons: James Ruffin (first-team All-Gateway and first-team All-MVFC), Mark Huygens (second-team All-Gateway), Jordan Lacy (honorable mention All-Gateway), Everett Pedscleaux (first-team All-MVFC) and Jeremy Robertson (second-team All-MVFC).

Montgomery began his coaching career as a student assistant at Iowa. He was part of a Hawkeye staff that helped Iowa post an 11-2 record and play in the 2003 Orange Bowl. Montgomery continued coaching as an assistant at Iowa City West High School (2003-04) and as the defensive coordinator at North Iowa Community College (2005) while also playing for the Chicago Rush, Colorado Crush and Las Vegas Gladiators of the Arena Football League (2003-05).

Montgomery played defensive tackle for Iowa, starting three of his four years for the Hawkeyes. As a senior in 2001, he helped Iowa tie for a fourth-place finish in the Big Ten, its highest since 1996, and beat Texas Tech in the Alamo Bowl. He played in the Hula Bowl All-Star Game following his senior season and spent the 2002 training camp with the New Orleans Saints.

Montgomery was born Sept. 19, 1979, in Los Angeles, Calif., and raised in Mossville, La. He was named a Street & Smith All-American two straight years at Virgin Valley High School (Mesquite, Nev.) as he recorded 38 career sacks, including 16 as a senior. Montgomery was named the Nevada Player of the Year in 1997 and was also a member of the state-champion basketball team as a junior.

Montgomery and his wife, Natalie, have three sons, Jayden, Teyvn and Jace, and two daughters, Talayla and Havana.

PACKERS AMONG THE BEST IN THE POSTSEASON

Highlighted by 21 playoff appearances in the last 29 seasons (second only to New England's 22 trips for the most in the league over that span), including three trips to the Super Bowl, the Packers own the third-best postseason winning percentage in National Football League history. They have won 36 of 61 playoff games, starting with their first-ever postseason contest – the 1936 NFL Championship Game, a 21-6 victory over the Boston Redskins. The standings:

JASON VRABLE

WIDE RECEIVERS/PASSING GAME COORDINATOR

11th NFL Season > Fifth Packers Season

Jason Vrable begins his fifth season with the Packers and his second season as wide receivers/passing game coordinator after being promoted on Feb. 1, 2022.

Vrable spent two seasons as wide receivers coach after being promoted on March 12, 2020. Originally hired as an offensive assistant by Head Coach Matt LaFleur on Feb. 1, 2019, Vrable assisted with the wide receivers during the 2019 season. He will begin his 11th season as an NFL coach, having six years of experience prior to joining the Packers.

In 2022, Vrable helped WR Allen Lazard set career highs in receptions (60) and receiving yards (788). Vrable also worked with rookie WR Christian Watson, who posted a team-high seven TD catches, good for No. 3 in team history among rookies behind Billy Howton (13 in 1952) and Max McGee (nine in 1954). Watson became only the third player in franchise history to post seven-plus receiving TDs and multiple rushing TDs in a season, joining Don Hutson (1941) and Johnny "Blood" McNally (1931). Vrable also tutored WR Romeo Doubs (42, three), who teamed with Watson (41, seven) to become only the third rookie duo in NFL history to each have 40-plus receptions and three-plus receiving TDs.

In 2021, Vrable helped WR Davante Adams set single-season franchise records for receptions (123) and receiving yards (1,553) on his way to earning unanimous first-team All-Pro honors from The Associated Press, the first Green Bay WR to earn first-team honors in back-to-back years since Sterling Sharpe (1992-93). Adams added a team-high 11 TD catches, becoming the first player in league history to record three seasons (2018, 2020-21) with 110-plus catches, 1,350-plus receiving yards and 11-plus receiving TDs. He earned Pro Bowl honors for the fifth consecutive season as he joined James Lofton (1980-85) as the only WRs in team history to be named to the Pro Bowl in five-plus consecutive seasons. Vrable also tutored Lazard, who posted 40 catches for 513 yards (12.8 avg.) and a career-high eight TDs, with all eight of his TD catches coming in Weeks 6-18 (tied for No. 5 in the NFL over that span).

Under Vrable's direction in 2020, Adams matched Sharpe's single-season team record (1994) for receiving TDs with 18 and became the first player in NFL history to register 100-plus receptions (115) and 18-plus receiving TDs in a single season. Adams led the NFL in receiving TDs, receiving yards per game (98.1) and receptions per game (8.2), becoming the first NFL player to lead the league in all three categories since Sharpe in 1992. Vrable also coached WR Marquez Valdes-Scantling, who led the NFL in yards per reception (20.9), the top mark in the NFL from 2011-20 among players with 32-plus receptions in a season.

While assisting with the wide receivers in 2019, Vrable worked with Adams, who ranked No. 5 in the NFL in receiving yards per game (83.1) and No. 4 in receptions per game (6.9) on his way to earning Pro Bowl honors for the third straight season. Adams led the team with 83 catches for 997 yards (12.0 avg.) and was tied for the team lead with five receiving TDs despite missing four games due to injury. Vrable also assisted in the development of Lazard in his first season, who posted 35 receptions for 477 yards (13.6 avg.) and three TDs, with all of his catches coming in the final 11 contests.

Vrable arrived in Green Bay after serving two seasons (2017-18) as an offensive assistant for the N.Y. Jets. With the Jets, he worked with WR Robby Anderson, one of only nine WRs in the NFL to register 50-plus catches, 750-plus receiving yards and six-plus receiving TDs in both 2017 and 2018, highlighted by career highs in 2017 (63 catches for 941 yards and seven TDs). Vrable also worked with veteran WR Jermaine Kearse, who posted a team-high 65 receptions for 810 yards (12.5 avg.) in 2017, both career highs, as he and Anderson formed one of only three WR duos in the NFL to both post 60-plus receptions and 800-plus receiving yards in 2017.

Prior to his time with New York, Vrable spent four years with the Buffalo Bills, working as an offensive quality control coach from 2013-15 and then as an assistant quarterback coach in 2016. He also assumed the role of interim running backs coach following Anthony Lynn's promotion to offensive coordinator in Week 3 of the 2016 season. For the final 15 weeks of the season, Vrable helped RBs Mike Gillislee (5.71) and LeSean McCoy (5.67) rank No. 1 and No. 2 in the league in yards per carry, respectively, among all qualifying NFL runners. The duo also accounted for 23 total TDs on the season as the Bills ranked No. 1 in the league in rushing offense (164.4 ypg), the team's best rushing average since 1976 (183.3 ypg). Vrable also helped QB Tyrod Taylor earn his second consecutive Pro Bowl selection in 2016 after completing a career-high 269 passes on 436 attempts (61.7 pct.) for 3,023 yards and 17 TDs.

Before entering the NFL coaching ranks, Vrable coached at the college level for six years. From 2011-12, he worked at the University of Charleston as the school's offensive coordinator/quarterbacks/running backs coach. Notably, he led a Golden Eagle offense that led the West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference in total offense (392.4 ypg) and rushing offense (246.1 ypg) in 2012.

From 2009-10, Vrable worked for Syracuse University as an offensive quality control/assistant to the wide receivers coach (2009) and graduate assistant/assistant to the quarterbacks coach (2010). Vrable helped mentor QB Ryan Nassib, who set the Syracuse single-season record with 202 completions in 2010 and led the Orange to an 8-5 record, including a victory over Kansas State in the inaugural Pinstripe Bowl at Yankee Stadium.

In 2008, Vrable coached quarterbacks at Robert Morris University (Moon, Pa.). In the fall of 2007, he returned to his alma mater, Marietta (Ohio) College, to coach quarterbacks after beginning his coaching career as a strength intern at the University of South Florida in the summer of 2007.

Vrable played QB at Marietta from 2003-06, finishing his career ranked No. 1 in school history in passing yards (6,102), completions (495) and TD passes (41). He was twice named the Pioneers' Most Valuable Player and served as a team captain his final two seasons, earning all-region honors as a senior. Additionally, Vrable was named Marietta's Clyde Lamb Award winner in 2007, recognizing him as the school's male scholar-athlete of the year. He was inducted into the Marietta College Athletic Hall of Fame in February 2018.

A native of South Park, Pa., Vrable graduated with a bachelor's degree in sports medicine in 2007 and completed a master's degree in sports management from Robert Morris University in 2009.

Born Jan. 23, 1985, Vrable lives in Green Bay with his wife, Jill, son, Drake, and daughters, Brooklyn and Teegan.

LOGO HISTORY

1950-53: In their first season after Curly Lambeau's 31-year reign, the "New Packers" introduced a logo that was also present on 1950 stock certificates. It changed colors over the four years, as the team experimented with several uniform combinations.

1954-61: Looking for a fresh look with new coach Lisle Blackbourn, the team unveiled new uniforms and a new mark. The logo located both Green Bay and Milwaukee on a Wisconsin silhouette. The passer wore No. 41.

1959-74: Sideline logo, worn on hats, shirts and jackets by coaches, equipment managers and trainers at both games and practice. Coincided with Vince Lombardi's first season, then retained by Phil Bengtson and Dan Devine.

1961-69: The primary logo during the Lombardi era, used on official Packers stationery and publications. The team won five world championships under the mark. Before the '69 season, after Lombardi's departure to Washington, team letterhead shifted to a helmet logo. The mark still saw use into the '70s, though.

1961-present: First and only helmet logo in team history was first applied to Packers headgear in 1961, Lombardi's third season as coach. After introducing the G, the team immediately won two world titles (1961-62), and five over the mark's first seven years. Borrowed by scores of high schools and colleges.

1993: Commemorative logo, worn on jerseys during '93 season, signifying the team's 75th professional season since its birth in 1919. Wearing logo, team earned first playoff berth in 11 years, kicking off string of six straight postseason trips.

2003: Patch team wore for first two home games of '03 to commemorate rededication of Lambeau Field, following three-year, $295 million renovation.

2006: Commemorative patch recognizing the 10th anniversary of the team's Super Bowl XXXI triumph over the New England Patriots.

2007: Emblem celebrating the 50th anniversary of venerable Lambeau Field, worn on home jerseys and painted in the end zones on the world-famous stadium grass.

2018-19: Logo used from 2018-19 to commemorate the Packers' 100th season as a professional franchise. The emblem was incorporated in numerous ways by the club throughout the year, notably worn as a patch on both home and away jerseys in 2018.

PASSING GAME COORDINATOR (DEFENSE)

15th Season as NFL Coach > First Packers Season

Entering his 15th season as a coach in the NFL, Greg Williams begins his first year with the Packers as the team's passing game coordinator (defense).

Named to his position on March 10, 2023, by Head Coach Matt LaFleur, Williams comes to Green Bay after spending the past four seasons as the cornerbacks coach for the Arizona Cardinals (2019-22). He also coached one season with the Denver Broncos (2018), two with the Indianapolis Colts (2016-17) and seven with the San Diego Chargers (2009-15). Williams coached five seasons at the collegiate level prior to joining the Chargers.

In 2022, Williams guided a cornerback group that helped Arizona rank No. 2 in the league in yards allowed per completion (10.10), the top single-season mark by the Cardinals since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger. Arizona allowed only 40 completions of 20-plus yards on the season, tied for No. 3 in the league. In 2021, Williams' cornerbacks helped the Cardinals rank No. 7 in the NFL in takeaways (27) and No. 8 in offensive points allowed (349).

In 2020, Williams helped the Cardinals rank No. 10 in the NFL in passing defense (226.4 ypg) as CBs Patrick Peterson and Dre Kirkpatrick both posted three interceptions. Second-year CB Byron Murphy Jr. registered two sacks and two fumble recoveries, one of only two CBs in the NFL in 2020 to register multiple sacks and multiple fumble recoveries as he became the first Cardinals CB in team history (since 1982) to accomplish that feat in a season. Williams also tutored Murphy in 2019, who started all 16 games and ranked tied for No. 3 in the league among rookies with 10 passes defended.

In his lone season with Denver in 2018, Williams helped the Broncos tie for No. 5 in the league with 17 INTs as CB Chris Harris was selected to the Pro Bowl after posting a team-best three INTs and a sack. S Justin Simmons ranked No. 2 on the team with a career-high 97 tackles (71 solo) while tying Harris for the team lead with three INTs. The Broncos held their opponents to 27 points or less in 14 games on the season, tied for the most in the NFL.

Williams spent the previous two seasons (2016-17) with the Colts, tutoring Malik Hooker in '17 as he finished tied for No. 3 among NFL rookies with three INTs despite playing in just seven games on the season. Williams also worked with veteran CB Rashaan Melvin, who posted career highs in INTs (three) and passes defended (13) in 2017.

Williams served as the assistant secondary coach for the Chargers from 2013-15, where he worked with S Eric Weddle, who was selected to the Pro Bowl in both 2013 and 2014. San Diego ranked No. 4 in the league in passing defense (214.2 ypg) and No. 9 in total defense (ypg) in 2014.

Williams served as the assistant linebackers coach for his first four seasons (2009-12) with the Chargers, including one season (2012) when he assisted current Packers defensive coordinator Joe Barry. In 2012, Williams was part of a staff that helped San Diego rank No. 9 in the NFL in total defense (326.4 ypg) and No. 6 in rushing defense (96.4 ypg). The Chargers registered 38 sacks on the season (tied for No. 11 in the NFL), with 21 of them coming from their linebackers as Shaun Phillips posted a team-best 9.5 sacks. In 2011, Williams helped tutor LB Antwan Barnes, who posted a career-high 11 sacks despite starting just five games on the season. In 2010, the Chargers ranked No. 1 in the NFL in both in total defense (271.6 ypg) and passing defense (177.8 ypg) and were tied for No. 2 in the league in sacks (47) as Phillips registered a team-high 11 sacks on the way to earning his first career Pro Bowl selection. In 2009, Phillips led the NFL with a career-best seven forced fumbles and LB Stephen Cooper added a career-high three forced fumbles.

Williams earned first-team All-America honors from USA Today, Parade and SuperPrep as a senior at Bolingbrook (Ill.) High School. He was a unanimous all-state selection and was named the Player of the Year in the state of Illinois by Gatorade, the Chicago Sun-Times and the Chicago Tribune.

In May 2023, Williams represented the Packers at the NFL's Coach Accelerator in Minneapolis, which aims to increase exposure between owners, executives and diverse coaching talent. He was one of 40 participants that attended based on their high potential to be considered for a head-coach position in the future.

Williams was born March 12, 1976, in Bolingbrook, Ill. He has two sons, Junior and Dominic.

LUKE BUTKUS

OFFENSIVE LINE

13th Season as NFL Coach > Fifth Packers Season

Luke Butkus begins his fifth season with the Packers and his second as offensive line coach, having been promoted to the position on Feb. 1, 2022, following three seasons as assistant offensive line coach.

Starting his 13th season coaching in the NFL, Butkus was initially hired by Head Coach Matt LaFleur on Feb. 7, 2019. Butkus enters his 19th season coaching in either Division I college football or the NFL. He joined the Packers after serving as the offensive line coach for the University of Illinois for three seasons (2016-18), a position he also held for the Fighting Illini in 2012.

Last season, Butkus led an offensive line that ranked No. 7 in the NFL with 32 sacks allowed, including 17 in Weeks 7-18, which tied for the third fewest in the league over that span. He also guided G/T Elgton Jenkins to his second Pro Bowl selection, his second in the last three seasons. The line helped RB Aaron Jones register a career-high 1,121 rushing yards (No. 9 in the NFL) and rank No. 2 in the league among RBs with an average of 5.26 yards per carry.

In 2021, Butkus assisted with an offense that ranked in the top 10 in the league in passing offense (No. 8, 253.8 ypg), total offense (No. 10, 365.6 ypg), scoring (No. 10, 26.5 ppg), giveaways (t-No. 1, 13) and time of possession (No. 1, 32:43) despite being without five-time All-Pro T David Bakhtiari (knee) for all but one game. The Packers allowed one or fewer sacks in seven games on the season, tied for No. 8 in the NFL, despite using seven different starting combinations on the line due to injuries. The line protected QB Aaron Rodgers as he threw 38 TD passes with just four INTs for a league-best 111.9 passer rating on his way to being named the NFL's Most Valuable Player by The Associated Press for the second straight season.

In 2020, Butkus worked with an offensive line that helped the Packers rank No. 1 in the NFL in scoring (31.9 ppg), giveaways (team-record 11) and time of possession (32:29), tied for No. 2 in sacks allowed (21), No. 5 in total offense (389.0 ypg) and No. 3 in yards per play (6.29). The line blocked for Jones, who set a single-season franchise mark for yards per carry (league-best 5.49) among players with 200-plus attempts, surpassing FB Jim Taylor's mark of 5.42 yards per carry in 1962. Bakhtiari and C Corey Linsley each earned first-team AP All-Pro honors, while Bakhtiari and Jenkins were both named to the Pro Bowl roster. Jenkins became just the third Packers offensive lineman (Charley Brock in his second year in 1940, Deral Teteak as a rookie in 1952,) to make the Pro Bowl within their first two seasons.

In 2019, Butkus helped the offensive line pave the way for Jones to rush for 1,084 yards (4.6 avg.) and 16 TDs, with the TD total tying for the league lead. Butkus assisted in the development of Jenkins, who played in all 16 contests as a rookie and started the final 14 games of the season at left guard. Jenkins was named to the PFWA All-Rookie team, just the second Packers guard to be selected since 1974, and helped Green Bay register 18 rushing TDs, the most by the Packers since 2009 (20). With the help of Butkus, Bakhtiari was named to his second Pro Bowl and earned second-team AP All-Pro honors.

In 2018, Butkus coached an offensive line that blocked for the No. 2 rushing attack in the Big Ten (243.0 yards per game, No. 12 in the nation). It was the best average for the Illini since 2010, when they led the conference with an average of 246.1 rushing yards per game. Illinois also ranked No. 2 in the Big Ten (No. 6 in the nation) in yards per carry (5.91 avg.) in 2018, and its 25 rushing TDs tied for No. 5 in the conference.

Butkus tutored OL Nick Allegretti, who developed into a two-time team captain (2017-18) and was twice named All-Big Ten (second-team selection by the media and honorable mention by the coaches in 2018, honorable mention by the coaches and media in 2017). Allegretti played in 47 games, including starts in the final 36 contests of his career, and was selected in the seventh round of the 2019 NFL Draft by the Kansas City Chiefs.

In 2017, Butkus was in charge of one of the youngest units in the country. The Illini started three true freshmen on the offensive line – Larry Boyd, Vederian Lowe and Alex Palczewski – who combined for 27 starts as Illinoi had a program-record 87 cumulative true-freshman starts.

Between the two stints at his alma mater, Butkus was the assistant offensive line coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars (2013-15). In 2015, Jacksonville's offensive line protected QB Blake Bortles, who finished tied for No. 2 in the NFL with a franchise-record 35 TD passes. Bortles set a team record with an average of 276.8 passing yards per game (No. 9 in the NFL). The Jaguars led the NFL with a franchise-record 80 offensive plays of 20-plus yards.

Butkus served as interim offensive line coach in 2014 and oversaw a unit that helped the Jaguars rank No. 6 in the NFL in yards per carry (4.54), but featured zero players that started for the club in the 2013 season finale. The unit featured two rookie starters – G Brandon Linder and C Luke Bowanko – and only two players who had more than 14 career starts. LT Luke Joeckel, the No. 2 overall pick in 2013, returned to the lineup after missing the final 11 games of his rookie season with an ankle injury. Only Joeckel and LG Zane Beadles started all 16 games for the club. Butkus assisted with an offensive line that had nine different starters during the 2013 season.

Prior to returning to his alma mater in 2012, Butkus spent five seasons working in the NFL, the last two (2010-11) with the Seattle Seahawks as a quality control assistant working with the offensive line. He worked as an offensive assistant/assistant offensive line coach with the Chicago Bears from 2007-09.

Butkus began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of Oregon (2005-06), helping the Ducks to appearances in the 2005 Holiday Bowl and the 2006 Las Vegas Bowl.

As a player, Butkus was a three-year starting center for Illinois from 1999-2001, a third-team All-America selection by AP in 2001, a two-time All-Big Ten selection (2000-01) and a captain of the 2001 Big Ten championship team. In 2001, he was part of an offensive line that paved the way for then-school records in total points, points per game and sacks allowed.

Butkus was signed by the Chicago Bears as a rookie free agent in 2002 and spent most of that season on the San Diego Chargers' practice squad. He played two seasons in NFL Europe, for the Rhein Fire in 2003 and the Cologne Centurions in 2004.

A graduate of Bloom Trail (Ill.) High School in suburban Chicago, Butkus is a nephew of Hall of Fame linebacker Dick Butkus, who played for the Bears from 1965-73. Luke's cousin, Mark Butkus, lettered at Illinois from 1980-83, while his brother, Josh, also graduated from Illinois.

Butkus was born June 26, 1979, in Steger, Ill. He and his wife, Nici, have three sons, Benjamin, Byron and Bear.

TOM CLEMENTS

QUARTERBACKS

24th Season as NFL Coach > 13th Packers Season

Entering his 24th season as a coach in the NFL, Tom Clements begins his 13th year with the Packers after rejoining the team as quarterbacks coach in 2022 after previously coaching with the team in a variety of roles from 2006-16.

Hired by Head Coach Matt LaFleur on Feb. 18, 2022, Clements (KLEMM-ints) originally joined the Packers in 2006, serving as quarterbacks coach from 2006-11 before working as the team's offensive coordinator (2012-14) and the associate head coach/offense (2015-16). He served as the pass game coordinator/quarterbacks for the Arizona Cardinals in 2019-20. Clements also coached QBs for the New Orleans Saints (1997-99), Kansas City Chiefs (2000) and Pittsburgh Steelers (2001-03) and served as the offensive coordinator for the Buffalo Bills (2004-05).

Last season, he reunited with QB Aaron Rodgers, who ranked tied for No. 5 in the NFL in completions of 20-plus yards (53) and No. 7 in TD passes (26). Clements also worked with QB Jordan Love, who appeared in four games and completed 14 of 21 passes (66.7 pct.) for 195 yards and a TD and no INTs for a 112.2 rating.

In Arizona, Clements tutored QB Kyle Murray, who was named NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year by The Associated Press in 2019 after becoming just the sixth QB in league history with 3,500-plus passing yards and 500-plus rushing yards in a season. Murray also set an NFL rookie record with 211 consecutive passing attempts without an interception. The Cardinals were tied for No. 9 in the league in giveaways in '19 after ranking No. 27 in the category in 2018, and set a team record with seven zero-giveaway games. In 2020, Clements helped Murray become the first QB in team history to be named to the Pro Bowl within his first two seasons as he set single-season franchise records for rushing yards (819) and rushing TDs (11) by a quarterback and became just the second QB in NFL history with 25-plus passing TDs (26) and 10-plus rushing TDs in a season.

During Clements' first 11 seasons with Green Bay, the Packers finished in the top 10 in the NFL in scoring offense and total offense nine times each and ranked No. 2 in the league over that span in giveaways (218). In his three seasons as offensive coordinator (2012-14), the Packers ranked in the top five in the NFL over that span in scoring (No. 3, 27.8 ppg), total offense (No. 5, 381.9 ypg) and giveaways (No. 3, 54). During Clements' 11 seasons with the Packers, Rodgers was selected to six Pro Bowls (2009, 2011-12, 2014-16), was twice named league MVP (2011, 2014) and became the first QB in NFL history to register a 100-plus rating in six consecutive seasons (2009-14).

In 2016, Clements helped guide the Packers to their eighth consecutive postseason berth (2009-16), tied for the fourth-longest streak in league history. Green Bay ranked No. 4 in the league in scoring (27.0 ppg) and No. 8 in total offense (368.8 ypg), while Rodgers (40) became the first Green Bay quarterback to lead the league in TD passes since Brett Favre in 2003 and set the franchise single-season mark for completions with 401.

In 2014, Clements guided the offense as the Packers led the NFL in scoring with 486 points (30.4 ppg), the third most in a season in team history. Green Bay was tied for the top mark in the league in '14 with 13 giveaways and set a single-season team mark for the most first downs to that point with 356. Rodgers finished in the top three in the NFL in passer rating, TD passes, TD/INT ratio and yards per attempt, the only QB in the league to do so, on his way to earning league AP Most Valuable Player honors, while WRs Jordy Nelson and Randall Cobb became the first duo in NFL history to both register 90-plus catches, 1,200-plus receiving yards and 12-plus TD catches in the same season.

In 2013, Clements helped the Packers generate 6,404 yards of total offense (No. 3 in the NFL), the second most in franchise history (6,482 in 2011). Green Bay's rushing average of 133.5 yards per game was the team's best mark since 2003 and RB Eddie Lacy rushed for 1,178 yards, the most by a rookie in team history, on his way to being selected to the Pro Bowl and being named AP NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year. The Packers averaged 266.8 passing yards per game despite starting four different quarterbacks on the season as Rodgers missed seven contests due to a collarbone injury. In Week 11 at the N.Y. Giants, QB Scott Tolzien threw for 339 yards, the most ever by a Green Bay QB in his first career start.

In 2012, Clements coordinated an offense that ranked No. 5 in the NFL in scoring (27.1 ppg), tied for No. 2 in giveaways (16) and No. 3 in red-zone efficiency (68.1 percent). Rodgers led the NFL in passer rating (108.0) for the second straight season and also ranked No. 1 in TD/INT ratio (4.88) and No. 2 in TD passes (39). WR James Jones led the league with a career-high 14 TD catches, becoming the first Packer to do so since WR Sterling Sharpe (18) in 1994, and TE Jermichael Finley set a single-season franchise record for tight ends with 61 receptions.

As quarterbacks coach, Clements' extensive tutelage of Rodgers paid dividends, culminating with a 2011 campaign that saw him earn league MVP honors. Rodgers set an NFL single-season record with a 122.5 passer rating and ranked No. 1 in the league in yards per attempt (franchise-record 9.25) and No. 2 in TD passes (45). Clements also tutored QB Matt Flynn, a seventh-round choice by the club in 2008, as he set single-game franchise records in the 2011 season finale with 480 passing yards and six TDs (both later matched by Rodgers) vs. Detroit. Combined with Rodgers' five TD passes the previous week vs. Chicago, it marked the first time in the history of the NFL that a team had two different QBs each throw five-plus TDs in consecutive games.

Rodgers' first 4,000-yard season in 2008 gave the Packers 4,000-yard passers in consecutive seasons for just the second time in team history to that point, and for the first time in league history those back-to-back 4,000-yard passers were different QBs. The previous two seasons, in addition to tutoring Rodgers as the backup and heir apparent, Clements oversaw a mini-renaissance of Favre's career. In 2006, Favre reduced his interceptions from a career-high 29 the year before to just 18, setting the stage for a near-MVP season in 2007, when he surpassed 4,000 yards passing for the fifth time and led the Packers back to the playoffs.

Before coming to Green Bay, Clements spent two seasons (2004-05) as offensive coordinator for the Buffalo Bills. In 2004, the offense increased its scoring output by 152 points and reduced its number of sacks allowed from 51 to 38. In 2005, RB Willis McGahee became the fifth running back in Bills history to register back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons and QB Kelly Holcomb set a club single-season record with a 67.4 completion percentage (now ranks No. 2 in team history).

Prior to joining the Bills, Clements served as Pittsburgh's quarterbacks coach for three seasons (2001-03), where he helped Tommy Maddox earn the Comeback Player of the Year award from AP in 2002. Clements also worked with Pittsburgh's Kordell Stewart (2001) and Kansas City's Elvis Grbac (2000) during each quarterback's best season, both culminating in Pro Bowl berths. Clements' first NFL coaching job came with the Saints (1997-99), where he tutored QBs Jake Delhomme and Kerry Collins.

Prior to his post with the Saints, Clements served under Lou Holtz as quarterbacks coach (1992-94) and wide receivers/assistant head coach (1995) at his alma mater, Notre Dame. While with the Fighting Irish, Clements coached eventual 1993 NFL Rookie of the Year QB Rick Mirer, and WR Derrick Mayes, the Packers' second-round draft pick in 1996. In addition, Clements tutored QB Ron Powlus, Notre Dame's career passing leader in attempts, completions, yardage and touchdowns at the time of his graduation.

Inducted into the Canadian Football League's Hall of Fame in 1994, Clements played QB for Ottawa (1975-78), Saskatchewan/Hamilton (1979), Hamilton (1981-82) and Winnipeg (1983-87) during a 12-year career in the CFL. Selected seven times as a divisional All-Star, Clements guided Ottawa (1976) and Winnipeg (1984) to Grey Cup championships, earning the Outstanding Offensive Player award in each game. The league's Rookie of the Year in 1975 and Most Valuable Player in 1987, Clements completed 2,807 of 4,657 passes (60.3 percent) for 39,041 yards and 252 touchdowns during his CFL career. He also spent one season, 1980, as a quarterback for Marv Levy's Kansas City Chiefs.

A three-year starter at Notre Dame (1972-74) under Ara Parseghian, Clements led the Irish to a 29-5 record, including an unblemished national championship season in 1973. An All-American in 1974, he finished fourth in Heisman Trophy balloting when Archie Griffin earned the award. Clements received his degree in economics from Notre Dame in 1975.

A licensed attorney, Clements worked from 1988-92 for Bell, Boyd & Lloyd (now known as K&L Gates), a Chicago-based law firm. He pursued his law degree during his playing career, graduating magna cum laude from Notre Dame's School of Law in 1986. In 1994, while on the Notre Dame coaching staff, Clements was an adjunct associate professor of law at the university's law school, where he taught "Sports and the Law."

Clements was born June 18, 1953, in McKees Rocks, Pa. He and his wife, Kathe, have a daughter, Stevie, and a son, Tommy.

RYAN DOWNARD

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Eighth NFL Season > Sixth Packers Season

(2022) as safeties coach and three seasons (2019-21) as assistant defensive backs coach.

Promoted to his current position on March 10, 2023, by Head Coach Matt LaFleur, Downard (DOWN-erd) originally joined the club on Jan. 24, 2018, as a defensive quality control coach. His first NFL experience came in 2014-15 when he served as a defensive assistant with the Cleveland Browns.

The 2022 season saw Downard help lead a unit that finished No. 6 in the league in passing defense (197.0 ypg), the fewest allowed by the Packers since 2010 (194.2 ypg). Green Bay was tied for No. 4 in the league with 17 interceptions, with 16 of them coming in Weeks 7-18, the most in the NFL over that span. The Packers gave up 28 points or less in 16 of 17 games, tied for the most in the league in '22. Green Bay also led the league in fourth-quarter INTs with 11.

Downard was part of a defensive staff in 2021 that helped the Packers finish in the top 10 in the NFL in total defense (328.2 ypg, No. 9), passing defense (219.1 ypg, No. 10), takeaways (26, t-No. 8) and INTs (18, t-No. 6). Downard also helped guide CB Rasul Douglas to a career year as Douglas returned two INTs for TDs, tied for the fourth most in a season in team history. Additionally, from Weeks 8-17, Douglas was tied for No. 1 in the NFL with five INTs and led the NFL with 105 yards on INT returns.

The 2020 season saw the Packers' young and talented secondary take another step forward with the assistance of Downard. Alexander earned second-team All-Pro honors from The Associated Press, becoming the first Green Bay CB to earn All-Pro honors since Charles Woodson in 2011. Alexander was also named to his first career Pro Bowl in 2020, making him one of three CBs in franchise history to make the Pro Bowl within his first three seasons (Herb Adderley, 1963, third season; Willie Buchanon, 1973, second season).

S Darnell Savage also excelled in 2020, leading the team in INTs (four, t-No. 3 among NFL safeties) and ranking No. 2 in passes defended (12, No. 2 among NFL safeties). Savage finished No. 4 on the team with 75 tackles (56 solo) while also recording three tackles for a loss, a sack, two QB hits and a fumble recovery, all career highs.

Downard's first season working with the secondary in 2019 saw him help oversee a group that helped the Packers rank tied for No. 3 in the NFL with 17 INTs, their highest total since also recording 17 INTs in 2016. Five members of Green Bay's secondary recorded multiple INTs in 2019, the most by the team since it also had five in 2015. CB Kevin King had the best season of his career, posting career highs in interceptions (five, tied for No. 4 in NFL), passes defended (18) and tackles (59). The Packers ranked No. 6 in the NFL in opponent passer rating (81.1) and No. 4 in opponent completion percentage (59.7).

Downard also assisted in the development of Alexander in 2019 as he was named a Pro Bowl alternate and led the team with a career-high 23 passes defended. Savage, a first-round pick in 2019, was selected to the PFWA All-Rookie team.

In his first season with the Packers in 2018, Downard was part of a defensive staff that helped Green Bay rank tied for No. 8 in the league in sacks (44), the most by the Packers since they registered the same number in 2013. Green Bay's defense featured 16 different players with at least a half-sack in 2018, the second most in team history (since 1982) behind only the 1987 campaign (strike season) that had 17 players with a half-sack or more. The Packers ranked No. 12 in pass defense (234.5 ypg) in 2018 after the team finished No. 23 in the category in 2017.

Prior to coming to Green Bay, Downard spent two seasons at Bowling Green State, where he served as the safeties coach in 2017 after working as director of football operations in his first sea-

Prior to joining the Browns, Downard was a graduate assistant at Texas Tech and Toledo.

Downard played defensive back at Eastern Michigan (2007-10), where his six INTs in 2007 ranked No. 2 in the country among freshmen and No. 12 overall in the nation. His freshman campaign saw him earn Freshman All-America honorable mention from Scout.com. As a team captain his senior year, Downard finished No. 3 on the Eagles with 60 total tackles.

Downard was born June 22, 1988, in Lima, Ohio. He and his wife, Julie, live in Hobart, Wis., with their four sons, Jaxon, Camden, Hayes and Easton.

JOHN DUNN

TIGHT ENDS

Seventh NFL Season ➤ Third Packers Season

Entering his seventh season as a coach in the NFL, John Dunn begins his third season with the Packers and second as tight ends coach after being promoted on Feb. 5, 2022. Dunn served as a senior analyst in Green Bay in 2021 after being hired on March 1, 2021, by Head Coach Matt LaFleur. Dunn is entering his 20th season of coaching in college or the NFL.

In 2022, Dunn worked with TE Robert Tonyan, who posted a career-best 53 receptions, marking the second 50-plus-catch season of his career (52 in 2020) to tie Paul Coffman for the second most by a Packer tight end (Jermichael Finley, three). Among tight ends, Tonyan ranked No. 4 in the NFL with a 79.1 reception percentage.

In Dunn's first season with the Packers in 2021, he focused primarily on defensive self-scouting while working closely with defensive coordinator Joe Barry and the inside linebackers. The defense ranked in the top 10 in the league in total defense (No. 9, 328.2 ypg), passing defense (No. 10, 219.1 ypg), interceptions (t-No. 6, 18), takeaways (t-No. 8, 26) and defensive penalties (No. 5, 28).

In 2020 with the Jets, Dunn mentored TE Chris Herndon as he returned from an injury-laden 2019 season to finish No. 3 on the team in receptions (31) and tied for No. 2 in receiving TDs (three). In Dunn's first season with New York in 2019, TE Ryan Griffin, signed by the Jets before training camp, stepped up in Herndon's absence to post 34 catches for 320 yards (9.4 avg.) and a career-best five TDs. Griffin's five scores tied for No. 3 among AFC tight ends and made him the eighth TE in franchise history to post five-plus receiving TDs in a season.

Prior to joining the Jets, Dunn served as the offensive coordinator at the University of Connecticut in 2018. Dunn oversaw an offense that produced two 1,000-yard rushers as RB Kevin Mensah (1,045 yards) became the first UConn RB to surpass 1,000 yards rushing since 2011 and QB David Pandell (1,139 yards) established a school rushing record among quarterbacks. Pandell also earned a first-team All-New England selection from the New England Football Writers for his efforts.

Dunn earned his first NFL experience in two seasons with the Chicago Bears, first as a football assistant (2016) and then as an offensive assistant (2017). During his time with the Bears, Dunn worked with wide receivers and quarterbacks while also helping install offensive-line protections each week. With Dunn's help in 2017, QB Mitchell Trubisky set franchise rookie records with 196 completions and 2,193 passing yards in just 12 starts.

Before entering the NFL as a coach, Dunn spent five seasons (2011-15) at the University of Maryland as the school's tight ends coach/recruiting coordinator. While with the Terrapins, Dunn helped the team finish No. 9 nationally in red-zone scoring percentage (.914) during the 2014 season.

CONNOR LEWIS

ASSISTANT QUARTERBACKS

Fourth Season as NFL Coach ➤ Eighth Packers Season

Named to his current position on Feb. 1, 2022, Connor Lewis enters his second season as assistant quarterbacks coach and his eighth season with the Packers.

Originally hired as a football technology analyst intern in 2016, Lewis spent three seasons (2017-19) as a football technology analyst. He joined the coaching ranks as an offensive quality control coach in 2020 and then was promoted to special teams assistant/game management specialist in 2021.

In his role, Lewis works in support of quarterbacks coach Tom Clements and also assists the team with situational football and game management. In 2022, he assisted with QB Aaron Rodgers, who ranked tied for No. 5 in the NFL in completions of 20-plus yards (53) and No. 7 in TD passes (26). Lewis also worked with QB Jordan Love, who appeared in four games and completed 14 of 21 passes (66.7 pct.) for 195 yards and a TD and no INTs for a 112.2 rating.

In 2021 as a special teams assistant/game management specialist, Lewis worked closely with the special teams staff and focused on opponent scouting and game-plan preparation.

As an offensive quality control coach in 2020, Lewis worked with former offensive coordinator Nathaniel Hackett with a focus on coaching the offensive line, a unit that allowed one sack/zero sacks in 13 games on the season, tied for No. 1 in team history. T David Bakhtiari and C Corey Linsley were both named first-team All-Pro by The Associated Press, while Bakhtiari and G/T Elgton Jenkins each received Pro Bowl honors.

As a football technology analyst, Lewis assisted the offensive coaching staff in data analysis, playing rules and game management. He worked closely with director of football technology Mike Halbach on various projects to help the coaching staff be prepared for upcoming games.

Prior to arriving in Green Bay, Lewis spent the 2015 season as an independent consultant for the Oakland Raiders. He was instrumental in evaluating contracts and building a database for the Raiders to store personnel items. Lewis was also responsible for calculating projected values of contracts and verifying key financial metrics for players across the league.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Promoted to assistant quarterbacks coach on Feb. 1, 2022, after one season as special teams assistant/game management specialist (2021); previously spent one season as offensive quality control coach (2020).
- First joined the Packers as a football technology analyst intern in 2016 and then spent three seasons (2017-19) as a football technology analyst.
- Served as an independent consultant for the Oakland Raiders (2015) and worked in the football analytics and information department with the New York Giants (2014).
- A graduate of Vanderbilt University, he spent three seasons working in the football office, assisting the director of player personnel, the director of recruiting and the coaching staff.

Years	College/Pro Team	Position Coached
2020	Green Bay Packers	Offensive Quality Control
2021	Green Bay Packers	Special Teams Assistant/ Game Management Specialist
2022-23	Green Bay Packers	Assistant Quarterbacks

In his first role in the NFL, Lewis worked in the football analytics and information department with the New York Giants in 2014. He studied opponent trends and game-management situations to be used by the coaching staff. Lewis also assisted the coaching staff with self-scouting and opponent analysis.

Lewis earned his bachelor's degree in mathematics with a corporate strategy minor at Vanderbilt University (2010-14). While attending school, he spent three seasons working in the football office (2012-14), assisting the director of player personnel, the director of recruiting and the coaching staff. Lewis worked primarily with player personnel in evaluating high school prospects. He also spent time with the ticket-services department with the Tennessee Titans while attending school.

Born in Littleton, Colo., Lewis was a three-year letterman at Chatfield Senior High School (2006-2010) in Littleton, earning all-conference honors as an OLB in 2009. He also lettered in lacrosse for three years. Lewis currently resides in Green Bay with his wife, Krista.

FIRST QUARTERBACKS

Adolph Kliebhan was the starting quarterback in the Packers' first NFL game, played against the Minneapolis Marines on Oct. 23, 1921. Curly Lambeau would replace him by the second quarter, if not earlier, and it would be the first and last game of Kliebhan's NFL career. Why he started is anybody's guess.

The Packers played four non-league games prior to facing the Marines, and Kliebhan appeared in three, filling in at quarterback, fullback and right halfback. But he didn't play the week before against Beloit.

Art Schmaehl started at quarterback in the Packers' second league game, against Rock Island, before Lambeau started the final four. Lambeau had started at right halfback in the four non-league games and then at fullback against Rock Island.

In 1922, the Packers signed Charlie Mathys, a Green Bay native who had played for the Hammond Pros in 1921. Mathys would start every game at quarterback over the next three seasons and maintain a hold on the job until midway through 1926. Lambeau would start 46 of 67 games from 1922-27, but mostly at right halfback, before his playing time would drastically diminish in 1928.

In 1927, the Packers signed Red Dunn, who had led the Chicago Cardinals to the 1925 NFL championship, and he would quarterback them through the 1931 season, winning three more NFL titles.

Future Pro Football Hall of Famer Arnie Herber would move into the lineup on a regular basis in 1932, playing mostly right halfback in Lambeau's revised Notre Dame Box offense and taking the Packers' passing game to new heights.

Dunn was the last of the Packers' quarterbacks in the Notre Dame Box to call signals, pass and run. Thereafter, Lambeau used his quarterback as a blocking back until he finally switched to a variation of the T-formation in 1947.

RYAN MAHAFFEY

ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE

Third Season as NFL Coach > Third Packers Season

Ryan Mahaffey enters his third season with the Packers and his second season as assistant offensive line coach, having been promoted to the position on Feb.

Mahaffey (muh-HAFF-ee), was initially hired by Head Coach Matt LaFleur on March 1, 2021, as an offensive quality control coach after two years as the offensive coordinator (2019-20) at Northern Iowa.

Last season, Mahaffey assisted Luke Butkus with an offensive line that ranked No. 7 in the NFL with 32 sacks allowed, including 17 in Weeks 7-18, which tied for the third fewest in the league over that span. He also helped guide G/T Elgton Jenkins to his second Pro Bowl selection, his second in the last three seasons. The line helped RB Aaron Jones register a career-high 1,121 rushing yards (No. 9 in the NFL) and rank No. 2 in the league among RBs with an average of 5.26 yards per carry.

In 2021, Mahaffey was part of a staff that helped the offense rank in the top 10 in the league in passing offense (No. 8, 253.8 ypg), total offense (No. 10, 365.6 ypg), scoring offense (No. 10, 26.5 ppg), giveaways (T-No. 1, 13) and time of possession (No. 1, 32:43). Assisting with the tight ends, he worked with veteran TE Mercedes Lewis, who posted 23 receptions for 214 yards (9.3 avg.), his most catches since joining the Packers in 2018. Mahaffey also helped develop TE Josiah Deguara, who led Green Bay tight ends with 25 receptions for 245 yards (9.8 avg.) and two touchdowns.

In Mahaffey's first season leading the offense at Northern Iowa in 2019, the Panthers tied a school record with eight home wins, finished No. 2 in the Missouri Valley Football Conference with a 6-2 conference record and advanced to the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) quarterfinals, ending the season with a No. 5 national ranking. QB Will McElvain threw for an MVFC freshman-record 2,778 yards and 20 TDs and was named a third-team All-American by Phil Steele's College Football and a Jerry Rice National Freshman of the Year semifinalist. WR Isaiah Weston was a first-team All-MVFC selection after recording 43 catches for 1,053 yards (FCS-best 24.49 avg.).

From 2017-18, Mahaffey spent two seasons as the tight ends coach at Western Kentucky. During the 2018 season, Mahaffey helped TE Mik'Quan Deane earn second-team All-Conference USA honors after leading the team in receiving TDs (six) while ranking No. 2 in receptions (44) and receiving yards (530).

In his first season with the Hilltoppers in 2017, Mahaffey's TEs helped the WKU offense rank No. 7 nationally in passing yards per game (335.0) and No. 8 in completion percentage (66.0). TE Deon Yelder posted 688 receiving yards and 52 points scored, both single-season school records among TEs. A fifth-year senior and former walk-on who had not recorded a reception prior to the 2017 season, Yelder was invited to play in the 2017 Reese's Senior Bowl and has appeared in 29 career games for the Kansas City Chiefs and Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Mahaffey arrived at Western Kentucky after serving as Northern Iowa's co-offensive coordinator/WRs coach in 2016. He helped three offensive players pick up All-MVFC honors for the Panthers in 2016, including OL Trevor Hanson (second team), OL Robert Rathje (second team) and RB Michael Malloy (honorable mention). He also coached WR Daurice Fountain, a fifth-round selection (No. 159 overall) by the Indianapolis Colts in 2018.

Prior to returning to UNI, Mahaffey spent two years (2014-15) as a graduate assistant/WRs coach at Notre Dame, where he worked with LaFleur, who coached the Fighting Irish's quarterbacks in 2014. During his stint in South Bend, Mahaffey helped coach WR Will Fuller, who earned second-team All-America honors from The Associated Press following the 2015 season and was selected by the Houston Texans with the No. 21 overall pick in the 2016 NFL Draft.

Mahaffey gained his first coaching experience with Northern Iowa in 2013, when he served as the recruiting coordinator and tight ends coach.

A former fullback/tight end, Mahaffey signed with the Baltimore Ravens as an undrafted free agent in June 2011 and went on to appear in five games that season with the Indianapolis Colts. He also spent time with the Miami Dolphins in 2012.

Mahaffey was a four-year letterwinner at Northern Iowa (2007-2010), seeing action as TE and FB. He played in 51 career games with 43 starts, recording 28 catches for 251 yards (9.0 avg.) and six TDs. Mahaffey was a two-time second-team All-MVFC selection (2008, 2009) and was named to the MVFC All-Newcomer team as a redshirt freshman in 2007. He was team captain in 2010 and named to the MVFC All-Academic team twice in his career. Mahaffey attended Grinnell (Iowa) High School, where he earned first-team all-state honors from the Des Moines Register and third-team all-state recognition from the Iowa Newspaper Association.

Born Nov. 28, 1987, in Des Moines, Iowa, Mahaffey earned a degree in economics at Northern Iowa in 2011. He and his wife, Molly, live in De Pere, Wis., with their two sons, Trace and Sterling, and daughter, Jordan (JoJo).

KIRK OLIVADOTTI

INSIDE LINEBACKERS

21st NFL Season > Fifth Packers Season

Entering his 21st season as a coach in the NFL, Kirk Olivadotti begins his fifth year with the Packers in 2023 as the club's inside linebackers coach.

Named to his position on Jan. 24, 2019, by Head Coach Matt LaFleur, Olivadotti (ah-luh-vuh-DOT-ee) came to Green Bay after spending 16 seasons with the Washington Redskins (2000-10, 2014-18). He is one of 11 members on the team's assistant coach honor roll, which recognizes coaches with 10-plus seasons of service as an assistant in Washington. Olivadotti served as the inside linebackers coach at the University of Georgia from 2011-13.

In 2022, Olivadotti led the development of first-round selection LB Quay Walker as he was named to the PFWA's All-Rookie team, the first Green Bay inside LB to be selected to the team since A.J. Hawk in 2006. Walker led the Packers and ranked No. 2 among NFL rookies with 119 total tackles, the fifth most by a Green Bay rookie since 1975. He also led the team, was No. 2 among rookies and was tied for No. 6 in the NFL in 2022 with three forced fumbles.

Olivadotti also helped the Packers to become one of only four teams in 2022 (Baltimore, Kansas City, N.Y. Jets) to hold 16 opponents under 30 points during the regular season, a franchise single-season high. Green Bay's defense also finished the 2022 season No. 5 in the NFL in goal-to-go percentage (63.64), No. 8 in third-down percentage (37.63) and No. 10 in first downs/game (18.9).

The 2021 season saw Olivadotti coach sixth-year LB DeVondre Campbell to the best season of his career. Campbell, who joined the Packers as a free agent in June 2021, was named first-team All-Pro by The Associated Press in 2021, becoming the first Packers inside linebacker to earn first-team All-Pro honors since Ray Nitschke in 1966. Campbell started all 16 games he appeared in and led the Packers with a career-high 145 tackles (101 solo) while adding two interceptions, two sacks, six tackles for a loss (No. 3 on team), five passes defended, two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery.

Olivadotti was part of a defensive staff in 2021 that helped the Packers finish in the top 10 in the NFL total defense (328.2 ypg, No. 9), passing defense (219.1 ypg, No. 10), takeaways (26, t-No. 8) and interceptions (18, t-No. 6).

In 2020, Olivadotti relied on significant contributions from a pair of rookie linebackers, Krys Barnes and Kamal Martin, as they combined to appear in 23 games with 16 starts. Barnes played in 13 games with 10 starts and led all NFL undrafted rookies with 78 tackles (47 solo) and five tackles for a loss. He also started both of the team's playoff games, leading the Packers with 13 tackles. Barnes became just the third undrafted player in the NFL since 2000 to record 75-plus tackles as a rookie (Paul Worrlow and Joplo Bartu, 2013) as he averaged six tackles per game, ranking No. 3 among NFL undrafted rookies since 2000 (min. 40 tackles). He also became the first undrafted rookie LB to start a season opener for the Packers since the 1970 NFL/AFL merger, doing so at Minnesota (Sept. 13, 2020).

Olivadotti's first season in Green Bay in 2019 saw him lead a group that featured LB Blake Martinez, who set the franchise single-season record (since 1975) with 203 tackles (127 solo), eclipsing LB Nick Barnett's mark of 194 tackles in 2005. Additionally, Olivadotti's linebackers helped Green Bay's defense finish No. 9 in the NFL in points allowed (19.6 ppg.), the first time the Packers had finished in the top 10 in the league in the category since 2010.

In 2018, he tutored LB Mason Foster, who led Washington with a career-high 131 tackles (81 solo) and added a career-best two INTs. Olivadotti also worked with LB Zach Brown, who finished No. 2 on the team with 96 tackles (69 solo), including 10 tackles for a loss, a sack and two forced fumbles. Brown led the team with 127 tackles (84 solo) in 2017, the most by a Washington player since LB London Fletcher in 2012 (139).

In 2016, Olivadotti guided LB Will Compton, who entered the league as an undrafted free agent in 2013, to a career-high 104 tackles (60 solo), five passes defended, two fumble recoveries, a forced fumble and an INT.

In 2015, Olivadotti coached a unit that helped Washington to an NFC East title despite featuring a rotating cast of players due to injuries. Keenan Robinson and Perry Riley Jr. began the season as the starters on the inside, but with both sustaining injuries, Olivadotti developed Compton into a reliable starter as he ranked No. 2 on the club with 93 tackles (51 solo).

In his first season back in Washington in 2014, Olivadotti helped Robinson shine in his first season as a starter. Despite missing three games, Robinson led the team with 108 tackles (70 solo), including a 14-tackle effort vs. Tennessee in Week 7 that earned him NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors.

At Georgia, Olivadotti coached an inside-linebacker group that featured Alec Ogletree, who was selected in the first round (No. 30 overall) by the St. Louis Rams in the 2013 NFL Draft. Olivadotti was part of a staff that helped the Bulldogs win two SEC titles and 30 games during his three seasons at the school. In 2011, Georgia ranked No. 5 in the nation in total defense (277.2 ypg) and No. 15 in scoring defense (19.2 ppg).

During Olivadotti's initial stint with Washington (2000-10), the team finished in the top 10 in the NFL in total defense eight times (2000-02, 2004-05, 2007-09), allowing 313.1 yards per game over that span (No. 7 in the NFL).

In 2009, Olivadotti tutored a pair of linebackers to their first career Pro Bowls, with Fletcher earning the honor for the first time in his 12 years in the league and Brian Orakpo becoming the first Washington defensive rookie to be selected since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger. Fletcher led the team with 172 tackles (108 solo), while Orakpo set a team rookie record with 11 sacks, which led all NFL rookies in 2009 and was tied for the most among NFC linebackers with Cowboys LB DeMarcus Ware.

In 2008, Olivadotti's linebackers played a pivotal role in Washington ranking No. 4 in the league in overall defense (288.8 ypg), No. 6 in points allowed (18.5 ppg) and No. 8 in rushing defense (95.4 ypg). In his first season as linebackers coach in 2007, the team finished No. 8 in the NFL in overall defense (305.3 ypg) and No. 4 in rushing defense (91.3 ypg) as the tandem of Fletcher (156) and Rocky McIntosh (105) finished as the team's top tacklers.

In 2006, Olivadotti served as defensive line assistant/special teams assistant for Washington. He also assisted with the special teams in 2004-05 in addition to working as a defensive quality control coach. Olivadotti served as a defensive quality control coach for his first four seasons (2000-03) with the team and also assisted with the defensive backs. He was a part of staffs that helped Washington rank No. 3 in the league in overall defense in 2004 (267.6 ypg, No. 4 in team history), No. 5 in 2002 (299.2 ypg) and No. 4 in 2000 (280.1 ypg).

Olivadotti began his coaching career on the collegiate level in 1997 at Maine Maritime Academy, where he worked with the wide receivers and tight ends for one season. He then spent two seasons as an assistant coach at Indiana State University (1998-99) before making the transition to the NFL.

Olivadotti was a four-year letterwinner as a wide receiver at Purdue from 1993-96. His father, Tom, was a defensive assistant coach in the NFL for 21 seasons with the Cleveland Browns (1985-86), Miami Dolphins (1987-95), Minnesota Vikings (1996-99), N.Y. Giants (2000-03) and Houston Texans (2004-05). He also was the defensive coordinator for the University of Miami in 1983 when the Hurricanes won their first national title.

Born Jan. 1, 1974, in Wilmington, Del., Olivadotti earned his bachelor's degree in education and his master's degree in education administration, both from Purdue. He and his wife, Keely, have a daughter, Kasyn, and a son, Kruz.

OVERTIME PROCEDURES

MODIFIED SUDDEN-DEATH OVERTIME

For the 2010 postseason, the NFL installed a modified sudden-death system to determine the winner when the score is tied at the end of regulation. In 2012, the system was expanded to cover all NFL games, including regular-season and preseason games. In 2022, the system was expanded for postseason games only to allow each team the opportunity to possess the ball.

Modified sudden death guarantees each team a possession or the opportunity to possess, unless the team that receives the opening kickoff scores a touchdown on its initial possession.

Possession: Actual possession of the ball with complete control. The defense gains possession when it catches, intercepts or recovers a loose ball.

Opportunity to possess: The opportunity to possess occurs only during kicking plays. A kickoff is an opportunity to possess for the receiving team. If the kicking team legally recovers the kick, the receiving team is considered to have had its opportunity. A punt or a field goal that crosses the line of scrimmage and is muffed by the receiving team is considered to be an opportunity to possess for the receivers. Normal touching rules by the kicking team apply.

REGULAR SEASON

- At the end of regulation time, the Referee will immediately toss a coin at the center of the field in accordance with rules pertaining to the usual pregame toss. The captain of the visiting team will call the toss prior to the coin being flipped.
- Following a three-minute intermission after the end of the regulation game, there shall be a maximum of one 10-minute period. Each team must possess or have the opportunity to possess the ball unless the team that has the ball first scores a touchdown on its initial possession. Play continues in sudden death until a winner is determined, and the game automatically ends upon any score (by safety, field goal or touchdown) or when a score is awarded by the Referee for a palpably unfair act. If a touchdown is scored, the game is over, and the Try is not attempted. Each team shall be entitled to two timeouts, and if there is an excess timeout, the usual rules shall apply. Disqualified players are not allowed to return.

- If the score is tied at the end of the 10-minute overtime period, the game shall result in a tie.
- Instant Replay: No challenges. Reviews to be initiated by the replay assistant.

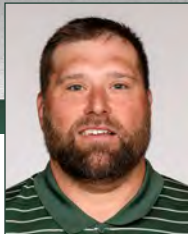

POSTSEASON

- At the end of regulation time, the Referee will immediately toss a coin at the center of the field in accordance with rules pertaining to the usual pregame toss. The captain of the visiting team will call the toss prior to the coin being flipped.
- Following a three-minute intermission after the end of the regulation game, play will be continued in 15-minute periods until a winner is declared.
- Both teams must have the opportunity to possess the ball at least once during the extra period, unless the team kicking off to start the overtime period scores a safety on the receiving team's initial possession, in which case the team that kicked off is the winner. If the team that possesses the ball first does not score on its initial possession, or if the score is tied after each team has had its opportunity to possess the ball, the team next scoring by any method shall be the winner.
- If the score is tied at the end of a 15-minute overtime period, or if the second team's initial possession has not ended, another overtime period will begin, and play will continue, regardless of how many 15-minute periods are necessary. Each team has three timeouts per half and all general timing provisions apply as during a regular game. Disqualified players are not allowed to return.
- Instant Replay: No challenges. Reviews to be initiated by the replay assistant.

JASON REBROVICH

PASS RUSH SPECIALIST

10th NFL Season > Second Packers Season

Entering his 10th season coaching in the NFL, Jason Rebrovich begins his second year with the Packers in 2023 and first as pass rush specialist after being promoted on March 10, 2023.

Originally named outside linebackers coach on Feb. 18, 2022, by Head Coach Matt LaFleur, Rebrovich (reb-row-vitch) came to Green Bay after working with the Jacksonville Jaguars for four seasons, serving as the defensive line coach in 2019-20 and the assistant defensive line coach in 2017-18. Prior to Jacksonville, he coached with the Buffalo Bills for four seasons (2013-16) and spent 12 seasons (2001-12) coaching at the collegiate level.

In his first season in Green Bay in 2022, Rebrovich worked closely with veteran OLBs Preston Smith and Rashan Gary, as well as rookie fifth-round pick Kingsley Enagbare. Gary continued his ascension as one of the NFL's best young pass rushers under Rebrovich in 2022 before sustaining a season-ending injury in Week 9. Prior to his injury, Gary ranked in the top 10 among NFL linebackers in QB hits (12, t-No. 6), sacks (six, t-No. 8) and pressures (27, No. 9) according to TruMedia. Smith finished last season with a team-leading 8½ sacks and a team-high 20 QB hits. Enagbare tallied three sacks in 2022, tied for No. 8 in the NFL among rookies and the most by a Green Bay rookie since DE Datone Jones (3½) in 2013.

In 2020 with the Jaguars, Rebrovich tutored DL Dawuane Smoot, who led the team in sacks (5½) and QB hits (career-high 17). In 2019, Rebrovich oversaw the development of DE Josh Allen, who led all NFL rookies and broke the single-season franchise record for rookies with 10½ sacks on his way to earning All-Rookie honors from the PFWA. Rebrovich also tutored DL Calais Campbell, who was named to his third consecutive Pro Bowl in '19, and DE Yannick Ngakoue, who was the only player in the league in 2019 to register eight-plus sacks, multiple forced fumbles and an INT return for a touchdown.

As the Jaguars' assistant defensive line coach in 2017-18, Rebrovich helped Campbell become the first player in team history to post 10-plus sacks in back-to-back seasons. In 2017, the Jaguars ranked No. 2 in the league with 55 sacks, the second most in a season in team history, as three defensive linemen earned Pro Bowl recognition (Campbell, Ngakoue, Malik Jackson). Campbell earned first-team All-Pro honors from The Associated Press and set franchise records for sacks in a season (14½) and sacks in a game (4.0 at Houston in Week 1).

Rebrovich held multiple positions with the Bills, serving as the defensive line coach in 2016, the outside linebackers coach in 2015, the assistant defensive line coach in 2014 and as a defensive quality control coach in 2013. In his four seasons with Buffalo, the Bills were tied for No. 3 in the NFL over that span with 171 sacks and posted back-to-back seasons with 50-plus sacks (2013-14) for the first time in team history.

In 2016, Rebrovich's line helped the Bills rank No. 6 in the league in pass defense (223.9 ypg) and No. 8 in sacks (39). As the assistant defensive line coach in 2014, Rebrovich helped the Bills lead the league with 54 sacks, with three different defensive linemen recording a double-digit sack total (Mario Williams, 14½; Marcell Dareus, 10; Jerry Hughes, 10). The Bills also ranked in the top five in the NFL in '14 in opponent passer rating (No. 2, 74.5), points allowed (No. 4, 18.1 ppg), total defense (No. 4, 312.2 ypg) and passing defense (No. 3, 205.8 ypg). In Rebrovich's first season with the team in 2013, he was part of a staff that helped the Bills register a franchise-record 57 sacks. Buffalo ranked No. 1 in the NFL in '13 in opponent completion percentage (55.3), No. 2 in interceptions (23), No. 3 in opponent passer rating (74.9), No. 4 in passing yards allowed (204.4 ypg) and tied for No. 6 in takeaways (30).

Prior to joining the Bills, Rebrovich spent the 2011-12 seasons as a defensive quality control coach at Syracuse. From 2008-10, he served as the defensive coordinator at his alma mater, SUNY Cortland, helping the Red Dragons post a 10-2 record in 2010 and an 11-2 mark in 2008 as the team advanced to the Division III quarterfinals. Rebrovich worked as the defensive line coach and the head strength and conditioning coach at Ferris State from 2005-07 and at Concord in 2004. He began his coaching career at SUNY Cortland, serving as the defensive line coach and head strength and conditioning coach from 2001-03.

Rebrovich played two seasons on the defensive line at SUNY Cortland, recording 40 tackles and 28 QB hurries in eight games as a senior in 1999. He played two seasons at Alfred State College before attending Cortland, serving as a team captain and earning the team's Most Improved Player award in 1997.

Rebrovich was born March 15, 1978, in Clarence, N.Y. He and his wife, Trisha, have two daughters, Reese and Madison, and a son, Chase.

BEN SIRMANS

RUNNING BACKS

12th NFL Season ➤ Eighth Packers Season

Ben Sirmans enters his 12th NFL season as an assistant coach in 2023 and his eighth with Green Bay as the team's running backs coach. Originally named to his position on Feb. 17, 2016, and retained by Head Coach Matt LaFleur on Jan. 31, 2019, Sirmans previously spent four seasons with the St. Louis Rams (2012-15) after 16 seasons in the college ranks.

Sirmans has worked with RB Aaron Jones for all six of Jones' seasons in the NFL as he became only the third player in NFL history to post 5,000-plus rushing yards and 60-plus scrimmage TDs and average 5.0-plus yards per carry in his first six seasons (2017-22), joining RBs Jim Brown (1957-62) and Adrian Peterson (2007-12). Among RBs with 850-plus career carries, Jones ranks No. 4 in league history with an average of 5.11 yards per carry.

In 2022, Sirmans worked with Jones as he posted a career-high 1,121 rushing yards on 213 carries, a 5.26-yard average that ranked No. 2 in the league among RBs. Since added a career-high 59 catches, the most by a Green Bay RB since Ahman Green (62) in 2001. Sirmans also tutored RB AJ Dillon, who rushed for a career-high seven TDs along with 770 yards, one of only two running backs in the league (Steelers RB Najee Harris) to rush for 750-plus yards and play in all 17 games each of the last two seasons (2021-22).

In 2021, Sirmans mentored Jones (1,190) and Dillon (1,116) as they became only the second RB duo in team history to both register 1,100-plus yards from scrimmage in the same season, joining RBs John Brockington (1,270) and MacArthur Lane (1,106) in 1972. Jones finished with a career-high six receiving TDs in 2021, the most in a season by a Green Bay RB since Johnny "Blood" McNally had 11 in 1931.

Under Sirmans' guidance in 2020, Jones earned his first career Pro Bowl selection after recording a career-high 1,104 yards on 201 carries with nine TDs and a franchise-record average of 5.49 yards per rush attempt (min. 200 att.), joining Green (2000-01) as the only Packers with 1,000-plus rushing yards, nine-plus rushing TDs and 45-plus receptions in back-to-back seasons. Sirmans also helped RB Jamaal Williams record his fourth consecutive season of 450-plus rushing yards and 200-plus receiving yards, while Dillon, as a rookie, became the youngest player in team history (per Elias) to post 100-plus rushing yards and two-plus rushing TDs in a game when he finished with a career-high 124 rushing yards and two TDs on 21 carries (5.9 avg.) vs. Tennessee in Week 16.

In 2019, Sirmans tutored Jones, who had a career-best 16 rushing TDs, which was tied for the most in the NFL in '19 and was the second most in franchise history behind FB Jim Taylor (19 in 1962). Jones posted 1,084 rushing yards on 236 carries (4.6 avg.), the first 1,000-yard rusher for the Packers since RB Eddie Lacy in 2014, while his 236 attempts were the fewest carries needed by a 1,000-yard rusher in team history since Brockington in 1971 (1,105 yards on 216 carries). Jones (49) and Williams (39) were the only running-back duo in the NFL to both have 35-plus receptions and multiple receiving TDs in 2019. As a group, Sirmans' backfield combined for the most receptions (101) by Green Bay RBs/FBs since 2006, the most receiving yards (881) since 2005 and the most receiving TDs (eight) since 2003.

Sirmans' third season in Green Bay saw him help guide the Packers to 1,667 rushing yards on 333 attempts, an average of 5.01 yards per carry that was the second-best mark in team history and ranked No. 2 in the league in 2018. Jones led the NFL (min. 100 att.) in yards per carry (5.47) in '18, the first Packer to lead the league in the category since the NFL went to a 16-game schedule in 1978.

In 2017, Sirmans first worked with Williams and Jones as they became the first rookie duo in franchise history to both rush for 400-plus yards in a season. Williams started seven contests and posted a team-high 556 yards rushing, the fourth most by a rookie in team annals. He registered 818 yards from scrimmage, the fourth-best total by a rookie in team history, highlighted by 115-plus yards from scrimmage in three consecutive games (Weeks 12-14), the first Green Bay rookie to do so since Billy Howton in 1952.

Jones played in 12 games with four starts in 2017 and rushed for 448 yards and four TDs on 81 carries, an average of 5.53 yards per carry that was good for No. 6 in franchise single-season history (min. 75 att.). Among RBs with 75-plus attempts, his rushing average ranked No. 2 in the league behind only Saints RB Alvin Kamara (6.07). Jones registered two 125-yard rushing games, matching the franchise rookie record (Brockington, 1971; Lacy, 2013) and tying for No. 4 in the league among all players in 2017.

In his first year with the Packers in 2016, Sirmans guided Ty Montgomery in a transition from wide receiver to running back after injuries to Lacy and James Starks. Montgomery started six games at RB and led the team with 457 yards and three TDs on just 77 carries, ranking No. 1 in the NFL (min. 75 att.) with an average of 5.94 yards per carry. Montgomery registered career highs in every rushing category at Chicago in Week 15, racking up 162 yards and two TDs on 16 carries (10.1 avg.), the most rushing yards by a Packer since RB Samkon Gado had 171 yards vs. Detroit in 2005.

Sirmans joined the Packers after spending four seasons (2012-15) with the Rams and establishing himself as a strong developer of young backs. In each of his final three seasons in St. Louis, Sirmans coached a rookie RB who led the team in rushing. In 2015, Sirmans tutored first-round pick Todd Gurley, who led all rookies and finished third among all NFL runners in rushing yards with 1,106 yards (4.8 avg.) to become the first Rams rookie to rush for 1,000-plus yards since Hall of Famers Jerome Bettis (1993) and Eric Dickerson (1983). Named Offensive Rookie of the Year by The Associated Press and earning Pro Bowl honors, Gurley was the first rookie in NFL history to rush for 125-plus yards in four consecutive games (finished with five total), and his 566 yards rushing were the most in a player's first four starts in the Super Bowl era.

Under Sirmans' direction in 2014, third-round selection Tre Mason ran for a team-high 765 yards in 12 games and finished second in rushing among all rookies. In 2013, fifth-round pick Zac Stacy started the final 12 games of the season and rushed for 973 yards, the third-highest total by a rookie at that point in team history. In 2012, Sirmans guided veteran Steven Jackson to his eighth consecutive 1,000-yard season as he became just the sixth player in NFL history to rush for 1,000 yards in eight or more seasons.

Sirmans spent five seasons (2011-2007) as running backs coach at Boston College, where he mentored the school's No. 3 all-time leading rusher, Montel Harris. In 2011, Harris became the school's career rushing leader and was named the 2011 Atlantic Coast Conference Preseason Player of the Year before a knee injury ended his season prematurely. Harris received first-team All-ACC honors in 2010 after rushing for 1,243 yards on 269 carries (4.6 avg.) and eight touchdowns. Harris finished his junior campaign 126 yards shy of the all-time school rushing record, and was the active ACC rushing leader with 3,600 yards, the most ever recorded by a junior in the ACC.

In 2007, Sirmans helped RB Andre Callender set a BC single-season record for receptions (76), earning him All-ACC second-team honors. Callender led the ACC in yards from scrimmage with 1,709 and set a single-season ACC record for most pass receptions by a running back. The 2007 Eagles began the season 8-0 and ranked No. 2 in the country en route to finishing 11-3, the first BC team to win 11 games since 1940.

Prior to his time at Boston College, Sirmans coached running backs at Michigan State in 2005, where the Spartans finished No. 20 in the nation in rushing (201.8 ypg). In 2006, he coached special teams as well as the running backs.

Sirmans spent five seasons (2000-04) coaching at Kent State, where he tutored the running backs. In 2001 and 2002, the team ran for 215.0 yards per game, finishing No. 13 and No. 15 nationally in rushing production those two seasons. In 2004, Kent State scored 30.5 points per game, the second-best mark to that point in school history.

Sirmans began his coaching career at his alma mater, the University of Maine, serving as running backs coach and recruiting coordinator from 1996-1999. As a four-year letterman and starter, Sirmans was a running back under current Iowa head coach Kirk Ferentz for three years (1990-92). He ran for 1,214 yards, earning all-conference and All-New England honors his senior year. He graduated from Maine in 1993 with a degree in physical education, health and recreation.

Sirmans was born Oct. 17, 1970, in East Orange, N.J. He is married to the former Letia Thompson. The couple has a son, Marcus, 14.

MULTIPLE 100-YARD RUSHERS IN SAME GAME

In the 2008 regular-season finale, two Packers topped 100 yards rushing, a feat which has been accomplished only twice by the team in the past 37 seasons. Ryan Grant (106) and DeShawn Wynn (106 yards) became the fifth pair in Packers history to accomplish the feat.

RON WOLF'S STAMP ON PACKERS HISTORY

Ron Wolf arrived in Green Bay on Nov. 27, 1991, with a mandate to rescue the Green and Gold from a quarter-century of mediocrity, an assignment which prompted him to assert, "I was brought here to win."

And win, in the decade to follow, the Packers did – in large part because of his leadership and the "cast" he assembled to execute one of the most electrifying turnarounds in NFL annals ... rewardingly punctuated by Green Bay's first Super Bowl victory in nearly three decades and back-to-back appearances in professional football's ultimate game.

During the history-making process, he made a more profound impact upon the Packers organization than anyone since the revered Vince Lombardi, who arrived in Green Bay with a similar mission 32 years earlier. Over Wolf's 1992-2000 tenure, the Packers compiled the NFL's second-best regular-season record, a 92-52 mark for a .639 percentage, recorded seven straight winning seasons and made six consecutive playoff appearances.

He converted the Green and Gold from perennial also-rans into consistent winners, exemplified by the fact the Packers are tied for the second-best regular-season won-lost record since the 1993 institution of free agency (271-159-2, .630).

Wolf's aggressive stewardship, launched with the hiring of 49ers offensive coordinator Mike Holmgren as head coach and the acquisition of Brett Favre as a franchise quarterback in 1992, is perhaps no better illustrated than by the Packers' immediate, 9-7 turnaround in 1992 – his first year on the job – after the team had been a dismal 4-12 in 1991 and 6-10 in 1990 ... a transformation which brought him recognition as NFL Executive of the Year by Sporting News.

Wolf, reflecting upon the overall record from his perspective on the day he announced his retirement, observed with pardonable satisfaction: "What people said couldn't happen here ... happened here (building a winner in Green Bay) ... I'm proud of that."

A statistical glance at some notable team figures, over the nine seasons before – and after – Wolf took control:

BYRON STORER

ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS

10th Season as NFL Coach > Second Packers Season

Entering his 10th season coaching in the NFL, Byron Storer begins his second year with the Packers in 2023 as the team's assistant special teams coach.

Named to his position on Feb. 15, 2022, by Head Coach Matt LaFleur, Storer came to Green Bay after spending the previous four seasons (2018-21) with the Oakland/Las Vegas Raiders as the team's assistant special teams coach, where he assisted current Packers assistant head coach/special teams coordinator Rich Bisaccia. Storer also served as an assistant special teams coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers for two seasons (2010-11) and worked for the San Diego Chargers for two seasons, working as a special teams assistant in 2012 and as assistant linebackers coach in 2013.

In his first season with the Packers in 2022, Storer helped oversee a dramatic improvement in Green Bay's special teams. The Packers ranked No. 22 in Rick Gosselin's special teams rankings, a 10-spot improvement from their No. 32 ranking in 2021. Storer also helped coach CB Keisean Nixon to first-team All-Pro honors from The Associated Press as Nixon became the first kick returner in franchise history to earn a spot on the team since the position was added in 1976. Nixon ranked No. 2 in the NFL with an average of 28.8 yards per kickoff return, the top single-season mark in team annals among players with 30-plus returns. He posted a league-best 1,009 yards on kickoff returns, just the third player in franchise history to lead the NFL in the category (Al Carmichael in 1956 and 1957, Dave Hampton in 1971). Nixon led the NFL in kickoff returns of 50-plus yards (five) and 30-plus yards (11), the most by a Packer in both categories dating back to 2000. Green Bay ranked No. 4 in the league in average starting field position after kickoffs (26.6), the top mark posted by the Packers since 2010 (27.4).

In 2021 with the Raiders, Storer helped tutor P AJ Cole, who led the league with an average of 50.0 yards per punt and ranked No. 5 in the league with a net average of 42.5 yards on his way to earning first-team AP All-Pro recognition and his first Pro Bowl selection. K Daniel Carlson set a single-season franchise record with 150 points (tied for No. 1 in the NFL), including a team-record 40 field goals, tied for the second most in a season in NFL history. Carlson earned second-team AP All-Pro honors and was named the AFC Special Teams Player of the Week in Weeks 2, 12, 17 and 18, the first NFL kicker to earn the honor four times in a season.

Carlson set a single-season team record for FG percentage in 2020 by posting a 94.3 mark (33 of 35) on his way to scoring 144 points, tied for No. 1 in the NFL on the season. WR Hunter Renfrow ranked No. 2 in the league with an average of 11.5 yards per punt return, while DE Maxx Crosby earned AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors in the season finale when he blocked two field goals to preserve the win. Crosby's two blocked kicks were tied for the most in a single game by an NFL player since 2000 as he joined DT Richard Seymour (2011) as the only Raiders to block two kicks in a game (since 2000).

Storer worked with Cole in 2019 as he set team rookie records for punting average (46.0), net punting average (39.4) and punts inside the 20 (33, No. 5 in the NFL). The Raiders were No. 8 in the NFL in opponent kickoff return average (20.9) after ranking No. 22 in the league in the category in 2018. In Storer's first year with the club in 2018, WR Dwayne Harris ranked No. 2 in the league with a 14.1-yard average on punt returns, highlighted by a franchise-record 99-yard TD return vs. Denver in Week 16.

From 2014-17, Storer stepped away from the coaching profession to help start a new branch of his family's transportation business, Storer San Francisco. He advanced to general manager, operating commuter shuttle transportation for some of the largest tech companies in the world.

Storer coached with the Chargers in 2012-13, first serving as a special teams assistant in 2012 before becoming the assistant linebackers coach in 2013. In his lone season assisting current Packers defensive coordinator Joe Barry with the linebackers, the Chargers allowed 107.8

rushing yards per game, good for No. 12 in the NFL. In 2012, Storer helped San Diego rank No. 3 in the NFL in average opponent starting field position after kickoffs (20.4) after the Chargers ranked No. 26 in the category in 2011 (22.8). The Chargers also ranked No. 3 in the league in FG percentage (92.6, 25 of 27) after checking in at tied for No. 20 (80.0, 28 of 35) in 2011, and P Mike Scifres ranked No. 3 in the NFL in punting average with a single-season franchise-record 48.3-yard average.

Storer entered the NFL coaching ranks with the Buccaneers in 2010, serving as the team's assistant special teams coach for two seasons. Inheriting a unit that finished last in the league in FG percentage in 2009 (61.5, 16 of 26), Storer helped Tampa Bay rank tied for No. 17 in the category in 2010 (82.1, 23 of 28) and then No. 2 in the league in 2011 (92.9, 26 of 28). The Buccaneers ranked No. 4 in the NFL in FG percentage (87.5) in Storer's two seasons assisting with the special teams.

Prior to coaching with Tampa Bay, Storer spent three seasons with the team as a fullback while also appearing on special teams. He played in 15 games with six starts in 2007-08 before sustaining a career-ending injury in 2008 that would lead to him spending the entire 2009 campaign on injured reserve. Storer originally signed with the Buccaneers as an undrafted free agent in May 2007 out of the University of California, where he was a three-time All-Pacific-10 second-team selection (2004-06) for his efforts on special teams after starting his career as a walk-on. He took over as the starter at fullback for the Golden Bears as a senior in 2006, appearing in 12 games with six starts and posting eight carries for 16 yards (2.0 avg.) and eight receptions for 61 yards (7.6 avg.).

Storer was born May 1, 1984, in Modesto, Calif. He and his wife, Ashley, have three daughters, Bennie, Lulu and Gal.

TIM LESTER
SENIOR ANALYST

Hired March 10, 2023, Tim Lester begins his first season as a senior analyst for the Packers. Lester possesses 21 years of collegiate coaching experience, including the last six seasons (2017-22) as the head coach at Western Michigan University.

Lester led the Broncos to a 37-32 (.536) overall record, guiding the team to three bowl appearances and a .500 mark or better in all but one season. In 2021, WMU capped off an eight-win season with a 52-24 victory over Nevada in the Quick Lane Bowl. In 2020, Lester guided the team to a 4-2 record in a COVID-shortened season as the Broncos ranked tied for No. 9 in the nation in scoring offense (41.7 ppg) and No. 16 in total offense (479.7 ypg). WR D'Wayne Eskridge was named the Mid-American Conference Special Teams Player of the Year and was a finalist for the Paul Hornung Award after leading the FBS in all-purpose yards (213.0 ypg). Kaleb Eleby threw 18 TD passes with just two INTs and finished No. 3 in the country in passer rating behind only Alabama's Mac Jones and BYU's Zach Wilson.

In 2019, Lester led the Broncos to a 7-6 mark and an appearance in the SERVPRO First Responder Bowl. RB LeVante Bellamy was tied for No. 1 in the nation in rushing TDs (23) and was named the MAC's MVP and the Offensive Player of the Year, and LB Treshaun Hayward was named the MAC Defensive Player of the Year after posting a league-high 142 tackles. In 2018, Lester guided the Broncos to a berth in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl, and in 2017, WMU led the league with 12 All-MAC selections. The Broncos had three players selected in the 2018 NFL Draft in OL Chukwuma Okorafor (third round, Pittsburgh), CB Sam Beal (third round, supplemental, N.Y. Giants) and CB Darius Phillips (fifth round, Cincinnati).

Prior to taking over at WMU, Lester served as the quarterbacks coach at Purdue in 2016, mentoring sophomore David Blough as he threw for 3,352 yards and 25 TDs. Lester held the same position at Syracuse from 2013-15 while also serving as the offensive coordinator for the Orange in 2014-15.

Lester was the head coach at Division III Elmhurst (Ill.) College from 2008-12, where he posted a 33-19 record (.635), the second-highest winning percentage in school history. In 2012, he led the Bluejays to a 10-2 mark and a College Conference of Illinois and Wisconsin (CCIW) title as well as Elmhurst's first playoff appearance on his way to being named the CCIW Coach of the Year.

Lester also served as the assistant head coach/defensive coordinator at North Central College (2007), quarterbacks coach at Western Michigan (2005-06) and offensive coordinator at Elmhurst (2002-03). He was the head coach at Division II Saint Joseph's College in Indiana in 2004, where he was named the Independent Football Alliance Coach of the Year.

Lester was drafted by the Chicago Enforcers in the sixth round of the 2001 XFL Draft and went on to play in four games that season. He also spent time in the Arena Football League in 2001 with the Nashville Kats and the Carolina Cobras. Lester played for the Memphis Xplorers of the Arena Football League 2 in 2002.

Lester finished his playing career at Western Michigan (1996-99) ranked No. 4 in FBS history in passing yards (11,299) and No. 6 in passing TDs (87). He set 17 school passing records and eight MAC records. Lester was named the MAC Freshman of the Year in 1996 and was named to the Western Michigan University Athletic Hall of Fame in 2011.

Lester, who was born on Feb. 8, 1977, in Wheaton, Ill., earned his bachelor's degree in mathematics at Western Michigan. He and his wife, Dawn, have three sons, Camden, Carter and Cooper. His oldest son, Quinn, played volleyball at Ball State and was the recipient of the 2022 Lloy Ball Award, which is presented to the nation's best setter in NCAA Division I-II.

PRESIDENT KENNEDY ASSISTS PACKERS TO 1961 CHAMPIONSHIP

Vince Lombardi won nine straight postseason games, a streak that began in 1961 during the Berlin Crisis when Paul Hornung, Ray Nitschke and Boyd Dowler were called up to active military duty.

Hornung was ordered to report to Fort Riley, Kan.; Nitschke and Dowler to Fort Lewis, Wash.

All three reported by mid-November and were at the mercy of their base commanders as far as getting weekend passes to play football. In the end, Dowler played all 14 games that season, and Nitschke and Hornung each played 12.

In fact, Hornung played enough to be named the NFL's Most Valuable Player.

But with the league's championship game scheduled for Dec. 31, Lombardi was fretting over how much practice time the three would get.

That proved to be no problem for Dowler and Nitschke. They were given 14-day leaves and arrived back in Green Bay on Dec. 22. But Hornung was awarded just a six-day leave that wasn't going to start until Dec. 27, leaving him scant time to practice.

Based on secondhand accounts, the story goes that Lombardi decided to pull some strings. He had President John F. Kennedy's private phone number at the White House and called him. Kennedy, in turn, called Fort Riley with clear instructions that Hornung be given an earlier release.

Orders were followed and Hornung arrived in Green Bay not only in time for a week of practice, but to escort a date to Green Bay's Charity Ball on Dec. 23.

The Packers ended up beating the Giants, 37-0, and Hornung was named the game's MVP.

The Berlin Crisis was a Cold War confrontation between the United States and the Soviet Union over the occupation of the German capital. At its height in late 1961, there was fear that it could trigger a nuclear war.

WENDEL DAVIS

DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Hired Feb. 1, 2019, Wendel Davis is in his fifth season as a defensive quality control coach for the Packers. Davis joined the team after three seasons (2016-18) working as a defensive graduate assistant at the University of Georgia.

In his current role in Green Bay, Davis works closely with defensive coordinator Joe Barry with a focus on coaching the defensive line in addition to breaking down opponent game film and analyzing their offensive tendencies, developing the playbook, compiling team and player reports and coordinating the opponent scout team. He also assists with special teams.

The 2022 season saw Davis help the Packers to be one of only four teams (Baltimore, Kansas City, N.Y. Jets) to hold 16 opponents under 30 points during the regular season, a franchise single-season high. Green Bay's defense also finished the 2022 season No. 5 in the NFL in goal-to-go percentage (63.64), No. 8 in third-down percentage (37.63) and No. 10 in first downs/game (18.9).

In 2021, Davis assisted with a defense that ranked in the top 10 in the league in total defense (No. 9, 328.2 ypg), passing defense (No. 10, 219.1 ypg), interceptions (t-No. 6, 18) and takeaways (t-No. 8, 26). The 328.2 yards allowed per game were the fewest by Green Bay since 2010 (309.1 ypg) and the 26 takeaways were the most registered by the Packers since 2014 (27).

In 2020, Davis helped coach a unit that finished No. 9 in the NFL in total defense, the Packers' highest ranking in the category since 2010 (No. 5). In his first season with Green Bay in 2019, Davis was part of a staff that helped the defense rank No. 9 in the NFL in points allowed (19.6 ppg), the first time the Packers had finished in the top 10 since 2010 (15.6 ppg, No. 2). Green Bay also ranked in the top 10 in the league in '19 in INTs (17, t-No. 3), takeaways (25, t-No. 7) and opponent passer rating (81.1, No. 6).

As a graduate assistant at Georgia, Davis was part of a coaching staff that led the Bulldogs to a 32-10 record from 2016-18 with appearances in two SEC championship games, the Rose Bowl, the College Football Playoff National Championship and the Sugar Bowl. While at Georgia, he worked with the inside linebackers, assisted with recruiting and helped coach the defensive scout team. In 2017, the Bulldogs ranked No. 4 in the nation in total defense and No. 5 in scoring defense. He also helped mentor LB Roquan Smith, who was a unanimous first-team All-American in 2017 and became the first Georgia player to win the Butkus Award, given to the nation's top linebacker.

Prior to his time with the Bulldogs, Davis spent the 2015 season at the University of Texas as a defensive football analyst, where he worked with the defensive line. He helped tutor DT Hassan Ridgeway, who went on to be selected in the fourth round (No. 116 overall) of the 2016 NFL Draft by the Indianapolis Colts.

Davis worked for two seasons (2013-14) as the inside LBs coach and travel coordinator at Texas A&M University-Commerce. He was part of a staff that helped turn around a 1-9 record in 2012 to 7-5 in 2013. The turnaround continued in 2014 as the Lions went 9-3 and won the Lone Star Conference title. Davis began his coaching career as a volunteer at West Texas A&M, eventually serving as the inside LBs/graduate assistant (2010-12).

A native of Sweeney, Texas, Davis was a four-year letterwinner (2006-09) and two-year starter at LB at the University of Arkansas. He recorded 164 career tackles in 47 games, earned SEC All-Freshman recognition in 2006 and served as team captain as a senior in 2009. He graduated from Arkansas with a bachelor's degree in sociology and holds a graduate degree in education from the University of Georgia and Texas A&M University-Commerce.

Born Aug. 16, 1988, Davis resides in Green Bay.

OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Hired March 17, 2022, Ramsen Golphashin is in his second season as an offensive quality control coach for the Packers. Golphashin came to Green Bay from the college ranks, having most recently worked at UCLA from 2018-21, where he served as an offensive line graduate assistant from 2018-19 and a defensive line analyst in 2020-21.

In his first season in Green Bay in 2022, Golphashin worked closely with the offensive line as the Packers only surrendered 32 sacks on the season (No. 7 in the NFL). Green Bay also posted 175-plus rushing yards in five games last season, tied for No. 3 in the NFL behind only Chicago (eight) and Baltimore (seven). It was the most by the Packers in a season since 2013.

During his time at UCLA, Golphashin helped coach OL Sean Rhyhan, who was selected by the Packers in the third round (No. 92 overall) of the 2022 NFL Draft. As a true freshman in 2019, Rhyhan started all 12 games and was named to the Freshman All-America team by both USA Today and The Athletic. In 2019, the Bruins' line helped the offense register a streak of five consecutive 200-yard rushing games for the first time since 1978.

Golphashin also aided in the development of Bruins DL Osa Odighizuwa, who was a third-round draft selection (No. 75 overall) by the Dallas Cowboys in 2021. As a senior at UCLA in 2020, Odighizuwa led the defensive line with 30 tackles (12 solo) and ranked No. 2 on the team with four sacks on his way to earning consensus first-team All-Pacific-12 recognition.

In 2017, Golphashin served as an offensive quality control coach at the University of California-Berkeley. That season, the Golden Bears were one of only three Pac-12 teams to feature a 3,000-yard passer (QB Ross Bowers, 3,039) and a 1,000-yard rusher (RB Patrick Laird, 1,127).

Golphashin worked as an offensive line graduate assistant at the University of Oregon in 2016, where he helped develop OL Tyrell Crosby, who went on to be drafted in the fifth round (No. 153 overall) by the Detroit Lions in 2018. The Ducks ranked No. 15 in the nation in '16 in yards per carry (5.51) and No. 27 in rushing offense (226.4 ypg).

Golphashin's first coaching experience came at the University of Hawai'i in 2015, where he worked as an offensive line graduate assistant. The line helped clear holes for RB Paul Harris as he led the team with a career-high 1,132 rushing yards, the first 1,000-yard rusher at UH since 2010 and only the second since 1992.

Golphashin played on the offensive line at Oregon from 2008-11, where he was a part of teams that won three straight Pac-12 titles (2009-11) and made an appearance in the BCS national title game in 2011. He started at right guard as a senior in the 2011 season opener vs. LSU, but saw his season end after two games due to a significant knee injury. Golphashin was one of two Ducks to be named the "most inspirational" player by his teammates that season. He was also part of the Ducks squad that beat Wisconsin in the 2012 Rose Bowl.

Golphashin began his career as a chief of staff intern with the football team at his alma mater for a year.

Golphashin also helped train some of the top offensive and defensive linemen in preparation for the 2022 NFL Draft, putting Michigan DE Aidan Hutchinson and North Carolina State OL Ickey Ekwonu through a series of skills training, drills and combine preparation.

Golphashin was born Dec. 27, 1988, in Culver City, Calif.

ROB GROSSO

OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Hired March 10, 2023, Rob Grosso begins his first season as an offensive quality control coach for Green Bay, where he will work primarily with the tight ends. Grosso comes to the Packers after serving as a defensive quality control coach for the Arizona Cardinals for four seasons (2019-22), where he assisted with the defensive backs.

In 2022, Grosso (GROW-so) was part of a defensive staff that helped Arizona rank No. 2 in the league in yards allowed per completion (10.10), the top single-season mark by the Cardinals since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger. Arizona allowed only 40 completions of 20-plus yards on the season, tied for No. 3 in the league. S Budda Baker earned his fourth straight Pro Bowl selection, the only safety in the NFL to be named to the Pro Bowl in each of the last four seasons (2019-22). In 2021, the Cardinals ranked No. 7 in the NFL in takeaways (27) and No. 8 in offensive points allowed (349), and S Jalen Thompson was one of only three defensive backs in the league to post 100-plus tackles (team-high 120), three-plus INTs (three) and five-plus passes defended (seven).

In 2020, Grosso was part of a staff that helped the Cardinals rank No. 10 in the NFL in passing defense (226.4 ypg) as CBs Patrick Peterson and Dre Kirkpatrick both posted three INTs. Second-year CB Byron Murphy Jr. registered two sacks and two fumble recoveries, one of only two CBs in the NFL in 2020 to post multiple sacks and multiple fumble recoveries as he became the first Cardinals CB in team history (since 1982) to accomplish that feat in a season.

Grosso came to Arizona after spending the 2018 season with the Denver Broncos as the assistant to the head coach under Vance Joseph. Grosso also assisted with the team's outside linebackers and special teams. For the first time in team history, the Broncos featured two players with 12-plus sacks as OLBs Von Miller (14½) and Bradley Chubb (12) both hit that mark. Grosso was elevated to that position after serving as an operations intern with the Broncos in 2017.

Grosso worked with the Arizona Rattlers of the Indoor Football League during the 2017 season as a coaching/player personnel intern. He got his start in the NFL with Denver as a training camp operations intern (2015-16) before working as a volunteer assistant scout with the Saskatchewan Rough Riders (2016-17) and as a scout for Sports Info Solutions in 2016. His first coaching experience came at his alma mater, John Carroll University, in 2014-15 when he served as a student coaching/recruiting assistant.

Grosso played wide receiver at John Carroll for three seasons (2011-13) and earned his bachelor's degree in business administration and management from the school in 2015. He attended Bishop Timon-St. Jude High School in Buffalo, N.Y., where he played football and lacrosse.

Grosso was born on Sept. 22, 1993, in Buffalo, N.Y., and grew up in Lackawanna, N.Y.

JUSTIN HOOD

DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Hired March 1, 2021, Justin Hood begins his third season as a defensive quality control coach for the Packers. Hood joined Green Bay after serving for two seasons (2019-20) as the secondary coach and defensive pass game coordinator at Kent State.

The 2022 season saw Hood help Green Bay finish near the top of the league in a few passing-defense categories, ranking No. 6 in passing yards allowed per game (197.0), No. 2 in interception rate percentage (3.56) and tied for No. 4 with 17 INTs. The Packers were also one of only four teams (Baltimore, Kansas City, N.Y. Jets) to hold 16 opponents under 30 points during the regular season, a franchise single-season high.

In 2021, Hood assisted with a defense that ranked in the top 10 in the league in total defense (No. 9, 328.2 ypg), passing defense (No. 10, 219.1 ypg), interceptions (t-No. 6, 18) and takeaways (t-No. 8, 26). The 328.2 yards allowed per game were the fewest by Green Bay since 2010 (309.1 ypg) and the 26 takeaways were the most registered by the Packers since 2014 (27).

Under Hood's direction in 2020, S Dean Clark led the Golden Flashes with 28 tackles (19 solo), an INT and a forced fumble as the team played an abbreviated four-game season. In Hood's first year with the program in 2019, CB Jamal Parker earned second-team All-Mid-American Conference honors after recording 10 pass breakups (No. 4 in the MAC) and three INTs (tied for No. 5 in the MAC). DB Qwuanterez Knight led the team with 10½ tackles for a loss on the season and was named the defensive MVP of Kent State's 51-41 victory over Utah State in the Tropical Smoothie Café Frisco Bowl (Dec. 20).

Hood joined Kent State after coaching for three years at the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) level, first at Davidson College (N.C.), where he was promoted from safeties/recruiting coordinator (2016) to defensive pass game coordinator (2017) before serving as the Wildcats' interim head coach (December 2017). While at Davidson, Hood also worked with the Wildcats' kick and punt returners. In 2018, Hood coached outside linebackers at Western Carolina.

Before his time at Davidson, Hood served as the defensive coordinator for two seasons (2014-15) at Capital University (Columbus, Ohio) while also coaching the team's DBs. In 2014, S Jimmy Curtis earned All-Ohio Athletic Conference honorable mention after leading the team in tackles (59), INTs (three), passes defended (eight) and forced fumbles (four).

Prior to arriving at Capital, Hood worked as a graduate assistant at the University of Illinois (2013-14), working with CBs and maintaining responsibilities in scouting and film breakdown, and coaching the scout offense and special teams.

Hood gained his first NFL experience as a Bill Walsh intern for the N.Y. Giants in August 2013, assisting with coaching the RBs and managing the scout special teams. He began his post-playing career at the University of Oregon as a recruiting administrative assistant (2010-11) and then as an offensive intern and in quality control (2011-12). While with the Ducks, he assisted in recruiting, coaching RBs and communicating defensive coverages on gamadays as the team finished as the national runner-up in 2011 and won the Rose Bowl in 2012.

Hood was a four-year starter and two-year captain as a safety at Ashland (Ohio) University (2004-07), where Packers Head Coach Matt LaFleur served as the offensive coordinator during Hood's final season. As a senior, Hood earned second-team All-Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference honors.

Born June 27, 1986, in Youngstown, Ohio, Hood graduated from Ashland with a bachelor's degree in marketing before earning a master's degree in education policy and leadership from Illinois. He and his wife, Sarah, reside in Green Bay with their daughters, Luca and Rowan.

QUINSHON ODOM

COACHING ASSISTANT (MINORITY FELLOWSHIP)

Hired on March 17, 2022, Quinshon Odom begins his second season as a coaching assistant through the Packers' minority coaching fellowship program. He previously worked in Green Bay's player personnel department during the 2018 season. Odom spent 2021 as an offensive line graduate assistant at the University of Texas.

The 2022 season saw Odom focus his duties on offense, helping the Packers to a No. 5 ranking in the NFL in average time of possession (31:23). Green Bay also posted 175-plus rushing yards in five games last season, tied for No. 3 in the NFL behind only Chicago (eight) and Baltimore (seven). It was the most by the Packers in a season since 2013.

In his lone season at Texas, the Longhorns' offensive line helped clear holes for RB Bijan Robinson, who led the team with 1,127 yards and 11 TDs on his way to earning first-team All-Big 12 honors from the media and coaches. Texas finished No. 2 in the Big 12 with an average of 199.3 rushing yards per game, and the line also helped protect QB Casey Thompson, who led the Big 12 with 24 TD passes on the season. OL Derek Kerstetter earned first-team All-Big 12 recognition from the league's coaches for his performance in 2021.

Prior to joining the Longhorns, Odom assisted with the Buffalo Bills' running backs during their 2021 training camp as part of a Bill Walsh Diversity Coach Fellowship.

Around his time with the Packers, Odom coached at Vanderbilt, first as an offensive graduate assistant in 2016-17 and then as an offensive quality control coach in 2019-20. At Vanderbilt, Odom assisted in the development of current Tampa Bay Buccaneers RB Ke'Shawn Vaughn, who led the Commodores with 1,028 rushing yards and nine TDs on 198 carries (5.2 avg.) in 2019.

In 2015, Odom began his coaching career as an intern for the Eastern Kentucky football team.

Odom played quarterback at Shaw University (N.C.) from 2010-13, helping the Bears to a Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association title as a freshman. A team captain, Odom also was selected to the CIAA All-Academic Team in 2010 and served as the president of Shaw's student-athlete advisory committee during his senior year.

Born Aug. 22, 1991, in Lakeland, Fla., Odom earned a bachelor's degree in communications and journalism from Shaw in 2014. He also completed postgraduate degrees in sports management from Florida State in 2015 and liberal arts and science from Vanderbilt in 2017. Odom resides in Green Bay, Wis.

KYLE WILBER

SPECIAL TEAMS QUALITY CONTROL

Hired on March 10, 2023, Kyle Wilber begins his first season as the special teams quality control coach for the Packers. Wilber enters the coaching ranks following a 10-year NFL playing career with the Dallas Cowboys (2012-17) and the Oakland/Las Vegas Raiders (2018-21).

During his decade in the league, Wilber appeared in 135 regular-season games as a defensive end and linebacker with 17 starts and registered 104 tackles (70 solo), six tackles for a loss, 3½ sacks, seven QB hits, four passes defended, a forced fumble and four fumble recoveries on defense. On special teams, he recorded 58 tackles, two forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries. Wilber also played in four postseason contests and posted two tackles (one solo) and an interception.

Wilber appeared in 14-plus games in eight consecutive seasons (2013-20) and played in all 16 regular-season contests in five of those seasons. He played in 89 games with 16 starts during his six seasons (2012-17) with the Dallas Cowboys after being selected by the team in the fourth round (No. 113 overall) of the 2012 NFL Draft. In 2015, Wilber played in all 16 games for the third straight season and matched his career-high with six starts, finishing with 17 tackles (12 solo) on defense and tying for the team lead with nine tackles on special teams. He played in all 16 games for the first time in his career in 2013 and made a career-high six starts, posting a career-best 43 tackles (30 solo), a career-high two sacks, a forced fumble and two fumble recoveries.

Wilber spent the final four years of his playing career with the Raiders, appearing in 46 games with one start from 2018-21 as he contributed primarily on special teams under current Packers assistant head coach/special teams coordinator Rich Bisaccia. In 2020, Wilber led the team with eight tackles on special teams.

Wilber attended Wake Forest University (2008-11), where he played in 43 games with 36 starts and posted 195 tackles (117 solo), 35½ tackles for a loss, 13½ sacks, six QB pressures, six passes defended, six forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries while adding four blocked kicks. He finished his career ranked No. 6 in school history in sacks and No. 8 in tackles for a loss. Wilber earned third-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference recognition from The NFL Draft Report as a senior in 2011 after posting a career-high 70 tackles (48 solo). He earned third-team All-ACC honors from Phil Steele's College Football as a junior in 2010 after leading the team with a career-high six sacks and a career-best 14½ tackles for a loss.

Wilber attended Apopka (Fla.) High School, where he earned first-team All-Central Florida and first-team All-Orange County recognition as a senior in 2006 after posting 55 tackles, 10 tackles for a loss and four sacks. He was born April 26, 1989, in Orlando, Fla.

Wilber serves as an ambassador for "Active Minds," a non-profit organization that promotes mental health for young adults and reaches more than 1.9 million people each year through awareness campaigns, events, advocacy, outreach and more.

THADEUS JACKSON

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING ASSISTANT

Hired in advance of the team's offseason training program in 2010 as strength and conditioning assistant, Thadeus Jackson enters his 14th season with the Packers.

His primary duties include designing, organizing and executing strength and conditioning procedures, as well as assisting with practice and the special teams staff on game days.

Prior to coming to the Packers, Jackson spent 2009 as the head strength and conditioning coach at Hinds Community College (Raymond, Miss.), the same school where he started his career. He developed all of the strength and conditioning and speed programs for the football team, and also assisted with the on-field coaching of the wide receivers.

Jackson started his career in sports at Hinds as a student athletic trainer from 2000-01, working with the football, baseball, track and field, and basketball teams. He also assisted with the strength and conditioning program, specifically offseason workouts. During his first stint at Hinds, he worked with future Iowa quarterback and 2002 Heisman Trophy runner-up Brad Banks.

Following the completion of his associate's degree at Hinds, Jackson moved on to the University of Alabama, where he served as a student athletic trainer from 2002-05. In 2005, he was hired as a strength and conditioning assistant at Alabama, spending the majority of his time with the football program. During his time at the school, Jackson worked with numerous future NFL players, including DeMeco Ryans (Houston/Philadelphia) and former Packers safety Charlie Peprah.

While still working at Alabama, Jackson got his first NFL experience, serving as an athletic training intern for the New England Patriots during the team's 2003 training camp.

Jackson left Alabama in 2007 to serve as a manager and training coordinator at Young Champions Academy in Waco, Texas. He developed and coordinated programs designed to teach children basic coordination, movement and sports-specific skills. He also made staff schedules, gave tours and assisted in marketing and advertising for the academy.

Jackson holds a B.S. in human environmental science from the University of Alabama and completed his M.S. in exercise science and performance enhancement from California University (Pa.). He is also certified as a sports performance coach by USA Weightlifting (Level 1 Sport Performance) and recently attained his NASM (National Academy of Sports Medicine) performance-enhancement specialist certification. Additionally, Jackson is a certified strength and conditioning specialist (CSCS) by the NSCA (National Strength and Conditioning Association) and an NSCA-registered strength and conditioning coach with distinction (RSCC*D). He is also currently working toward a doctoral degree in sports management with an emphasis in leadership/sports exercise science and a minor in sports medicine at the United States Sports Academy.

Jackson, a native of Columbus, Miss., attended New Hope High School in Columbus, starting three years and earning two letters as a defensive back. He was named team captain as a senior. Jackson and his wife reside in De Pere, Wis.

MARK LOVAT

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING ASSISTANT

Mark Lovat enters his 25th year with the Packers, having moved back to a strength and conditioning assistant role in 2019. He previously held the same position from 1999-2009, and then worked as the club's strength and conditioning coordinator from 2010-2018.

Lovat joined the team full-time on Jan. 25, 1999, and with the promotion of Chris Gizzi to strength and conditioning coordinator on Feb. 18, 2019, has now served under four different Green Bay strength and conditioning coordinators – Barry Rubin (1999-2005), Rock Gullickson (2006-08), Dave Redding (2009) and Gizzi. Lovat also previously served two summer internships in the club's weight room.

Lovat (luh-VOTT) was named the NFL Strength Coach of the Year for his work in 2011 by the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society, an award based on a vote of his peers in the field. Lovat became the third Green Bay strength coach to win the prestigious honor, joining Kent Johnson (1997) and Gullickson (2007).

In 2010, Lovat was honored by the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society with the Super Bowl Achievement Award.

An accomplished athlete himself, Lovat earned a Division I baseball scholarship to Butler University in Indianapolis, starting three seasons at shortstop and second base for the Bulldogs. He also received the Helen Tewksbury Award for academic and athletic leadership and the Mental Attitude Award during the course of his playing career.

After graduating cum laude and with high honors from Butler in 1992 with a B.A. degree in Spanish and international studies, Lovat spent four years at Lake Havasu City (Ariz.) High School, teaching Spanish as well as coaching football and baseball.

The son of former Green Bay offensive line coach Tom Lovat (1980, 1992-98), Lovat is a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA). He became a certified strength and conditioning specialist (CSCS) in April 2000.

In 2005, Lovat completed his master's degree in exercise science and performance enhancement from California University of Pennsylvania. He also has earned certifications as a performance-enhancement specialist (PES) and as a corrective-exercise specialist (CES) from the National Academy of Sports Medicine (NASM). Additionally, in 2002 he achieved a Level 1 certification through USA Weightlifting, the governing body of the U.S. Olympic weightlifting team. Lovat is also certified in the Functional Movement Screen (FMS) and completed a human-movement science course as part of his continuing education.

Born in Pocatello, Idaho, Lovat lives in Green Bay with his wife, Maggie, and son, Luke.

GRANT THORNE

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING ASSISTANT

Grant Thorne enters his 11th year with the Packers in 2023 and ninth as a strength and conditioning assistant. His primary duties include designing, organizing and administering strength and conditioning programs, as well as advising on training methods using the latest in sports technology and key performance indicators he observes during practice and competition. He spent 2013-14 as a strength and conditioning consultant with the Packers.

Prior to coming to Green Bay, Thorne spent four years (2011-14) at Purdue University as a sports performance coach. While with the Boilermakers, he programmed several aspects of the strength, speed and agility training regimens for the football, track and field, and men's golf teams. He also served as an instructor for clinical students while working toward his master's degree in health and kinesiology sport performance, focusing on sports-science technology and methodology.

While earning a B.S. in science from Nicholls State University (2006-08), Thorne got his first coaching experience with the San Diego Chargers as a strength and conditioning summer intern in 2006.

Thorne's multidisciplinary professional knowledge has its roots in his background as a two-sport professional athlete. After a two-year football career at Nicholls State (2006-07), Thorne played WR in the Arena Football League for the Los Angeles Avengers in 2008 before joining the Rugby Union's Sedgley Park Tigers as a winger later that year. In 2009, he participated in the USA Eagles National Rugby Team selection camp at the Olympic training center in Chula Vista, Calif.

While playing for Sedgley Park in the United Kingdom, Thorne served as an assistant performance coach for Everton Football Club of the English Premier League. In 2009, he returned to the United States to serve as a performance coach at Velocity Sports Performance in Manhattan Beach, Calif.

Thorne returned to the NFL in 2010 as a performance and monitoring assistant for the New York Jets. He set up and monitored performance-tracking devices and created reports that advised coaches and strength staff on how to best optimize training methods for their athletes.

In 2011, Thorne gained his initial collegiate coaching experience at Stanford University, where he served as an assistant performance coach for the Cardinal football and rugby teams. During his time at the school, Thorne assisted with the daily operations of the offseason football training program, and a speed-training regimen for NFL hopefuls that helped several future NFL products, including former Indianapolis Colts QB Andrew Luck and former Seattle Seahawks WR Doug Baldwin.

Thorne's passion for athletic science led to him co-founding TRIUN Human Performance in 2006 with his brother, Kyle, a strength and conditioning coach training US military personnel in Japan. The California-based organization helps educate, train and mentor individuals and organizations in the disciplines and benefits of human performance and healthy nutrition in order to develop good lifelong habits and build strong character. Grant and Kyle designed and hold the patent to the Accu-Roller, distributed by SKLZ. Thorne is also certified as a sport-performance and corrective-exercise specialist by the National Academy of Sport Medicine. He is currently in the doctorate of technology program at Purdue University researching artificial intelligence and machine learning in sport.

Thorne was born in Tucson, Ariz. He and his wife, Courtney, reside in Green Bay with their daughter, Isla, and son, Bodhi. Courtney is a strength and conditioning coach with the Northern Iowa Area Community College softball team.

LEE GISSENDANER

SENIOR PERSONNEL EXECUTIVE

Lee Gissendaner enters his 23rd season overall with the Packers and his second in his current role as senior personnel executive.

Named to his current position on June 1, 2022, Gissendaner originally joined the franchise in 1998 as the team's representative in the National Scouting Service and authored preliminary evaluations of all prospective seniors in upcoming NFL drafts during his initial three seasons with the club. He was then promoted to area scout in 2001, a role he fulfilled for the Packers for 14 seasons (2001-14). From 2015-17, Gissendaner worked as a national scout for the N.Y. Jets with a focus on evaluating top-graded draft prospects. In 2018, he returned to Green Bay as player personnel executive (2018-2021).

Gissendaner began his post-football career by serving as a graduate assistant coach for Kent State University (1997) while working toward his master's degree. He subsequently was named to a scouting position with the Packers on July 8, 1998, by then-Executive Vice President/General Manager Ron Wolf.

A four-year letterman (1990-93) and three-year starter at wide receiver for Northwestern University, Gissendaner led the NCAA in punt return average (21.8 yards) in 1992. That year, he also was named Most Valuable Player in the Big Ten Conference, was a first-team All-Big Ten selection and was voted as Northwestern's team MVP. Gissendaner was named to the Big Ten's 100-Year Anniversary Team during the conference's centennial celebration in 1995 and served as an honorary game captain for the Wildcats when they hosted Michigan State in November 2013.

Gissendaner graduated from Northwestern in 1994 with a degree in organizational management, and earned his master's in sports administration from Kent State in 1998. In 2022, he was selected to represent the Packers at the Stanford-NFL League of Leaders executive education program.

Originally chosen in the sixth round of the 1994 NFL Draft by the then-Houston Oilers, Gissendaner was released that year at the conclusion of training camp. He then spent the 1995 season with the Toronto Argonauts of the CFL and the summer of 1996 with the World League-champion Scottish Claymores.

In the fall of 1996, Gissendaner returned to the U.S. and went to training camp with the Vikings, eventually spending parts of the '96 season on Minnesota's practice squad.

A four-year letterman at Stow-Munroe Falls High School, in Stow, Ohio, Gissendaner was selected All-Summit County, all-metro area and team MVP at wide receiver during his senior season. A two-time all-metro pole vaulter, he earned three additional varsity letters in track. Gissendaner was inducted into the school's hall of fame in 2002.

In 1999, Gissendaner's accomplishments and community efforts were recognized as he was inducted into the City of Akron/Summit County Sports Hall of Fame.

Gissendaner was born in Akron, Ohio. He and his wife, Jamie, a registered nurse and dance instructor, reside in De Pere, Wis., with their daughter, Leah, 15, and their son, Tyler, 11.

PATRICK MOORE

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

Patrick Moore begins his sixth season with the Packers' player personnel department and third as assistant director of college scouting after being promoted on June 1, 2021. He spent three seasons (2018-20) as a college scout in the Southeast region after joining the team on May 25, 2018. Moore spent the previous five seasons as a scout with the Cleveland Browns.

Moore moved into the personnel side with Cleveland after spending the previous 16 seasons as a coach, 14 of which came at the collegiate level. He jumped to the NFL after a five-year stint (2007-11) coaching at Fordham. In his time with the Rams, Moore served as the assistant head coach/offensive line (2010-11), defensive coordinator (2009) and linebackers/special teams coach (2007-08). As assistant head coach/offensive line, Moore oversaw a blocking attack that helped pave the way for the Rams to finish second in the conference with an average of 176.0 rushing yards per game in 2010. At the helm of the special teams unit, Moore helped Fordham lead the Patriot League with 9.4 yards per punt return in 2008. Moore also coached punter Ben Dato, who registered the third-best punting average (44.7) in school history in 2007 and earned consensus All-America honors.

Prior to his time at Fordham, Moore spent eight seasons at four college coaching stops. From 2005-06, he served as tight ends/special teams coordinator at Louisiana Tech, where he coached former Packers CB Tramon Williams. As a graduate assistant at Auburn from 2002-04, Moore was part of a staff that helped the Tigers to an undefeated 13-0 season in 2004 as well as a Sugar Bowl victory. Moore arrived at Auburn from Western Carolina, where he spent the 2000-01 seasons as a linebackers coach.

Moore's first collegiate coaching stop was at his alma mater, Illinois Wesleyan, in 1997, where he spent the year as the program's offensive line coach. He then moved on to his high school alma mater, coaching two seasons at Normal (Ill.) Community High School.

Moore played college football at Illinois Wesleyan, where he graduated with a business administration degree. He also has master's degrees from Western Carolina and Auburn. Moore splits time between Green Bay and Auburn, Ala.

LUKE BENUSKA

COLLEGE SCOUT

Luke Benuska enters his eighth season in the Packers' personnel department and second as a college scout covering the Southeast region. Benuska (ben-00-ska) previously covered the West region (2018-21) and served as a pro scout in 2017. He joined the team as a scouting intern in the personnel department during the 2016 season.

Prior to joining the Packers, Benuska worked in the football recruiting office at his alma mater, TCU.

Benuska played collegiately at TCU, where he saw action in 22 games and was a two-year letterman (2014-15) at offensive tackle. He appeared in all 13 games for the No. 11-ranked Horned Frogs as a senior in 2015, when the program rallied from a 31-point deficit to win in triple overtime, 47-41, against Oregon in the Alamo Bowl. TCU's offensive unit was one of the conference's most efficient during his senior season, with 4,976 total yards (1,933 rushing, 3,043 passing) on 745 plays (6.7 avg.).

Benuska lettered for the first time in his career as a junior in 2014, appearing in six contests on the offensive line. The No. 6-ranked Horned Frogs were ultimately crowned Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl champions in the largest margin of victory in CFA Peach Bowl history, 42-3, over No. 9 Ole Miss.

Benuska saw game action for the first time as a sophomore in 2013, playing on special teams in four contests.

Born in Pasadena, Calif., Benuska earned a B.B.A. in entrepreneurial management from TCU in 2015. While attending San Marino (Calif.) High School, he lettered three times as a tight end on the football team. Benuska also played volleyball and basketball, both of which he lettered in twice. He currently resides in Chicago with his wife, Shana.

CHRIS GAINES

COLLEGE SCOUT

Chris Gaines enters his fifth season with the Packers' player personnel department and his second as a National Football Scouting Inc. college scout after being named to the position on July 22, 2022. He is responsible for scouting the Southwest region and serves as the team's National Football Scouting representative to the annual NFL Scouting Combine.

Gaines previously worked as a scouting assistant (2019-22) after originally joining the Packers in 2016 as a football technology assistant.

Prior to joining the Packers, Gaines was a web application developer for Golevel in Port Orange, Fla., from 2013-16.

Gaines graduated from Florida State in 2013 with a B.S. degree in information technology. He graduated cum laude from Spruce Creek High School in Port Orange, playing football all four years and earning two letters as a left tackle. Born in Seattle, Wash., Gaines lives in Green Bay.

ED BLOCK COURAGE AWARD

In 1978, the Baltimore Colts started an effort to raise funds for abused children and conceived an award they named after their longtime trainer, the late Ed Block. In 1984, the award was taken leaguewide to honor one player from each team who, in the eyes of his teammates, best exemplifies and displays courage. Below are the Packers' winners, as voted by their teammates, from 1984-2022:

JOE HUEBER

COLLEGE SCOUT

Joe Hueber enters his ninth season with the Packers and his seventh as a college scout, covering the Midwest region in 2023. Hueber previously served as a scouting assistant (2015-16) for the team's personnel department.

Prior to joining the Packers, Hueber was a recruiting assistant for the University of Pittsburgh's football program for three seasons (2012-14). While at Pitt, Hueber's contributions to the Panthers' daily recruiting efforts helped the program see a rise in impressive young talent. In his first season with Pitt, the program boasted a 27-player recruiting class that was ranked 20th nationally and third in the Atlantic Coast Conference by Scout.com.

Hueber followed up a successful first season with a 2013 recruiting class that contained 12 true freshmen who saw immediate playing time, including seven players who made at least one start during the regular season. The freshman class also featured players who led the team in eight different statistical categories.

Before joining the Panthers, Hueber gathered valuable experience at his alma mater, the University of Minnesota, where he assisted the program in its evaluation and recruitment process while earning his B.A. in sports management in 2010.

Hueber also served as an undergraduate recruiting assistant for the University of Iowa, where he began his college education.

A native of Madison, Wis., Hueber is a graduate of Madison Memorial High School. He is the son of Jim Hueber, a former University of Wisconsin running backs coach (1992-94) and offensive line coach (1995-2005).

Born in St. Louis Park, Minn., Hueber is single and resides in Madison, Wis.

SEAN LINTON

COLLEGE SCOUT

Sean Linton enters his fifth season with the Packers and second as a college scout covering the West region after being named to the position on July 22, 2022.

Linton previously spent two seasons as a scouting assistant (2020-2021). He originally joined the Packers in 2019 as a training-camp scouting intern and returned to Green Bay as a full-season scouting intern in 2020 before being promoted in the middle of the season to scouting assistant.

Prior to joining the Packers, Linton spent four years (2015-19) working for Dexcom in San Diego, Calif., as a medical sales representative.

Linton played both wide receiver and cornerback at San Jose State (2011-2014). He was named to the Academic All-Mountain West team in 2013 and was part of a 2012 team that won the Military Bowl after an 11-2 season.

Linton graduated from San Jose State in 2015 with a degree in communication studies.

Linton played wide receiver at Helix High School in La Mesa, Calif. He was a 2009 second-team All-Grossmont League South pick and was named to the ALGA All-Star team and San Diego Union-Tribune All-Academic Team in 2009. He also received All-East County honorable mention as a junior.

Born in Rochester, N.Y., Linton resides in Phoenix, Ariz., with his fiancée, Rose.

MIKE OWEN

COLLEGE SCOUT

Mike Owen enters his 12th season with the Packers' player personnel department and ninth as a college scout covering the Northeast region in 2023. He joined the team on May 23, 2012, as a college scout.

Prior to joining the Packers, Owen spent two seasons as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Riverhead (N.Y.) High School, where he coached the tight ends and helped with the linebackers. He was a four-year letterman (2006-09) at Syracuse University, where he played tight end, defensive end and linebacker during his career. Elected a team captain as a senior, Owen finished his career with 36 receptions for 319 yards (8.9 avg.) and three touchdowns.

Owen played in all 12 games with 10 starts as a senior in '09 and hauled in 12 passes for 93 yards (7.8 avg.) and a TD. As a junior, he started 11 contests and ranked No. 2 on the team with 19 catches for 175 yards (9.2 avg.) and two TDs. He recorded single-game career highs for receptions (five), receiving yards (59) and receiving TDs (two) vs. Akron that season.

Owen moved to tight end prior to the 2007 season after having switched to defensive end from linebacker before the '06 campaign. He posted a career-best three tackles on special teams vs. Louisville in 2007. Owen earned a degree in child and family studies at Syracuse.

At Riverhead High, Owen was ranked the No. 18 outside linebacker in the nation by Tom Lemming on ESPN.com. He was also rated the No. 9 prospect in New York by Rivals.com and the 12th-best prospect in the state by SuperPrep. Owen played in the 2005 Governor's Bowl, an all-star game featuring the top prospects from New York and New Jersey.

As a senior in 2004, Owen recorded 51 tackles, two sacks and an interception despite battling through an elbow injury throughout the season. As a junior, he posted 113 tackles and a fumble recovery on his way to earning all-county and second-team All-Long Island honors. Owen was named the team MVP as a junior and earned the 2004 Pat Kelly Award for overcoming serious injury. He also won the Carl Smith Award in '03 for outstanding achievement in academics and athletics.

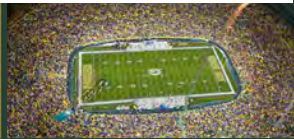

Owen and his wife, Mandee Jo, reside in Columbia, S.C., with their sons, Jaxson, Bryson and Kaiden.

BRANDIAN ROSS

COLLEGE SCOUT

After five years in the NFL as a defensive back, Brandian Ross enters his sixth season as a college scout for the Packers, his fourth covering the Southwest region. He previously covered the Midlands region for two seasons after being officially named to the position on May 25, 2018. Ross spent the 2017 season as a scouting intern with Green Bay and was elevated to scouting assistant in January 2018 before being promoted to his current position.

Ross (first name pronounced Brandon) originally signed with Green Bay as an undrafted free agent in 2011 and spent time on the Packers' practice squad during the 2011-12 seasons. He appeared in 43 games with 24 starts in 2012-14 as a safety with the Oakland Raiders. Ross would also have stints with the Miami Dolphins (2014) and San Diego Chargers (2015), playing in one game at each stop.

Ross accumulated 183 tackles (119 solo), 14 passes defended, two sacks, two interceptions and two forced fumbles during his career. The best season of his career came in 2013 in Oakland, where he played in all 16 games with 13 starts for the Raiders. He racked up a career-high 101 tackles (59 solo), good for No. 4 on the team, six passes defended, two sacks and a forced fumble. His two sacks tied him with S Charles Woodson for the second most among Raiders defensive backs in 2013.

Collegiately, Ross played in 45 games with 33 starts in four seasons at Youngstown State. He notched 233 tackles (135 solo), seven INTs and two forced fumbles for the Penguins. Ross was a second-team All-Missouri Valley Football Conference selection as a senior in 2010, leading the team with three interceptions. He paced Youngstown State with 98 tackles (49 solo) as a sophomore in 2008, tallying 4½ tackles for a loss, three passes defended and an INT.

Ross was born in Richmond, Va. He is married with three children, Brandian Jr., 11, Kaiden, 10, and Bailey, 7. Ross and his family reside in Fort Worth, Texas.

BRETT THIESEN

COLLEGE SCOUT

Brett Thiesen enters his sixth season with the Packers' player personnel department and his second as a college scout covering the Midlands region for the Packers in 2023.

Thiesen (THEE-sin) spent three seasons as a National Football Scouting Inc. college scout after being named to that position on June 11, 2019, and served as the team's National Football Scouting representative to the annual NFL Scouting Combine. Thiesen started with the team as a scouting intern during the 2018 season, helping with the evaluation of college and pro prospects.

Prior to joining the Packers, Thiesen spent three years evaluating high school recruits for college football programs. He served as the assistant director of personnel at Liberty University in 2016 before working in the same role for the University of Tennessee in 2017. He began his scouting career as a personnel intern, first for Mississippi State in the spring of 2015 and then at the University of Miami for the 2015 season.

Thiesen played collegiately at wide receiver as a preferred walk-on at the University of Kentucky in 2010 before transferring to Troy University.

Thiesen earned a degree in sports management from Troy in 2015, and is a native of Jensen Beach, Fla. He played just one season of football at Jensen Beach High School, earning second-team all-state and first-team all-area honors as a senior in 2009. He also lettered all four years in baseball for the Falcons.

His father, Gator, played baseball at Mississippi State while his mother, Lisa, was a cross-country runner for the Bulldogs. Thiesen resides in Green Bay.

DANNY MOCK

COLLEGE SCOUTING COORDINATOR

Now enjoying his 27th season with the Packers and 44th in the NFL, Danny Mock is responsible for a variety of scouting services as the team's college scouting coordinator. Mock's duties include tracking Green Bay's scouts who scour the country looking for players and coordinating all-star, combine and draft meetings.

Mock gained his first NFL experience as a member of the Atlanta Falcons' grounds crew from 1980-85. In addition to his duties on the field, Mock served as a film assistant from 1983-86. Following three seasons in the film department, the NFL moved to video and Mock was promoted to assistant video director by the Falcons in 1986.

After serving two years in that capacity, Mock turned to the player personnel side of football. For the following nine seasons (1988-96), he acted as the administrative assistant in the Falcons' player personnel department.

Having lived in the South his entire life, Mock headed north when he was named the Packers' college scouting coordinator on June 28, 1997, by then-Executive Vice President/General Manager Ron Wolf.

Mock attended Abraham Baldwin Agricultural College (1981-82) in Tifton, Ga., majoring in turf management and business.

Mock had earlier attended Gilbert (Ariz.) High School while growing up in the Phoenix area. He graduated from Duluth (Ga.) High School, where he lettered three times for the basketball team. During his sophomore basketball season, Mock was a teammate of 1980 Heisman Trophy winner George Rogers, who later would go on to star in football at the University of South Carolina and play seven seasons in the NFL. Mock also was elected team captain in basketball for his senior season, leading the school to the state quarterfinals.

Mock is a member of the National Football Foundation and the Wisconsin Football Coaches Association (WFCAs), acting as the Packers' liaison to the latter organization. He was honored by the WFCAs in 2008, when he was awarded the Dave McClain Distinguished Service Award for his outstanding service to football in Wisconsin and again in 2011 as an inductee into the WFCAs Hall of Fame. In 2023, he begins his 20th year serving as the video cameraman for the De Pere (Wis.) High School football team.

Mock is a fan of local sports teams, including the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay women's and men's basketball teams, and the Milwaukee Brewers.

Mock has two daughters, Elizabeth (Brent) Jansen, 33, and Sarah, 30, and resides in De Pere, Wis.

RED BATTY

EQUIPMENT MANAGER

A veteran in his area of expertise, Gordon "Red" Batty is in his 30th season as equipment manager of the Green Bay Packers and his 43rd season in the NFL.

Batty is responsible for properly outfitting players with the safest and most advanced equipment, as well as ordering and maintaining all of the team's equipment and sideline apparel. Immediately prior to joining the Packers, he had spent 13 seasons (1981-93) in the same position with the then-Houston Oilers.

Batty remarkably is in his 50th season in the equipment field. He began his career in 1974 at age 14 as a ball boy for the Montreal Alouettes of the Canadian Football League. Six years later, he was elevated to the position of equipment manager for the Alouettes. During Batty's tenure in Montreal, the Alouettes won two Grey Cups (1974 and '77).

Batty subsequently joined the Oilers in June 1981 at the age of 22. He also purports to be the first native-born Canadian to garner both a Grey Cup and Super Bowl ring, and he now has two of each, the latter distinction earned when the Packers captured Super Bowls XXXI and XLV with Batty in charge of the team's equipment. He also worked his sixth Pro Bowl following the 2021 season.

Upon being named to the Packers' staff on Jan. 24, 1994, Batty became only the fifth person in club history to hold the title of equipment manager. Batty (pronounced BATT-ee) was born in Montreal and has two children, a daughter, Chelsei, 32, and a son, Cameron, 27.

Batty has served as the equipment coordinator for what is now known as the NFL Players Rookie Premiere preseason event for the past 29 years. Batty is given the duty of communicating with each rookie invitee's team equipment manager to secure equipment and jerseys utilized for trading-card photo shoots.

A devout hockey fan, Batty has also worked several NHL Winter Classic and Stadium Series outdoor games.

CHRIS CARR

DIRECTOR OF PERFORMANCE
PSYCHOLOGY & TEAM BEHAVIORAL HEALTH CLINICIAN

Chris Carr enters his fourth season with the Packers in 2023 after being named the club's director of performance psychology and team behavioral health clinician on April 2, 2020. Carr, who had worked for the Packers as a consultant since 2018, joined the team after working as a sports and performance psychologist at Ascension St. Vincent Sports Performance in Indianapolis since 2006. In his current role in Green Bay, Carr is responsible for performance psychology and mental-health services for the players, staff and organization.

In 15 years at St. Vincent, Carr coordinated training, supervision, research and applied practice in sport and performance psychology while also providing individual counseling and consultation services. Prior to joining St. Vincent, Carr was the sport/performance psychologist at the Methodist Sports Medicine Center in Indianapolis from 2000-2006.

Carr has served as a consultant for multiple professional sporting organizations, including the Packers, Indiana Pacers (2011-2020), Indiana Fever (2001-13), Oklahoma City Thunder (2008-11), Kansas City Royals (1999-2005), Columbus Crew (1996-2000), Tasman Motorsports (1996-98) and Arizona Cardinals (1994-95). He has also worked with numerous collegiate athletic programs, including Ball State University (2015-20), Butler (2015-20), Purdue (2001-07, 2013-18), Indiana (2007-13), Ohio State (1995-2000), Arizona State (1994-95) and Washington State (1992-94).

Carr has also worked extensively with the United States Olympic and Paralympic Committee (USOPC) since 1992 as a member of USOPC Registry of Sport Psychology Providers. Carr was the sport psychologist for the United States Men's Alpine Ski Team from 1992-2002, attending the 2002 Winter Olympic Games in Salt Lake City, Utah. He also served as the United States Diving National Team's sport psychologist from 2004-08 and accompanied the team to the 2008 Summer Olympic Games in Beijing, China. Outside of the sporting world, Carr also consulted with the United States Navy Officer Candidate School at the Naval Air Station in

Carr received a doctorate of philosophy (Ph.D.) in counseling psychology with a minor in exercise science/sport psychology from Ball State (Muncie, Ind.) in 1992. He spent the third year of his Ph.D. program (1989-90) as a clinical research assistant in sport psychology at the United States Olympic Training Center in Colorado Springs, Colo., where he worked with elite-level athletes and coaches prior to the 1992 Olympic Games.

Carr received his bachelor of arts in psychology from Wabash College (Crawfordsville, Ind.) in 1982. While at Wabash, Carr was a four-year member and two-year starting offensive lineman for the Little Giant football team. He also studied off-campus at Oxford University in Oxford, England, during the spring semester of his junior year (1981), playing club rugby during his stay. Carr then completed his Master of Arts in counseling psychology at Ball State, where he was a graduate assistant football coach (offensive line/special teams) from 1983-84.

Carr is a licensed psychologist in the states of Wisconsin and Indiana, where he is also HSPP-endorsed (Health Service Provider in Psychology). A former president of Division 47 (Society for Sport, Exercise, and Performance Psychology) of the American Psychological Association (APA) who served on its executive committee from 2007-09, Carr was awarded the Bruce Ogilvie Award for Professional Practice by APA Division 47 and was honored at the 2020 APA Convention. From 2007-2020, Carr coordinated the Big Sky Sport Psychology Conference in Big Sky, Mont., an annual conference for licensed mental-health providers that work specifically in athletics and sport organizations; he now serves as the senior advisor for the meeting.

A native of Muncie, Ind., Carr now lives in Suamico, Wis., with his wife, Kelli. Their daughter, Rachel, is a club gymnastics coach at Eurostars Gymnastics in Plymouth, Mich., and is an honors graduate of Central Michigan University, where she was a member of the women's gymnastics team. Rachel is married to Derek Edwards, a Central Michigan graduate and three-year starter at offensive tackle for the Chippewas, and they have a daughter, Clara.

BRYAN ENGEL

MEDICINE/HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Now entering his 27th season overall with the Packers, Bryan Engel begins his second season as director of sports medicine/head athletic trainer after serving as head athletic trainer from 2015-2021 and assistant athletic trainer from 1999-2014. He first joined the Packers as a seasonal assistant/intern in the athletic training department in 1997. Promoted to his current position in July 2022, Engel oversees the team's medical care on a daily basis.

Engel was a member of the Packers' athletic training staff that was honored by its peers with the NFL Athletic Training Staff of the Year award in 2011. He also was named the Tim Davey NFC Assistant Athletic Trainer of the Year in 2013.

Professionally, Engel starts his first year as president of the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society (PFATS) having previously served as the president-elect and on the executive committee as an NFC assistant representative and on the PFATS advocacy committee. He has also worked extensively with the PFATS Foundation, previously serving as its president and director of internal education. The foundation's purpose is to ensure the highest quality of health care is provided to the National Football League and works closely with the NFL, NFL Physician Society and the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) to improve the health and safety of athletes through continuous research, innovation and education.

Engel also spent time on the athletic training staff of the New England Patriots as a seasonal assistant/intern (1996-97) and training-camp intern (1995).

Engel earned his B.S. degree in kinesiology with an emphasis in athletic training from the University of Illinois in 1998. In addition to his degree, Engel is a certified athletic trainer and a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association. He also holds certification as a corrective-exercise specialist and performance-enhancement specialist from the National Academy of Sports Medicine and is certified in the functional-movement screen.

A native of Hanover Park, Ill., Engel is married to Jennifer, with whom he has three sons, Drew, 23, Ryan, 21, and Evan, 19.

Diagnosed in 2010, Evan lives with Type 1 diabetes (T1D). Engel and his wife are both active volunteers for JDRF, with Jennifer having served on the executive board as secretary and as advocacy team chair for the northeast Wisconsin chapter. Evan was selected as a delegate for the 2017 JDRF Children's Congress and went to Washington, D.C., to advocate on Capitol Hill for strong funding for T1D research.

ADAM KORZUN

DIRECTOR OF PERFORMANCE NUTRITION

Hired in July 2014 for this newly created role with the team, Adam Korzun enters his 10th season as the director of performance nutrition with the Packers. He oversees all aspects of player nutrition, hydration and supplementation, as well as managing and operating Team Dining and Staff Dining for the organization.

Korzun came to Green Bay after serving as the director of sports nutrition for the University of Oregon athletic department since August 2012, where he oversaw sports nutrition for all of the school's teams and athletes. Korzun was responsible for planning and creating an athlete training table operated independently by the athletic department. Under his direction, participation in the Ducks' training-table meals increased from three teams to 15 teams in just one year, and the program served more than 800 meals per day.

Early in his career, Korzun worked in different roles for Four Seasons Hotel-Boston (2000-02), Legal Seafoods (2001-07), Boston Medical Center (2004-06) and SNAP (Smart Nutrition Application and Practice) (2006-07).

In 2007, he started working as a sport dietitian for the United States Olympic Committee and implemented a performance-nutrition platform into training tables at several U.S. Olympic training centers. He also provided individual and team nutrition counseling and testing for athletes across all sporting disciplines while traveling domestically and internationally as part of the Olympic delegation.

In April 2009, he began focusing almost exclusively on the U.S. Ski and Snowboard Association, and in May 2010, he became the full-time high-performance dietitian for the association. During the 2010 Olympic Games in Vancouver, he developed and implemented the Vancouver Chef program, which trained and placed a personal chef for each of the ski and snowboard teams. He traveled with all of the association's teams throughout the year during training and competition as a sport dietitian and chef.

Korzun graduated summa cum laude from Johnson & Wales University (Providence, R.I.) with a bachelor of science in culinary nutrition and an A.A.S. in culinary arts in 2003, and he earned a master of science in nutrition, with a focus on exercise physiology, from Boston University in 2004. He is also a registered dietitian and is board-certified as a specialist in sports dietetics.

Korzun has also worked as a consultant for MLB and NBA organizations as well as the Red Bull High Performance Team.

Born in Mobile, Ala., Korzun currently resides between Green Bay and Mobile with his wife and three stepchildren.

DARRYL FRANKLIN

CHIEF OF STAFF

Darryl Franklin enters his fifth season with the Packers after being named the club's chief of staff in January 2019 by Head Coach Matt LaFleur.

Franklin works closely with LaFleur, serving as his main liaison to the various departments throughout the organization. He also serves as the liaison between LaFleur and the league office and as the Bill Walsh Minority Internship Program coordinator.

Prior to coming to Green Bay, Franklin worked in the Washington Redskins' player personnel department for seven seasons (2012-18). From 2012-14, he worked as a scout for BLESTO in the northeast region before serving as a pro scout from 2015-18.

During the 2010-11 seasons, Franklin was based in Jacksonville, Fla., as a scouting assistant for BLESTO. He spent the 2009 season as an intern for BLESTO before transitioning to a full-time position. Franklin spent the 2008 season with the Detroit Lions as a player personnel intern, aiding in both college and pro scouting.

Prior to entering the NFL, Franklin spent three years as a graduate assistant at Central Michigan University, where he initially helped with the defense before later assisting with the offense. Franklin earned a master's degree in administration from Central Michigan with a sport concentration. He completed his master's project on predicting NFL career longevity using combine results.

Franklin earned undergraduate degrees at the University of Missouri, majoring in broadcast journalism and political science. He also served as a student assistant for the Tigers' football team, primarily working with the school's recruiting coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

Originally from Toronto, Franklin attended Mount Hebron High School in Ellicott City, Md., where he served as the football team's student assistant. Franklin currently resides in Green Bay.

JOE McKILLIP

COACHING OPERATIONS COORDINATOR

Joe McKillip enters his fifth season in Green Bay and third as the team's coaching operations coordinator after spending two years (2019-20) as the assistant chief of staff. He works closely with the chief of staff, Darryl Franklin, and Head Coach Matt LaFleur, assisting them with day-to-day operations including the coordination of meeting and practice schedules, the football calendar, organizing team and staff events as well as providing administrative assistance to the coaching and operations staffs.

Prior to joining the Packers, McKillip worked in football operations at North Carolina State for six years (2013-18) under the Wolfpack's head coach, Dave Doeren. He started as assistant director of football operations from 2013-14 before being promoted to director of football operations in 2015. In the director role, McKillip oversaw team logistics and day-to-day operations including fall camp organization, game-weekend arrangements for both home and away games, weekly team schedules, bowl-game preparation and coordination of the spring football schedule and summer high school football camps. He also assisted with recruiting functions and external community relations.

Before coming to North Carolina State, McKillip worked at the University of Wisconsin and then at Northern Illinois University. At Northern Illinois, he served as a football operations graduate assistant in 2011 and then as the assistant director of football operations and on-campus recruiting coordinator in 2012.

Prior to working at Northern Illinois, McKillip worked as a student manager for the Badger football team for four years. He graduated from Wisconsin with a degree in communications in 2011.

A native of Burlington, Wis., McKillip lives in Green Bay with his wife, Alison, and 4-year-old twins – daughter, Josie, and son, Thomas.

MIKE HALBACH

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL TECHNOLOGY

Now entering his 20th season with the Packers, Mike Halbach begins his ninth season as the team's director of football technology after serving as manager of football technology in 2014. He first joined the Packers as a video intern in 2004 before working as a video assistant from 2005-14.

In his current role, Halbach leads the team's efforts in football analytics, the development and administration of football information systems, and the technical and audio-visual innovations impacting football operations. He was instrumental in the Packers' transition from paper to digital playbooks and from standard- to high-definition video. He developed and executed the team's game plan for the virtual, at-home NFL Draft in 2020 and played a key role in the football-facility expansion to Lambeau Field, which opened in 2023. His gameday role includes overseeing the sideline technologies used in-game by the coaches and players and assisting the head coach with game-management decisions.

Halbach graduated summa cum laude from the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay in 2005 with a B.S. in communication processes with an emphasis in electronic media. He also earned a B.A. in communication and the arts with a minor in corporate communication.

A Wisconsin native, Halbach grew up on a family dairy farm in Hilbert, Wis. He and his wife, Stephanie, have three sons and a daughter.

PACKERS HEAD-COACHING DEBUTS

Matt LaFleur, the 15th head coach in Green Bay history, became the first Packers coach to play his first official league contest outside of Wisconsin when Green Bay played at Soldier Field vs. the Chicago Bears to open the 2019 season.

CHRIS KIRBY VIDEO DIRECTOR

Now in his 32nd season overall with the Packers, Chris Kirby enters his 10th season as the team's video director.

Kirby joined the Packers as an intern in 1992 before being hired full time as a video assistant in January 1993. He served in that capacity until he was promoted to assistant video director in 2001.

In his current position, Kirby oversees the various department processes that provide coaches, scouts and players with the video tools necessary in talent acquisition, training, self-scouting and opponent game planning. In addition, he also produces numerous motivational videos for the team.

Over the past two decades, Kirby successfully helped the Packers transition through three major format and software upgrades. Today, the video department manages content on various video networks, allowing players and coaches to watch film on their tablets, laptops and other mobile devices.

In addition to three decades of NFL games, Kirby also has shot numerous postseason games, including the 2001 Senior Bowl, the 2005 Cactus Bowl, the 2008, 2012, 2013 and 2016 Pro Bowls and Super Bowls XXXI and XLV.

Born at Tachikawa Air Base in Japan, Kirby earned a B.S. in communications (radio/television/film) from the University of Wisconsin Oshkosh. He and his wife, Beth, reside in De Pere, Wis., and have three sons, Mason, Landon and Brennan.

MATT KLEIN
DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL LOGISTICS/TEAM TRAVEL

Matt Klein enters his fifth season in charge of the Packers' football logistics and team travel and his 25th season with the club overall.

Klein spent the 2018 season as director of coaching operations/team travel and worked the 12 previous seasons as the team's football administration coordinator. He originally joined the Packers as administrative assistant/football in 1999.

Klein is responsible for coordinating the travel arrangements for every Packers home and away game, which includes air and ground transportation and securing hotel accommodations for the team, coaching staff and all members of the traveling party. His duties include traveling to road-game locations two or three days in advance of the team in order to direct travel arrangements onsite. In addition, he serves as the point of contact for visiting teams traveling to Green Bay. Klein assists the personnel department with travel details for the team's tryout players, free agents and local pro day as well as the Packers' pre-draft visits. Klein continues to coordinate all offseason and training-camp logistics, including housing and transportation. He assists with corporate travel requests and works as an advisor to the football-operations and coaching staffs.

As football administration coordinator and then as director of coaching operations/team travel, Klein was responsible for coordinating all facets of the team's daily operations, including the coaching staff's schedule, in addition to his travel-coordination duties. He also served as the coaching staff's liaison on all matters relating to the athletic training, equipment, communications, video and football technology departments. Klein was the point person in managing each Packers practice and team function, including offseason minicamps, organized team activities and training camp.

In 2010, he served as part of a group of team staffers that helped plan the arrangements needed to move the organization's operations to North Texas for the week leading up to Super Bowl XLV.

A native of Clintonville, Wis., Klein spent five seasons working with Barry Alvarez and the football staff at the University of Wisconsin. He contributed to a program that earned berths in four bowl games, including a victory in the Rose Bowl after the '98 season. Klein left school early to accept a position with the Packers in 1999. He completed his coursework at the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay and earned his bachelor's degree in marketing, with a minor in economics.

Klein and his wife, Leah, live in Green Bay and have two sons, Nathan and Owen. Nathan is in his fourth year as a student assistant with the University of Oklahoma football team.

MELANIE MAROHL

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION/PLAYER FINANCE

Now entering her 23rd season with the team, Melanie Marohl begins her fourth season as the Packers' director of football administration/player finance after serving as manager of football administration/player finance from 2018-2020. She first joined the Packers as a salary cap analyst in July 2001.

In her current role, Marohl works closely with Executive Vice President/Director of Football Operations Russ Ball while overseeing database management and reporting as it relates to the club's salary-cap planning, cash spending and roster management. She is responsible for preparing and constructing player contracts while also ensuring the team stays current on rules, policies and documentation mandated by the current collective bargaining agreement between the NFL and NFLPA. Marohl is responsible for monitoring player bonuses and working with the team's finance department on player-salary payments. She also serves on the NFL Club Services Committee, which helps innovate and create technology surrounding the salary cap.

Prior to joining the Packers, Marohl spent 12 years (1989-2001) at Schneider National, a logistics and truckload services provider based in Green Bay. From 1989-95, she worked as a capacity development assistant, providing operations support for the on-boarding and training of new drivers. She then served as a driver-recruiting business analyst from 1995-2001, helping design and develop a new software system for tracking driver applicants, gathering system requirements and working with programmers on system development, and handling analytical reporting for the department.

A native of Green Bay, Marohl earned her associate's degree in computer science during her time at Schneider. She and her husband, Todd, live in Ashwaubenon, Wis., and have a daughter, Marisa.

LINDA NUTHALS

DIRECTOR OF CORPORATE TRAVEL

Linda Nuthals enters her fourth season as the Packers' director of corporate travel and 29th overall season with the team. Nuthals originally joined the team as corporate travel manager in the summer of 1995.

In her current role, Nuthals manages all facets of the organization's business travel, with the exception of the team's travel for away games. She works closely with airlines and other agencies to arrange player travel for workouts, free-agent visits and throughout the pre-draft process. Nuthals also prepares year-round travel for the team's scouting and front-office staffs and oversees travel needs for special events within the organization.

Prior to joining the Packers, Nuthals had worked for various travel agencies in Green Bay and Chicago since 1983.

A native of Green Bay, Nuthals grew up a block away from Lambeau Field, selling programs and parking cars on Packers gamedays. She and her husband, Steve, reside in Suamico, Wis. The couple has three daughters, Courtney (Chase) Ford, Kelsie (Bill) Fumelle and Mackenzie (Andrew) Wick, and five grandchildren, Lleyton, Oakley, Brooks, Zoey and Asher.

STRENGTH OF SCHEDULE, PACKERS HISTORY

Phil Bengtson, Vince Lombardi's hand-picked replacement, might have dealt with more pressure in 1970 than anyone who has ever coached the Packers. That season, his third and final as Green Bay's head coach, ended at 6-8, with losses in four of his last five games (all on the road). What's more, Bengtson faced the toughest schedule ever thrown at the Packers. The toughest schedules in team history, based on opponent records at the end of that season:

	W	L	Pct	Packers' finish	Notable opponents
1970	113	74	.604	6-8-0, tied for third, division	Super Bowl V-champion Colts (twice), NFC-champion Cowboys
1921	21	14	.600	3-2-1, tied for sixth, league	League-champion Chicago Staleys (9-1-1) in season finale
1933	84	57	.596	5-7-1, third in division	Both NFL title participants (Bears & Giants) twice
1926	79	55	.590	7-3-3, fifth in league	14-1-2 league-champion Frankford Yellow Jackets
1953	82	58	.586	2-9-1, sixth in conference	10-2 NFL-champion Lions (twice), 11-1 Browns
1957	81	63	.563	3-9-0, sixth in conference	Only one team with eventual losing record: 5-7 Bears (twice)
1954	77	60	.562	4-8-0, fifth in conference	9-2-1 conference-champion Lions (twice)
1935	70	57	.551	8-4-0, second in division	9-3 Giants, 7-3-2 NFL-champion Lions (twice)
1975	107	89	.546	4-10-0, tied for third, div.	12-2 Vikings (twice), 12-2 Rams, Super Bowl-champion Steelers
1958	76	64	.543	1-10-1, sixth in conference	NFL-champion Colts (twice); 8-4 Rams (twice)

GREY RUEGAMER

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER ENGAGEMENT

After being named the club's director of player engagement on July 31, 2017, Grey Ruegamer enters his seventh season in the role and 10th year overall in Green Bay after playing three seasons (2003-05) with the Packers as an offensive lineman.

As the director of player engagement, Ruegamer is vital in maintaining locker-room cohesiveness and overall player health. He assists players in acclimating to their roles, both on and off the field and in the Green Bay community, and adapting to a new life in Green Bay.

Ruegamer also oversees the Packers' wide range of programs designed to meet the needs of players and their families in today's NFL. The department provides a framework of assistance within which players and their immediate family members can address the pressures created by daily life and complicated by the demands of playing professional football. The program is also set up to get players prepared for life after football, and helps them seek educational and vocational opportunities.

Ruegamer played 10 total seasons in the NFL on the offensive line, appearing in 124 games with 17 starts during the regular season and 12 contests with two starts in the postseason. After originally being selected by Miami in the third round (No. 72 overall) of the 1999 NFL Draft and spending one season with the Dolphins, he spent three seasons with the New England Patriots (2000-02) before spending his three seasons in Green Bay and playing the final three seasons of his career with the N.Y. Giants (2006-08). Ruegamer was a member of two Super Bowl champion teams, the 2001 Patriots and the 2007 Giants.

Once his playing career wrapped up, Ruegamer spent three years (2009-10, 2013) as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Washington. He also earned his bachelor's degree from Arizona State in liberal studies as well as his master's degree in health and human performance from California University of Pennsylvania.

Prior to his current role, Ruegamer was a certified wellness coach and worked at The Summit Medical Fitness Center in Kalispell, Mont., from 2014-16.

A 1998 Walter Camp All-America honoree, first-team All-Pacific-10 selection and one of 12 finalists for the Lombardi Award, Ruegamer was a four-year starter at Arizona State (1995-98). He was inducted into the Sun Devil Athletics Hall of Fame in 2014.

A native of Las Vegas, Ruegamer currently resides with his wife in Green Bay.

SHERRY SCHULTES

DIRECTOR OF FAMILY PROGRAMS

Now in her 31st season overall with the Packers, Sherry Schultes enters her 28th year leading the team's family programs department after originally joining the organization in 1993.

Beginning in 1996, Schultes oversaw the creation and development of the family programs department, one of the first of its kind in the NFL. The department offers year-round programming and services for players' and coaches' families moving to and living in the Green Bay area.

Schultes also led the creation of the Packers Women's Association (PWA), a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization that allowed coaches' and players' spouses to give back to the Green Bay community. Serving as the PWA's executive director, Schultes led the organization's support of several local charities, including Paul's Pantry and New Community Shelter, and helped the PWA host food drives, military-appreciation events and other initiatives.

Prior to joining the Packers, Schultes worked in multiple community-programming roles around the greater Green Bay area. She earned her associate's degree from Northeast Wisconsin Technical College in 1982.

Schultes was a longtime active board member and volunteer for Rebuilding Together of Greater Green Bay, an organization that has repaired hundreds of homes, free of charge, for individuals who are unable to do so themselves. She also previously served as a member of the St. Vincent's Hospital Advisory Council.

A native of Florence, Wis., Schultes currently lives in Hobart, Wis., with her husband, John. They have two daughters, Natalie and Ashlee, a son-in-law, Marwan, and two granddaughters, Eliza and Annie Rae.

THE USS GREEN BAY

On July 15, 2006, the U.S. Navy christened a 684-foot warship, and dubbed it the USS Green Bay at a shipyard in the New Orleans area.

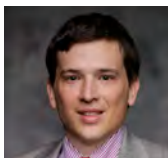

Constructed in Avondale, La., at a shipyard owned by Northrop Grumman, it is the second Navy vessel to be called the Green Bay, following a small gunboat that patrolled the seas during the Vietnam era.

The newest USS Green Bay, used to carry troops for rapid deployment, launch and recovery, has become a significant part of the U.S. amphibious fleet.

Former Green Bay Packers quarterback Bart Starr appeared in a video that was played at the July 2006 christening ceremony. And Nancy Croy, principal at Green Bay's Lombardi Middle School – named after Starr's legendary coach Vince Lombardi – traveled to attend the christening as part of the school's relationship with the Navy.

Members of the Packers' front office, including President and CEO Mark Murphy, toured the ship in November 2008 during the team's road trip to New Orleans for a game against the Saints.

Commissioned Jan. 24, 2009, it can carry 360 Navy sailors and as many as 800 Marines. The ship is assigned to the U.S. Pacific Fleet; its home port is at the naval base in San Diego, Calif.

"FULLBACK IS THE POSITION I FEEL I CAN PLAY BETTER."

November 19, 1957

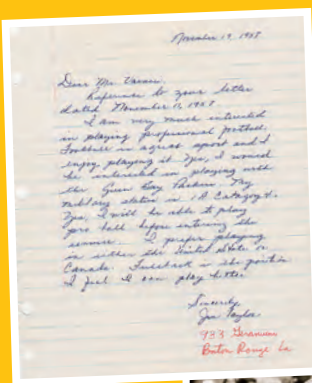

Dear Mr. Vainisi,

Reference to your letter dated November 11, 1957.

I am very much interested in playing professional football. Football is a great sport and I enjoy playing it. Yes, I would be interested in playing with the Green Bay Packers. My military status is 1A Category 4. Yes, I will be able to play pro ball before entering the service. I prefer playing in either the United States or Canada. Fullback is the position I feel I can play better.

Sincerely,

Jim Taylor - Baton Rouge, La.

2020, 2022

Ht: 5-10 > Wt: 196 > Born: February 9, 1997 > NFL Games Played/Started: 64/62 > Acquired: D1-18

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

> Named to the Pro Bowl and earned second-team All-Pro (The Associated Press) and All-NFC honors (Pro Football Writers of America) in 2022 after leading the team with a career-high five interceptions (t-No. 5 in the league).

> In 2021, was voted a captain by his teammates for the first time in his career, but a shoulder injury in Week 4 limited him to four regular-season games and one postseason contest.

> Earned second-team All-Pro honors from AP in 2020, becoming the first Green Bay CB to earn All-Pro honors since Charles Woodson in 2011. Was also selected to the All-NFC team by the PFWA.

> Named to his first career Pro Bowl in 2020, making him one of three cornerbacks in franchise history to make the Pro Bowl within his first three NFL seasons (Herb Adderley, 1963, third season; Willie Buchanon, 1973, second season).

> Intercepted Tom Brady two times in the 2020 NFC Championship Game, becoming just the seventh player in team history to record two-plus INTs in a playoff game.

> According to Sportradar, was tied for No. 1 in the league among cornerbacks (Jalen Ramsey) by allowing only three pass plays of 20-plus yards in the 2020 regular season (min. 700 def. snaps).

> Among CBs that played 700-plus defensive snaps during the 2020 regular season, was tied for No. 1 in the NFL by only giving up one burn TD (passing TD allowed by a defender when in coverage), according to Sportradar.

> Registered a safety at Minnesota in Week 1 of the 2020 season, becoming the first Packers DB with a safety since Doug Hart in the 1971 season opener at the N.Y. Giants.

> Named a Pro Bowl alternate after starting all 16 games and registering 63 tackles (41 solo), two INTs, a forced fumble, a fumble recovery and a team-high 23 passes defended in 2019.

> Was named to the PFWA's All-Rookie team after leading Green Bay with 15 passes defended in 2018. Became just the second Packers CB to be honored since 1974 (CB Casey Hayward, 2012).

> Appeared in 13 games with 11 starts as a rookie and ranked No. 2 on the team with 76 tackles (61 solo) while adding a half-sack, three tackles for a loss, an INT and a QB pressure.

> Selected by the Packers in the first round (No. 18 overall) of the 2018 NFL Draft, a selection acquired from Seattle along with a seventh-round choice (No. 248 overall) in exchange for Green Bay's first-round pick (No. 27 overall, originally obtained from New Orleans), a third-round choice (No. 76 overall) and a sixth-round pick (No. 186 overall). Became the first Louisville player to be drafted in the first round by Green Bay.

2022 SEASON: Started 16 games, was named to his second career Pro Bowl (2020) and earned second-team AP All-Pro honors for the second time (2020)...Finished with 56 tackles (43 solo), a career-best four tackles for a loss and a team-high 14 passes defended...Led the team with a career-high five INTs (t-No. 5 in the league)...Tied for No. 2 in the NFL with two INT returns of 20-plus yards...Tied with teammate CB Rasul

AT A GLANCE ...

- Earned second-team All-Pro Honors from The Associated Press in 2022 for the second time (2020), joining Charles Woodson (four) and Herb Adderley (seven) as the only Packers cornerbacks to be named to multiple AP All-Pro teams.
- Named to his second career Pro Bowl in 2022, becoming the 13th defensive back in franchise history to be named to multiple Pro Bowls.
- According to Stathead.com, became the sixth Packers defensive back to earn multiple Pro Bowl honors in the first five years of his career and the first since S Nick Collins (2008-09).
- Named to the All-NFC team by the Pro Football Writers of America in 2020 and 2022.
- Has led the team in passes defended four times (14 in 2022, 13 in 2020, career-high 23 in 2019, 15 in 2018).
- Was named to the PFWA's All-Rookie team in 2018, becoming just the second Packers CB to be honored since 1974 (CB Casey Hayward, 2012).
- Earned second-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference recognition as a sophomore in 2016 after posting a team-high five INTs (tied for No. 11 in the country) along with a career-best 39 tackles (31 solo) and 14 passes defended.

Douglas and Dallas CB DaRon Bland for the most fourth-quarter INTs (four) in the NFL...According to Stathead.com, allowed a passer rating of 63.7, the eighth lowest in the NFL (min. 50 targets)...Missed most of Week 3 and all of Week 4 with a groin injury...Vs. Chicago (Sept. 18): Posted three tackles (two solo), a tackle for a loss, a pass defended and with just over two minutes left in the game, cut in front of WR Equanimeous St. Brown to pick off a QB Justin Fields pass at the Chicago 39-yard line...Vs. N.Y. Jets (Oct. 16): Recorded three tackles (all solo) and a game-high three passes defended to tie for the third most in a game in his career. It was the second-longest INT return of his career (37 yards at Dallas, Oct. 6, 2019)...Vs. San Francisco (NFC Divisional, Jan. 22): Returned from injury for his first action since Week 4 and played on eight defensive snaps.

2020: Named to his first career Pro Bowl, earned second-team AP All-Pro honors and was selected to the All-NFC team by the PFWA...Started all 15 games he appeared in and led the team with 13 passes defended and tied for No. 4 on the team in INTs (one), while also registering 51 tackles (40 solo), a sack, two tackles for a loss, a QB hit and a forced fumble...Missed Week 10 due to injury (concussion/hand)...Started both playoff contests, recording four tackles (three solo), a tackle for a loss, two INTs and three passes defended...At Minnesota (Sept. 13): Posted five tackles (four solo, tied for No. 2 on the team), a tackle for a loss, a QB hit, a pass defended, an INT and a sack for a safety. With Minnesota on its own 4-yard line early in the second quarter, blitzed off the left side and went untouched to sack QB Kirk Cousins for a safety. Became the first Packers DB with a safety since Hart in the 1971 season opener at the N.Y. Giants. According to Sportradar, Alexander and Hart (1971) are the only Packers to register an INT and safety in the same game (since 1948). With 34 seconds left in the first half, picked off Cousins on a deep pass down the right side intended for WR Adam Thielen, giving GB the ball at the Vikings' 41-yard line. Two plays later, the Packers scored on a 45-yard pass from QB Aaron Rodgers to WR Marquez Valdes-Scantling to take a 22-7 lead. Became the fifth NFL player to record a sack, an INT and a safety in a single game since 2000, joining Rocky Boiman (Week 4, 2003), Calais Campbell (Week 5, 2016), James Harrison (Week 11, 2008) and Adalius Thomas (Week 2, 2006)...At New Orleans (Sept. 27): Tallied three tackles (all solo), a tackle for a loss and a pass defended. Early in the second quarter, tackled RB Alvin Kamara for a loss of 2 yards to force a third-and-10 the Saints didn't convert, forcing a punt. According to NFL Next Gen Stats, played 38 coverage snaps and allowed just one reception on two targets as the nearest defender...At Tampa Bay (Oct. 18): Recorded two tackles (both solo) and according to NFL Next Gen Stats, shadowed WR Mike Evans on 19 of his 24 routes (79.2) and was only targeted once (zero receptions)...Vs. Tennessee (Dec. 27): Posted two tackles (one solo) and a season-high three passes defended. With 8:32 left in the game and the Titans at the Green Bay 9, broke up a pass intended for TE Jonnu Smith on fourth-and-4...At Chicago (Jan. 3): Registered three tackles (two solo), a forced fumble and a pass defended. With under eight minutes to play in the first half, hit TE Cole Kmet after a 1-yard gain and then ripped the ball out as both were falling toward the ground. LB Rashan Gary recovered the fumble at the Chicago 23 and GB scored a TD on the ensuing drive to take a 21-10 lead...Vs. L.A. Rams (NFC Divisional, Jan. 16): Recorded a tackle for a loss, bringing down WR Robert Woods for a loss of 3 yards on second-and-10 with just under six minutes to play in the game and the Rams turned it over on downs two plays later.

According to NFL Next Gen Stats, that was the only reception he allowed on three targets in the game...Vs. Tampa Bay (NFC Championship, Jan. 24): Led the defense with two INTs and three passes defended while also posting three tackles (two solo). Became just the seventh player in team history to record two-plus INTs in a playoff game.

2019: Started all 16 games and registered 63 tackles (41 solo), two INTs, a forced fumble, a fumble recovery and a team-high 23 passes defended (career best)...Was named an alternate for the Pro Bowl...Started both postseason games and ranked No. 2 on the team with 13 tackles (10 solo) and a pass defended...Vs. Minnesota (Sept. 15): Recorded five tackles (three solo) and a season-high four passes defended. Late in the first half, broke up a Cousins pass over the middle in the end zone intended for WR Stefon Diggs on second-and-goal from the 13...Vs. Denver (Sept. 22): Posted six tackles (all solo), a forced fumble, a fumble recovery and two passes defended. On a first-and-goal from the 7 late in the first half, made a leaping deflection of QB Joe Flacco's pass intended for WR Emmanuel Sanders toward the back of the end zone. Registered his first forced fumble and fumble recovery as a pro on the same play early in the third quarter when he came up to rip the ball away from TE Noah Fant at the end of his 4-yard reception, giving the Packers the ball at the Denver 37...At Dallas (Oct. 6): Finished with three tackles (two solo), his first INT of the season and a team-high three passes defended. On the Cowboys' opening drive, intercepted a QB Dak Prescott pass that went off the hands of WR Amari Cooper, hauling in the ball at the Green Bay 16 and returning it 37 yards to the Dallas 47, a turnover that would lead to seven points for the Packers...Vs. Detroit (Oct. 14): Finished with two tackles (both solo) and two passes defended. With the Packers trailing, 22-20, broke up QB Matthew Stafford's third-down pass over the middle intended for WR Marvin Jones to force a Detroit punt, giving Green Bay possession for what would turn out to be the game-winning drive...Vs. Chicago (Dec. 15): Paced the secondary with a season-high eight tackles (six solo), a tackle for a loss, an interception and two passes defended. On the final play of the first half, picked off a Hail Mary pass by QB Mitchell Trubisky at the Green Bay 11...Vs. Seattle (NFC Divisional, Jan. 12): In first career postseason game, led the secondary with nine tackles (seven solo) and a pass defended. On Seattle's opening drive of the game, broke up a deep pass from QB Russell Wilson intended for WR DK Metcalf near the sideline to force a three-and-out. Early in the fourth quarter with the Packers leading, 28-23, came off the left side to drill Wilson for a loss of yardage on the Seahawks' two-point conversion attempt...At San Francisco (NFC Championship, Jan. 19): Registered four tackles (three solo) before sustaining a thumb injury in the third quarter that would sideline him for the remainder of the game.

2018: Appeared in 13 games with 11 starts and ranked No. 2 on the team with 76 tackles (61 solo)...Led the team with 15 passes defended and added a half-sack, three tackles for a loss, an INT and a QB pressure...Was named to the PFWA's All-Rookie team, becoming just the second Packers CB to be honored since 1974 (Hayward, 2012)...Registered two tackles on special teams and returned four punts for 25 yards (6.3 avg.)...Vs. Minnesota (Sept. 16): Led the team with 10 tackles (seven solo) and added a tackle for a loss, a half-sack and a QB pressure. Midway through the first quarter on a third-and-10, came on a blitz from the slot and shook off a block from RB Dalvin Cook for a shared 6-yard sack of Cousins with LB Reggie Gilbert to force a punt. In overtime, drilled Diggs for a 1-yard loss on a pass in the flat on second-and-2...At Washington (Sept. 23): Made his first NFL start, opening at CB in place of an injured Kevin King (groin), and tied for third on the team with seven tackles (five solo)...Vs. Buffalo (Sept. 30): Started for the second straight week in place of an injured King, and posted two tackles (both assisted), his first career interception and two passes defended. Late in the first half, picked off a deep pass from QB Josh Allen intended for WR Zay Jones in the end zone, returning the pick 27 yards out to the Green Bay 26...At L.A. Rams (Oct. 28): Finished with eight tackles (seven solo) and a career-high five passes defended, the most by a Green Bay defender on the season. Midway through the second quarter, jumped with WR Brandin Cooks to make a leaping breakup in the end zone on a deep pass from QB Jared Goff. Broke up two passes on the next series, including one over the middle intended for Woods on third-and-10 to force a Los Angeles punt...At Minnesota (Nov. 25): Finished with eight tackles (six solo), a tackle for a loss and a pass defended. On Minnesota's second drive, drilled Thielen into Diggs, who made the catch on a screen but was driven back several yards, before chasing him down at the Minnesota 14 for a 10-yard loss...Vs. TACKLE

COLORADO

11th NFL Season > 11th Packers Season

2016, 2019-20

Ht: 6-4 > Wt: 310 > Born: September 30, 1991 > NFL Games Played/Started: 130/130 > Acquired: D4a-13

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

> Earned first-team All-Pro honors from The Associated Press in 2020 as he became the only tackle in the league to earn first-team or second-team recognition each season from 2016 to 2020.

> Is one of just two Green Bay offensive tackles in team history (Forrest Gregg, 1962-67) to earn AP All-Pro recognition in five-plus consecutive seasons.

> Was named to his third career Pro Bowl in 2020 (also 2016 and 2019), his second straight year as an original selection.

> Has started all 130 regular-season games he has appeared in at LT since entering the league in 2013.

> Helped the Packers rank No. 3 in the NFL in yards per carry (4.55) and No. 4 in scoring (25.7 ppg) from 2013-20.

> In 2018, became the first Packers offensive tackle to earn first-team AP All-Pro recognition since Gregg in 1967.

> Helped the Packers rank No. 2 in the NFL in yards per carry (5.01) in 2018 as RB Aaron Jones became the first Packer to lead the league in yards per carry (5.47) since the NFL went to a 16-game schedule in 1978.

> Was selected to his first career Pro Bowl in 2016, having initially been named a first alternate before being selected as an injury replacement for Eagles T Jason Peters.

> In 2013, became the first rookie to start every game at LT for Green Bay since the league went to a 16-game schedule in 1978.

> Became just the fourth Green Bay rookie to start the season opener at LT since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger and the first since Ken Ruetters in 1985. Was the only rookie in the NFL to start all 16 games at LT in 2013.

> Selected by Green Bay with the first of three fourth-round selections (No. 109 overall) of the 2013 NFL Draft and became the first Colorado offensive lineman to be drafted by the Packers since C Joe Garten in 1991 (sixth round).

2022 SEASON: Started all 11 games he appeared in and was part of a line that helped the Packers rank No. 7 in the NFL in sacks allowed (32), including just 17 in Weeks 7-18, tied for the third fewest in the league over that span...Was inactive for six contests, missing three games due to a knee injury (Weeks 1-2, Week 7) and three following an appendectomy (Weeks 12-13, Week 15)...At Tampa Bay (Sept. 25): Made his season debut, starting at LT and playing 35 snaps as he rotated series with T Yosh Nijman. Chicago (Oct. 20): Protected Rodgers as he completed a franchise-record 39 passes, including 10-plus passes to three different players (WRs Davante Adams, Randall Cobb and Ty Montgomery), only the second time in NFL history (New England Patriots, Nov. 13, 1994) that a team had accomplished that feat in a game...At Chicago (Dec. 18): Part of an offense that racked up a season-best 451 total yards, highlighted by a season-high 226 yards rushing and three TDs on just 23 carries (9.8 avg.). The average of 9.8 yards per carry was the best in franchise history (since 1940) in games with 20-plus attempts, topping the previous high of 9.2 yards per carry at Washington on Oct. 10, 2010 (17 carries for 157 yards). Helped clear holes for Montgomery to rush for a career-high 162 yards and two TDs on 16 attempts (10.1 avg.)...At Detroit (Jan. 1): Helped the offense post 448 yards and 28 first downs as the Packers registered their fourth straight 30-point game, tied for the second-longest single-season streak in team history, and their fourth consecutive zero-giveaway game, tying the franchise record.

2015: Started all 14 games he played in at LT and also opened one playoff contest...Was sidelined for two regular-season games (Weeks 16-17) and one postseason contest (NFC Wild Card, at Washington) due to an ankle injury...Helped block for RBs Eddie Lacy (758) and James Starks (601) as they became the first Green Bay duo since 1985 to both rush for 600-plus yards in the same season...Vs. Dallas (Dec. 13): Helped the Packers post season highs for rushing yards (230), first downs (29) and time of possession (37:48). The 230 rushing yards on a season-high 44 attempts (5.2 avg.) were the most by Green Bay in a game since Nov. 29, 2004, vs. St. Louis (231 yards on 28 carries)...At Oakland (Dec. 20): Played 67 of 76 snaps, departing the game with just over five minutes remaining due to an ankle injury that would sideline him for the final two regular-season games and the first playoff contest, the first games he had missed in his career...At Arizona (NFC Divisional, Jan. 16): Returned to start at LT and was part of a line that allowed just one sack of Rodgers on the evening.

2014: Started all 16 games and both playoff contests at LT and was named a Pro Bowl alternate...Part of an offense that ranked No. 1 in the league in scoring (30.4), No. 6 in total offense (386.1 ypg) and tied for No. 1 in fewest giveaways (13)...Part of a line that allowed only nine sacks over the final eight regular-season games, the second-fewest allowed over that span behind only Denver (eight)...Helped the Packers finish tied for No. 9 in the NFL in total sacks allowed with 30 on the season, the fewest given up by Green Bay since 2007 (19)...Part of an offense that posted 356 first downs, the most in team history to that point...Protected Rodgers on his way to earning league MVP honors from AP as he ranked No. 1 in the league in TD/INT ratio (7.60, 38/5), No. 2 in passer rating (112.2) and yards per attempt (8.43) and No. 3 in TD passes (38)...Blocked for Lacy as he ranked No. 7 in the NFL with 1,139 rushing yards on the season...Vs. Carolina (Oct. 19): Blocked for Rodgers as he completed 19 of 22 passes for 255 yards and three TDs, a career-high completion percentage of 86.4 and a passer rating of 154.5 that was the third best of his career...At New Orleans (Oct. 26): Helped protect Rodgers on his way to 418 yards on 28-of-39 passing and helped Lacy (123) and Cobb (126) become the first Green Bay RB/WR duo to both post 100 yards receiving in the same game since RB Eddie Lee Ivey (128) and WR Aundra Thompson (102) did so at Tampa Bay on Oct. 12, 1980...Vs. Chicago (Nov. 9): Helped the offense rack up 55 points, tied for the third most in a game in team annals, and 451 total yards. Part of a line that didn't allow a sack and helped Rodgers throw for six TDs, which tied the single-game franchise record, with all of them coming in the first half as he tied Raiders QB Darley Lamonica (1969) for the most in a half in NFL history...Vs. Atlanta (Dec. 8): Part of an offense that registered season highs for total yards (502), rushing yards (179) and first downs (28)...Vs. Dallas (NFC Divisional, Jan. 11): Blocked for Rodgers (316) and Lacy (101) as the Packers had both a 300-yard passer and a 100-yard rusher in a playoff game for the first time in team history.

2013: Started all 16 games at LT, becoming the first rookie to do so for Green Bay since the league went to a 16-game schedule in 1978...Became the first Packers rookie since Koncar (14 games in 1976) to start every regular-season game at LT...Was competing for the starting RT job early in training camp but made the switch to the starting LT position when veteran Bryan Bulaga was lost to a season-ending knee injury that he sustained during the annual Family Night scrimmage on Aug. 3...Was part of an offense that ranked No. 3 in the NFL with 6,404 yards of offense, the second most in franchise history, despite having four different starting QBs on the season with Rodgers sidelined for seven games due to a fractured collarbone...Helped Green Bay finish in the top 10 in both rushing (No. 7) and passing (No. 6) for the first time since 2004...Blocked for Lacy as he rushed for 1,178 yards, the most by a rookie in team history, as Lacy was selected to the Pro Bowl and was named NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year by AP...At San Francisco (Sept. 8): Became the first rookie to start at LT for the Packers in a season opener since Ruettgiers in 1985 and just the fourth to do so for Green Bay since the 1970 merger...Vs. Washington (Sept. 15): Helped the offense amass 580 total yards, the second-highest single-game total in team history. Protected Rodgers as he tied a franchise record with 480 passing yards, along with four TDs, on 34-of-42 passing. Also helped clear lanes for Starks to rush for 132 yards on 20 carries (6.6 avg.), making Rodgers and Starks the first pair of teammates in NFL history to surpass the 450-yard passing and 125-yard rushing marks in the same game...At Minnesota (Oct. 27): Helped the offense rack up 464 total yards with no punts and no turnovers as he held DE Jared Allen to no tackles...At N.Y. Giants (Nov. 17): Was part of a line that did not allow a sack of QB Scott Tolzien as he threw for 339 yards, the most by a QB in his first start in franchise history...At Dallas (Dec. 15): Part of a blocking unit that cleared the way for a second-half comeback highlighted by five straight TD drives that helped erase a 26-3 deficit in the 37-36 win, matching the biggest comeback in team history. Protected QB Matt Flynn as he completed 26 of 39 attempts for 299 yards and four TDs, with all four of the TD passes coming in the second half, a franchise record...2013 Draft: Drafted by Green Bay with the first of three fourth-round selections (No. 109 overall). The choice was obtained in a draft-day trade with the Miami Dolphins, along with a fifth-round pick (No. 146 overall) and a seventh-round selection (No. 224 overall), in exchange for a third-round choice (No. 93 overall).

RIDING BIKES TO PRACTICE

One of the most heartwarming and enduring of the Packers' many great traditions is the bike-riding one during training camp. Since at least the Vince Lombardi era, more than a half-century ago, players have been riding kids' bikes from the locker room at what is now Lambeau Field to the Packers' nearby practice field(s).

So far the earliest evidence of the tradition is a 1961 photo furnished (near right) by Keegan Wright showing Jim Temp (82) and Dan Currie (58) walking to practice while Lamar McHan (46) rides a kid's bike.

The tradition continues today as kids line up outside the stadium hoping to give a player a lift, and then again outside the practice field following practice. It's a tradition that not only has brought immediate joy to kids and players alike, but also led to lasting friendships.

Eighth NFL Season > Third Packers Season

Ht: 6-4 > Wt: 232 > Born: July 1, 1993 > NFL Games Played/Started: 104/99 > Acquired: FA-21

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

> Despite missing four games due to injury, finished No. 3 on the team in 2022 with 96 tackles (56 solo) and posted three passes defended, two interceptions, a QB hit, six tackles for a loss (No. 4 on the team) and the first TD of his career (63-yard INT return).

> Was tied for No. 3 among NFL linebackers with four INTs in 2021-22.

> In 2021, started all 16 games he appeared in for the Packers and earned first-team All-Pro honors from The Associated Press after leading the team with a career-high 145 tackles (101 solo). Also added two INTs, two sacks, six tackles for a loss (No. 3 on team), five passes defended, two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery.

> Became the first Green Bay inside linebacker to earn first-team AP All-Pro honors since Ray Nitschke in 1966.

> Ranked No. 7 in the NFL among all defenders in tackles (career-high 145) for the 2021 season and was the only player in the league with 120-plus tackles and multiple INTs (two), sacks (two) and forced fumbles (two).

> Started his sixth playoff game in the 2021 Divisional round vs. San Francisco and posted a postseason career-high seven tackles (six solo).

> Named NFC Defensive Player of the Month for October 2021 (Weeks 4-8), the first of his career and the first for the Packers since LB Clay Matthews (September 2010). Joined LB Karl Mecklenburg (November 1989) as the only former Minnesota players to win Defensive Player of the Month.

> Started all 16 games in 2020 in his lone season with the Arizona Cardinals, totaling 99 tackles (69 solo), a career-high seven tackles for loss, a career-high-tying two sacks, six passes defended and a forced fumble.

> Spent his first four seasons with Atlanta (2016-19), playing in 59 games (54 starts) and leading the Falcons in tackles in both of his last two seasons (2018-19). Also started five post-season games with the Falcons, helping Atlanta win the NFC title and reach Super Bowl LI following the 2016 season.

> In 2019, led the Falcons with 129 tackles (75 solo) and three forced fumbles to go along with two sacks, two INTs and a fumble recovery while playing all 16 games (15 starts).

> Set career highs in tackles (17) and forced fumbles (two) while tying his career high with two tackles for a loss vs. Tennessee on September 29, 2019. His 17 tackles were tied for the third-highest single-game total in the NFL that season and he was one of just five different players to record 17-plus tackles in a game that season (Bobby Wagner, Luke Kuechly, Sean Lee and Anthony Walker).

> Finished No. 3 on the Falcons in 2017 with 92 tackles (61 solo).

> Selected by Atlanta in the fourth round (No. 115 overall) of the 2016 NFL Draft out of the University of Minnesota.

2022 SEASON: Started all 13 games he played in, missing Weeks 9-12 due to a knee injury...Finished No. 3 on the team with 96 tackles (56 solo), three passes defended, two INTs, a QB hit and six tackles for a loss (No. 4 on the team)...At Tampa

- First name is pronounced duh-VONN-dray.
- Has played in 104 career regular-season games with 99 starts over seven seasons, starting 13-plus games and posting 90-plus tackles in all but his rookie year.
- According to Stathead.com, was the only NFL linebacker and one of four players overall to post 95-plus tackles and multiple interceptions both of the last two seasons (2021-22).
- Named first-team All-Pro by The Associated Press in 2021, becoming the first Green Bay inside linebacker to earn first-team AP All-Pro honors since Ray Nitschke in 1966.
- Prior to joining Green Bay in 2021, played four seasons for the Atlanta Falcons (2016-19), who originally drafted him in the fourth round, and a season for the Arizona Cardinals (2020).
- After a season (2012) at Hutchinson (Kan.) Community College, played in 39 games with 27 starts during his three years (2013-15) at the University of Minnesota, earning All-Big Ten honorable mention as a senior.

Bay (Sept. 25): Led the team with a season-high 14 tackles (eight solo), a tackle for a loss and a pass defended. With Tampa Bay at the Green Bay 20 early in the first quarter, took down RB Leonard Fournette in the flat for a loss of a yard on second-and-4. The Bucs settled for a field goal after a sack by DL Kenny Clark on the next play...Vs. N.Y. Jets (Oct. 16): Led the team with eight tackles (four solo). Teamed with S Adrian Amos and then LB Rashaan Gary to bring down RB Breece Hall for losses of 3 yards on back-to-back plays late in the fourth quarter...

At Washington (Oct. 23): Finished No. 2 on the team with 13 tackles (seven solo) while recording a career-best three tackles for a loss, a QB hit and a pass defended. Returned an interception off QB Taylor Heinicke 63 yards for a TD early in the second quarter, the longest INT return of his career and his first career TD. It marked the longest INT return for a TD by a Packers LB since Nick Barnett went 95 yards on Oct. 9, 2005...At Chicago (Dec. 4): Returned to action for the first time since Week 8, leading the team with 11 tackles (seven solo). It marked his 17th 10-plus-tackle game, including his 10th since the start of 2021...At Miami (Dec. 25): Recorded three tackles (one solo) and a pass defended, and picked off QB Tua Tagovailoa at the Green Bay 22 with just over six minutes to play in the fourth quarter, returning it 14 yards to the Green Bay 36. The Packers would kick a FG on the ensuing drive to take a 26-20 lead with just over two minutes to play.

2021: Started all 16 games he appeared in and led the defense with a career-high 145 tackles (101 solo), earning first-team AP All-Pro honors...Added two INTs, two sacks, six TFLs (No. 3 on team), five PDs, two FF and one FR...Ranked No. 7 in the NFL among all defenders in tackles...Was the only player in the league with 120-plus tackles and multiple INTs, sacks and forced fumbles...Named NFC Defensive Player of the Month for October (Weeks 4-8), the first of his career and the first for the Packers since Matthews (September 2010)...Was placed on reserve/COVID-19 on Nov. 30 during the Packers' bye week...Was activated from reserve/COVID-19 on Dec. 11 prior to Week 14 vs. Chicago...Missed Week 18 with an elbow injury...Vs. Detroit (Sept. 20): Led the Packers defense with 13 tackles (11 solo) and intercepted Lions QB Jared Goff late in the fourth quarter. Joined Blake Martinez (2017) as the only Packers defenders to record 12-plus tackles and an INT in a game in the last 10 seasons...At San Francisco (Sept. 26): Logged a team-high 11 tackles (five solo) and had a recovery of a QB Jimmy Garoppolo fumble late in the fourth quarter, which led to a Green Bay FG...At Cincinnati (Oct. 10): Logged eight tackles (five solo), a tackle for a loss and intercepted QB Joe Burrow on the first play of overtime, his second INT of the season and the fifth of his career. Became the first Green Bay LB with multiple INTs in the first five games of the season since Barnett (two) in 2007. His three takeaways in the first five games were tied for second most by a Packers LB only behind John Anderson (four, 1978)...Vs. Washington (Oct. 24): Led the defense with 13 tackles (10 solo). Also forced two fumbles, matching his career high, and became the first Packers defender to force two fumbles in a game since Matthews did so at Cincinnati on Sept. 22, 2013...At Arizona (Oct. 28): Logged his first sack as a Packer, bringing down QB Kyler Murray for a loss of 4 yards in the second quarter. Finished the game with seven tackles (four solo) and two tackles for a loss, which matched his career best...Vs. Chicago (Dec. 12): Registered a season-high 16 tackles (nine solo), the second most of his career. It was also tied for the most by a Packer in a game since 2000 (Martinez, twice; LB Nate Wayne, twice)...At Baltimore (Dec. 19): Finished with a team-high 10 tackles (five solo) and a sack of Ravens QB Tyler Huntley in the first quarter...Vs. Eighth NFL Season > Eighth Packers Season

2019, 2021 PRO BOWL

Ht: 6-3 > Wt: 314 > Born: October 4, 1995 > NFL Games Played/Started: 106/92 > Acquired: D1-16

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

> Was one of three Packers (S Adrian Amos, LB Preston Smith) to start all 17 games on defense in 2022, posting four sacks (No. 3 on the team), 10 QB hits (No. 4 on the team) and five tackles for a loss (tied for No. 5 on the team).

> In 2021, made his second career Pro Bowl (2019) and led the Green Bay defensive line with 48 tackles (28 solo) while also finishing in the top five on the team with four sacks (No. 4), six tackles for a loss (tied for No. 3) and 13 QB hits (No. 3).

> According to Stats Pass, tied with LB Rashan Gary for the team lead in 2021 with 43½ QB hurries (No. 6 among NFL players listed as a DT).

> In 2020, started all 13 games he played in, leading the defensive line with 41 tackles (28 solo), two sacks, three tackles for a loss and six QB hits.

> In two 2020 postseason contests, recorded 11 tackles (six solo), a team-best 2½ sacks, a team-high two tackles for a loss and three QB hits (tied for the team lead).

> His 2½ sacks ranked No. 4 in the NFL in the 2020 postseason, tied for the eighth most by a Green Bay player in the postseason since 1982, and were the most since LB Nick Perry recorded 3½ in the 2015 postseason.

> According to NFL Next Gen Stats, ranked No. 2 in the NFL during the 2019 regular season with 49 QB pressures and 43 disruptions (the combined total of hurries, pressures or sacks — one per play) among players that play at least 75 percent of their snaps on the interior defensive line.

> With 16½ sacks from 2016-19, ranked No. 3 among Green Bay DTs in sacks in their first four seasons (Mike Daniels, 18; Corey Williams, 17), according to pro-football-reference.com (since 1982).

> Earned his first trip to the Pro Bowl (injury replacement for Rams DT Aaron Donald) after a 2019 season where he started all 16 games, ranked No. 2 on the team with a career-high 89 tackles (52 solo) and tied his career high with six sacks.

> Started both 2019 playoff games and posted seven tackles (five solo), a sack, three QB hits and three QB pressures.

> Missed three games due to an elbow injury, but was named a Pro Bowl alternate in 2018 after ranking at or near the top of the team in tackles (No. 3, 73), sacks (No. 2, career-high six), tackles for a loss (tied for No. 1, 13), QB hits (No. 3, seven), QB pressures (No. 5, 13) and opponent fumble recoveries (No. 1, two), which was also tied for No. 5 in the league.

> In 2017, started all 15 games he appeared in, leading the Green Bay defensive line in tackles (78) and ranking No. 2 in both sacks (4½) and solo tackles (39). Also posted eight tackles for a loss, two forced fumbles, 11 QB hits, 10 QB pressures, a pass defended and a blocked extra point.

> Selected by Green Bay in the first round of the 2016 NFL Draft with the No. 27 overall selection, joining former teammate DE Datone Jones (No. 26 overall, 2013) as the only UCLA defensive linemen to be selected in the first round of the draft since DT Manu Tuiaosopo in 1979 (No. 18 overall, Seattle).

AT A GLANCE ...

- Has earned two trips to the Pro Bowl (2019, 2021), joining Henry Jordan (1960-61, 1963, 1966) and Dave Hanner (1953-54) as the only Packers defensive tackles to make multiple Pro Bowls.
- Has led or tied for the lead on the defensive line in tackles (53, 48, 41, 89, 72, 78, 33) in each of his first seven years with the Packers.
- Among those listed as a DL or DT by Stathead.com, is one of only five players to post 40-plus tackles and multiple sacks in each of the last six seasons (2017-22).
- His 26½ sacks from 2017-22 rank No. 2 on the team over that span (LB Preston Smith, 33½) and his five forced fumbles are tied for No. 1 on the Packers (LB Za'Darius Smith).
- Has 4½ career postseason sacks, tied for No. 4 in team history (since 1982) and tied for No. 5 in the NFL from 2019-21.
- Earned third-team All-America honors from The Associated Press and first-team All-Pacific-12 recognition from the coaches and media as a junior at UCLA in 2015.

PACKERS SPRING MINICAMP HISTORY

Dan Devine coached collegiately for 16 years before Green Bay hired him in 1971. Shortly after his arrival, he implemented a college tradition: spring practice. That April, Devine took his new players to the University of Texas at Arlington and the Packers' first minicamp, where he got his first look at No. 1 draft choice John Brockington. In 1977, the Packers' revolutionary indoor facility allowed spring practice in Green Bay. However, the team migrated to Arizona in '94, so the Don Hutson Center could be finished.

1971..... University of Texas at Arlington
1972-76..... Sagamore High School, Phoenix
1977-93..... Indoor Practice Facility, Green Bay

1994..... Scottsdale (Ariz.) Community College
1995-present..... Don Hutson Center, Green Bay

solo), a tackle for a loss, a fumble recovery, a QB pressure and a QB hit. On fourth-and-10 with just over a minute remaining and the Packers leading, 24-23, recovered a Trubisky fumble at the Chicago 39 that was forced by Perry on a sack to seal the Green Bay win...At Washington (Sept. 23): Matched his career high with a team-leading 10 tackles (seven solo)...Vs. Buffalo (Sept. 30): Posted three tackles (two solo), a forced fumble, a fumble recovery, a season-high three QB pressures and a QB hit. Late in the fourth quarter, punched the ball out on QB Josh Allen's third-down scramble and recovered the fumble at the Green Bay 27. Helped the defense allow just 58 rushing yards on 16 carries (3.6 avg.)...Vs. San Francisco (Oct. 15): Finished second on the team with eight tackles (five solo), a sack and a QB hit. Shed a block from G Mike Person to come up the middle for a 6-yard sack of QB C.J. Beathard late in the first half...At L.A. Rams (Oct. 28): Matched his career high with two sacks. Finished with eight tackles (five solo), four tackles for a loss, three QB pressures (tied season high) and a QB hit. On third-and-4 on the Rams' first drive, fought off a block from C John Sullivan to bring down Goff for a 1-yard sack. Beat Sullivan again on a third-and-9 early in the second quarter, coming up the middle to sack Goff for an 11-yard loss...At Minnesota (Nov. 25): Paced the defensive line with six tackles (three solo), a sack, a QB pressure and two QB hits. Late in the third quarter, fought off a block from C Pat Elflein to wrap up Cousins for a 9-yard sack on third down as the Vikings were forced to settle for a FG.

2017: Started all 15 games he appeared in and posted 78 tackles (39 solo), eight tackles for a loss, 4½ sacks, two forced fumbles, 11 QB hits, 10 QB pressures and a pass defended... Led the Green Bay defensive line in tackles and ranked No. 2 in sacks...Registered all 4½ of his sacks in the month of December, second most among NFL defensive tackles behind only Donald (five) and the most ever (since 1982) by a Green Bay DT in the month of December (according to Stats Pass)...At Minnesota (Oct. 15): Registered a career-high 10 tackles (five solo), a tackle for a loss, a forced fumble, a QB pressure and a QB hit. Early in the second quarter, fought off a double-team from Pat Elflein and G Jeremiah Sirles as he went low to punch the ball out from RB Jerick McKinnon, the first forced fumble of his career. The fumble was scooped up by LB Clay Matthews at the Green Bay 19 and returned down the sideline 63 yards to the Minnesota 18, helping to set up a TD pass from G QB Brett Hundley to WR Davante Adams three plays later...Vs. New Orleans (Oct. 22): Posted eight tackles (two solo), two QB pressures and two QB hits. Blocked a K Wil Lutz extra point early in the third quarter, the first blocked extra point by the Packers since Sept. 22, 2013, at Cincinnati (Jones)...Vs. Tampa Bay (Dec. 3): Registered seven tackles (three solo), 1½ sacks, a forced fumble, two QB pressures and one QB hit. Posted his first career sack late in the second quarter, forcing a fumble by QB Jameis Winston that was caught by Lowry at the Green Bay 38 and returned 62 yards for a TD. Late in the fourth quarter, chased down Winston and wrapped him up low for a shared 3-yard sack with Matthews...Vs. Minnesota (Dec. 23): Posted a career-high two sacks along with six tackles (three solo) and two QB hits. In the first quarter, came around on a stunt and beat G Nick Easton to get to QB Case Keenum for a 9-yard sack on third down, which forced a Minnesota punt. Early in the fourth quarter, was credited with a 2-yard sack as he chased Keenum out of bounds.

2016: Played in all 16 games with two starts and registered 33 tackles (14 solo), two tackles for a loss, four QB pressures, three QB hits, two fumble recoveries and two passes defended...Also appeared in all three postseason contests and recorded nine tackles (five solo), including a tackle for a loss, a team-high five QB pressures and a QB hit...At Jacksonville (Sept. 11): Posted an assisted tackle in his NFL debut, becoming the youngest player to appear in a season opener for the Packers since Arnie Herber (20 years old) in 1930...Vs. N.Y. Gi- ants (Oct. 9): Recorded the first fumble recovery of his career, scooping up a QB Eli Manning fumble at the New York 33 late in the first half and returning it 2 yards to the 31 after Fackrell knocked the ball out on a sack. The turnover helped set up Crosby's 44-yard FG as time expired in the first half. Added two tackles (one solo), including a tackle for a loss...Vs. Minnesota (Dec. 24): Made a key takeaway in the second quarter. With just under 10 minutes remaining, dove on a fumbled snap by Easton to give the Packers the ball at the Minnesota 42, field position that led to a 2-yard Jordy Nelson TD catch three plays later. Late in the third quarter, beat Easton to put a hit on QB Sam Bradford and force an incomplete pass...At Dallas (NFC Divisional, Jan. 15): Posted four tackles (three solo), including a tackle for a loss. Late in the third quarter, read a screen pass to RB Ezekiel Elliott, bringing him down behind the line of scrimmage for a 2-yard loss. Added two QB pressures and a QB hit...2016 Draft: Selected by the Packers in the first round with the No. 27 overall choice, the second defensive tackle selected behind Louisville's Sheldon Rankins (New Orleans, No. 12 overall).

HISTORY OF THE SACK STATISTIC

In 1947, the NFL implemented a new team statistic, yards lost attempting to pass. The new category allowed the league to separate gross yards passing from net yards, to more accurately reflect a team's passing performance. Net passing yards included yards lost by backs tackled on passing plays.

In 1963, Seymour Siwoff, president of the league's official statistical company, the Elias Sports Bureau, made a suggestion. Recognizing that the "yards lost attempting to pass" figure needed a complement, he argued for a new category: number of times losing yards attempting to pass. The league agreed, and one of the NFL's top executives, Jim Kensil, first coined the term "sack," which is a term from the Dark Ages, meaning to plunder a captured town. Kensil, who handled NFL public relations among other responsibilities, popularized the term in his stories and publicity materials.

In 1982, convinced by member-team PR directors (many of whom were convinced by their players), Elias and the NFL agreed to make individual sacks an official number. New rules were written, such as only two players can share in a sack.

Today, it's arguably the game's most popular defensive stat. Elias, which also tracks official numbers for MLB, the NBA and the NHL, still has the final word on every challenged sack in the NFL, spending Tuesday or Wednesday in the film room at the league office.

BOSTON COLLEGE

Fourth NFL Season > Fourth Packers Season

Ht: 6-0 > Wt: 247 > Born: May 2, 1998 > NFL Games Played/Started: 45/5 > Acquired: D2-20

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

► Was one of only two running backs in the league (Steelers RB Najee Harris) to rush for 750-plus yards and play in all 17 games each of the last two seasons (2021-22).

► Has posted 50-plus yards from scrimmage in 21 games over the last two seasons, No. 2 on the team over that span behind only RB Aaron Jones (25).

► Led the team with a career-best seven rushing TDs last season despite starting only three games, the most rushing TDs by a Green Bay player with three or fewer starts since RB Vince Workman in 1991 (seven rushing TDs, zero starts).

► Posted at least one rushing TD in five consecutive games last season (Weeks 12-13, 15-17), tied for the fourth-longest streak in franchise history.

► Led the team with 803 rushing yards and a team-high five TDs on 187 carries (4.3 avg.) and added 34 receptions for 313 yards (9.2 avg.) and two TDs in 2021.

► Ranked No. 3 on the team with 1,116 yards from scrimmage in 2021, teaming with Jones (1,190) to become just the second RB duo in franchise history to both eclipse 1,100 yards from scrimmage in the same season (John Brockington/MacArthur Lane in 1972).

► Appeared in 11 games as a rookie in 2020 and posted 242 rushing yards and two TDs on 46 carries (5.3 avg.).

► Posted a career-best 124 yards rushing and a career-high two TDs on 21 carries (5.9 avg.) in 2020 vs. Tennessee in Week 16, becoming the first rookie in franchise history to rush for 120-plus yards and two TDs in a game.

► Became the youngest player in franchise history to rush for 100-plus yards and two TDs in a game.

► Was selected by the Packers in the second round (No. 62 overall) of the 2020 NFL Draft, becoming the first Boston College RB to be picked in the first two rounds of the draft since William Green was selected in the first round (No. 16 overall) by the Cleveland Browns in 2002.

IMPOSTER

During the 1923 season, the Green Bay Press-Gazette published a major story announcing the Packers had signed Jack "Dollie" Gray, an end who'd received All-America honors at Princeton.

According to participation charts kept by George Calhoun, Gray started his only game played – a 24-3 loss to the Racine Legion at Bellevue Park.

Made suspicious by Gray's performance, Curly Lambeau checked the player's background, only to discover he was an imposter. Lambeau quickly gave the player – whoever he was – his walking papers.

However, because he did play in a game, the Packers still list him on their all-time roster.

coming the fifth BC player since 2004 to earn the honor...Also named the ACC Rookie of the Week and co-Offensive Back of the Week for his efforts...Posted 200 yards and two TDs on 24 carries (8.3 avg.) at UConn (Nov. 18).

LAMBEAU'S TWIN FLAGS

The twin American flags above Lambeau Field enter their 20th season in 2023. The impressively sized flags, 15 feet by 25 feet, were raised May 28, 2004, on Memorial Day weekend that year.

Located on top of the stadium's indoor club seats on the north end of the facility, the flags are the culmination of the desire to improve Lambeau Field's honoring of America, an effort first discussed in Fall 2003, at the end of the stadium's 32-month renovation.

"Once the Lambeau Field redevelopment project was complete and we had our first games in the stadium, we realized the old flag and flagpole appeared a bit small compared to the larger size of the new facility," said Packers then-CEO Bob Harlan.

"We needed something more prominent to appropriately honor our country and decided to upgrade that component of the stadium. We also heard from a few fans that they had trouble locating the flag during the anthem, so this will definitely help in that area, too.

"The new, larger flags are a great way to honor America and the timing worked out for it to be done for Memorial Day weekend."

The flags are positioned atop 72-foot-high flagpoles which are stationed on top of the northeast and northwest corners of the stadium, above the club seats. All told, the flags are flying at 180 feet above ground.

Once the plans were set, the team worked with Kocken and Associates, of De Pere, Wis., on the design and engineering of the project. A major challenge of the design was ensuring both the structure and the flagpoles themselves could withstand the extreme wind load from the two large flags at that height.

Physical preparation for the new flagpoles began months prior with structural work, including reinforcing the area above the ceiling and on the roof with additional steel and concrete to support the extra load.

The two flags fly 24 hours a day, seven days a week, and are illuminated by spotlights at night.

Seventh NFL Season > Third Packers Season

Ht: 6-2 > Wt: 209 > Born: August 29, 1994 > NFL Games Played/Started: 89/50 > Acquired: FA-21 (PS-Ari.)

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

> Finished 2022 with a career-best 76 tackles (No. 4 on the team) and was No. 2 on the Packers in both interceptions (four) and passes defended (career-high-tying 13).

> Joined teammate Jaire Alexander (five) as the only CB combo in the NFL in 2022 to each have four-plus INTs, the first time since 2011 (four players) that the Packers had multiple players with four-plus INTs.

> Was tied with Alexander and Cowboys CB DaRon Bland for the most fourth-quarter INTs in the NFL in 2022 (four).

> Was one of only six NFL players with four-plus INTs each of the last two seasons (2021-22).

> Joined the Packers on Oct. 6, 2021, and went on to play in 12 games with nine starts, recording 52 tackles (48 solo), a tackle for a loss, five INTs, two defensive TDs, 13 passes defended, a forced fumble and five tackles on special teams.

> His two INTs returned for TDs tied for the NFL lead in 2021 and were tied for fourth most in a season in team history.

> In 2021, became only the second Packer in team history to post an INT return for a TD in back-to-back games (CB Herb Adderley, Sept. 19 and 26, 1965).

> Ranked No. 2 in the NFL in 2021 with 105 INT return yards, the most by a Packer since CB Casey Hayward (113) in 2014.

> Posted the lowest passer rating allowed when targeted (44.5) in the NFL among all defenders targeted over 45 times in 2021 (Stathead.com).

> In his lone year with the Panthers in 2020, appeared in 14 games and made 11 starts, recording 62 tackles (50) while adding nine passes defended.

> Played in all 32 regular-season games for Philadelphia in 2018-19 with 13 starts and posted 14 passes defended and three INTs.

> Was tied for No. 6 among NFL defensive backs in 2018 with a career-high six tackles for a loss.

> As a rookie in 2017, made significant contributions on defense during the Eagles' Super Bowl LII run, playing in 14 contests with five starts and tallying 24 tackles (22 solo), two INTs and 11 passes defended.

2022 SEASON: Played in all 17 games with a career-high 12 starts, finishing No. 2 in the secondary (No. 4 on the team) with a career-high 76 tackles (63 solo), a sack, four tackles for a loss, a QB hit, 13 passes defended (No. 2 on the team), a forced fumble and four INTs (No. 2 on the team)...Added a career-high nine tackles on special teams (No. 5 on the team)...At Minnesota (Sept. 11): Finished with four tackles (all solo), including a third-down stop for no gain on WR Justin Jefferson to force a field-goal attempt...At Washington (Oct. 23): Led the secondary with a season-high 10 tackles (five solo) and a season-best three passes defended...At Buffalo (Oct. 30): Registered a team-high five tackles (all solo), a sack, a QB hit and an INT. Recorded his first career sack when he brought down QB Josh Allen for no gain late in the first quarter. Also posted his first INT of the season when he picked off a pass intended for WR Gabriel Davis early in the fourth quarter, becoming the first

PACKERS CHEERLEADERS

The Green Bay Packers once had official cheerleaders, but after the 1988 season the decision was made not to reinstate them. While some Packers fans supported the official cheerleaders, many were opposed or indifferent, at best.

Helping the Packers make the decision to discontinue the program was a television news poll in which fans were generally split over whether they wanted the program to continue.

Bob Harlan, then the Packers' executive vice president of administration, was quoted in an official release Feb. 7, 1989, saying: "In general terms, the poll disclosed there were as many fans who expressed opposition to the return of the cheerleaders as there were those in favor of restoring them. On that basis, we felt the appropriate decision at this time would be to continue without them."

At this time, there are no plans to return to official cheerleaders.

For several years, the team has used cheering squads from two local schools, St. Norbert College in De Pere, Wis., and the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay.

NFL debut: at Kansas City, 9/17/17
First NFL start: vs. N.Y. Giants, 9/24/17
First NFL interception: vs. N.Y. Giants, 9/24/17 (E.Manning)
Touchdowns (2): vs. L.A. Rams, 11/28/21, 33-yard INT return (M.Stafford); vs. Chicago, 12/12/21, 55-yard INT return (J.Fields).

Fifth NFL Season > Fifth Packers Season

Ht: 6-5 > Wt: 277 > Born: December 3, 1997 > NFL Games Played/Started: 56/29 > Acquired: D1a-19

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

> Started nine contests before a knee injury ended his 2022 season, finishing with six sacks (No. 2 on the team), 32 tackles (21 solo), 12 QB hits (No. 3 on the team) and seven tackles for a loss (tied for No. 2 on the team).

> Has registered 12 sacks in his last 11 home games and posted at least one in five straight contests at Lambeau Field (2021-22), tied for the longest streak in the history of the stadium (LB Za'Darius Smith, 2020).

> His streak of four straight games with a sack (Weeks 1-4, 2022) is tied for No. 3 in team history behind only five-game streaks by LB Tim Harris (1989) and DE Kabere Gbaja-Biamila (2000-01).

> In 2021, teamed with Preston Smith to become just the second linebacker duo in team history (since 1982) to both register nine-plus sacks in the same season (Preston Smith and Za'Darius Smith in 2019).

> Led the team with 28 QB hits (No. 7 in the NFL) in 2021 and finished No. 5 among NFL LBs with 53 QB pressures according to NFL Next Gen Stats.

> In the 2021 NFC Divisional Playoff vs. San Francisco, became the 13th Packer to record two-plus sacks (two) in a post-season game since 1982.

> Finished No. 2 on the team with five sacks and tied for No. 2 on the team with 11 QB hits in 2020.

> According to NFL Next Gen Stats, led the Packers (min. 50 pass rush snaps) in both pass-rush rate (12.0) and disruption rate (15.1) in 2020.

> Saw action in both postseason contests in his second season (2020), finishing with 1½ sacks (No. 2 on the team) and three QB hits (tied for No. 1 on the team).

> Played in all 16 games as a rookie and finished No. 5 on the team with 19 QB pressures. Also registered 30 tackles (14 solo), two sacks, three tackles for a loss, a fumble recovery and seven QB hits.

> Selected by the Packers with the first of two picks in the first round (No. 12 overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft, becoming the first player from the University of Michigan to be picked by Green Bay in the first round since LB John Anderson (No. 26 overall) in 1978.

LATE-SEASON SUCCESS

Lambeau Field is historically a difficult place for opponents to play once the weather turns, and the Packers' tradition of late-season success in Green Bay has continued in recent years. Since 2000, the Packers boast a home record of 48-10 (.828) in regular-season contests played in December and January, the top winning percentage in the league over that span.

Since 2000, Green Bay owns the league's best regular-season record in games played Dec. 1 and later:

MORE ABOUT THE FROZEN TUNDRA

- After normal wear and tear in the time since the playing surface received a makeover in 2007, the Lambeau Field playing surface underwent an offseason facelift prior to the 2018 season that brought an updated technology to the hallowed ground. After 11 seasons of use, the synthetic fibers used to stabilize the sand-based root zone in Lambeau Field had begun to show some wear, and thus prompted the organization to renovate the field.
- In a project that took several months to complete, SISGrass fibers were injected seven inches deep into a 10-inch sand root zone. The type of fiber utilized this time was a polyethylene fiber as opposed to the polypropylene fibers that were previously used. Other improvements included lowering the sand root-zone depth by two inches, from 12 to 10, which brought the heat system tubing slightly closer to the surface to help maximize efficiency and effectiveness. Irrigation plumbing was also redesigned to double the amount of zones for more accurate control of the system.
- The system's main advantage is attributed to a fast-draining, sand-based soil. Approximately 20 million individual stitches that extend above the surface one inch and protrude downward seven inches help stabilize the sand-based root zone when the grass canopy wears thin after Wisconsin's growing season makes it difficult to regenerate the natural grass. The combination of sand, grass and fiber creates an even and safe playing surface that eliminates large chunks of sod from being torn loose, which creates an uneven and unstable playing field. The system also eliminates the need to re-sod worn areas during the season.

- The drainage system installed during the last upgrade between the 2006 and 2007 seasons is still performing well and will remain. A slight crown of .6 percent will continue to exist to assist water and snow runoff when the field is covered with a tarp.
- The concrete apron surrounding the field was recoated with the same rubberized, non-skid material that was previously used. The rubberized path exists for equipment use, including the heavy equipment used for snow-removal operations, but also allows the players a non-skid surface when doing the Lambeau Leap.
- The Packers are the only NFL team to use the system in its stadium and also utilize the technology on its outdoor practice fields. According to Packers fields manager Allen Johnson, the system is popular in many European soccer stadiums, including the stadiums that the NFL plays in during its International Series in England.

EVENTS THAT HELPED TO STABILIZE PACKERS FINANCIALLY, 1920-66

- Building a fence at Hagemeister Park, 1920 — After playing on an open field and passing a hat to collect money in their first season, the Packers needed to find a way to charge admission in order to survive. C.M. "Neil" Murphy was named business manager in July 1920 and led the effort to get a fence built around the playing field at Hagemeister Park. "... it was entirely due to his ability as an executive that the team prospered," the Green Bay Press-Gazette wrote two years later in its first review of Packers history.
- A.B. Turnbull's support, 1922-23 — When Curly Lambeau and George Whitney Calhoun were debating whether to go ahead with a game against Duluth on Thanksgiving Day 1922, with rain pouring down and a big financial loss all but a certainty, Turnbull prodded them to play. And if they did, he vowed to get the business community to rally around the team before the next season. Turnbull, one of the owners of the Press-Gazette, fulfilled his promise and led the effort to organize the Green Bay Football Corp. prior to the start of the 1923 season.
- Decision to play games in Milwaukee, 1933 — Moving a home game to Borchert Field that season allowed the team to tap into a larger market, expand its territory beyond the NFL's traditional 75-mile radius and thwart efforts to establish a competing pro franchise in Milwaukee. The Packers played home games in both Green Bay and Milwaukee from 1933-94.
- Court decision to appoint receiver, 1933 — The Packers petitioned for a friendly receiver as litigation over a lawsuit involving a fan who fell from the stands at City Stadium proceeded. Henry Graess, Brown County circuit judge, appointed local accountant Frank Jonet receiver. Jonet had ties to the Packers going back to 1919.
- Second stock drive, 1934-35 — Twenty-five business and industrial leaders agreed in December 1934 to raise $10,000 to "Save the Packers." Weeks later, the Packers had met their goal through a second stock sale and were reorganized as the Green Bay Packers, Inc.
- NFL's initiation of college draft, 1936 — Kept small-market teams such as the Packers competitive with big-city opponents.
- Decision to invest in war bonds, 1940s — Money in reserve carried team despite losses of at least $25,000 in 1943 alone, as World War II depleted rosters.
- Intrasquad game, Thanksgiving 1949 — Packers brought old-timers back, drawing 15,000 to City Stadium, earning close to $50,000.
- Third stock drive, 1950 — After Lambeau's departure, team raised more than $100,000.
- Bert Bell's push for league-wide TV package, 1950s — With help from Congress, Commissioner Bell laid the groundwork for CBS-TV deal that allowed all teams, large-market and small-market, to share revenue and was in place by the 1961 season. In 1966, Commissioner Pete Rozelle signed first NFL TV package, with CBS and NBC, giving Packers more than $1 million.

PLANE PIONEERS

The Packers were the first NFL team to fly to a road game, but the trip didn't exactly go smoothly. On Nov. 14, 1940, the Packers left Green Bay on a 7 a.m. Milwaukee Road train and headed for Chicago, where they were taken by limousine from the depot to the airport to board two United Airlines planes.

This was a Thursday and they were scheduled to play the Giants in New York on Sunday. The Packers' itinerary called for them to leave Chicago at 12:30 p.m. and arrive at LaGuardia Airport at 4:25 p.m. (CST). When a host of photographers showed up at the runway, takeoff time was delayed slightly as the Packers posed for several pictures, including Cecil Isbell lifting a stewardess off the ground and pretending to throw her to Don Hutson.

Once in the air, things went smoothly until the planes had to land in Cleveland for refueling. With LaGuardia under a heavy fog, the decision was then made to abort the flights. A fleet of taxicabs took the Packers to downtown Cleveland where they ate dinner and sat around a hotel lobby until they could board a New York Central railway sleeper to complete the trip to New York. The Packers finally arrived in New York at 8:30 a.m. on Friday and headed to Central Park to practice.

After losing to the Giants, 7-3, things went better on the trip home. The Packers took off early Monday morning from LaGuardia and landed in Chicago without incident. There they took limousines from the airport to Union Station, where they had an hour wait before catching their train back to Green Bay.

NAMES ON THE FAÇADE

The names gracing the east and west façades are among the more awe-inspiring features of Lambeau Field's bowl. The names represent the 28 men who have been inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame primarily for their years spent with the Green Bay Packers.

Of the 28 names, 25 were players. Earl "Curly" Lambeau and Vince Lombardi were inducted as coaches. Ron Wolf was inducted into Canton in 2015 as a general manager. Safety LeRoy Butler's name was added to the façade during the 2022 season, following his induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Four of the names were charter inductees of the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1963: Lambeau, Don Hutson, Robert "Cal" Hubbard and John "Blood" McNally.

Hutson, Hubbard and Blood played during the Lambeau era, as did Clarke Hinkle, Mike Michalske, Arnie Herber and Tony Canadeo. Dillon played from 1952-59.

Of the 25 players, 12 of them spent their prime playing for Lombardi: Jim Taylor, Forrest Gregg, Bart Starr, Ray Nitschke, Herb Adderley, Willie Davis, Jim Ringo, Paul Hornung, Willie Wood, Henry Jordan, Dave Robinson and Kramer.

James Lofton's, Reggie White's, Brett Favre's, Charles Woodson's and LeRoy Butler's Packers careers were played in later eras.

In deference to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, the names appear on the façade as they do on their busts in Canton with nicknames or adopted names included in quotation marks. That's why John "Blood" McNally is listed as he is. While McNally was his given name, he never used it during his playing career, even to sign his contracts. Nor did the name McNally ever appear in a Packers program or press book, or in newspaper coverage of the day. He was simply Johnny Blood, one of the most magical names in sports in the 1920s and 1930s.

The years listed are only the years the players spent with the Packers. Only 10 of the inductees spent their entire NFL careers with the Packers: Hutson, Hinkle, Canadeo, Dillon, Starr, Nitschke, Hornung, Wood, Kramer and Butler. Lombardi was inducted in Canton only as a coach. That's why the years listed under his name don't include 1968, when he served strictly as Green Bay's general manager.

In 2021, the Packers honored the late former general manager Ted Thompson by installing his name on the Lambeau Field façade to honor his contributions to the organization's success and recognize his legacy.

The names are arranged on the façade in no particular order.

Also gracing the interior walls of the Lambeau Field bowl are the years of the Packers' NFL-record 13 world championships and the team's retired numbers. Favre's No. 4, which was retired July 18, 2015, when he was inducted into the Packers Hall of Fame, was unveiled on the façade next to the five other retired numbers during Green Bay's home game against the Chicago Bears on Thanksgiving, Nov. 26, 2015.

Added six receptions for 31 yards (5.2 avg.) and a TD...His four TDs in the playoffs tied Sharpe (1993) for the most in a single postseason in team history and his three rushing TDs tied RBs Edgar Bennett (1996) and Grant (2007) for the most in a single postseason in franchise annals...Brought his season total (including playoffs) to a team-record 23 TDs, topping Green's single-season mark of 22 TDs in 2003...At Dallas (Oct. 6): Posted 182 yards from scrimmage (107 rushing, 75 receiving) and tied a single-game franchise record with four rushing TDs (18, 3, 5, 1), becoming the first Packer to do so since Levens (Jan. 2, 2000, vs. Arizona). Became just the fourth NFL player since 1950 to post 100-plus rushing yards, 75-plus receiving yards and four rushing TDs in a game as he joined Gale Sayers, Dub Jones and Shaun Alexander as the only players to accomplish that feat. Became the first NFL player to register four rushing TDs in a game against the Dallas Cowboys. Matched his career high with six carries of 10-plus yards and registered a career-best 10 rushing first downs. Led the team with seven receptions for 75 yards receiving (10.7 avg.). Earned NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors for his performance, his first time winning the award, as he became the first Green Bay RB to earn the honor since Lacy in 2014 (Week 12 at Minnesota)...

At Kansas City (Oct. 27): Posted a career-high 159 receiving yards and two TDs on seven receptions (22.7 avg.), the second-most receiving yards in a game by a running back in franchise history behind only Uram (174 yards, vs. Chicago Cardinals on Nov. 1, 1942). Added 67 rushing yards on 13 carries (5.2 avg.), giving him a season-best 226 yards from scrimmage, the fifth-best single-game total in team annals and the best mark since Green's 227-yard game vs. Denver on Dec. 28, 2003. His average of 11.3 yards per touch set a single-game franchise mark among RBs with 200-plus yards from scrimmage. Joined Rams RB Todd Gurley (at Tennessee on Dec. 24, 2017) as the only NFL players since 1950 to have 65-plus rushing yards, 150-plus receiving yards, seven-plus receptions and two receiving TDs in a single game. Had two receptions of 50-plus yards, the first Green Bay RB to do so in a game since Paul Hornung posted TD catches of 65 and 50 yards at Baltimore on Dec. 12, 1965. Earned NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors for his performance for the second time on the season...Vs. Carolina (Nov. 10): Led the team with 93 rushing yards and three TDs (5, 1, 13 yards) on just 13 carries (7.2 avg.) as he became the first Packer to have multiple games in a season with three-plus rushing TDs since Taylor (three games) in 1962...At Minnesota (Dec. 23): Led the team with a season-best 154 rushing yards and two TDs on 23 carries (6.7 avg.), his fifth game on the season with multiple rushing TDs as he tied Taylor's single-season team mark set in 1962. PACKERS IN GOSSELIN'S SPECIAL TEAMS RANKINGS

Rick Gosselin, who covered the NFL and the Dallas Cowboys for the Dallas Morning News, produces an annual NFL special teams poll, which objectively grades teams by their rankings in 22 kicking-game categories. Gosselin suggests that quality special teams give clubs an edge in a parity-driven league. A closer look at the Packers' history in the standings:

LONGEST OPPONENT WINNING STREAKS BROKEN BY PACKERS

On Jan. 1, 2006, Green Bay ended Seattle's 11-game winning streak. Previously, the longest streak Green Bay had ever halted was a 10-game run by the Lions, at Detroit on Nov. 25, 1934, a 3-0 final. Prior to that Seattle contest, the longest streak snapped at Lambeau Field was Denver's nine-game run in 1996.

THE ORIGINAL PACKERS

The Packers were born on Aug. 11, 1919. Founded by local football star Curly Lambeau and newspaperman George Whitney Calhoun, they were sponsored by the local Indian Packing Co. The original Packers played 11 games, mostly against other semipro teams from Wisconsin and Michigan's Upper Peninsula. They finished 10-1 and outscored their opponents, 565-12.

The team played in an open area of Hagemeister Park with no fence or bleachers. It also had a distinctly local flavor. Of the 25 players who appeared in at least one game, 17 had played football at either Green Bay East High School or Green Bay West. Three others were born in the Green Bay area. One player appeared in only one game and was listed in the lineup only by a last name, Bradlee, and no other details are known about him.

The Packers also played a semipro schedule in 1920, going 9-1-1, before joining what is now the National Football League in 1921.

MODERN INSTANT REPLAY "CHALLENGE" SYSTEM, BY THE NUMBERS

After being first introduced in 1999 as a referee replay review to aid officiating, the instant-replay system was extended on a one-year basis in 2000 before being approved for the next three years through 2003. It was later extended on a five-year basis in March 2004, and then finally installed permanently in March 2007.

Plays can either be reviewed by an on-site NFL replay official or on behalf of a coach's challenge. The following is a look at the results of instant replay over the past 24 regular seasons:

THE GREEN BAY PACKERS BRAND

Created in 2007, the Turnkey Team Brand Index serves as the first-ever brand report card of all professional sports teams throughout the four major sports.

It aims to better understand team brands, including their strengths and weaknesses as well as the attributes most closely associated with the team. Results are based upon fan polls in a team's home market.

After finishing 10th in 2007, the Green Bay Packers took the top overall spot in the 2008 standings, finishing ahead of the Boston Red Sox (second) and Pittsburgh Steelers (third). The Packers finished second in the out-of-market rankings behind the New York Yankees, indicating the strength of the Packers brand across the country.

PACKERS' EARLY COACHES

On Aug. 14, 1919, three days after the Packers were organized, Curly Lambeau was chosen team captain, a position at the time that might have carried as much if not more responsibility than coach.

While Lambeau served as captain of the Packers from 1919-21, three other men held the title of coach during those seasons.

Willard J. "Bill" Ryan (1919) – A native of Washburn, Wis., Ryan doubled as coach of the Packers and Green Bay West High School.

Maurice "Jack" Dalton (1920) – A product of Janesville (Wis.) High School, Dalton also doubled as coach of the Packers and Green Bay West High School.

Joseph Merrill "Joe" Hoeffel (1921) – Hoeffel was listed as coach of the Packers in their first NFL season. After starring at Green Bay East High School, Hoeffel played end on the University of Wisconsin's unbeaten Big Ten champions of 1912 and was named to the second team on renowned football authority Walter Camp's All-American team. Hoeffel also coached Lambeau at East High in 1916.

SHOVELING SNOW AT LAMBEAU

One of the more recent traditions that has taken hold among Packers fans is answering the call to shovel snow off the Lambeau Field bleachers. When the team needs help clearing the stands for an upcoming game, it issues a press release or uses social media to alert fans. The Packers provide the shovels and the fans, in turn, provide the muscle (pictured, lower right).

While there was no need to request shovelers in 2020-22, snowfall during the 2019 season caused the team to put out a call for shovelers on multiple occasions, including both weeks leading up to the Dec. 8 game against Washington and the Dec. 15 game against Chicago. The team also required assistance clearing the bowl and spreading ice melt the morning of the NFC Divisional playoff game against Seattle. Those marked the 32nd, 33rd and 34th occasions that Packers fans have been asked to shovel snow since 2005.

Fans at least 18 years old who arrive early enough often shovel for several hours. Participants receive $13 per hour upon completion of their work.

While shoveling the stands is a more recent development, fans for generations have been eager to help the Packers in times of need.

Prior to the 1965 NFL Championship Game, played in Green Bay on Jan. 2, 1966, about 25 young volunteers helped close to 60 stadium workers shovel and haul away snow off the large tarpaulins that had covered the field (pictured, upper right).

Prior to the game, the Packers also had spread 40 tons of marsh hay over the playing surface to keep it from freezing. That, too, had to be removed.

The nearly five inches of wet, heavy snow that blanketed the turf fell the morning of the game.

The Packers tried using a helicopter to dry out the field and blow snow off the seats, but it didn't work out and the stadium crew wound up trying to clear the seating areas, as well.

NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle was in attendance, but said he never considered calling off the game.

"I think you may be better equipped to handle this sort of thing here than any other place in the league," said Rozelle, directing his remarks to local reporters.

Fourth NFL Season > Fourth Packers Season

Ht: 6-4 > Wt: 307 > Born: August 8, 1997 > NFL Games Played/Started: 50/33 > Acquired: D6a-20

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

> Started 33 games over the past two seasons (22 at left guard, 11 at right guard), the most among Green Bay offensive linemen over that span.

> In his 33 career starts, has been penalized just one time (holding penalty vs. Minnesota in Week 17 last season). Had the fewest penalties among NFL offensive linemen that made 30-plus starts in 2021-22.

> Was one of only two offensive linemen on the Packers (T Yosh Nijman) to appear in all 50 regular-season games from 2020-22.

> Started all 17 games last season, opening 11 at RG and six at LG, and was part of a line that helped the Packers rank No. 7 in the NFL in sacks allowed (32).

> Appeared in all 17 games with 16 starts at LG in 2021, one of only two Green Bay offensive linemen (G/T Royce Newman) to start 16-plus games that season.

> Did not commit a penalty in 2021, one of only four offensive linemen in the NFL to play 800-plus snaps and not be penalized in 2021.

> Played in all 16 contests in 2020, the only Green Bay rookie to appear in every game, seeing time at both guard spots.

> Became the first Green Bay OL to be drafted in the sixth round or later to appear in every game as a rookie since T Mark Tauscher (seventh round) in 2000.

> Saw significant action in Week 11 at Indianapolis and in Week 12 vs. Chicago in 2020 due to injuries on the line, playing the final 50 snaps of each game at left guard as the line allowed a total of one sack in those two contests.

> Selected by the Packers with the first of three choices in the sixth round (No. 192 overall), a pick that was acquired from the Las Vegas Raiders in 2019 for WR Trevor Davis. Became the first offensive lineman selected by the Packers out of the University of Michigan since G Joe O'Donnell in 1963 (third round, No. 40 overall).

2022 SEASON: Started all 17 games, opening 11 at RG and six at LG...Part of a line that helped the Packers rank No. 7 in the NFL in sacks allowed (32), including just 17 in Weeks 7-18, tied for the third fewest in the league over that span...

At Minnesota (Sept. 11): Started at LG and played 31 snaps, but sustained a concussion early in the third quarter and was sidelined for the remainder of the game...

Vs. Chicago (Sept. 18): Started at LG and played all 68 snaps as part of a line that cleared the way for Green Bay to rack up 203 yards on 38 carries (5.3 avg.), its first 200-yard rushing game since Dec. 27, 2020, vs. Tennessee (37-234)...

Vs. New England (Oct. 2): Started at LG and played all 73 snaps as the line helped the offense rack up a season-high 443 yards and allowed only one sack of QB Aaron Rodgers for the second straight game...

At Washington (Oct. 23): Made his first career start at RG, appearing on all 54 snaps as part of a line that did not allow a sack on the afternoon...

At Buffalo (Oct. 30): Started at RG and played all 66 snaps as the Packers registered a season-high 208 yards rushing on 31 carries (6.7 avg.)...

Vs. Dallas (Nov. 13): Started at RG and played all 64 snaps, helping Green

LINEBACKER
MISSISSIPPI STATE

Ninth NFL Season > Fifth Packers Season

Ht: 6-5 > Wt: 265 > Born: November 17, 1992 > NFL Games Played/Started: 129/112 > Acquired: UFA (Was.)-19

PRO HIGHLIGHTS:

➤ Missed only one game in the first eight years of his career (Week 7 in 2021 with an oblique injury), playing in 129 games with 112 starts during the regular season and appearing in six postseason contests with five starts.

➤ Was one of only two NFL players (T.J. Watt) with 50-plus sacks (58), five-plus INTs (five) and five-plus forced fumbles (eight) from 2015-22.

➤ Started all 17 contests in 2022, leading the team in sacks (8½), tackles for a loss (nine) and QB hits (20). Was tied for No. 10 among NFL linebackers in QB hits (TruMedia).

➤ In 2021, started all 16 games he appeared in, recording 38 tackles (25 solo), nine sacks (No. 2 on the team), a team-best nine tackles for a loss and 17 QB hits (No. 2 on the team).

➤ Teamed with Rashaan Gary in 2021 to become just the second linebacker duo in team history (since 1982) to both register nine-plus sacks in the same season.

➤ Appeared in 16 games with 13 starts in 2020 and finished No. 2 on the team in tackles for a loss (seven), tied for No. 2 in QB hits (11) and tied for No. 3 in sacks (four).

➤ Was named a Pro Bowl alternate in 2019 in his first season with the Packers after ranking No. 8 in the NFL with a career-best 12 sacks and finishing No. 2 on the team with 29 QB hits and 43 QB pressures.

➤ Joined LB Za'Darius Smith (13½) as the only teammate duo in the league in 2019 with 12-plus sacks each. They also became the only duo in NFL history with 12-plus sacks each in their first season as teammates and were the second tandem in Packers history (since 1982) to each have 10-plus sacks in a season (DE Reggie White, 13; LB Bryce Paup, 11 in 1993).

➤ In the 2019 Divisional playoff game vs. Seattle, joined Z. Smith to become just the second duo in team history to both register two-plus sacks in the same playoff game (LBs Mike Neal and Nick Perry at Washington in 2015 postseason).

➤ His 24½ sacks and 59 QB hits were the second most among Washington players from 2015-18 (DE Ryan Kerrigan, 46½ and 69).

➤ In 2017, registered eight sacks and two INTs to make him the first NFL linebacker since Ravens LB Terrell Suggs in 2011 to register eight-plus sacks and two-plus INTs in a season.

➤ Led all NFL rookies in sacks in 2015, the first Washington player to do so since LB Brian Orakpo in 2009.

➤ Dating back to 1982, recorded the second-most sacks (eight) by a Washington rookie behind the 11 that Orakpo registered in 2009.

The Eagles did not convert the third-and-13 and punted. Green Bay scored a TD on the ensuing drive to go up by 14. With under two minutes to play, tipped a Hurts pass that was intercepted by S Darnell Savage, sealing the victory...Vs. L.A. Rams (NFC Divisional, Jan. 16): Recorded three tackles (two solo), a QB hit and two passes defended. On the Rams' first drive, deflected a pass intended for WR Robert Woods on third down to force a punt. On the next possession, stopped RB Cam Akers after a gain of 1 yard on third-and-2 to force a fourth down and then a FG after the Rams had a false start.

2019: Started all 16 games for the fourth straight season and registered a career-high 75 tackles (42 solo), a career-best 12 sacks, an interception, a forced fumble, three passes defended, 29 QB hits (No. 2 on the team) and 43 QB pressures (No. 2 on the team)...Ranked No. 8 in the league in sacks...Was tied for No. 2 in the league in third-down sacks with seven...Posted four games with 1½-plus sacks, tied for No. 4 in the NFL...Was named an alternate for the Pro Bowl...Joined Z. Smith as the only teammate duo in the league with 12-plus sacks each, the first duo in team history (since 1982) to both register 12-plus sacks in the same season...Started both playoff games and posted seven tackles (four solo), two sacks, five QB pressures and three QB hits...At Chicago (Sept. 5): Finished with eight tackles (three solo), a team-high 1½ sacks, a pass defended, two QB pressures and five QB hits in his Green Bay debut. Early in the third quarter, posted a shared zero-yard sack of Trubisky with DL Kenny Clark to force a three-and-out. Sealed the win with a fourth-down sack with just over a minute remaining in the game, running a stunt with Z. Smith to beat LG Cody Whitehair on his way to bringing down Trubisky for an 11-yard loss...Vs. Minnesota (Sept. 15): Posted four tackles (three solo), an INT, four QB pressures and three QB hits. Late in the first half, made an INT after Savage got a hand in to break up Cousins' pass over the middle intended for WR Stefan Diggs, snaring the deflected pass and taking it 5 yards to the Minnesota 47. It gave him at least one INT in each of the last four seasons, one of only seven NFL linebackers to accomplish that feat (2016-19)...Vs. Denver (Sept. 22): Matched his career high with three sacks (at Philadelphia, Dec. 26, 2015) to go with six tackles (four solo), three QB pressures and a QB hit. On Denver's opening drive, fought off a block from RT Elijah Wilkinson to get to QB Joe Flacco for a 4-yard sack to force a three-and-out after the Broncos began the drive at the Green Bay 43. Late in the first half, blew by Wilkinson to sack Flacco for a 7-yard loss as he punched the ball out, a fumble that was recovered by Gary at the Denver 5 that set up a Green Bay TD. Beat Wilkinson again late in the fourth quarter to bring down Flacco for a 6-yard sack to force a turnover on downs. Earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors for his performance...At Dallas (Oct. 6): Finished with four tackles (three solo), a sack, four QB hits and three QB pressures. Midway through the second quarter, made an inside move to quickly beat RT La'el Collins on his way to a 3-yard sack of QB Dak Prescott on third down to force a Dallas punt...Vs. Detroit (Oct. 14): Recorded five tackles (two solo), 1½ sacks and a QB hit. Early in the third quarter, came around the left end to sack Stafford along with LB Kyler Fackrell for a 9-yard loss to force a three-and-out for the Lions. Later in the third quarter, got a great jump and beat RT Rick Wagner to quickly sack Stafford for an 8-yard loss on third down to force a punt...Vs. Carolina (Nov. 10): Matched his career high from the previous week at LAC with nine tackles (seven solo) along with two sacks, two QB hits and two QB pressures. On a third-and-7 in the second quarter, blew by LT Dennis Daley to bring down QB Kyle Allen for a 7-yard sack. Midway through the fourth quarter, beat LT Taylor Moton to get to Allen for an 11-yard loss on third-and-8. On the final play of the game, went low to make a tackle of RB Christian McCaffrey for just a 1-yard gain on second-and-goal from the 2 to seal the Packers' 24-16 win...Vs. Chicago (Dec. 15): Posted six tackles (four solo), a tackle for a loss, a team-high six QB pressures and a QB hit...Vs. Seattle (NFC Divisional, Jan. 12): Posted four tackles (two solo), two sacks, four QB pressures and three QB hits. With the Packers leading, 28-23, late in the fourth quarter, blew by TE Jacob Hollister and RT Germain Ifedi to bring down Wilson for a 6-yard sack on third down, forcing the Seahawks to punt as the Green Bay offense was able to run out the clock in the win. Teamed with Z. Smith (two sacks) to become just the second duo in franchise history (Neal and Perry at Washington in 2016 playoffs) to both register two-plus sacks in the same postseason game.

2018: Started all 16 games for the third consecutive season and registered 53 tackles (30 solo), four sacks, an INT, three passes defended and a fumble recovery...Ranked No. 2 on the team with 16 QB hits...Vs. Dallas (Oct. 21): Scored his first career TD on a fumble recovery late in the fourth quarter as a result of a Kerrigan strip-sack. Added an assisted tackle, two QB hits and a pass defended...At Tampa Bay (Nov. 11): Registered three tackles (two solo) and a sack. With less than four minutes to go in the fourth quarter and the Bucs on the Washington 2-yard line, sacked QB Ryan Fitzpatrick, and as he was swinging Fitzpatrick to the ground, Kerrigan slapped the ball out of the QB's hand and recovered it to give Washington the ball at the 7-yard line...Vs. Houston (Nov. 18): Recorded four tackles (three solo), a sack, two QB hits, an INT and a pass defended. Late in the second quarter, sacked Watson for a loss of 12 yards on first down on a drive that ended in a punt two plays later. In the third quarter, picked off Watson at the 16-yard line and returned it 3 yards to the Houston 13. Washington would score two plays later to pull within three points...At Dallas (Nov. 22): Tallied eight tackles (three solo) and 1½ sacks. Teamed with Kerrigan late in the second quarter to sack Prescott for a loss of 13 yards on second-and-4 at the Washington 4-yard line on a drive that resulted in a field goal. On the next drive, sacked Prescott for a loss of 7 yards on second-and-10 and the Cowboys punted two plays later.

2017: Started all 16 games, recording 42 tackles (31 solo), a career-best two INTs, eight sacks, a team-high 21 QB hits, three passes defended, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery...Was one of only three defensive players (Kerrigan, S.D.J. Swearingin) to start all 16 games for Washington...Vs. Oakland (Sept. 24): Registered two solo tackles, a sack and a pass defended. Posted a sack in three consecutive games for the first time since Weeks 15-17 of the 2015 season...At Kansas City (Oct. 2): Made two tackles (one solo), including a sack on the Chiefs' first play from scrimmage. Marked a career-best fourth straight game with a sack, tying for the eighth-longest streak in Washington history (since 1982). Joined Vikings DE Everson Griffen and Cowboys DE Demarcus Lawrence as the only players in the league to post a sack in each of the first four games in 2017...Vs. San Francisco (Oct. 15): Posted two tackles, a half-sack and a pass defended. Joined DE/LB Marco Coleman (2000), DE Fred Stokes (1991) and DE Charles Mann (1989) as the only players in team history to record at least half a sack in each of the first five games of a season since the NFL adopted sacks as an official statistic in 1982...Vs. Arizona (Dec. 17): Tallied three solo tackles, a sack, an INT and a fumble recovery. Became the first member of the franchise to record a sack, a fumble recovery and an interception in a single game since LB Monte Coleman vs. Atlanta on Dec. 19, 1993...At N.Y. Giants (Dec. 31): Recorded three tackles (two solo) and an INT to become the first Washington LB to record multiple INTs in a single season since Perry Riley Jr. (two) in 2015 and the first OLB to accomplish the feat for Washington since Rob Jackson (four) in 2012.

2016: Started all 16 games, compiling 38 tackles (22 solo), 4½ sacks, 12 QB hits, three passes defended and an INT...Was one of seven NFL linebackers to register four-plus sacks and an INT in 2016...Vs. Philadelphia (Oct. 16): Posted two tackles (one solo) and a half-sack. With a seven-point lead and the Eagles at their own 49-yard line with under two minutes left in the fourth quarter, teamed with DE Trent Murphy to take down QB Carson Wentz and force a fourth-and-24 and a Philadelphia punt...At Detroit (Oct. 23): Recorded two solo tackles and a sack, bringing down Stafford in the fourth quarter to force a third-and-14 from the Detroit 38-yard line that the Lions did not convert, resulting in a punt...Vs. Minnesota (Nov. 13): Tallied four tackles (two solo), two sacks and the first interception of his career. Became only the fourth member of the franchise to record two sacks and an interception in a single game since 1982, joining LB Marcus Washington (Dec. 18, 2005), CB Shawn Springs (Dec. 26, 2004) and Coleman (Dec. 19, 1993)...At Chicago (Dec. 24): Posted a 5-yard sack and blocked a 22-yard FG attempt by K Connor Barth. The block was the first of Smith's career and the team's first since Nov. 4, 2012 (CB DeAngelo Hall vs. Carolina).

2015: Played in all 16 regular-season games and one post-season contest for Washington...Named to Gil Brandt's NFL.com All-Rookie squad...Posted 30 tackles (20 solo), eight sacks, four passes defended, two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery on defense and recorded five tackles and a forced fumble on special teams...Led all NFL rookies in sacks, becoming the first member of Washington to do so since Orakpo in 2009...Dating back to 1982, recorded the second-most sacks by a Washington rookie behind the 11 that Orakpo registered in 2009...Vs. Miami (Sept. 13): Made his NFL debut and recorded his first career sack, forced fumble and fumble recovery on a single play when he jarred the ball loose from Tannehill and recovered the ball 25 yards downfield. Also forced a fumble on special teams...At Philadelphia (Dec. 26): Posted four tackles (three solo), a career-high three sacks and a forced fumble in a division-clinching win. It was the first multi-sack game of his career. His three sacks were tied for the second most in a game by a Washington rookie (Orakpo, four at Oakland, Dec. 13, 2013)...At Dallas (Jan. 3): Posted a sack for the third consecutive game for the first time in his career...Vs. Green Bay (NFC Wild Card, Jan. 10): Tallied three tackles (two solo), including a 5-yard sack of QB Aaron Rodgers for a safety. The safety was the team's first in the postseason since recording a team safety in the NFC Divisional round vs. the Chicago Bears on Dec. 30, 1984...2015 Draft: Selected by Washington in the second round (38th overall).

DID THE PACKERS EVER PAY A FRANCHISE FEE TO THE NFL?

If the Packers ever paid a franchise fee to get into the NFL, there's no record of it at the Ralph Wilson Jr. Pro Football Research and Preservation Center at the Pro Football Hall of Fame or in the Green Bay Packers' corporate records.

The American Professional Football Association (now the NFL) set a fee of $100 at an organizational meeting on Sept. 17, 1920, according to the official minutes of the meeting. However, no team ever paid it, according to the league's official Record and Fact Book.

The Packers were admitted to the APFA on Aug. 27, 1921, and readmitted June 24, 1922, following a five-month expulsion. Curly Lambeau represented the Packers at the 1922 meeting and J. Emmett Clair at the 1921 meeting.

Over the 10 months between meetings, there was no mention in the league minutes of any change to the original fee of $100 or of the Packers paying a fee, other than a $1,000 forfeit fee in 1922 as a commitment to follow league rules. On July 28, 1923, NFL owners voted to boost the fee to $500.

Almost two decades later, The Milwaukee Journal and The Saturday Evening Post published in-depth histories of the Packers and reported they had paid $250 to get back into the league in 1922. Then, in 1946, Packers co-founder George Calhoun and author Arch Ward both wrote that Lambeau had paid a $50 franchise fee in 1922.

Adding to the mystery is a 1922 franchise certificate awarded to Lambeau and the private Green Bay Football Club with $50 handwritten in the upper left corner. But there's no record of when that notation was made. In fact, when the Green Bay Press-Gazette published a photo of the certificate in 1950, the $50 notation wasn't visible.

In other words, the question of whether the Packers ever paid a franchise fee goes unanswered.

THE FIRST NFL GAME

After playing independently for two seasons, the Packers were admitted to the American Professional Football Association in 1921. A year later, the APFA changed its name to the National Football League.

The Packers played their first official league game Oct. 23, 1921, at Green Bay's Hagemeister Park, and beat the Minneapolis Marines, 7-6. Late in the fourth quarter, the Marines fumbled a punt at their 35-yard line and Packers end Dave "Jigger" Hayes recovered. Three plays later, with the crowd yelling, "Throw a forward," Buff Wagner made a nearly impossible catch of a Curly Lambeau pass at the Marines' 14-yard line. After the Packers barely picked up a first down, fullback Art Schmaehl took a direct snap and bulled his way for a 4-yard touchdown. Lambeau's extra point proved decisive, but the crowd was already celebrating.

"Cushions went flying in the air while soaring hats were as thick as Green Bay flies on a July night," George Calhoun wrote in his game story.

THE LAMBEAU LEAP

Defensive back LeRoy Butler's spontaneous gesture after scoring a 1993 touchdown has turned into the team's most prominent modern tradition, emulated by many other NFL players. It also symbolizes the team's unique relationship with its fans. No doubt, the initial Lambeau Leap will go down as one of the most memorable moments of Butler's 12-year career.

Butler's leap took place late in a frigid game vs. the Los Angeles Raiders on Dec. 26, 1993, at Lambeau Field. The touchdown gave the Packers a commanding fourth-quarter lead, en route to a 28-0 shutout that clinched a playoff berth, their first of six consecutive postseason trips.

Chronology of the play:

- QB Vince Evans completes second-down swing pass to RB Randy Jordan, who takes ball to Raiders' 40-yard line.
- Butler forces fumble, recovered by Reggie White at Raiders' 35.
- White returns ball 10 yards before lateraling to Butler, who covers the remaining 25 yards into the end zone and leaps into arms of fans in south bleachers.

AT A GLANCE ...

- Led the team with seven TD catches last season, the third most in team history by a rookie behind only Billy Howton (13 in 1952) and Max McGee (nine in 1954).
- Became only the third player in franchise history to post seven-plus receiving TDs and multiple rushing TDs in a season, joining Johnny "Blood" McNally (1931) and Don Hutson (1941). Joined Steelers WR Chase Claypool (2020) as the only rookie WRs in NFL history to accomplish that feat.
- Posted eight TDs from scrimmage in Weeks 10-13 last season, tied for the most over a four-game span by a rookie WR in league history (Vikings WR Randy Moss, 1998).
- Finished his career at North Dakota State ranked No. 2 in school history (min. 50 rec.) in yards per reception (20.4 avg.) and yards per kickoff return (26.4 avg.), No. 8 in receiving yards (2,140) and No. 10 in receptions (105).
- Earned second-team All-America honors at wide receiver from The Associated Press as a senior in 2021 after leading the Bison with a career-high 43 catches for a career-best 801 yards (18.6 avg.) and seven TDs.
- Earned first-team AP All-America recognition at kickoff return as a junior in 2020 after averaging 33.8 yards on 10 kickoff returns. Was the only FCS player to register two kickoff return TDs (100, 94 yards) in 2020 as he tied the NDSU single-season and career records.

in the second quarter... Vs. Dallas (Nov. 13): Started and played 54 of 64 snaps, leading the team with 107 receiving yards and a career-best three TDs on four catches (26.8 avg.). Became the first Green Bay rookie to post 100-plus receiving yards and three receiving TDs in a game since WR James Lofton on Sept. 10, 1978. Tied the single-game team rookie record for receiving TDs as he matched Lofton, Howton (Nov. 27, 1952) and McGee (Oct. 30, 1954). Became the first Packer with two TD receptions of 35-plus yards in a game (58, 39) since WR Jordy Nelson (73, 40) vs. Chicago on Oct. 9, 2014. His third TD grab, a 7-yarder with 2:29 remaining in regulation, tied the game at 28. Became the first rookie to catch three TD passes against the Cowboys since Moss on Nov. 26, 1998... Vs. Tennessee (Nov. 17): Started and played 49 snaps, finishing with four receptions for 48 yards (12.0 avg.) and two TDs as he became the first Green Bay rookie to register multiple TD catches in back-to-back-games since McGee in 1954 (Oct. 30-Nov. 7). His five TD grabs in his last two games matched McGee's mark for the most by a Green Bay rookie over a two-game span and were tied for the most by an NFL rookie over a two-game span since 2000 with Falcons WR Calvin Ridley (2018) and Giants WR Odell Beckham Jr. (2014)... At Philadelphia (Nov. 27): Started and played 45 of 49 snaps, leading the team with a career-high 110 receiving yards and a TD on four receptions (27.5 avg.). With nine minutes remaining in the game, caught a short pass over the middle from QB Jordan Love and took it 63 yards for a TD, his longest reception as a pro and the longest by a Green Bay rookie since Jones' 79-yard TD catch at Denver on Oct. 29, 2007... At Chicago (Dec. 4): Started and played 61 of 66 snaps, posting three receptions for 48 yards (16.0 avg.) and a TD while adding a 46-yard rushing TD with 1:51 remaining that clinched the win. Became only the second rookie WR in NFL history to post 45-plus rushing yards and a rushing TD and 45-plus receiving yards and a receiving TD in a game (Joey Galloway on Nov. 12, 1995). His two TDs on the day gave him eight from scrimmage over his last four games, tied for the most over a four-game span by a rookie WR in NFL history (Moss, 1998). Became the first rookie in team history with seven TD catches over a four-game span and the first NFL rookie to do so since Beckham in 2014. Brought his streak of consecutive games with a TD catch to four, the second-longest streak by a rookie in team history behind Howton (five in 1952)... At Miami (Dec. 25): Started and played 25 snaps, pacing the team with a career-high six receptions for 49 yards (8.2 avg.). Sustained a hip injury late in the first half that sidelined him for the remainder of the game... Vs. Detroit (Jan. 8): Started and played 52 of 60 snaps, leading the team with 104 receiving yards on five receptions (20.8 avg.). Added 12 yards on two carries as he finished the night with a career-high 116 yards from scrimmage... 2022 Draft: Selected by Green Bay in the second round (No. 34 overall) of the 2022 NFL Draft, a pick obtained from the Minnesota Vikings for the Packers' two second-round selections in 2022 (Nos. 53 and 59 overall). Became the first NDSU player to be drafted by the Packers since RB Tim Mijos (eighth round) in 1970.

THE LOMBARDI SWEEP

Vince Lombardi was fond of saying: "Every football team eventually arrives at a lead play. It becomes the team's bread-and-butter play ... My No. 1 play has been the power sweep, sometimes called the Lombardi Sweep." The call in the huddle was Red Right 49, and the play unfolded with the halfback – Paul Hornung (No. 5) when he was in his prime – carrying the ball around right end following his pulling guards, Jerry Kramer (64) and Fuzzy Thurston (63).

Companion plays in Lombardi's offense included the weak-side sweep with the fullback as the ball carrier and also the halfback option pass.

THE COMPENSATORY SYSTEM

The Packers were awarded two compensatory draft selections from the league in 2023. Since the first compensatory picks were awarded in 1994, only Baltimore (55) and Dallas (52) have received more than the Packers (49). Under the rules for compensatory draft selections, a team losing more or better compensatory free agents ("CFA") than it acquires in the previous year is eligible to receive compensatory draft picks. The compensatory picks will be positioned within the third through seventh rounds based on the value of the compensatory free agents lost.

Compensatory free agents are determined by a formula based on salary, playing time and postseason honors. The formula was developed by the NFL Management Council. Not every free agent lost or signed by a club is covered by this formula. Clubs that suffer a net loss of CFAs during the prior free agent signing period are eligible to receive a corresponding number of compensatory selections. In addition, a club that lost the same number of CFAs that it gained (no net loss), may be eligible to receive a selection at the end of round seven based on the value of the CFAs lost versus the value of the CFAs gained.

No club may receive more than four compensatory picks in any one year. If a club qualifies for more than four compensatory picks after offsetting each CFA lost by each CFA gained of an equal or higher value, the four highest remaining selections will be awarded to the club.

In addition to the 30 compensatory selections awarded under the net loss formula and the two Supplemental Selections, a recent amendment to the league's Collective Bargaining Agreement awards compensatory selections to the prior employer-club of a minority employee who has been hired by another club as its head coach or general manager. Five such compensatory selections were awarded in 2022.

Teams were previously not allowed to trade compensatories, although they were during the early years of the system. A rule change approved by clubs in 2015 permitted compensatory draft picks to be traded again beginning in the 2017 draft.

Because of that clause, the Packers acquired two compensatory choices in 1994 from San Francisco. Green Bay obtained another compensatory pick via trade with Denver (No. 179) in 2022. In other words, Green Bay has actually drafted 51 compensatory players, but the league only has awarded the team 49.

NOTE — The NFL actually has awarded the Packers only 47 such choices, but the team obtained two from San Francisco in 1994, when compensatories could be traded. Starting in 2017, compensatory picks were once again allowed to be traded. Green Bay obtained another compensatory pick via trade with Denver (No. 179) in 2022.

ROOKIES VS. FIRST-YEAR PLAYERS

Rookies are players in their first year of pro football who have not been on another pro football team's roster for any regular-season or postseason games. First-year players are those who have played in other pro sports leagues (Arena Football League, etc.), have participated in previous NFL training camps, or have been on an NFL team's active, inactive or reserve list fewer than six games.

The rule originated when Lawrence McCutcheon, drafted by the Los Angeles Rams in 1972, played only three games in his "rookie" season, then rushed for 1,097 yards in 1973. Today, due to McCutcheon and because rosters began expanding around the 1970 NFL-AFL merger (reserve lists formalized, etc.), that year is considered the beginning of the rookie rule. So today, for records purposes, the Packers use 1970 as a separator. From 1921-69, anyone who had yet to play three league games was generally considered a rookie.

PACKERS IN THE COLLEGE ALL-STAR GAME

- From 1934-73 and 1975-76, the NFL participated in what was called the College All-Star Game. It kicked off the league's preseason, but it was the most popular game in pro football for many years.
- Chicago's Soldier Field, even when the Bears were playing at Wrigley Field, served as the game's stage for all but two years. Dyche Stadium in Evanston, Ill., was the site in 1943 and '44. An NFL labor dispute forced cancellation of the 1974 game.
- The Packers played in the game eight times and benefited greatly from the exposure, especially in the Curly Lambeau era. When the Packers and All-Stars drew 84,560 for the 1937 game, the Packers had never played before more than 37,000 fans in an NFL regular-season game. They appeared in the game that summer by virtue of winning the 1936 NFL Championship Game, which drew a crowd of 29,545.
- Up until the time he died in 1965, Lambeau said the Packers' victory in the 1940 College All-Star Game was the biggest of his coaching career. "Maybe this sounds funny for me to say, but I believe pro football, all of pro football, turned the corner in that game," Lambeau said shortly before his death. As coach of the Packers, Lambeau won six NFL championships.

The term NFL Rookie is defined as a player who is in his first season of professional football and has not been on the roster of another professional football team for any regular-season or postseason games. A Rookie is designated by an "R" on NFL rosters. Players who have been active in another professional football league or players who have NFL experience, including either preseason training camp or being on an Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform for fewer than six regular-season games, are termed NFL First-Year Players. An NFL First-Year Player is designated by a "1" on NFL rosters. Thereafter, a player is credited with an additional year of experience for each season in which he accumulates six games on the Active List or Inactive List, or on Reserve/Injured or Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform.

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Justin Jefferson posted 184 receiving yards and two touchdowns in a record-setting first half, giving new Vikings coach Kevin O’Connell a 23-7 win in his first game Sunday. After accumulating the most receiving yards (3,016) in a player’s first two years in the NFL, Jefferson set an all-time Vikings receiving record with 158 yards in the first half. Kirk Cousins completed 23 of 32 passes for 277 yards without a turnover. O’Connell, who served as offensive coordinator of the Super Bowl champion Los Angeles Rams last season, had Jefferson moving all over the formation to help keep him away from star Packers cornerback Jaire Alexander. Aaron Rodgers went 22 for 34 for 195 yards, and Matt LaFleur blamed himself for Aaron Jones only getting five carries and three catches. Rodgers even had his NFL-record streak against division opponents of 38 touchdown passes without an interception stopped near the end of the second quarter when his see-what-happens heave was picked off by Harrison Smith. The last one was snagged by Detroit’s Amani Oruwariye on Dec. 29, 2019.

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — Aaron Jones made sure the Green Bay Packers' promise to get him the ball more often paid off. Jones rushed for 132 yards and a touchdown and caught a scoring pass from Aaron Rodgers, who continued his domination of the Chicago Bears by leading Green Bay to a 27-10 victory on Sunday night. Jones came through, gaining 8.8 yards per rush and leading the Packers' 203-yard ground attack. He had 15 carries as well as three catches for 38 yards. Green Bay beat the Bears for a seventh straight time, matching its second-longest win streak in the 205-game history of the NFL's oldest rivalry. The Packers built a 24-7 halftime lead by dominating the second quarter, then made a goal-line stand in the fourth quarter to thwart a Bears comeback attempt. The Packers outscored the Bears, 21-0, in the second quarter. Jones scored twice, both times catching pitches from Rodgers in the backfield and reaching the end zone. Jones' second score was Rodgers' 450th career touchdown pass. The only other players to reach that mark are Tom Brady, Drew Brees, Peyton Manning and Brett Favre.

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — Aaron Rodgers and the Green Bay Packers did just enough to beat Tom Brady and the short-handed Tampa Bay Buccaneers. The NFL MVP threw for 255 yards and two touchdowns, and the Packers withstood a late rally led by Brady to hold off the Bucs for a 14-12 victory in the first meeting between the teams since Tampa Bay won the NFC title game two seasons ago. Rodgers tossed TD passes of 5 yards to Romeo Doubs and 6 yards to Allen Lazard on his team's first two possessions, while the Bucs' offense spluttered much of the day without star receivers Mike Evans, Chris Godwin and Julio Jones. Tampa Bay's bid to force overtime with a two-point conversion was thwarted, first by a delay-of-game penalty and then an incomplete pass that was tipped by Packers linebacker De'Vondre Campbell, who also had 14 tackles.

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — Aaron Rodgers rebounded from a tough start and helped the Green Bay Packers spoil Bailey Zappe's unexpected NFL debut with the New England Patriots. Rodgers threw two second-half touchdown passes and led an overtime drive that resulted in Mason Crosby's 31-yard field goal as time expired, lifting the Packers to a 27-24 victory on Sunday. The dramatic finish came after Rodgers went 4 of 11 for 44 yards for an 11.2 passer rating in a first-half performance that included New England's Jack Jones scoring on a 40-yard interception return, lifting the Patriots to a 10-7 halftime lead. After the Packers forced a three-and-out and the Patriots punted, Green Bay marched 77 yards in a 12-play drive that lasted nearly seven minutes before Crosby made his winning kick. Aaron Jones rushed for 110 yards to lead Green Bay's 199-yard attack on the ground. Allen Lazard had six catches for 116 yards.

N.Y. GIANTS 27, GREEN BAY 22

Tottenham Hotspur Stadium, Sunday, Oct. 9, 2022. Attendance: 61,024. Time: 2:59. Weather: 64° F, Humidity: 48 percent, Wind: S 10 mph.

LONDON — Daniel Jones and Saquon Barkley spoiled the Green Bay Packers' international debut. Aaron Rodgers and the Packers set the stage by jumping out to an early lead over the New York Giants. Barkley took a direct snap and ran for a 2-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter to cap New York's comeback. Rodgers then drove the Packers to the Giants' 6-yard line, but his pass on fourth-and-1 was swatted down at the line of scrimmage by safety Xavier McKinney with just over a minute left. The Giants (4-1) scored 17 unanswered points in the second half as Jones, playing on a sprained ankle, led three scoring drives to erase a 20-10 halftime deficit. Rodgers threw for 222 yards and two touchdowns, but couldn't get any points on the board in the second half. Rodgers connected with Allen Lazard and Mercedes Lewis for first-half scoring strikes. Randall Cobb led Green Bay with seven receptions for 99 yards.

GREEN BAY, Wis. — Breece Hall, Quinnen Williams and the young New York Jets are making a convincing statement to the rest of the NFL. Hall ran for 116 yards, including a 34-yard touchdown, and Williams had two of New York's four sacks against Aaron Rodgers as the Jets won their third straight, 27-10, over the Green Bay Packers on Sunday. Green Bay (3-3) lost consecutive regular-season games within the same season for the first time since coach Matt LaFleur's arrival in 2019. Jets WR Braxton Berrios gave the Jets the lead by scoring on a 20-yard end-around. After New York stopped Green Bay on its next possession, DE Michael Clemons blocked a punt and S Will Parks got the ball and raced 20 yards into the end zone. The Packers got back in the game as Rodgers threw a 25-yard touchdown pass to WR Allen Lazard late in the third quarter. Hall scored on his 34-yard burst to open the fourth quarter to make it 24-10. Rodgers finished 26 of 41 for 246 yards with a touchdown.

FedEx Field, Sunday, Oct. 23, 2022. Attendance: 60,427. Time: 3:21. Weather: 62° F, Humidity: 66 percent, Wind: N 7 mph.

LANDOVER, Md. — Aaron Rodgers finished the game face down on the turf after sailing a lateral out of bounds on a frantic, failed final play. Rodgers and the offense sputtered, penalties piled up at the most inopportune moments and the Packers lost their third game in a row, 23-21, to the Washington Commanders on Sunday for their longest skid since 2018. Nursing a sore thumb, Rodgers was 23 of 35 for 194 yards and the Packers went 0 of 6 on third down. Green Bay (3-4) had just 232 total yards of offense to Washington's 364. The negatives outweighed the few positives: a 63-yard pick-6 of Taylor Heinicke by De'Vondre Campbell and two touchdown passes from Rodgers to Aaron Jones — the second of which completed a 75-yard drive aided by Washington penalties that pulled the Packers within two with 3:26 left in the fourth quarter and gave them one final chance to end the skid before falling short.

DETROIT 15, GREEN BAY 9

Ford Field, Sunday, Nov. 6, 2022. Attendance: 63,379. Time: 3:07. Weather: Indoors.

DETROIT (AP) — Packers QB Aaron Rodgers matched a career high with three interceptions and threw an incomplete pass on fourth down from the Detroit 17 in the final minute, letting the Lions hold on for a 15-9 win over the Green Bay Packers on Sunday. Detroit tried to seal the victory late in the fourth when Dan Campbell went for it on fourth-and-3 from the Green Bay 43. Lions QB Jared Goff's pass was incomplete. After converting a fourth-and-2 with a lob to WR Samori Toure, who fumbled out of bounds at the Detroit 17, Rodgers threw four straight incomplete passes to end the game. He was 23 of 42 for 291 yards with a TD and three interceptions. WR Allen Lazard caught his fifth touchdown in seven games.

GREEN BAY, Wis.— Aaron Rodgers threw three touchdown passes to rookie WR Christian Watson and led a 55-yard drive in overtime to set up K Mason Crosby's game-winning 28-yard field goal as the Packers stopped a five-game losing streak with a 31-28 win over former coach Mike McCarthy and the Dallas Cowboys on Sunday. Trailing 28-14 in the fourth quarter, Rodgers led two long drives that ended with scoring passes to Watson. Watson caught four passes for 107 yards, including touchdowns of 58, 39 and 7 yards. The Packers had third-and-1 from their own 44 after stopping Dallas' opening drive in overtime when Rodgers threw across the middle to WR Allen Lazard, who caught the ball just beyond midfield and raced to the 20 for a 36-yard gain, helping set things up for Crosby's game-winning kick. RB Aaron Jones also added 138 rushing yards and a touchdown as the Packers totaled 207 yards on the ground.

TENNESSEE 27, GREEN BAY 17

Lambeau Field, Thursday, Nov. 17, 2022. Attendance: 77,506. Time: 3:02. Weather: 26° F, Humidity: 78 percent, Wind: W 10 mph.

GREEN BAY, Wis.— Ryan Tannehill and the Tennessee Titans showed they don't have to rely exclusively on their bruising ground attack. Tannehill threw for 333 yards and two touchdowns as the Titans beat the Packers, 27-17, on Thursday night. Aaron Rodgers went 24 of 39 for 227 yards with two touchdown passes to rookie Christian Watson, a 14-yarder to close the first quarter and an 8-yarder in the third quarter. The Packers limited Derrick Henry to 87 yards and a touchdown on 28 carries, a 3.1-yard average, and Watson's second touchdown of the night helped Green Bay narrow Tennessee's advantage to 20-17 late in the third quarter. But in the end, the Packers could not complete the comeback.

PHILADELPHIA — Jalen Hurts ran for 157 yards to set an Eagles record for a quarterback and Packers QB Aaron Rodgers suffered an injury to his ribs that sidelined him for the fourth quarter in Philadelphia's 40-33 victory over Green Bay on Sunday night. After the Eagles jumped out to a 13-0 lead, RB AJ Dillon scored on a 20-yard run and then Rodgers hit WR Randall Cobb for an 11-yard score late in the first quarter. Rodgers' replacement, Jordan Love, kept the Packers in the game by connecting with WR Christian Watson for a 63-yard catch-and-run touchdown that cut Philly's lead to 37-30 with nine minutes remaining. The Packers ran out of time against Philadelphia after a first down late in the fourth quarter put the game away.

CHICAGO — Aaron Rodgers figured the Green Bay Packers were in a good spot and would find a way to pull out the win. Given his history against the Chicago Bears, it wasn't exactly a big leap of faith. Rodgers led three fourth-quarter scoring drives, WR Christian Watson took an end-around 46 yards for a touchdown in the closing minutes after CB Jaire Alexander intercepted Bears QB Justin Fields, and Green Bay rallied to beat Chicago, 28-19, on Sunday. The Packers trailed by 13 in the second quarter and were down 19-10 through three before outscoring Chicago 18-0 in the fourth on the way to their eighth straight win over their rival. Packers RB AJ Dillon ran for a 21-yard touchdown in the opening minute of the fourth. K Mason Crosby kicked a 32-yard field goal to give Green Bay a 20-19 lead with just under five minutes left after Chicago's K Cairo Santos had a 40-yard attempt blocked. After Green Bay opted to go for 2, Rodgers completed a pass to TE Mercedes Lewis, making it 28-19 with 1:51 remaining. Fields was intercepted at the Green Bay 5 by CB Keisean Nixon on the ensuing drive to finish the game.

GREEN BAY, Wis. — Aaron Rodgers and the Green Bay Packers aren't giving up hope they can still reach the playoffs, even as they remain multiple games below .500. RB AJ Dillon ran for two scores, Rodgers threw a touchdown pass to RB Aaron Jones and the Packers kept their playoff hopes afloat with a 24-12 victory over the Los Angeles Rams on Monday night amid freezing conditions. Rodgers went 22 of 30 for 229 yards with a touchdown and an interception to win his ninth straight Monday Night Football start. QB Baker Mayfield had rallied the Rams to a 17-16 victory over the Las Vegas Raiders on Dec. 8, less than 48 hours after they had claimed him off waivers from Carolina, but wasn't as effective Monday, going 12 of 21 for 111 yards with a touchdown and an interception that was caught by CB Rasul Douglas in the fourth quarter.

GREEN BAY 26, MIAMI 20

Hard Rock Stadium, Sunday, Dec. 25, 2022. Attendance: 66,328. Time: 2:59. Weather: 46° F, Humidity: 63 percent, Wind: NW 12 mph.

MIAMI GARDENS, Fla.— Packers cornerback Jaire Alexander knew the secondary needed to start playing better against the Miami Dolphins after defensive backs coach Jerry Gray surprisingly yelled at them at halftime. Gray's motivational effort worked as the Packers intercepted Dolphins QB Tua Tagovailoa three times in the fourth quarter to complete their comeback and defeat Miami, 26-20, to keep their playoff hopes alive. The Packers had a season-high four takeaways in the game – three interceptions and a fumble recovery. Alexander caught one of Green Bay's three interceptions early in the fourth. Aaron Rodgers threw for 238 yards and a touchdown and was intercepted once, helping the Packers (7-8) to their third straight win. RB AJ Dillon led the Packers with 36 yards rushing on 11 carries and WR Allen Lazard had 61 yards receiving on five catches.

GREEN BAY, Wis. — Aaron Rodgers threw a touchdown pass and ran for a score, and the Green Bay Packers continued their improbable playoff push by shutting down WR Justin Jefferson and the Minnesota Vikings in a 41-17 blowout on Sunday. CB Keisean Nixon scored on a 105-yard kickoff return and S Darnell Savage had a 75-yard pick-6 of Kirk Cousins — one of four turnovers by the Vikings QB — to help Green Bay build a 27-3 halftime lead. RB Aaron Jones rushed for 111 yards on 14 carries and RB AJ Dillon had a 2-yard touchdown run as the Packers won their fourth straight.

GREEN BAY, Wis.—Aaron Rodgers was intercepted by Kerby Joseph on what might have been the final pass of the future Hall of Famer’s career, and Green Bay lost, 20-16, to the Detroit Lions on Sunday night in a game the Packers needed to win to reach the playoffs. Rodgers went 17 of 27 for 205 yards with one touchdown and became the eighth NFL player to have at least 5,000 career completions. Jamaal Williams’ second 1-yard touchdown run of the night put the Lions ahead with 5:55 remaining. Green Bay only got as far as its own 33 on its next series before Joseph picked off Rodgers’ deep throw on third-and-10 with 3:27 remaining.

JOHNNY BLOOD

Johnny Blood might still be the most colorful player in the history of the National Football League. That might sound like hyperbole, but how many other players have been the inspiration for a Hollywood movie 70 years after retiring? And Leatherheads, released in 2008 and starring George Clooney, might not have done justice to Blood's eccentricities. Born John Victor McNally, he adopted the name Johnny Blood and used it exclusively throughout his 15-year, Hall of Fame playing career, including seven seasons with the Packers.

ENDING THE SEASON ON A HIGH NOTE

If history is any indicator, a Green Bay winning streak to end the regular season means good things for the coming season. In 2006, the Packers were one of four clubs to finish the regular season with four consecutive victories. It marked the third time in that decade the club had ended the season with four consecutive wins, and each following season it earned a playoff berth.

- Since the NFL implemented postseason play, the Packers on 13 occasions have closed a regular season with at least four wins. Green Bay has failed to reach the playoffs in the following season only twice — in 1940 and '42.

HERBER-TO-HUTSON: DID YOU KNOW?

The Packers' Arnie Herber was one of the NFL's first long-bomb passers, and he did it with unusually small hands. At Green Bay West High School, Herber learned he could improve his distance and accuracy by palming the ball, rather than using the laces. His most-feared target, the incomparable Don Hutson, had flat feet, and trainers had to tape them in a special way. That taping job gave Hutson a strange running motion, which totally stumped opponents, because his loping style disguised his true speed.

CARRIED OFF THE FIELD

The Packers won six NFL championships under Curly Lambeau, but it wasn't until four years after his departure that the team's players carried their head coach off the field on their shoulders, joyous in victory.

A beleaguered Gene Ronzani, Lambeau's successor, was lifted off the ground and carried to the entrance of the locker room at Memorial Stadium after the Packers had beaten the Baltimore Colts, 35-24, in a Saturday night game played Nov. 2, 1953. Ronzani was less than a month away from being fired.

Six years later, the Packers carried Vince Lombardi off the field following his first game as head coach of the Packers, a 9-6 victory over the Chicago Bears at what was then called Green Bay City Stadium.

The Packers practically made a habit of carrying Lombardi off the field following momentous victories during his glorious reign. They did so at least four more times: after he won his first NFL Championship Game in 1961; after he won his third title against the Cleveland Browns in 1965; after he won his fourth title in Dallas on Jan. 1, 1967; and after he won Super Bowl II, his last game as Packers coach.

Nearly 30 years later, the Packers carried Mike Holmgren off the field following a 35-21 win over New England in Super Bowl XXXI at the Louisiana Superdome.

TWO GREAT DEFENSIVE BACKS, TWO GOOD EYES

Bobby Dillon and Irv Comp, two of the leading interceptors in Packers history, had only two good eyes between them. Dillon, the team's all-time career leader with 52 thefts, played with a glass eye after suffering an accident in childhood. Comp, who holds the single-season franchise record with 10 interceptions in 1943, also was blind in one eye.

THE FLEDGLING LEGEND RECEIVES ITS NAME

RELEASE TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 7, 1965 PM.....GREEN BAY, WIS.

Green Bay City Stadium will officially become Lambeau Field Saturday night, September 11 before the St. Louis Cardinal game.

Dedication ceremonies will begin at 7:45 with Green Bay Mayor Donald Tillemann making the formal dedication. Don Lambeau, son of the Packer founder, will acknowledge the naming of the stadium in honor of his father.

Don Hutson, player, coach and long time friend of Lambeau, will give the dedication speech.

There will also be remarks by Dominic Olejniczak, President of the Packers and by Clarence Nier, Stadium Commission President.

Earl L. "Curly" Lambeau, founder of the Packers and a pioneer of the National Football League, was head coach, general manager and vice president of the team for 33 years. He died June 1 of this year.

Non-league games are indicated by an asterisk (*). Beginning with 1921, the Packers' first season in the National Football League, non-league game results are not reflected in won-lost record, nor in seasonal totals of points for, points against and attendance. From 1920-71, tie games were not included in winning percentage. Overtime games are indicated by the "+" symbol. The Packers' league-high 13 NFL championship seasons are highlighted in gold.

VINCE LOMBARDI TROPHY

The Vince Lombardi Trophy, given annually to the Super Bowl champion, was renamed in honor of the former Packers coach shortly after his death in 1970, before Super Bowl V.

The gesture, made by Commissioner Pete Rozelle, was arguably the greatest tribute in NFL history.

Each trophy, molded and customized every year, is sterling silver and takes 72 man-hours for Tiffany & Company to handcraft in Hightstown, N.J. Three concave sides form a pyramid, which supports a life-size, regulation football. The icon is 22 inches tall, weighs 7 pounds and is valued at more than $10,000. Former Tiffany VP of design Oscar Riedener first sketched the trophy on a napkin in 1966.

FOR THE RECORD

Founded as a town team in 1919, with Woodrow Wilson in the White House, the Green Bay Packers own a 790-590-38 regular-season record in their 102 NFL seasons (1921-2022) – a .572 winning percentage. They played independently from 1919-1920.

The Packers are 356-172-15 (.673) in Green Bay and were 105-61-3 (.631) in Milwaukee for an overall regular-season home mark of 461-234-18 (.662). The team played league games in Milwaukee annually from 1933-94. Green Bay lost its game in London in 2022, which is considered a "home" game by the NFL.

On the road, Green Bay stands 329-356-20 (.480), a mark that includes two neutral-site contests.

THIRTEEN TIMES WORLD CHAMPIONS

The Green Bay Packers have won more championships – 13 – than any other team in National Football League history.

- They won their first three by league standing (1929, 1930 and 1931), and 10 since the NFL's playoff system was established in 1933 (1936, 1939, 1944, 1961, 1962, 1965, 1966, 1967, 1996 and 2010).
- Green Bay also is the only NFL team to win three straight titles, having done it twice (1929-31 and 1965-67).
- In addition, the Packers won the first two Super Bowls (vs. Kansas City in 1966, 35-10, and vs. Oakland in 1967, 33-14), as well as Super Bowls in 1996 vs. New England (35-21) and in 2010 vs. Pittsburgh (31-25).
- Since the league implemented a playoff system in 1933, the Packers have played in the NFL's deciding game 13 times (10 NFL title appearances from 1936-67, three Super Bowls after the 1970 merger). Only the Giants (19) have played for more titles.

SUPER BOWL I

GREEN BAY 35, KANSAS CITY 10

Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum, Sunday, Jan. 15, 1967; Attendance: 61,946; Time: 2:37; Weather: 72° F; sunny, hazy

The Packers launched the Super Bowl series by whipping Kansas City's AFL champions, 35-10, behind Bart Starr, Max McGee and a key interception by All-Pro safety Willie Wood.

Vince Lombardi's repeating NFL champions broke open the game with three second-half touchdowns. Wood set up the first, returning an interception 50 yards to the Chiefs' 5, with the Packers up only 14-10. Len Dawson's pass was intended for Kansas City tight end Fred Arbanas.

McGee, replacing Boyd Dowler (injured on the Packers' first series), after having caught only four passes all season, snared seven from Starr for 138 yards and two touchdowns. Elijah Pitts ran for two other scores, one on a 5-yard run in the third quarter, the other on a 1-yard bolt in the final period.

The Chiefs' lone touchdown came on a 7-yard pass from Dawson to Curtis McClinton.

Starr, the Super Bowl's first MVP, completed 16 of 23 passes for 250 yards and two TDs. The aging McGee caught both scores, 37 yards in the first quarter and a 13-yard catch in the decisive third period.

The Packers collected $15,000 per man and the Chiefs $7,500 apiece – the largest single-game shares in the history of team sports at the time. The game was not a sellout; more than 30,000 seats remained empty.

SUPER BOWL II

GREEN BAY 33, OAKLAND 14

Miami Orange Bowl, Sunday, Jan. 14, 1968; Attendance: 75,546; Time: 2:34; Weather: 68° F; PC, 52% humidity, wind W 14 mph

Acquiring a third straight NFL championship two weeks earlier, the Packers embellished that record-tying parlay by winning a second consecutive Super Bowl. This time, they dispatched the AFL champion Raiders, 33-14, in a game that drew the first $3 million gate in football history.

Bart Starr again was the game's most valuable player as he completed 13 of 24 passes for 202 yards and one touchdown and directed a Packers attack that was in control all the way after building a 16-7 halftime lead.

Don Chandler kicked four field goals (39, 20, 43 and 31 yards), and All-Pro cornerback Herb Adderley returned an interception of a Daryle Lamonica pass 60 yards for a touchdown.

Leading 3-0 at the quarter, the Packers got three Chandler field goals and a 62-yard scoring pass from Starr to split end Boyd Dowler before halftime. They then left the Raiders behind with a 10-point third period, Donny Anderson scoring on a 2-yard run and Chandler with his final field goal.

The game ended Vince Lombardi's nine-year reign as Packers coach. He won six Western Conference championships, five NFL titles and two Super Bowls, a record then unprecedented in pro football history.

SUPER BOWL XXXI

GREEN BAY 35, NEW ENGLAND 21

Louisiana Superdome, New Orleans, La., Sunday, Jan. 26, 1997; Attendance: 72,301; Time: 3:21; Weather: (indoors)

Using several momentum-turning big plays, the Packers held off resilient New England to capture their first world championship in 29 years. For Green Bay, the victory also marked its league-high 12th NFL championship as well as its third Super Bowl triumph.

The Packers jumped to an early 10-0 lead. Brett Favre, sensing a Patriots blitz, audibled on Green Bay's second play from scrimmage, hitting late-season pickup Andre Rison on a wide-open post pattern for a 54-yard touchdown pass. On the ensuing New England possession, Doug Evans intercepted Drew Bledsoe at the Patriots' 28, which led to a 37-yard field goal by Chris Jacke.

New England then was able to turn the tide in its favor, however, as Bledsoe took his club on two long drives for touchdowns. The first, which covered 79 yards and culminated in a short pass to Keith Byars, was aided by two long throws to Pats running backs and a 26-yard pass-interference penalty. The second, starting at the New England 43, was spurred by a leaping, 44-yard reception by rookie Terry Glenn. When Ben Coates caught a 4-yard TD pass from Bledsoe, the Patriots momentarily had their only lead of the game and had completed the highest-scoring first quarter in Super Bowl history.

Green Bay rebounded to retake the lead when Favre, seeing Patriots' strong safety Lawyer Milloy at the line of scrimmage in tight coverage on Antonio Freeman, watched Freeman elude Milloy's "bump" and lofted a perfect aerial to Freeman along the right sideline. Freeman, able to outrun New England's late-arriving free safety, covered 81 yards for the longest reception in Super Bowl history at that time. After another Jacke field goal, Favre took advantage of a Mike Prior interception and escorted his troops on a nine-play, 74-yard march just before halftime that ended when, on a bootleg left, he lunged the ball over the goal line as he was rolling out of bounds.

Taking a 27-14 edge out of the locker room at halftime, Green Bay maintained that lead until late in the third quarter, when the Patriots' Curtis Martin made a magnificent 18-yard run up the middle of the Packers' defense to pull New England to within six points at 27-21.

That margin was short-lived, though, as Desmond Howard returned the ensuing kickoff 99 yards for a back-breaking touchdown (the longest kick return in Super Bowl history at the time), bursting through the center of the Packers' well-blocked wedge, then juking kicker Adam Vinatieri to bolt free. Howard, who had 244 total return yards in the game including key punt runbacks of 32 and 34 yards, was voted the game's most valuable player, becoming the first special teams player to be so honored. A subsequent, successful two-point conversion, where Favre found Mark Chmura along the back of the end zone, gave the Green and Gold an insurmountable two-touchdown lead.

The top-ranked Green Bay defense, which had four interceptions of Bledsoe, was led by Reggie White, who sacked the New England quarterback a Super Bowl-record three times, including twice in a row on the possession immediately following Howard's scoring return.

Favre, playing less than an hour from his hometown of Kiln, Miss., completed 14 of 27 passes for 246 yards and two touchdowns without an interception, while his counterpart, Bledsoe, threw for 253 yards and two scores on 25-of-48 passing.

"This trophy ... this is it. It was named after Vince Lombardi. You play in Green Bay. As important as it is to any other team and any other player, it means more to us.

"Back in July, we set our goals. And I'm so proud of you. You made every single goal. You earned it, you worked for it.

"And before we came out for the second half, what did you do? You locked arms. Do it right now, men. Do it right now.

"To the coaches, players, organization, trainers, equipment people, everybody, this trophy is for you, men. Everybody. Everyone had a say in it, everyone got it done. I'm proud of you."

SUPER BOWL XXXII

Qualcomm Stadium, San Diego, Calif., Sunday, Jan. 25, 1998; Attendance: 68,912; Time: 3:25; Weather: 67° F; sunny

Behind a dominating rushing performance by San Diego native Terrell Davis, four-time Super Bowl loser Denver garnered its first-ever victory in the NFL's title game to dethrone the reigning champion Packers in what some called "the best Super Bowl ever." In the process, the Broncos also ended a 13-game Super Bowl winning streak by the National Football Conference representative and sent Green Bay to its initial Super Bowl defeat after three triumphs.

Davis, named the game's most valuable player, averaged 5.2 yards per carry as he rushed for 157 yards and three touchdowns, including the final, decisive score with less than two minutes remaining.

After the opening possession — a 76-yard scoring sequence by Green Bay — it appeared (falsely) that the game might turn into just another rout by the NFC against an over-matched AFC opponent. The Packers easily traversed the field, capping the drive with an arching, 22-yard touchdown pass from Brett Favre to Antonio Freeman at the back of the end zone, Freeman tap-dancing to get his feet down, and Green Bay had a 7-0 lead less than five minutes into the contest.

But the Broncos stormed back, scoring the first three times they had the ball to commandeer a 17-7 advantage. After Davis went over from a yard out for Denver's initial points, the Broncos forced a pair of turnovers in Green Bay territory. First, Favre was intercepted when he prematurely unloaded a pass for Robert Brooks while under a heavy blitz, a miscue which resulted in a 1-yard touchdown run by Broncos quarterback John Elway on a bootleg to the right. Then, after Favre fumbled when hit by Denver safety Steve Atwater on another blitz, the Broncos tacked on a long field goal by Jason Elam.

Green Bay mounted an impressive, 95-yard touchdown drive to consume the latter half of the second quarter and pull to within 17-14.

Favre lofted a perfect aerial to tight end Mark Chmura in the back right corner of the end zone just 12 seconds before halftime, a pass which narrowly skirted the fingertips of a leaping defender.

Davis, who had missed the entire second quarter after experiencing migraine-headache symptoms, fumbled on the first play from scrimmage of the second half, an error which turned into a game-tying Ryan Longwell field goal only minutes later.

The Broncos went ahead again late in the third period, when Davis scored his second touchdown of the game to culminate a 92-yard, seven-plus-minute drive. And when, on the ensuing kickoff, Freeman fumbled at his own 22, things looked dire for Green Bay as it stared at a potential two-touchdown deficit heading into the final quarter. But when the Broncos went for the jugular on their first play, free safety Eugene Robinson intercepted Elway in the end zone.

Favre completed three passes to Freeman on the ensuing Green Bay possession, including a 13-yard crossing route for the receiver's second touchdown, which knotted the score at 24 with 13½ minutes remaining.

Freeman made nine receptions (for 126 yards) on the day to equal the club's all-time playoff record.

After the Packers failed to take advantage of one fourth-quarter drive which neared midfield, Denver ran the ball down their throat for the game's winning touchdown, a drive which covered 49 yards in only five plays — four on the ground. Davis strolled into the end zone untouched up the middle for a 31-24 lead with just 105 ticks of the clock left.

Still facing the relentless blitzing which had characterized the play of the Denver defense throughout the game, from his own 30-yard line Favre moved the Packers 39 yards down the field on four straight passes to Dorsey Levens to reach the Broncos' 31 with 42 seconds remaining.

But when his next three throws fell incomplete, including a fourth-down pass intended for Chmura which was knocked down by linebacker John Mobley, the game was Denver's, giving Elway a long-awaited Super Bowl victory after he personally had endured three losses. In the process, the Broncos became just the second wild-card team to capture a Super Bowl.

SUPER BOWL XLV

Cowboys Stadium, Arlington, Texas, Sunday, Feb. 6, 2011; Attendance: 91,060; Time: 3:32; Weather: (indoors)

On the strength of a masterful passing display by quarterback Aaron Rodgers and a series of timely turnovers courtesy of an opportunistic defense, the resilient Packers laid claim to the franchise's fourth Super Bowl title in front of 91,060 fans at majestic Cowboys Stadium in Arlington, Texas. Green Bay became just the second No. 6 seed to win the Super Bowl since the league adopted a 12-team format in 1990, and capped off its string of six consecutive elimination games by again overcoming the loss of key players to injuries, just as it had throughout the 2010 season.

Offensively, the Packers opened the game in a four-wide-receiver set intent on spreading out Pittsburgh's attacking 3-4 defense and keeping its vaunted front seven off balance. After the teams traded punts early on, Rodgers led the Packers on an 80-yard scoring drive on the unit's second possession. The quarterback completed 5 of 6 attempts for 63 yards on the series, perfectly placing a 29-yard touchdown in the hands of receiver Jordy Nelson along the right sideline for the game's opening score.

And it wouldn't be long before the Packers built on their early lead.

On the first play of the Steelers' ensuing possession, defensive lineman Howard Green bull-rushed his way into the Pittsburgh pocket, batting the arm of quarterback Ben Roethlisberger, whose deep pass down the left sideline fell well short and into the arms of converging Packers safety Nick Collins at the Pittsburgh 37. After securing the interception, Collins weaved his way through would-be tacklers and went airborne at the 3, diving into the end zone to give Green Bay a commanding 14-0 lead with 3:20 remaining in the opening quarter.

After surrendering a 33-yard field goal that made the score 14-3, the Packers defense was the beneficiary of a Roethlisberger mistake on Pittsburgh's next possession when cornerback Jarrett Bush jumped in front of a crossing route intended for receiver Mike Wallace and came down with the interception at the Green Bay 47.

Despite receiving news that veteran stalwart receiver Donald Driver would not return to the game due to an ankle injury, Rodgers and the offense wasted little time taking advantage of the extra possession and the field position that accompanied it. They needed only four plays to cross the goal line, doing so when Rodgers made another of his pinpoint throws, a 21-yard dart to wide receiver Greg Jennings over the deep middle. The quarterback's pass eluded safety Ryan Clark, who had closed tightly on the route, and made the score 21-3.

While the Driver injury was an unquestioned blow to the offense, the defense also suffered a seemingly devastating loss when cornerback Charles Woodson, a playoff captain and the team's leader throughout the postseason, sustained a broken collarbone on the second play of Pittsburgh's final drive of the first half.

Pittsburgh scored its first touchdown of the game five plays after the Woodson injury when Roethlisberger found Hines Ward in the back corner of the end zone from 8 yards out.

The Packers entered the locker room ahead, 21-10, but were forced to regroup in the face of the injuries. Having gone through the painful process of placing 15 players on injured reserve during the regular season, overcoming injuries was a familiar practice for these Packers.

That said, the Steelers built off of the momentum they carried into halftime and came out with a vengeance in the second half. Their first drive ended with an 8-yard touchdown run by Rashard Mendenhall that tightened the score to 21-17.

The Packers, meanwhile, sputtered offensively in the third quarter as Rodgers fell victim to drops and other miscues that inhibited his usual rhythm in the passing game.

With the Steelers driving deeper into Packers territory for the go-ahead score at the start of the fourth quarter, linebacker Clay Matthews made the kind of game-changing play that had defined his young career in Green Bay. On a second-down run to his side, he shot inside of a block by a tight end, and, in concert with defensive end Ryan Pickett, met Mendenhall in the backfield, jarring the ball loose. The fumble was recovered by linebacker Desmond Bishop, and momentum was shifted almost entirely back in the Packers' favor.

Eight plays later, Rodgers found Jennings for an 8-yard touchdown that again made it a two-score game, at 28-17.

Refusing to go quietly, Roethlisberger and the veteran Steelers responded immediately, putting together a seven-play drive of their own that culminated with a 25-yard touchdown pass to Wallace and a successful two-point conversion on an option pitch to wide receiver Antwan Randle El.

Leading by a narrow 28-25 margin, Rodgers and the offense took over with 7:29 remaining, looking to wind the clock down and put the game out of reach. On third-and-10 from their own 25, Rodgers made one of the most memorable throws in the history of the Super Bowl. The Steelers rushed only three, but even having eight players in coverage wasn't enough to keep Rodgers from connecting with Jennings down the seam for 31 yards, just beyond the fingertips of cornerback Ike Taylor, who had excellent coverage on the play.

The drive resulted in a 23-yard Mason Crosby field goal that extended the lead to 31-25, but also gave Pittsburgh and the dangerous Roethlisberger a chance to drive for the winning score with just under two minutes remaining.

The Packers' defense stood up to the challenge though, and Roethlisberger's fourth-down pass to Wallace was broken up by cornerback Tramon Williams.

After two kneel-downs by Rodgers, confetti showered the field and the Packers were champions of pro football for a record 13th time. League commissioner Roger Goodell and guest presenter Roger Staubach handed the Vince Lombardi Trophy to Packers President/CEO Mark Murphy, General Manager Ted Thompson and Head Coach Mike McCarthy on a celebratory platform at midfield.

Rodgers was awarded game most valuable player honors after completing 24-of-39 attempts for 304 yards and three touchdowns. He became just the fourth quarterback ever to throw for 300 yards and three TDs in a Super Bowl.

INTERCEPTION RETURNS A WINNING FORMULA IN THE SUPER BOWL

After Packers safety Nick Collins intercepted Steelers QB Ben Roethlisberger at Pittsburgh's 37-yard line in front of the Steelers' bench late in the first quarter of Super Bowl XLV, he embarked on a return that would significantly turn the momentum in Green Bay's favor. Collins weaved his way through a host of Steelers on his way to the end zone, going aerial at the 3-yard line and across the goal line to put the Packers ahead by a commanding 14-0 margin early in the game.

Green Bay went on to defeat Pittsburgh, 31-25, for what was the fourth Super Bowl title in the illustrious history of the franchise. Collins became the second Packer and 12th overall player in league history to return an interception for a touchdown in the Super Bowl.

Interestingly, in what is a testament to the evolution of the passing game, there were only four interception touchdowns in the first 20 Super Bowls, and after a 14-year drought, there have been 11 in the last 23 world championship contests. Teams who are the beneficiaries of such critical plays are 12-1 in the big game. A closer look at the 15 interception returns for touchdowns and the results of those games:

GREEN BAY PACKERS SUPER BOWL RINGS

First played Jan. 15, 1967, at the Los Angeles Coliseum, the Super Bowl was initiated to match the champions of the then-rival American Football League and National Football League. With a dominating defeat of their counterpart, the AFL's Kansas City Chiefs, by a score of 35-10 in Super Bowl I, the Packers laid the foundation for what would become a tradition of Super Bowl success. Just a year later in Super Bowl II, the Packers emerged with an equally impressive 33-14 conquest of the AFL's Oakland Raiders. Twenty-nine years later, Green Bay made its long-awaited return, appearing in Super Bowl XXXI and beating the New England Patriots, 35-21, making the franchise a perfect three-for-three in the renowned title game. Similar to their first tour in the late 1960's, the Packers returned to the championship game the following year, but suffered defeat at the hands of the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XXXII.

Ending a hiatus that lasted 13 years, the 2010 Packers fought their way to North Texas for a Super Bowl XLV showdown with the Pittsburgh Steelers. The Packers prevailed, 31-25, in that contest, returning the famed Vince Lombardi Trophy to its rightful home in Green Bay.

In commemoration of those triumphs, each time the Packers went through the process of developing and purchasing a unique, customized ring honoring those within the organization who had contributed to the team's ultimate success.

SUPER BOWL I CHAMPIONSHIP RING

SUPER BOWL II CHAMPIONSHIP RING

Designers: Lombardi, Skoronski and Westland.

Features: On one side of the ring is a shield that holds within it a Green Bay Packers helmet and two crowns, one

SUPER BOWL XXXI CHAMPIONSHIP RING

Designers: Packers President and CEO Bob Harlan, General Manager Ron Wolf, and Head Coach Mike Holmgren teamed with the organization's seven-member executive committee and worked in concert with Jostens representatives Gary Rotherham, John Scarpellini and Charlie Anderson, a championship ring artist, to develop the idea.

Features: The center-top of the ring boasts a raised "G" on a background of diamonds with the words "World Champions" surrounding the logo. One shank (side) features the word "Packers" over the year "1996" above the word "Tradition," while the other shank includes the recipient's name, the Packers logo on a helmet, the team's 1996-97 record (16-3) and the recipient's number or position with the team. The ring contains 115 diamonds totaling 235 points, or 2.35 karats. In a true testament to the expansion of not only the league's roster limits, but also the front office and board of directors, the team produced 165 of the actual championship rings.

In addition to the rings themselves, Jostens designed several different sketches for the Packers, including a honoring the 1966 championship and then another for the 1967 championship. Above the shield are banners commemorating all of the titles that had been won under then-head coach Lombardi: 1961, 1962, 1965, 1966 and 1967. Above those banners is a ribbon similar to the one from the previous year, featuring the scores of the Packers' two victorious championship games that closed out the season. The first is "Green Bay 21, Dallas 17," in remembrance of the historic NFL Championship Game known forever as "The Ice Bowl," and the second reads "Green Bay 33, Oakland 14," from Super Bowl II. Below the shield reads the word "Challenge." The other side of the ring features a ribbon with the person's name, and a large crown that has "NFL" inscribed on one side and "AFL" on the other with the crown sitting on top of the globe to signify the world championships. Below the globe is the inscription "Run to Win." The Packers produced approximately 45 of these rings for players, coaches and select staff members.

women's ring for female staff and coaches' and players' wives. Each married player and coach received a women's ring for his spouse and any single players or coaches received a yellow "G" pendant with 87.5 points of diamonds in it.

SUPER BOWL XLV CHAMPIONSHIP RING

Designers: An organization-led committee featuring Packers President and CEO Mark Murphy, Executive Vice President and General Manager Ted Thompson, and Head Coach Mike McCarthy, along with Vice President of Football Administration Russ Ball and Vice President of Sales and Marketing Tim Connolly. The committee sought input from veteran players and then initiated the process once again with Jostens, producers of all four of the Packers' Super Bowl rings.

Features: As part of a recurring motif evident in several facets of the modern-day Packers franchise, the Super Bowl XLV championship ring matches first-rate quality with a thoughtful tribute to the organization's rich history and tradition. Presented to players, coaches and members of the organization at a ceremony inside the Lambeau Field Atrium in June 2011, the diamond-studded platinum ring celebrates both the memorable journey and victory in the franchise's fifth Super Bowl appearance, and also some of the historical elements that make the Packers one of the NFL's oldest and most storied teams.

Similar to the XXXI ring, the crest features a raised "G" logo, this time cast in 18-karat yellow gold and set atop a green stone tablet. The theme of paying homage to history is seen front and center as the "G" features 13 diamonds commemorating the team's record 13 world championships. Additionally, the crest is cornered on each end by four marquise-cut diamonds in the shape of footballs, representative of the four Super Bowl wins. Comprising the remaining face of the crest are 92 diamonds, recognizing the 92-year history of the organization.

On one shoulder, the player's last name is emblazoned above a replica engraving of Lambeau Field, beneath which is their jersey number with a circle around it. The encircled number is a tribute to the front of the uniform worn by the 1929 team, winners of the first world championship in franchise history.

The opposite shoulder is topped by the spelled-out "PACKERS" logo above the Vince Lombardi Trophy, named, of course, in honor of the organization's legendary head coach. The coach's name is featured much as it is on the actual trophy, above the NFL shield, along with the letters "XLV."

The inside of the band features two separate inscriptions that make the piece unique.

The first is a listing of scores from the four playoff wins with accompanying logos of the defeated opponents. The first three wins came on the road, as the Packers became just the third team in league history to accomplish the feat and just the second No. 6 seed to win the Super Bowl.

The other inscription commemorates the speech given to the team by veteran cornerback Charles Woodson in the locker room following the NFC Championship Game victory over the Chicago Bears at Soldier Field. In the speech, Woodson, with one finger raised, encouraged his teammates to wholly unify for the coming two weeks that would lead them into Super Bowl XLV. His speech, and the major themes referenced within it, have been immortalized inside the ring with a large number "1" and the words "Mind, Goal, Purpose and Heart" listed vertically next to the number.

The rings were weighed at a reported 116 grams and feature diamonds totaling 3.35 carats.

WOODSON GIVES "ONE" SPEECH FOR ALL TIME

The 2010 Packers became just the third team in NFL history to win three consecutive road playoff games, earning entry into Super Bowl XLV. A team that placed 15 players on injured reserve during the regular season, they continued to defy the odds throughout the playoffs, en route to becoming just the second No. 6 seed ever to win the Super Bowl.

Late in the season and during the playoffs, cornerback Charles Woodson became the team's emotional leader by virtue of his customary excellent performance on the field and his steady guidance off of it. Following the Packers' 21-14 triumph over the Chicago Bears in the NFC Championship Game at Soldier Field, Woodson took to a celebratory platform in the locker room after the team's postgame prayer.

A 13-year veteran who had suffered defeat in Super Bowl XXXVII as a member of the Oakland Raiders, Woodson seized the opportunity to set the agenda for the two weeks that would precede Green Bay's matchup with the Pittsburgh Steelers at Cowboys Stadium in North Texas.

Additionally, Woodson learned before the game that President Barack Obama had said publicly that he would attend the Super Bowl if the Bears were to advance. Knowing that the Super Bowl victor typically travels to the White House following the season, he was able to integrate that theme as well.

What followed is a speech that will forever exist in team lore and was eventually commemorated on the inner band of the team's Super Bowl championship rings:

"I want y'all to think about one thing ... one ... For two weeks, think about one. Let's be one mind, let's be one heartbeat, for one purpose, one goal, for one more game ... one. Let's get it ... And check this, if the President doesn't want to come watch us in the Super Bowl ... Guess what? We'll go see him! Let's get a 'White House' on three ... One-Two-Three [collectively] 'WHITE HOUSE!'"

1936 NFL Championship
Dec. 13 at Polo Grounds, New York

Although New York was not represented in the title playoff, the game was played at the Polo Grounds because George Preston Marshall, upset with Boston support, was shifting his franchise to Washington, D.C. In front of 29,545, Don Hutson caught a 48-yard touchdown pass from Arnie Herber in the first three minutes, and the Packers never trailed.

Green Bay's two second-half scores were set up, respectively, by a 52-yard pass from Herber to Johnny "Blood" McNally and when Lon Evans blocked a punt.

1938 NFL Championship
Dec. 11 at Polo Grounds, New York

The Packers overcame an early 9-0 deficit, spawned by two blocked punts deep in their territory, but could not hold off the Giants in the second half. Early in the second quarter, Green Bay began to close in when Arnie Herber capitalized on a Paul "Tiny" Engelbretsen interception by lofting a 40-yard touchdown strike to Carl Mulleneaux, cutting the Giants' margin to 9-7.

But the Giants converted a midfield fumble by Packers fullback Eddie Jankowski into a 16-7 lead. Green Bay trimmed the margin to two points before the half, when Clarke Hinkle crashed over from the 6-inch line following a 66-yard Cecil Isbell pass to Wayland Becker.

During the opening minutes of the second half, the Packers took their only lead, when an Engelbretsen field goal presented them with a 17-16 edge. The Giants, however, stormed back with a 61-yard scoring drive, capped by a 23-yard pass from Ed Danowski to Hank Soar. Soar fought his way over the goal line from the 2, with Hinkle clinging to one leg, for what proved to be the winning touchdown. A (then) playoff-record 48,120 sat in on the proceedings.

1939 NFL Championship
Dec. 10 at State Fair Park, Milwaukee

The Packers gained long-awaited national respect with the first shutout in an NFL title game, 27-0. Despite bitter 35-mph winds, both Arnie Herber and Cecil Isbell passed for touchdowns in securing the team's fifth world championship before 32,279 fans.

Green Bay mounted a 7-0 halftime lead, by dint of a Herber scoring strike to Milt Gantenbein, as the Giants missed on three field goal attempts.

The Packers pulled away in the third quarter on a 29-yard field goal by Paul "Tiny" Engelbretsen, and a 31-yard TD pass from Isbell to Joe Laws, set up by Laws' 30-yard punt return. The Packers added 10 more points in the fourth quarter on a 42-yard field goal by Ernie Smith and a short scoring run by fullback Eddie Jankowski. Green Bay intercepted the Giants six times and held them to only 164 total yards.

1941 Western Division Playoff
Dec. 14 at Wrigley Field, Chicago

In a playoff contest necessitated when the two teams finished the year 10-1, each having given the other its lone loss, the Packers fell victim to Chicago's offensive trio of George McAfee, Norm Standlee and Hugh Gallarneau in the 16-degree cold at Wrigley Field.

After the Bears fumbled the opening kickoff, Green Bay grabbed an early 7-0 lead on Clarke Hinkle's 1-yard plunge. But Gallarneau's touchdown on an 81-yard punt return narrowed the gap to 7-6, before Chicago exploded for 24 second-quarter points to essentially settle the issue. The Bears rushed for 277 yards, including McAfee's (then) team-record 119 yards. Standlee ran for 79 and added two touchdowns.

The Bears also held Green Bay's prolific end, Don Hutson, to only one catch for 19 yards.

With peerless pass-catcher Don Hutson employed primarily as a decoy, fullback Ted Fritsch emerged as the offensive hero in the Packers' sixth world title victory.

Fritsch scored both Green Bay touchdowns, a 1-yard run on fourth-and-goal, and a 28-yard pass-and-run collaboration with Irv Comp in the second. Meanwhile, Ward Cuff scored the Giants' touchdown with a 1-yard plunge on the initial play of the fourth quarter, a drive which saw New York advance past its own 35-yard line for the first time in the game. Joe Laws, the Packers' veteran, 34-year-old all-purpose halfback, set a (then) playoff record with three interceptions, and rushed for 74 yards on 13 carries.

The Packers couldn't hold a 13-10 fourth-quarter lead, yielding a late surge to the Eagles, who scored the deciding points on a 5-yard burst by Ted Dean.

Green Bay had stopped Philadelphia at its own 4 late in the third quarter, then recaptured the lead on a 7-yard TD pass from Bart Starr to Max McGee. But on the ensuing kickoff, Dean's 58-yard return ignited the Eagles, and led to his game-winning touchdown with 5:21 remaining. Green Bay made a last-ditch effort, driving to the Eagles' 22, but on its final play, Philadelphia's Chuck Bednarik stopped Jim Taylor at the 8 as time expired.

The contest marked the Packers' first title game appearance in 16 years. It would also mark Vince Lombardi's only playoff loss.

Paul Hornung, on leave from the Army, tied a (then) playoff record with 19 points, keying the Packers' rout of the Giants in the first title game ever played in Green Bay.

A (then) team-record 39,029 watched the Green and Gold erupt for 24 points in the second quarter. In all, the Packers scored seven times against the NFL's top defensive team, amassing four touchdowns and three field goals. The defense, meanwhile, proved a devastating complement, intercepting four passes and recovering one fumble, while limiting New York to six first downs and 130 total yards.

Two interceptions, by Ray Nitschke and Hank Gremminger, set up the team's second and third touchdowns, while the fumble recovery (by Forrest Gregg) led to Hornung's second field goal. Hornung's final FG came after Jesse Whittenton's interception.

In a raw, cyclonic setting (13-degree temperatures and 40-mile-per-hour winds), the Packers led the entire game, a primitive, hand-to-hand struggle. Ray Nitschke, the game's eventual MVP, proved the principal frustration to New York, seeking redemption for a shutout humiliation in the '61 title game. Early in the contest, Nitschke deflected a Giants pass, triggering an interception that blunted the drive at the Green Bay 10. The linebacker also recovered two fumbles, one that led to the Packers' only touchdown, and another that set up a 29-yard field goal by Jerry Kramer, whose trio of three-pointers provided the eventual margin.

The Giants' only TD came after blocking a Max McGee punt in the Green Bay end zone, midway through the third quarter.

A battered Jim Taylor, engaged in a fierce battle with New York's Sam Huff, set a franchise playoff record with 31 rushing attempts, good for 85 yards.

Don Chandler's game-winning field goal, at 13:39 of sudden death, ended the Packers' first-ever overtime game, and their only such playoff contest until 2003. His 25-yard kick sent Green Bay to the NFL Championship Game, after both the Colts and Packers ended the regular season 10-3-1.

Chandler's first field goal, a game-tying 22-yarder with 1:58 left in regulation, remains controversial. Baltimore loyalists, led by coach Don Shula, claimed it sailed wide right. The kick, which flew high above the upright, actually triggered the league to extend the goal posts' height for the following season.

The Colts, playing without starting quarterback Johnny Unitas (knee) and his backup Gary Cuozzo (dislocated shoulder), used halfback Tom Matte as a fill-in. Matte completed only five passes, but did gain 57 yards rushing.

Baltimore held a 10-0 halftime lead, scoring 21 seconds into the game when linebacker Don Shinnick returned a Bill Anderson fumble 25 yards for a touchdown. Bart Starr, in pursuit, injured his ribs on the play. Green Bay's touchdown from scrimmage.

Zeke Bratkowski replaced Starr for the balance of the afternoon, completing 22 of 39 passes for 248 yards. The Packers moved to within 10-7 in the third quarter when Paul Hornung scored on a 1-yard run, setting the stage for Chandler's heroics.

After four inches of snow softened the Lambeau surface, the Packers used their running game to rally past Cleveland, and a crowd of 50,777 celebrated the team's third championship in five years.

Paul Hornung (18-105) and Jim Taylor (27-96) amassed 201 yards rushing, helping the Packers overcome an early 9-7 deficit.

Packers defenders, meanwhile, allowed only 50 yards to Cleveland's Jim Brown, the league's leading rusher with 1,544 yards during the year.

In the third quarter, Bart Starr finally settled the see-saw battle, escorting the Packers on a 90-yard, 11-play drive, ending when Hornung scored on a 13-yard sweep around the Browns' right perimeter. Kickers Don Chandler and Lou Groza booted five total field goals.

Bart Starr, in one of his finest hours, threw four touchdowns, and Tom Brown thwarted a last-minute Cowboys bid, leading Green Bay to its second straight title and fourth in six years.

With 28 seconds left, Brown stunned most of the 74,152 fans when he intercepted Don Meredith's fourth-down pass in the end zone.

The Packers mounted a quick 14-0 lead, after Starr hit Elijah Pitts on a 21-yard touchdown, and rookie Jim Grabowski returned a fumble 18 yards for a score. But an explosive Dallas comeback cut the margin to 21-17 by halftime, and 21-20 after Danny Villanueva's third-quarter field goal. Starr then hit Boyd Dowler and Max McGee with 16- and 28-yard scoring passes, respectively, to provide a cushion against the Cowboys' late surge.

After L.A. got on the board first with Roman Gabriel's 29-yard scoring pass to Bernie Casey, the Packers responded with 28 unanswered points, in one of Milwaukee County Stadium's more memorable games.

Williams rushed for 88 yards on 18 carries, while Bart Starr threw for 222 yards with one touchdown and set a (then) team record by completing 73.9 percent of his passes (17 of 23). End Carroll Dale caught Starr's scoring toss, one of six catches for 109 yards. The Packers also sacked Gabriel five times, including 3½ by Henry Jordan.

Lynn Dickey culminated two long TD drives with passes to John Jefferson and James Lofton. The Packers then capitalized on a pair of St. Louis turnovers, converting each into an Eddie Lee Ivey TD.

Green Bay led 28-9 at half, and 41-9 in the fourth. Dickey (17 of 23, 260 yards, no interceptions) tied a team playoff record with four TD passes. Jefferson (six catches) set a (then) club postseason mark with 148 receiving yards, including a 60-yard TD reception. Bart Starr's game-winning touchdown, a 1-yard dive behind Jerry Kramer and Ken Bowman with 13 seconds remaining, clinched a third straight Green Bay championship and ended the "Ice Bowl."

Starr's score, on third down with no timeouts left, climaxed a 68-yard, 12-play drive which began with 4:50 on the clock. In all, 50,861 watched the coldest game in league annals. Kickoff temperature was 13 below zero and the wind chill was minus 46.

Like the year before, the Packers grabbed an early 14-0 advantage. But this time the Cowboys came back, gaining a 17-14 edge on the first play of the fourth quarter, when Lance Rentzel caught a 50-yard touchdown from halfback Dan Reeves. DID YOU KNOW?

- Even though Super Bowl II had yet to be played, the Packers were anointed as NFL champions following their Ice Bowl victory. In turn, they were recognized as the first three-time champs under the league's playoff system, which had been introduced in 1933. At that point, the NFL and rival American Football League were still operating separately.
- Lambeau Field's underground heating system, Vince Lombardi's pet project, didn't fail due to electrical problems. Moisture built up overnight under a tarp and started turning to ice soon after it was removed. Consequently, the thermostat couldn't be cranked high enough to deal with the severe conditions.

- Quarterback Bart Starr didn't call for a quarterback sneak in the huddle. He called "31 Wedge," which called for the fullback to dive between the center and right guard. Only Starr knew he wasn't going to hand off the ball.
- The UW-La Crosse marching band's halftime show was canceled after 11 members were hospitalized and treated for frostbite following a morning practice.
- Officials couldn't use their whistles to stop play. They froze.

Dallas' late 74-yard touchdown drive ended all Green Bay comeback hopes, in front of 63,972 fans.

The Packers pulled to within four, 30-26, when Mark Lee returned a fourth-quarter interception 22 yards for a touchdown. Green Bay in the second half rolled up 363 yards of total offense and outscored Dallas, 19-17. But despite a (then) team-record 466 overall yards, Green Bay couldn't overcome a slow start and a 20-7 halftime deficit.

Lynn Dickey threw for a (then) team playoff-record 332 yards (19 of 36). Split end James Lofton emerged with 109 yards on five receptions and spiced the Packers' second-half comeback by taking a reverse 71 yards for a TD, matching the NFL's longest postseason run from scrimmage (since broken).

1993 NFC Wild Card Playoff

Jan. 8, 1994, at Silverdome, Pontiac, Mich.

Brett Favre's 40-yard touchdown pass to Sterling Sharpe in the final minute gave Green Bay one of the most electrifying victories in its rich postseason history.

Favre's pass, a scrambling, across-the-body throw from extreme left to extreme right, found Sharpe wide open in the end zone with 55 seconds remaining. It capped a see-saw battle with the NFC Central Division champion Lions.

Earlier, rookie safety George Teague returned an Erik Kramer interception 101 yards for a touchdown, longest in NFL playoff annals, giving Green Bay a 21-17 lead. Sharpe (five catches, 101 yards) also made the record book, tying an NFL playoff mark with three touchdown receptions.

The Lions' Barry Sanders, returning from a knee injury, ignited the Silverdome crowd of 68,479 with 169 yards rushing.

1993 NFC Divisional Playoff

The Cowboys' 17-point second-quarter surge overcame an early Packers lead and gave the eventual Super Bowl champions momentum they would not relinquish.

But the Packers held that momentum in the first quarter. They stopped Bill Bates short on a fourth-down fake punt, and capitalized on great field position to score the game's first points, a Chris Jacke field goal.

Brett Favre threw for 331 yards and Sterling Sharpe (six receptions, 128 yards) turned in a second straight 100-yard effort. Dallas' Troy

Aikman completed 28 of 37 passes for 302 yards and three touchdowns, while Michael Irvin added nine receptions for 126 yards.

1994 NFL Wild Card Playoff

Dec. 31 at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

Spurred by a classic defensive performance, the Packers outlasted Detroit in Green Bay's first home playoff game since 1982. Coordinator Fritz Shurmur held the NFL's leading rusher, Barry Sanders, to a career-low minus-1 yard on 13 attempts, and limited the Lions collectively on the ground to minus-4 yards (a record that still stands today) — erasing a 31-year-old league playoff record.

Brett Favre directed several long drives, including a 76-yard excursion on the game's opening series, capped by a 3-yard touchdown run by Dorsey Levens. Green Bay, who controlled the ball for 37-plus minutes, played turnover-free throughout, entertaining the 58,125 fans. Chris Jacke added three field goals, including a Packers postseason-record 51-yarder.

The Lions pulled to within 13-10 in the fourth quarter, on Dave Krieg's 3-yard touchdown pass to Brett Perriman, and reached the Packers' 11-yard line on their final drive in the game's closing moments. But the Green Bay defense stiffened, recapturing the ball on downs, before Packers punter Craig Hentrich took an intentional safety to run out the day's final seven seconds.

The Packers couldn't overcome a 28-9 halftime deficit, and despite 327 yards of total offense, fell to Dallas' arsenal of offensive superstars in the NFC semifinals.

Trailing only 7-3 in the first quarter, the Packers pinned Dallas deep in its own territory. But Troy Aikman then connected with Alvin Harper on a (then) NFL playoff-record 94-yard touchdown pass. Aikman threw for 337 yards, and three Dallas receivers — Michael Irvin (111), Harper (108) and Jay Novacek (104) — had 100-yard days. Dallas backup Blair Thomas rushed for 70 yards and two scores after replacing Emmitt Smith, who left in the first quarter after aggravating a hamstring injury.

Packers flanker Robert Brooks, moving into the spot usually occupied by an injured Sterling Sharpe, equaled his career best with eight receptions, for a game-high 138 yards.

Utilizing a balanced offensive attack, including Edgar Bennett's (then) franchise playoff-record 108 rushing yards, Green Bay toppled the Falcons on a foggy, 30-degree afternoon. The Packers had earned their first NFC Central crown in 23 years.

Jeff George's 65-yard touchdown pass to Eric Metcalf gave Atlanta a 7-0 edge three minutes into the game and stunned the crowd of 60,453. But the Packers quickly regained control, scoring two first-quarter TDs.

Green Bay broke open the game midway through the second period, when rookie Antonio Freeman became the first Packers player to return a kick for a postseason touchdown, taking a punt back 76 yards. Then, with less than one minute left in the first half, Mark Chmura caught a 2-yard touchdown from Brett Favre, capping a 14-play, 85-yard drive, extending the lead to 27-10.

Favre's third TD toss — a perfect, lofting spiral to Dorsey Levens with just under eight minutes left — cemented the issue. Favre completed passes to nine receivers, while Bennett averaged 4.5 yards on the ground, with one TD, on 24 attempts.

PACKERS 27, SAN FRANCISCO 17

1995 NFC Divisional Playoff
Jan. 6, 1996, at 3Com Park, San Francisco

Physically menacing the 49ers offense, Green Bay shocked the defending Super Bowl champions and advanced to the NFC Championship for the first time.

The victory, especially sweet for San Francisco native Mike Holmgren, marked the coach's first game against the club that launched his pro coaching career.

After the Niners blocked a field goal to end Green Bay's opening drive, the Packers defense set the tone for the rest of the game. On San Francisco's first play, Wayne Simmons drilled fullback Adam Walker on a screen pass, forcing a fumble that rookie Craig Newsome returned 31 yards for the day's first points. The Packers then mounted 62- and 72-yard scoring drives on their next two possessions; Brett Favre's touchdown passes to Keith Jackson and Mark Chmura, respectively, gave Green Bay a 21-0 second-quarter advantage.

Favre, the NFL's MVP, completed 21 of 28 passes (75 percent), while Jackson, whose two long receptions over the middle set up Packers scores, caught four for 101 yards. Robert Brooks' four catches totaled 103 yards.

The Packers defense forced four turnovers and battered Steve Young all afternoon, with three sacks and countless knockdowns, forcing him to attempt an NFL playoff-record 65 passes in a futile comeback bid. Meanwhile, San Francisco's receiver nonpareil, Jerry Rice, made 11 receptions but had few yards after the catch.

Green Bay posted the only road victory by an NFC team in the divisional playoffs from 1990-99.

Green Bay, one win from its first Super Bowl in 28 years, held a fourth-quarter lead before succumbing to the offensive firepower of the eventual league champions.

Emmitt Smith (35-150), behind his massive offensive line, rushed for three touchdowns, ending the Packers' season at Texas Stadium for the third straight year.

After the Packers converted a blocked punt into a field goal, Troy Aikman threw two TD passes to Michael Irvin. Brett Favre answered with two scores of his own — at the time a team postseason-record 73-yard pass to Robert Brooks and a Keith Jackson connection — to vault Green Bay into the lead, 17-14. Dallas added 10 points before halftime, though, to go up 24-17.

Green Bay got the second half's first 10 points, including Favre's 1-yard touchdown pass to Brooks, and held a 27-24 lead at the end of three quarters.

But Smith's talents glistened in the fourth quarter. His two rushing TDs — sandwiched around Larry Brown's drive-killing interception in Dallas territory — gave the Cowboys their third Super Bowl appearance in four years.

Jan. 4, 1997, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

Jump-started by their special teams, specifically two punt returns by Desmond Howard, the Packers took the first step toward an eventual berth in Super Bowl XXXI by eliminating the 49ers for a second straight year. With rain since early morning on a cold and dreary day, the field offered less-than-ideal footing, and deteriorated into a quagmire by game's end.

Despite the weather, 60,787 spectators (three no-shows) still showed up.

After the 49ers went three-and-out on their first drive, Howard weaved his way through several defenders for a 71-yard touchdown just 2:15 into the game. Then, midway through the first quarter, Howard broke free on a second punt return, traveling 46 yards before San Francisco tripped him up at its own 7. Moments later, Brett Favre hit Andre Rison on a 4-yard touchdown pass to give Green Bay a 14-0 advantage.

After an Edgar Bennett TD, the 49ers converted two Green Bay special-teams miscues into 14 points, bringing the game back within reach. First, a San Francisco punt bounced off Chris Hayes' leg and the 49ers recovered at the Green Bay 26, setting up a Terry Kirby touchdown catch. Then, when the Packers failed to field a short kickoff to open the second half, San Francisco recovered at the Green Bay 4, and, on the next play, Elvis Grbac's naked bootleg trimmed the Packers' lead to 21-14.

To their credit, the Packers stormed back on their next possession, going 72 yards in 12 plays, a drive capped when Antonio Freeman recovered Bennett's fumble in the end zone.

Neither team gained many yards in the sloppy conditions. Green Bay racked up only 210 yards, including a club postseason-low 71 passing. Bennett was the Packers' workhorse, running for 80 yards and two touchdowns on 17 carries. Steve Young's broken ribs, suffered one week earlier, forced him out after two series and San Francisco managed just 196 total yards.

PACKERS 30, CAROLINA 13

1996 NFC Championship

Jan. 12, 1997, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

The Packers overcame two early deficits to defeat upstart Carolina and earn a berth to their first Super Bowl in 29 years, largely on the strength of Dorsey Levens' 205 yards of offense. It was the first title game in Green Bay since the legendary 1967 "Ice Bowl."

Not quite 10 minutes into the game, line-backer Sam Mills intercepted Brett Favre deep in Green Bay territory, setting up Kerry Collins' 3-yard TD toss to Howard Griffith.

On the first snap of the second quarter, Levens evened the score, out-jumping Carolina's Eric Davis at the right edge of the end zone on a 29-yard touchdown reception. The previous play, Levens had rushed for 35 yards on third-and-1.

Carolina converted a Favre fumble, near midfield, into a field goal, but the Packers stormed back with 10 points in the final minute of the first half. Favre connected with Antonio Freeman for a touchdown on a 6-yard fade with 48 seconds remaining, capping a 15-play, 71-yard drive. When the Panthers then attempted to move downfield, rookie Tyrone Williams made a diving interception at the Packers' 38, which Chris Jacke turned into a 31-yard field goal 10 seconds before halftime.

Late in the third quarter, Edgar Bennett strolled untouched through the middle on a 4-yard touchdown, giving Green Bay a 27-13 lead. Levens set up the score on the previous play, going 66 yards down the right sideline on a perfectly executed screen.

Green Bay put up 479 net yards, a (then) team playoff record. It churned out 201 rushing yards (99 on Bennett's 25 carries, 88 on only 10 attempts by Levens). Levens also made five receptions for 117 yards, and Favre completed 19 of 29 for 292 yards.

While the weather certainly was cold — 3 degrees with a minus 17 wind chill — the storyline before the game was the field, ravaged against San Francisco the previous week, when rainy conditions turned it into a mud pit. The Packers installed an all-new surface days prior to the game, with sod trucked in from Maryland on more than two dozen semis.

The George S. Halas Trophy, symbolic of the National Football Conference Championship, was presented to President Bob Harlan, General Manager Ron Wolf and Head Coach Mike Holmgren in an on-field ceremony following the game.

PACKERS 21, TAMPA BAY 7

Jan. 4, 1998, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

In a hard-fought, defensive struggle — much like their two earlier meetings during the regular season — the Packers' offensive superiority overwhelmed the Bucs on a gray day. Dorsey Levens' (then) team playoff-record 112 rushing yards helped Green Bay maintain control.

The Packers foiled three first-half field-goal opportunities. On the first, Bob Kuberski surged up the middle to block Michael Husted's 43-yard attempt. On the second, Keith McKenzie stuffed Tampa Bay's fake field goal for no gain. Then, on the third, Bucs long snapper Dave Moore sailed the ball over holder Steve Walsh's head.

After Kuberski's block, Brett Favre moved 67 yards for the team's first score, a touchdown pass to Mark Chmura. Rookie Ryan Longwell then hit two field goals, the second set up by a Tyrone Williams interception in Bucs territory.

Tampa Bay, making its first playoff appearance in 15 years, got its only points after intercepting Favre and driving 94 yards for a Mike Alstott touchdown. But the Packers kept the Bucs at arm's length when Levens, who had 88 yards after halftime, punched in a short touchdown run early in the fourth quarter and Favre converted a two-point conversion on a quarterback draw.

Warren Sapp forced two fumbles and sacked Favre three times. The two combatants openly jawed throughout the contest in an intriguing sideshow.

Jan. 11, 1998, at 3Com Park, San Francisco

Green Bay, in its third straight NFC Championship Game, never allowed the 49ers to get started and advanced to a second consecutive Super Bowl. In the process, the Packers purged San Francisco for a third straight year, the second time at 3Com.

From the outset, on a rain-swept afternoon, the Packers were able to pick on San Francisco's cornerbacks, moving 76 yards on their first possession.

Early in the second quarter, Eugene Robinson stepped in front of a Steve Young pass and weaved across the field 58 yards to the 49ers' 28. Two plays later, Antonio Freeman caught a short slant from Brett Favre, cut back against the grain and broke several tackles for a 27-yard touchdown and a 10-0 Green Bay lead.

Late in the opening half, the 49ers had to settle for a field goal after three straight incompletions from the Green Bay 10. Then, in the waning seconds, Favre connected with Freeman on a 40-yard bomb, to set up the half's final play, Ryan Longwell's 43-yard field goal, against a difficult wind.

Longwell, who attended nearby Cal one season earlier and had been released by the 49ers just before training camp, added his third field goal midway through the fourth quarter, giving Green Bay a more comfortable 13-point lead.

The Packers' defense, which held San Francisco to just 33 rushing yards on 18 overall carries, sacked Young in the fourth quarter four times, twice by Keith McKenzie. When Green Bay sacked Young on fourth down at his own 11 with just under four minutes remaining, the Packers quickly capitalized, scoring after two Dorsey Levens runs.

Levens broke his own, week-old (then) franchise playoff record with 114 rushing yards – the first 100-yard effort allowed by the 49ers during the '97 season – and again did much of his work in the second half. Freeman totaled 107 yards on four catches, and punter Craig Hentrich helped Green Bay handily win the field-position battle, depositing all five of his punts inside the 49ers' 20.

Following Levens' score, the Niners' Chuck Levy returned the kickoff 95 yards to San Francisco's lone touchdown, with 2:52 left in the game.

Jan. 3, 1999, at 3Com Park, San Francisco

Steve Young's touchdown pass to Terrell Owens, in between four defenders with three seconds remaining, ended the Packers' season. The 49ers ended their five-game Green Bay losing streak, a stretch that covered four years, including elimination from the 1995-97 playoffs. The Packers, in the postseason for a team-record sixth consecutive year, went winless in the playoffs for the first time in the span.

After a critical interception, Brett Favre got the ball at his own 11, trailing, 23-20, with 4:19 left. His 47-yard bomb up the left sideline to rookie Corey Bradford put the Packers in scoring range at the 31. Then, four plays later, Favre saw the 49ers stack eight men at the line, audibled and found Antonio Freeman on a sprint-and-go pattern for a 15-yard TD and a 27-23 lead with 1:56 left.

But Young drove 76 yards in the final two minutes, culminating in his game-winning, 25-yard bullet to Owens, who had dropped several passes. Earlier during the controversial drive, rookie Scott McGarrahan appeared to strip Jerry Rice at the Green Bay 41, and Bernardo Harris recovered, but officials ruled Rice down.

Strong running games bolstered both teams. Garrison Hearst ran for 128 of the 49ers' 178 rushing yards, while Dorsey Levens broke his own (then) team playoff rushing mark with 116 yards. Greg Clark's two TD catches each came after Green Bay turnovers. Favre threw for 292 yards and two touchdowns, both to Freeman.

Two Packers icons – all-time sacks leader and future Hall of Famer Reggie White, and Head Coach Mike Holmgren – saw their Green Bay careers end. Holmgren, 84-42 overall in seven Packers seasons, became the Seahawks' executive VP of football operations/general manager and head coach five days later.

Brett Favre orchestrated four second-half scoring drives, while Mike McKenzie and Tyrone Williams collaborated on a game-turning fourth-quarter interception as Green Bay ended the 49ers' season, 25-15. The win improved Green Bay's all-time record in home postseason contests to 13-0, including 11-0 at Lambeau Field.

Before the 1970 merger expanded the playoff system, NFL teams tied atop their division were pitted in single games for the right to compete in the league championship. The Packers played two such games, losing to the Bears in 1941 and defeating the Colts in 1965.

Favre lobbied with coaches at halftime to open up the passing game, then threw for 226 of his 269 yards in the final two quarters, steering Green Bay back from a 7-6 deficit. Led by Favre, Green Bay in the second half produced points on four of its first five possessions. The quarterback engineered marches of 72, 81, 49 and 93 yards, fighting off a 49ers rally that had tied the contest, 15-15, with 12 minutes left in regulation.

McKenzie halted an ominous Niners drive halfway through the fourth quarter. The cornerback batted an underthrown pass like a volleyball into the hands of a nearby Williams at the Packers' 7. McKenzie had broken up another potential Terrell Owens score earlier in the fourth. After the pick, the Packers drove 93 yards to extend their lead on Ahman Green's 9-yard TD run.

Inspired by the return of injured starters Nate Wayne and Gilbert Brown, the Packers also held the league's No. 2 rushing offense to only 71 yards on the ground. Brown recorded his first sack since 1997 on the game's first play from scrimmage. Cletidus Hunt kept the Niners off the scoreboard early when he blocked a Jose Cortez field goal attempt in the second quarter.

ST. LOUIS 45, PACKERS 17

Jan. 20, 2002, at Dome at America's Center, St. Louis

St. Louis parlayed eight Green Bay turnovers into 35 points, and ended an outstanding Packers season, 45-17. The Packers suffered the largest margin of defeat in team postseason history.

Brett Favre, in his 16th career postseason game, matched an NFL playoff record with six interceptions. St. Louis returned three INTs for touchdowns, and four of the six picks were tipped either at the line of scrimmage or by the intended receiver. The timing of the first three interceptions combined to put the game out of reach.

Favre's initial interception, early in the first quarter, was a read miscommunication with Bill Schroeder, and Aeneas Williams raced 29 yards for the day's first points. Favre answered by marching 65 yards in five plays, getting a great effort from Antonio Freeman on a 22-yard TD pass, to tie the game, 7-7.

But with St. Louis up, 14-7, in the second period, Kim Herring picked off Favre and returned it 45 yards to the Green Bay 4. Two plays later, Kurt Warner hit James Hodgins on a 4-yard pass to extend the Rams' lead.

The third interception, in the third quarter, all but sealed the win. Tommy Polley grabbed a pass deflected by Grant Wistrom and sprinted 34 yards for a TD, creating a 31-10 St. Louis advantage.

Lost in the eight turnovers, which doubled the Packers' previous 2001 season high, was a strong effort by the Green Bay defense, which limited the league's best offense to its lowest yardage in 21 games. The Packers gave up only two big plays — a 38-yard run by Marshall

Faulk late in the first quarter and a 50-yard pass from Warner to Torrey Holt. Green Bay also held St. Louis to 13 first downs, its lowest total since the Rams began their offensive explosion in 1999.

The Packers saw a penalty nullify a 95-yard kickoff return, which would have cut the Rams' lead to 21-14 in the second quarter.

Jan. 4, 2003, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

Undaunted by the storied stadium where his own coach, Dan Reeves, lost in the "Ice Bowl" 35 years before, Michael Vick led Atlanta to a shocking upset before 65,358.

The Packers, the NFL's only 8-0 home team in 2002, had never lost a home playoff (13-0). Brett Favre was without Pro Bowl back Ahman

Green (knee) and top receivers Donald Driver (shoulder) and Terry Glenn (concussion) in a futile second-half comeback attempt.

The NFC North champion Packers, who tied for the league's best record and just one week prior had a shot at the NFC home-field advantage, began their offseason much sooner than expected.

Green Bay, without top defender and Pro Bowl safety Darren Sharper (knee), even got a snowstorm but still couldn't corral any momentum. After a Vick touchdown pass gave the Falcons a quick 7-0 lead, Mark Simoneau beat the Packers' protection and blocked Josh Bidwell's punt near Green Bay's end zone. Artie Ulmer smothered the ball for another Atlanta touchdown. Then, Kevin McCadams pushed Tyrone Williams into Green Bay returner Eric Metcalf, and George Layne recovered the muffed punt. Four plays later, T.J. Duckett's TD made it 21-0. The fervent Falcons also stopped the Packers with a goal-line stand.

Favre, who had two interceptions and a fumble, hit Driver with a 14-yard touchdown on the first drive after halftime, but Driver re-injured his dislocated shoulder on the play. It was the 13th straight playoff game in which Favre threw a touchdown pass, tying Dan Marino's NFL record.

PACKERS 33, SEATTLE 27 (OT)

2003 NFC Wild Card Playoff

Jan. 4, 2004, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

Al Harris returned an interception 52 yards for an overtime touchdown to lift the Packers past the Seattle Seahawks, 33-27.

Harris scored the first defensive touchdown to win an overtime playoff in NFL history. Once he got to the end zone, his teammates tackled him, setting off a wild celebration. Harris answered with a lap around the stadium.

Seattle had tied it with 51 seconds remaining on Shaun Alexander's third 1-yard touchdown run. Then, Packers kicker Ryan Longwell was short on a 47-yard field goal attempt as regulation time expired. Seattle won the coin toss, and quarterback Matt Hasselbeck told the official, "We want the ball, and we're going to score." The Seahawks got the ball, but punted. After Seattle got the ball back, it was Harris who scored on the game's only turnover.

Favre, as usual, thrived in the cold. He set an NFL record by throwing for a touchdown in a 14th straight playoff game and rallied the Packers to a 27-20 lead.

Early on, the Seahawks — who lost, 35-13, in Green Bay the prior October — shut down Ahman Green, who rushed for 1,883 yards in the regular season. But he came on late, particularly on short-yardage plays. After falling behind, 20-13, Green Bay covered 60 yards in 12 plays. Green converted a fourth-and-1 from the 3 before surging into the end zone to tie it with 10:01 left.

Early in overtime, replay helped the Seahawks when Alex Bannister was ruled to have fumbled. But a video review overturned the call, to cascading boos. The game was even on key calls — and in just about every other way. In the first half, Hasselbeck tried to stop his passing motion and lost the ball at the Green Bay 17. Nick Barnett retrieved it and ran for a touchdown, but Seattle head coach Mike Holmgren challenged the call and won.

Javon Walker's 44-yard reception led to Favre's playoff TD record. Favre's 23-yard laser found Bubba Franks at the goal line as defender Damien Robinson fell down. Favre, who threw for 319 yards, was tied with former Dolphins star Dan Marino for the record of 13 straight games.

Longwell's 27-yarder made it 13-6 at halftime, but Seattle tied it with a 75-yard drive to open the second half. Alexander ran in from the 1 on fourth down after left guard Steve Hutchinson caught a deflected pass on the previous play.

Favre moved into third place in career playoff completions (364) and touchdown passes (31), ahead of John Elway.

PHILADELPHIA 20, PACKERS 17 (OT)

2003 NFC Divisional Playoff

Jan. 11, 2004, at Lincoln Financial Field, Phila.

Brian Dawkins' overtime interception set up David Akers' winning field goal, but the Eagles really advanced to the NFC title game thanks to Donovan McNabb.

With the Eagles trailing, 17-14, and 1:12 left in regulation, he breathed life into his team with a 28-yard completion to Freddie Mitchell on a fourth-and-26. That, in turn, led to a 37-yard field goal by Akers that sent the game into overtime. McNabb threw for 248 yards and two TDs, and rushed for 107 yards.

Duce Staley had two big runs — one for 22 on the Eagles' first play of their final regulation drive and another of 11 yards in overtime to help set up the winning field goal. Staley's contribution was especially needed with the Eagles missing all-purpose running back Brian Westbrook, who scored 13 touchdowns in the regular season but sat out with a torn triceps muscle.

The Packers (11-7) had won seven of their last eight, including three straight since Brett Favre's father died just before Christmas. Green Bay became the second NFL team to play consecutive overtime playoff games, joining the 1987 Browns.

The Packers led, 14-7, at halftime, but the Eagles had the momentum after stopping Ahman Green on fourth down from the 1-yard line late in the second quarter.

Green Bay scored twice in the first quarter on passes of 40 and 17 yards from Favre to Robert Ferguson, the first set up by a McNabb fumble. The Eagles countered midway through the second quarter on McNabb's 7-yard TD pass to Staley. It came one play after a 45-yard completion from McNabb to Todd Pinkston. Philadelphia tied it early in the fourth quarter when McNabb scrambled out of trouble and found Pinkston just inside the right pylon from 12 yards out.

Favre's 44-yard pass to Javon Walker set up Ryan Longwell's 21-yard field goal that gave the Packers a 17-14 lead with 10:21 left in the fourth. Favre's 180 yards passing moved him ahead of Dan Marino into third place on the career playoff yardage list.

Green Bay posted eight sacks, a franchise postseason record.

MINNESOTA 31, PACKERS 17

Jan. 9, 2005, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

Randy Moss caught two touchdown passes and the Vikings rolled to a 31-17 upset victory against the stunned Packers. Green Bay had swept the season series, including a last-second victory at the Metrodome two weeks prior to clinch the NFC North crown and home field for this showdown at Lambeau Field.

Daunte Culpepper threw four touchdown passes and the Vikings picked off four Brett Favre passes.

Minnesota scored on its first three possessions, jumping out to a 17-0 lead in averaging two 34-31 losses to the Packers, who entered the playoffs as the NFC's hottest team.

The Packers lost Pro Bowl receiver Javon Walker and left tackle Chad Clifton to injuries, but pulled to 24-17 on Najeh Davenport's 1-yard plunge with 13:37 left. Then, two costly defensive penalties set up Culpepper's 34-yard touchdown toss to Moss, giving the Vikings a 14-point cushion with 10:18 remaining.

On the first series, Culpepper lofted the ball over Nick Barnett and Moe Williams broke a tackle, scampering 68 yards for a touchdown 1:40 into the game. After the Packers went three-and-out, the Vikings made it 14-0 on Moss's 20-yard TD catch. Antoine Winfield's interception on the next possession set up Morten Andersen's 35-yard field goal that made it 17-0.

The Packers pulled to 17-10 on Ryan Longwell's 43-yard field goal and Bubba Franks' 4-yard TD catch, and they caught a huge break when Andersen slipped on a 29-yard field goal attempt.

But Walker, who bruised his shin earlier in the second quarter and didn't play after halftime, changed his deep route and Brian Russell intercepted the pass, leading to a Nate Burleson score.

The Packers drove to the Vikings' 8, but Favre was whistled for an illegal forward pass when he scrambled and flung the ball to Walker in the end zone. Then, Longwell missed a 28-yarder.

Favre surpassed No. 2 Dan Marino and No. 3 John Elway on the all-time postseason completions and pass attempts lists, respectively. He also extended his NFL record with a TD pass in a 16th consecutive playoff game.

PACKERS 42, SEATTLE 20

Jan. 12, 2008, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

In near-whiteout conditions that turned Lambeau into a "Winter Wonderland," the Packers overcame an early 14-0 deficit by scoring touchdowns on six consecutive possessions and easily advanced to their first NFC Championship Game since 1997.

Running back Ryan Grant fumbled twice in the game's first 69 seconds, setting up both of the Seahawks' early scores. But Grant bounced back to rush for 201 yards and three touchdowns, both franchise playoff records, while Brett Favre was an efficient 18 of 23 for 173 yards and three TDs. Favre's 78.26 completion percentage broke his own single-game Green Bay playoff record.

The Packers had erased the early 14-point deficit by the end of the first quarter with scoring drives of 64 and 69 yards, and then took the lead for good early in the second quarter. On the period's opening play, Atari Bigby's big hit on Seattle tight end Marcus Pollard after a short reception jarred the ball loose, and Aaron Kampman recovered at the Seahawks' 18-yard line. Three plays later, Favre found Greg Jennings on a short 2-yard lob pass for the receiver's second TD of the game to make it 21-14.

The defense limited the Seahawks to just two field goals the rest of the way, and by game's end the Packers had amassed huge advantages in total yards (408-200) and time of possession (34:00 to 26:00).

Grant compiled his 201 yards in less than 3½ quarters, coming out of the game for good with 10 minutes left in the contest. He broke off four runs of 24 yards or longer on the day, including a memorable 43-yard scamper down the left sideline when the snowstorm was at its heaviest late in the third quarter.

Jan. 20, 2008, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

On a frigid Sunday evening that featured a game-time temperature of minus 1 and wind chill of minus 23, Lawrence Tynes sent the Giants to the Super Bowl with a 47-yard field goal 2 minutes, 35 seconds into overtime.

The third-coldest contest in NFL championship game history was close throughout, with the Packers overcoming an early 6-0 deficit on a 90-yard touchdown pass from Brett Favre to Donald Driver in the second quarter. It marked the longest play from scrimmage in Green Bay postseason annals.

A 20-yard reception by Driver, whose 141 receiving yards rank as the fifth most in franchise playoff history, set up a Mason Crosby field goal to give the Packers a 10-6 halftime advantage.

The two teams traded touchdowns on three consecutive possessions in the third quarter, with Ahmad Bradshaw's 4-yard scoring run putting the Giants on top, 20-17. Two plays into the fourth quarter, Favre's pass was intercepted by R.W. McQuarters near the goal line, but on the return Ryan Grant stripped the ball from McQuarters right into the hands of Mark Tauscher at the New York 19-yard line. The Packers capitalized with a game-tying field goal with 11:46 left.

The Giants had two chances to win the game in regulation, but Tynes missed field goal tries of 43 and 36 yards, the latter coming as time expired.

The Packers won the toss for overtime, but on the second play of the fifth period Favre's pass for Driver was intercepted by Corey Webster and returned to the Green Bay 34. Four plays later Tynes got a third shot at a game-winner and delivered.

2009 NFC Wild Card Playoff

Jan. 10, 2010, at Univ. of Phoenix Stadium, Glendale

In the highest-scoring postseason game in NFL history, the Packers fell to the Cardinals when quarterback Aaron Rodgers was sacked by Michael Adams and fumbled the ball into the arms of Karlos Dansby, who returned it 17 yards for the game-winning score just 1 minute, 18 seconds into overtime.

The shootout featured Green Bay playoff records of 493 total yards, 423 yards passing from Rodgers and 159 yards receiving from tight end Jermichael Finley. Rodgers also tied team post-season marks with four TD passes and 28 completions. Arizona's Kurt Warner was even better, though, going 29 of 33 for 379 yards and five TDs.

The Packers turned the ball over on two of their first three plays from scrimmage, and the Cardinals capitalized with two touchdowns. That lead was extended to 31-10 early in the third quarter before Green Bay rallied.

The Packers scored touchdowns on five consecutive second-half possessions to tie the game at 45, and the contest went to overtime when Arizona kicker Neil Rackers pulled a 34-yard field goal attempt wide left with nine seconds left in regulation.

Green Bay won the coin toss and got the ball to start the extra session, but on third-and-6 from their own 24, the Packers turned the ball over for a third and fatal time.

PACKERS 21, PHILADELPHIA 16

2010 NFC Wild Card Playoff

Jan. 9, 2011, at Lincoln Financial Field, Phi.

Trailing by five and looking at a first-and-10 from the Green Bay 27-yard line with 44 seconds remaining in the game, Eagles quarterback Michael Vick went for it all.

Fortunately for the Packers, Tramon Williams was ready.

Locked in coverage against wide receiver Riley Cooper, the cornerback turned and snatched the ball out of the air in the end zone, sealing the victory for Green Bay, and handing Aaron Rodgers the first postseason win of his career.

The Packers' quarterback connected on 18 of 27 passes for 180 yards and three touchdowns, and was aided by a newfound balance forged by the breakout performance of rookie running back James Starks.

Starks, a sixth-round pick who was beset by injuries and appeared in just three games during the regular season, set a franchise rookie postseason record with 123 yards on 23 carries, repeatedly gashing the Philadelphia defense.

The Packers' defense, led by Clay Matthews, Charles Woodson and a host of others, executed an aggressive game plan designed to contain the explosive Vick. They held him to just 33 yards rushing, and Philadelphia's 16 points were the fewest surrendered by Green Bay in a road playoff game since the 1997 NFC Championship Game, the last time the franchise won on the road in the postseason.

PACKERS 48, ATLANTA 21

2010 NFC Divisional Playoff

Jan. 15, 2011, at Georgia Dome, Atlanta

The Atlanta Falcons entered their divisional-round matchup against the Packers with the No. 1 seed in the NFC, home-field advantage throughout the playoffs, and a well-rested, veteran team set to take the field in front of more than 69,000 fans inside the Georgia Dome.

Green Bay entered with Aaron Rodgers, Tramon Williams and the momentum of having won three consecutive elimination games, and that was all the Packers would need to keep their playoff journey alive.

Just six days after clinching the Wild Card win at Philadelphia with a leaping interception in the end zone late in the fourth quarter, Williams outdid himself in Atlanta. He intercepted Pro Bowl quarterback Matt Ryan twice, the second of which was a virtual backbreaker he returned 70 yards for a touchdown as time expired in the first half. The momentum-changing play extended Green Bay's lead to 28-14 and sucked the life out of what had been a charged home crowd.

While Williams stole the show on defense, Rodgers put on one of the greatest individual performances in NFL postseason history. In a display of passing precision seldom seen on such a big stage, he completed 31 of 36 passes for 366 yards and three touchdowns through the air, also adding one on the ground. His ability to escape pressure, extend plays and deliver accurate throws downfield had the offense in rhythm from the opening gun, and had the Falcons defense searching for answers.

Throughout the game, the Packers compromised the identity Atlanta had established during their 13-3 regular season. The Falcons ranked No. 3 in the NFL in both time of possession and turnover margin during the regular season, but possessed the ball for only 21:41 and committed a total of four turnovers. They also boasted the NFC's leading rusher in standout back Michael Turner, but on this night, he was limited to just 39 yards, matching a season low.

PACKERS 21, CHICAGO 14

2010 NFC Championship

Jan. 23, 2011, at Soldier Field, Chicago

A touchdown-saving tackle by a quarterback, a pair of interceptions by an undrafted rookie, and an interception return for a touchdown by a nose tackle. An improbable script to be sure, but one that played out in the NFC Championship Game at Soldier Field.

In what appeared to be an illustration of him picking up where he had left off the previous week at Atlanta, Aaron Rodgers led a pair of early scoring drives that staked Green Bay to a 14-0 halftime lead.

On the offense's first possession of the second half, Rodgers again led the unit inside the Chicago 10-yard line en route to what would seemingly be an insurmountable three-possession advantage. On third-and-goal, however, the quarterback was uncharacteristically intercepted at the 6 by veteran linebacker Brian Urlacher, who immediately embarked on a long return with most of the offensive players in his wake. Rodgers, the last man to beat, held his angle and dove at Urlacher's legs, tripping him up at the Chicago 45. The tackle ultimately kept the Bears off the scoreboard, as Chicago was forced to punt on the ensuing possession.

The Green Bay defense was once again outstanding in the early going, forcing five punts and an interception on Chicago's six first-half possessions. Rookie cornerback Sam Shields led the way by becoming the first rookie in NFL history to record a sack and an interception in a playoff game, accomplishing the feat on successive Bears possessions to close the first half.

Bears quarterback Jay Cutler was unable to move the ball with any regularity and also suffered a knee injury just before halftime. Following the first drive of the second half, he was replaced because of the injury by backup Todd Collins. The Packers' defense quickly rendered Collins ineffective, and he was benched after two possessions in favor of seldom-used third-stringer Caleb Hanie.

To the surprise of many, Hanie led the Bears on a 67-yard scoring drive at the start of the fourth quarter, tightening Green Bay's lead to 14-7. Two possessions later, Chicago took over at its own 10 and on third-and-5, Hanie was intercepted by nose tackle B.J. Raji, who then lumbered 18 yards for an unlikely albeit memorable touchdown that pushed the score to 21-7.

Refusing to quit, Hanie and the Bears' offense responded quickly, driving 60 yards on four plays, and finishing with a 35-yard touchdown on a catch-and-run by wide receiver Earl Bennett.

After a quick three-and-out by Green Bay, the Bears used 12 plays to get the ball to the Packers' 29-yard line. On a fateful fourth-and-5, Hanie looked deep over the middle but was intercepted by Shields, his second of the game. Green Bay kneeled down to run out the clock and the celebration ensued.

The Packers were presented the Halas Trophy inside the visitors' locker room and were set to begin preparations for the franchise's first Super Bowl appearance in 13 years, Super Bowl XLV at Cowboys Stadium in Arlington, Texas.

Jan. 15, 2012, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

The Packers had almost forgotten the feeling. After winning six consecutive elimination games to close out the 2010 season as world champions and then storming through the 2011 regular season with a franchise-best 15-1 record, the concept of defeat had become somewhat unfamiliar.

Unfortunately, these Packers picked the wrong day to play their sloppiest game of what had to that point be a fantastic season. Green Bay fell victim to a series of uncharacteristic, costly turnovers and a leaky pass defense that allowed Giants quarterback Eli Manning to throw for 330 yards and three TDs, leading to the elimination of the top-seeded home team in front of a capacity crowd at Lambeau Field.

The two sides traded field goals on their opening possessions, but Manning found wide receiver Hakeem Nicks for a 66-yard touchdown later in the first quarter to put New York on top, 10-3. It wasn't the last time Nicks would haunt the Packers.

The second of the receiver's first-half touchdowns was a far more crushing blow, one that came on the final play of the second quarter when he hauled in a 37-yard Hail Mary throw from Manning amidst multiple Green Bay defenders in the end zone, giving the Giants a 20-10 halftime lead.

The turnover epidemic that had begun to baffle the Packers' offense late in the second quarter continued when quarterback Aaron Rodgers was stripped in the pocket on the opening drive of the second half, his first lost fumble of the season. The Green Bay defense stood tall in the third frame, however, keeping the Giants off the board and allowing a Mason Crosby field goal to pull the Packers to within a touchdown at 20-13 to start the fourth.

But for a team that set a franchise record with just 14 giveaways in the regular season, it was the turnovers that were the ultimate difference in the game. Running back Ryan Grant fumbled following a reception with the Packers driving near midfield, trailing just 23-13 midway through the final quarter.

The Giants would score a touchdown on the very next play, and then again four minutes later, while also recovering an onside kick attempt, thus silencing any chance of a late Green Bay comeback.

2012 NFC Wild Card Playoff

Jan. 5, 2013, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

Having split their two-game divisional series during the regular season, the border rivals squared off in a Wild Card game just six days after they'd met in a Week 17 finale at Minnesota.

It was in that game that a last-second field goal gave the Vikings the victory, earning them a playoff berth as the NFC's No. 6 seed and a trip to Lambeau Field to face the NFC North champion Packers in the opening round of the single-elimination tournament.

Members of a unit that had surrendered a total of 409 yards to All-Pro running back Adrian Peterson in the teams' two December meetings, Packers defenders vowed during the practice week that the explosive ball-carrier would not torment them again.

And they held true to that promise.

Aided by an inactive list that featured Vikings starting quarterback Christian Ponder (who was sidelined by an elbow injury), the defense kept Peterson in check throughout the game, limiting him to just 99 yards on 22 carries (4.5 avg.), his second-lowest rushing total since Week 7 of the regular season.

Offensively for the Packers, Aaron Rodgers led a balanced attack that scored 24 unanswered points after the Vikings opened the game with a field goal on their opening drive.

Fullback John Kuhn scored both rushing and receiving touchdowns to cap drives going into and coming out of halftime, extending the Green Bay lead to 24-3 with 9:25 remaining in the third quarter and making an already uphill climb for the beleaguered Minnesota offense even steeper.

Backup quarterback Joe Webb hadn't attempted a pass during the regular season and was repeatedly pressured by the Packers' attacking front. Linebacker Clay Matthews led the way with two sacks, also forcing and recovering a fumble by Webb late in the third quarter.

Matthews' fumble recovery was part of a three-turnover effort by the Packers, one that also featured an interception by cornerback Sam Shields and the recovery of a muffed punt by linebacker Dezman Moses on special teams.

Webb connected with wide receiver Michael Jenkins for a touchdown with 3:39 remaining in the fourth quarter, but finished the game 11 of 30 passing for 180 yards.

Unfortunately for the Vikings, that wasn't enough to dethrone the division champions on their home field.

Jan. 12, 2013, at Candlestick Park, San Francisco

Cornerback Sam Shields raced down the sideline with a 52-yard interception return for a touchdown on the game's opening drive, and it appeared the Packers might be recapturing their divisional playoff magic. It was just two years earlier, in the 2010 postseason, that the Packers marched into Atlanta against the higher-seeded Falcons and dismantled them on their home field, furthering their momentum en route to the Super Bowl.

But this wasn't 2010, and these were not the Atlanta Falcons.

San Francisco quarterback Colin Kaepernick lifted himself off the turf after missing a tackle on Shields, took a deep breath, and went on to deliver a statistically dominating dual-threat performance.

The second-year passer recovered from his early turnover to repeatedly gash the Packers' defense with both his arm and legs during the game. He was particularly deadly carrying the ball, both on the scrambles to escape pressure and on read-option plays the 49ers designed to take advantage of his speed and athletic ability.

By game's end, Kaepernick had carried 16 times for 181 yards (11.3 avg.), an NFL record for a quarterback in both the regular and postseasons. Following the early INT, he sharpened his precision throwing the ball and finished the game having completed 17 of 31 attempts for 263 yards and two TDs. Several of his throws went in the direction of wide receiver Michael Crabtree, who finished with nine catches for 119 yards (13.2 avg.) and a pair of second-quarter TDs that capitalized on Green Bay turnovers to help San Francisco recover from the initial deficit.

Despite the miscues, the Packers hung tough throughout the first half, answering the 49ers' offense with two 80-yard touchdown drives of their own. They pulled to within three points entering halftime, and a 31-yard field goal by kicker Mason Crosby tied the game at 24-24 with 8:25 remaining in the third quarter.

But it was at that point that the San Francisco offense went into overdrive. On the third play of the ensuing possession, Kaepernick faked a handoff to the inside and bolted off of the right edge, going untouched down the sideline for a 56-yard score.

The 49ers regained possession just two minutes later and traveled 93 yards for another touchdown, this time cashing in on a 2-yard run by Frank Gore on the opening play of the fourth quarter to extend the lead to 38-24.

All told, the 49ers' offense amassed 579 yards and the Packers were unable to ultimately overcome costly turnovers in the divisional round for the second consecutive year, leading to an early postseason exit for a team that appeared to be getting healthy and peaking at just the right time.

SAN FRANCISCO 23, PACKERS 20

Jan. 5, 2014, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

Nearly an entire calendar year had passed since San Francisco defeated Green Bay in the 2012 playoffs, yet the Packers and 49ers once again found themselves in familiar territory when January rolled around. Unlike the previous season, when the two teams met at Candlestick Park in the divisional round, the 2013 chapter of this rekindled rivalry was played in frigid temperatures at Lambeau Field.

Although the 2013 Packers faced question marks throughout the season due to an unprecedented number of injuries to key players, the team had always been able to rely on one thing – its resiliency. Only a week earlier, quarterback Aaron Rodgers returned from a broken collarbone to lead a game-winning, fourth-quarter touchdown drive against the Chicago Bears to clinch the NFC North, and the newly healthy team seemed to have adopted a never-say-die attitude that it was hoping to retain throughout the postseason.

When fullback John Kuhn plunged into the end zone from 1 yard out to give the Packers a 17-13 lead early in the fourth quarter, it appeared as if the Packers were destined to continue the resilient trend that they had displayed throughout the season.

However, the lead was short-lived, as a series of big plays on San Francisco's ensuing possession quelled the home team's momentum. Following a 37-yard kickoff return by running back LaMichael James, 49ers quarterback Colin Kaepernick triggered memories of the 2012 NFC Divisional playoff contest, dashing around left end on third-and-4 for a gain of 24 yards to the Green Bay 33. After a defensive holding penalty moved the ball to the Green Bay 28, Kaepernick found tight end Vernon Davis down the seam for the go-ahead score.

Trailing 20-17, Rodgers once again drove the Packers deep into 49ers' territory, but the drive stalled at the San Francisco 6 and the Packers were forced to settle for a Mason Crosby field goal that knotted the score at 20-20.

Needing only a field goal to send his team to the divisional round, Kaepernick took the field with just over five minutes remaining in regulation and set his sights on his third straight victory over the Packers. After completing an 11-yard strike to wide receiver Michael Crabtree, Kaepernick took a shotgun snap on second-and-10 from the San Francisco 31 and nearly committed a devastating error. Looking to his left, Kaepernick rifled a pass to receiver Anquan Boldin, who was in the midst of running a short out route to the left sideline. Rookie cornerback Micah Hyde, who had lined up as the nickel corner to cover Boldin in the slot, timed his jump perfectly and leapt in front of Kaepernick's pass, only to have the ball slip through his fingers, providing the 49ers' offense with a second chance.

That was all San Francisco needed, as Kaepernick completed a 17-yarder to Michael Crabtree on the following play and drove his team the rest of the way to set up a game-winning field goal attempt from the Packers' 15. Veteran kicker Phil Dawson drilled the kick as time expired and the Packers' season ended earlier than the Lambeau faithful had hoped.

Jan. 11, 2015, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

Green Bay earned a bye in the postseason after winning their fourth consecutive NFC North title with a 12-4 record. The Packers finished 8-0 at home during the regular season for the 13th time in franchise history and the second time under Head Coach Mike McCarthy.

The Packers welcomed the longtime NFC rival Dallas Cowboys, who also finished an NFL-best 12-4, to Lambeau Field for the first time in the postseason since the 1967 NFL Championship Game, most commonly known as the "Ice Bowl."

Both teams entered the game after home victories over the Detroit Lions, Green Bay in Week 17 to win the division and Dallas in the Wild Card round. Each team also had a quarterback who overcame injuries during the season and finished in the top two in the NFL in passer rating.

The Packers and Cowboys exchanged touchdowns in the first quarter. Green Bay started it off with a 10-play, 60-yard drive that ended with Aaron Rodgers moving around the pocket on his injured calf to find Andrew Quarless for a score from 4 yards out. Dallas responded on the following drive, going 62 yards in 12 plays as Tony Romo connected with FB Tyler Clutts for a 1-yard touchdown.

On the next drive, Jeremy Mincey recovered a Rodgers fumble at the Dallas 36-yard line and three plays later Romo found Terrance Williams on a 38-yard touchdown pass to go up, 14-7. After a Packers punt, the Cowboys drove to the Green Bay 27-yard line where they faced a third-and-1. A botched shotgun snap caused Romo to take a 5-yard loss and forced Dallas to attempt a 50-yard field goal that was blocked by Datone Jones and gave the Packers the ball at their own 40-yard line with 29 seconds left in the half. Rodgers completed three passes in four plays to travel 38 yards and set up a 40-yard field goal attempt. Mason Crosby converted it as time expired, cutting Dallas' lead to 14-10 at halftime.

After Green Bay stalled on the opening drive of the second half, the Packers defense came up big. Julius Peppers leaped to force a DeMarco Murray fumble that Jones recovered at the Cowboys' 44-yard line. Fueled by a 29-yard run by Eddie Lacy, the Packers reached the Dallas 12-yard line before settling for a 30-yard field goal to pull within one point. On the ensuing drive, the Cowboys used a mix of pass and run plays to drive 80 yards in six plays, with Murray finishing it off with a 1-yard touchdown run to take a 21-13 lead. Rodgers led the Packers right back down the field, completing four passes, including a 26-yarder to Randall Cobb and a 46-yard touchdown to Davante Adams on third-and-15 to get back within one point.

The Green Bay defense finished the third quarter with a Nick Perry sack of Romo, and then on the first play of the fourth quarter, Perry teamed with Mike Daniels to sack Romo to force a third-and-23 that Dallas did not convert. After a punt, Rodgers stayed hot, driving the Packers 80 yards with seven completed passes that included finding Richard Rodgers for a 13-yard score. After a failed two-point attempt, Green Bay was up, 26-21, with 9:10 left in the fourth quarter.

Following the kickoff, Murray recorded a 30-yard run to the Dallas 48-yard line. The Cowboys continued to the Packers' 32-yard line, where they faced a fourth-and-2 with just under five minutes to play. Romo launched a pass down the left sideline, where Sam Shields was covering Dez Bryant, who leaped to grab the ball on a play that was initially ruled a catch at the 1-yard line. After the Packers challenged, it was ruled incomplete since Bryant did not maintain possession through the ground. Green Bay ran off the remaining 4:06 by converting two third downs with a 26-yard completion to Adams and a 12-yard diving catch by Cobb.

SEATTLE 28, PACKERS 22 (OT)

Jan. 18, 2015, at CenturyLink Field, Seattle

Green Bay made its second trip of the season to Seattle after opening at the defending Super Bowl champions in Week 1. It marked the Packers' third NFC Championship game appearance in the past eight years (2007 and 2010).

The Packers opened the game by driving all the way down to the Seahawks' 29-yard line, but the drive stalled, and on third down Richard Sherman intercepted Aaron Rodgers in the end zone. Green Bay's defense would pick their MVP quarterback up by forcing a turnover three plays later when Ha Ha Clinton-Dix intercepted Russell Wilson, giving the offense the ball back at the Seattle 19-yard line. It took the Packers just two plays to go 18 yards, but runs by John Kuhn and Eddie Lacy were stuffed and Mason Crosby connected from 18 yards out to give Green Bay a 3-0 lead. On the ensuing kickoff, Brad Jones forced and Morgan Burnett recovered a fumble by Doug Baldwin at the Seahawks' 23-yard line, but the Packers would once again have to settle for a field goal to take a 6-0 lead after making it down to the 1-yard line.

After a three-and-out by Seattle, the Packers would take over at their own 44-yard line, and a mix of pass and run fueled a seven-play, 56-yard drive that was capped with a Rodgers-to-Randall Cobb 13-yard touchdown. Up 13-0 entering the second quarter, Green Bay's defense again did not let Seattle gain a first down and Micah Hyde returned a Jon Ryan punt 29 yards to the Seattle 33-yard line. It was the third and final time in the game that the Packers would start a drive inside Seattle territory, and just like the previous two, Green Bay would settle for a field goal, this time from 40 yards to take a 16-0 lead with just under 10 minutes to play in the second quarter. The teams combined for three turnovers on the next three drives: an interception by Clinton-Dix that gave Green Bay the ball at their own 32-yard line, an interception by Byron Maxwell that was returned five yards to the Seattle 31-yard line, and an interception by Sam Shields in the end zone. Clinton-Dix became just the third rookie (Joe Laws, Shields) and sixth player in team history to record two interceptions in a postseason game, while Shields registered his fifth career postseason interception, the most in franchise history.

The second half opened with three-and-outs by both teams before Seattle would get on the board for the first time. After driving to the Packers' 19-yard line in 10 plays, the Seahawks faced a fourth-and-10. Seattle punter/holder Ryan took the snap and rolled to his left, where he lofted a pass to Gary Gilliam for a 19-yard touchdown, cutting Green Bay's lead to nine points.

Both teams stalled on drives late in the third quarter and the fourth started with a 32-yard run by James Starks to the Seattle 43-yard line. The Seahawks defense again stood up in their own territory and forced the Packers to settle for a 48-yard field goal to go up, 19-7. Green Bay's defense responded by forcing Seattle to punt from the 50-yard line with seven minutes to play. After a three-and-out, Green Bay punted and the Seahawks took over on their own 46-yard line. On the next play, Burnett intercepted Wilson, returning it 4 yards to the Packers' 43-yard line. Three runs by Lacy did not earn a first down and a 30-yard punt by Tim Masthay left Seattle with the ball at their own 31-yard line with 3:52 to play. The Seahawks used a total of 12 offensive plays and one recovered onside kick to tally 15 points and take a 22-19 lead with 1:25 left in the fourth quarter. Rodgers completed three passes and scrambled for 12 yards to set up Crosby for a 48-yard field goal to tie the game at 22 with 11 seconds left.

Seattle took the loss in overtime and Wilson found Jermaine Kearse for an over-the-shoulder 35-yard touchdown on their opening drive to win by six.

PACKERS 35, WASHINGTON 18

2015 NFC Wild Card Playoff

Jan. 10, 2016, at FedExField, Landover

Green Bay made the postseason for the 31st time in franchise history and set a record by making its seventh consecutive appearance (2009-15). The Packers traveled to face Washington, which had won its final four regular-season games on the way to an NFC East title. It was the second consecutive year

Green Bay faced the winner of the NFC East division, having defeated the Dallas Cowboys, 26-21, at Lambeau Field in the Wild Card round of the 2014 playoffs.

The game did not start out well for the Packers as they punted on their first drive, saw Aaron Rodgers sacked for a safety by Preston Smith on the second drive and punted on their final two drives of the first quarter. After the safety, Washington started at its own 45-yard line and drove down to have first-and-goal on the Green Bay 1-yard line after a DeSean Jackson touchdown was overturned on replay. The Packers defense stuffed Alfred Morris on first down and tackled him for a loss of a yard on second down. After a delay-of-game penalty on third down, Kirk Cousins threw an incomplete pass on third-and-7, forcing a Dustin Hopkins 25-yard field goal to put Washington up, 5-0.

Washington finished the first quarter and started the second quarter on a seven-play, 64-yard drive that was fueled by two 20-plus-yard receptions by Jordan Reed, including a 24-yard touchdown. After a Hopkins extra point hit the right upright, Washington led, 11-0. Green Bay's offense came alive in the second quarter, scoring on all three drives, including touchdown drives of 75 and 60 yards. A 43-yard Mason Crosby field goal after Mike Neal forced and recovered a fumble on a sack of Cousins at the Green Bay 39-yard line came between a 12-yard Rodgers touchdown pass to Randall Cobb and a 10-yard touchdown connection from Rodgers to Davante Adams, giving Green Bay a 17-11 lead at halftime.

Washington responded on the opening drive of the second half, traveling 73 yards in nine plays with Cousins running in from 3 yards for a touchdown to take an 18-17 lead. The Packers marched back down the field on the ensuing drive. After Green Bay threw the ball on five of the first six plays, it ran the ball on the final five plays, with Eddie Lacy recording a 30-yard run to the Washington 4-yard line and James Starks taking it into the end zone on the next play to go up by six points. The Packers forced a three-and-out on the Redskins' next possession and started a drive that carried over into the fourth quarter. It saw Green Bay mix run and pass to travel 76 yards in 10 plays with Lacy punching it in from 2 yards out and Rodgers finding Jared Abbrederis for the two-point conversion to take a 32-18 lead.

The Packers would hold Washington scoreless on their final four drives, turning them over on downs on all four, in part due to Green Bay recording four of the six sacks it had in the game over that span. The Packers' six sacks tied for the second most in a postseason game in franchise history (since 1963). Neal (2.0) and Nick Perry (2.5) led the pass rush against Washington and became the first duo in team playoff history to both record two-plus sacks in a postseason game.

Crosby would be responsible for the final score of the game, a 29-yard field goal that made it 35-18 with just under five minutes to play. Green Bay's offense was led by the running game as Lacy (63 yards and a touchdown) and Starks (53 yards and a touchdown) became the first Green Bay duo to both record 50-plus rushing yards and a rushing touchdown in a playoff game in franchise history.

Jan. 16, 2016, at University of Phoenix Stadium, Glendale

Nearly three weeks after losing at Arizona, 38-8, Green Bay returned to face the Cardinals in the divisional round. It was the first post-season meeting since Arizona got the better of the Packers in a 51-45 overtime thriller at University of Phoenix Stadium in a 2009 Wild Card playoff.

For the second straight week, the Packers found themselves down early after their first two drives were three-and-outs that resulted in punts. Green Bay's defense forced the Cardinals to a three-and-out and a punt on the opening drive of the game, but Arizona found success on its second drive, marching 42 yards in 11 plays with Carson Palmer connecting with Michael Floyd from 8 yards out to take a 7-0 lead.

The Packers' last drive of the first quarter carried over into the second quarter and after 17 plays and 85 yards traveled, Mason Crosby hit a 28-yard field goal to put within four. The drive proved to be costly as the Packers lost Randall Cobb for the game due to a chest injury he suffered on a diving 51-yard catch that would be nullified due to offsetting penalties. Green Bay would stop Arizona near midfield on the ensuing drive and after a punt, take over at its own 13-yard line. The Packers embarked on another 17-play drive, going 71 yards and once again getting a Crosby field goal, this time from 34 yards out. The Packers' two long drives gave them an 17:26 to 12:34 advantage in time of possession after two quarters, but they trailed, 7-6.

The second half began with each team turning the ball over. Aaron Rodgers was intercepted by Rashad Johnson at the Green Bay 48-yard line, and three plays later, Palmer was picked off by Ha Ha Clinton-Dix at the Green Bay 19-yard line. On the ensuing drive, Eddie Lacy recorded a 61-yard run to the Arizona 8-yard line, the second longest in franchise postseason history behind only James Lofton's 71-yard TD run at Dallas on Jan. 16, 1983. Green Bay would cash in two plays later when Rodgers found Jeff Janis for an 8-yard touchdown to put Green Bay up, 13-7. Arizona responded with a 10-play, 74-yard drive that ended with a Chandler Catanzaro 28-yard field goal to pull the Cardinals within three points.

After Green Bay failed to make a first down on its next drive, Arizona drove down to the 10-yard line, and on the second play of the fourth quarter, Damarious Randall intercepted Palmer in the end zone. After the Packers' ensuing drive stalled at their own 43-yard line, the Cardinals took over at their own 20-yard line following a Tim Masthay punt. Arizona used a mix of pass and run in a 14-play, 80-yard drive that was capped off with a touchdown when a Palmer pass that was intended for Larry Fitzgerald was deflected to Floyd in the end zone, putting Arizona up, 17-13, with 3:44 to play in the game. Green Bay failed to record a first down on four plays, giving the ball back to Arizona on the Packers' 25-yard line with just 2:38 remaining. Following two runs and an incomplete pass, Catanzaro recorded a 36-yard FG to put Arizona up by seven.

With 1:55 left in the game, Green Bay took over at its own 14-yard line. The first three plays of the drive involved two incompletions and a Dwight Freeney sack, leaving the Packers with a fourth-and-20 from their own 4-yard line. With 55 seconds left on the clock, Rodgers found Janis for a 60-yard completion to the Arizona 36-yard line. An illegal-motion penalty and incomplete pass left Green Bay 41 yards away from the end zone with five seconds remaining. On the final play of regulation, Rodgers launched a pass that Janis would leap to catch in the end zone, combining with a Crosby extra point to send the game into overtime.

Arizona won the coin toss, chose to receive, and used two passes from Palmer to Fitzgerald, 75 yards on the first play and 5 yards on the third play of the drive, to score a touchdown and win the game, 26-20.

2016 NFC Wild Card Playoff

Jan. 8, 2017, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

The Green Bay Packers earned a home postseason game by capturing their fifth division title in the last six seasons and set a franchise record with their eighth consecutive playoff berth.

The Wild Card round brought a rematch with a New York Giants team that Green Bay beat, 23-16, at Lambeau Field in Week 5.

As in the first meeting, the Giants' first two scores were field goals while the Packers' were touchdowns, resulting in a 14-6 advantage for Green Bay entering halftime. It would have been a one-point margin at the half, but Aaron Rodgers found Randall Cobb on a Hail Mary that covered 42 yards to end the second quarter.

The second half began with both teams punting and then the Packers being stopped on third and fourth down from their own 42-yard line when they failed to pick up a yard.

A couple plays later, New York brought the game to 14-13 with a big play of its own, a 41-yard touchdown pass from Eli Manning to Tavarres King.

Green Bay responded on the following drive with Rodgers completing a 13-yard pass to Jared Cook, a 20-yard pass to Davante Adams and a 30-yard touchdown to Cobb. The four-play drive traveled 63 yards in 2:23 to put the Packers up by eight points late in the third quarter.

Green Bay's defense responded by forcing a three-and-out, and Micah Hyde returned the ensuing punt 23 yards to the New York 37-yard line. The good field position led to a Mason Crosby field goal from 32 yards and put the Packers up, 24-13, entering the fourth quarter.

The Packers offense helped put the game out of reach, scoring touchdowns on its first two drives of the fourth quarter to make it 38-13.

Green Bay's defense did not give up a point in the fourth quarter while forcing a punt and two turnovers: a forced and recovered fumble by Clay Matthews on a sack of Manning and an interception by Damarious Randall that he returned 78 yards in the final minute of the game.

PACKERS 34, DALLAS 31

Jan. 15, 2017, at AT&T Stadium, Arlington

The Packers faced the Cowboys in the divisional round for the second time in three years, previously beating Dallas, 26-21, at Lambeau Field in the 2014 postseason.

It was Green Bay's first postseason game at Dallas since the 1995 NFC Championship Game, a 38-27 Cowboys victory.

For the second week in a row, the Packers faced a team they played during the regular season. In Week 6, Dallas beat Green Bay, 30-16, at Lambeau Field. The Cowboys got off to a fast start in that matchup, taking a 17-6 lead into the half. In the divisional contest, the Packers got off to a hot start, scoring touchdowns on their first three possessions to go up, 21-3, midway through the second quarter.

Green Bay's last two drives of the first half resulted in punts, while Dallas used a touchdown and a field goal on its final two drives to pull within eight points at halftime.

The Packers answered on the opening drive in the third quarter, going 75 yards in six plays as Aaron Rodgers finished the drive with a 26-yard pass to Jared Cook and then a 3-yard pass to Cook for a touchdown.

On the ensuing drive, the Cowboys marched down to the Green Bay 19-yard line, but on second-and-1, Micah Hyde jumped a short pass for Cole Beasley, intercepting Dak Prescott and running 18 yards to the 39-yard line.

Dallas returned the favor on the next drive, as Jeff Heath intercepted a deep pass from Rodgers on the Cowboys' 14-yard line and returned it 27 yards to the Dallas 41. The Cowboys' following drive would lead into the fourth quarter and result in a 6-yard touchdown pass from Prescott to Jason Witten to pull Dallas to within eight points.

The Cowboys defense forced a three-and-out on the next drive. After going 59 yards in 10 plays on its previous drive, Dallas marched 80 yards in 11 plays, with Prescott finding Dez Bryant for a 7-yard touchdown and then Prescott running in the two-point conversion to tie the game at 28 with just over four minutes to play.

The teams would go back and forth over the final few minutes. First, Green Bay drove 37 yards in 10 plays and Mason Crosby connected from 56 yards to put the Packers up three with just over a minute and a half on the clock.

Prescott then led Dallas 42 yards in six plays and Dan Bailey tied the game with a 52-yard field goal with 35 seconds left.

With 12 seconds on the clock, Green Bay faced a third-and-20 from its own 32-yard line. Rodgers bought some time, rolled to his left and found Cook, who tiptoed on the sideline to complete a 35-yard play that gave the Packers the ball at the Dallas 32-yard line with three seconds on the clock. Crosby connected from 51 yards as time expired to give the Packers a 34-31 victory.

ATLANTA 44, PACKERS 21

Jan. 22, 2017, at Georgia Dome, Atlanta

The Packers played in their seventh NFC title contest since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger. It was Green Bay's fourth NFC Championship Game appearance in the previous 10 seasons (2007-16), the most in the NFC over that span.

It was the Packers' second trip to Atlanta on the season, having lost, 33-32, back in Week 8.

Unlike the previous two games where Green Bay defeated a team they faced in the regular season, the Packers would come up short.

The Falcons took control of the game right away, scoring three touchdowns and a field goal on five first-half possessions. Green Bay had success moving the football on its first two possessions, but missed a 41-yard field goal and lost a fumble that was recovered by Atlanta in the end zone for a touchback.

A punt and an interception on the next two drives left the Packers trailing, 24-0, at halftime.

A 73-yard touchdown on a short pass from Matt Ryan to Julio Jones on the Falcons' first possession of the second half brought the lead to 31-0. The teams exchanged a couple of touchdowns on the way to a 44-21 Atlanta victory.

PACKERS 28, SEATTLE 23

Jan. 12, 2020, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

The Green Bay Packers captured the team's first division title since 2016 with a 13-3 regular-season record that also secured them a bye and the No. 2 seed in the NFC. Head Coach Matt LaFleur was the first coach in franchise history to lead his team to the postseason in his first season.

The Packers welcomed a familiar foe to Lambeau Field for the divisional round, facing the Seattle Seahawks for the sixth consecutive season (2014-19) in either the regular and/or postseason.

Green Bay came out strong with a 23-yard run from Aaron Jones on the first offensive play. In all, the Packers drove 75 yards in eight plays with Aaron Rodgers finding Davante Adams for a 20-yard score to take a 7-0 lead.

The next two possessions for each team resulted in punts and then the Seahawks put together a six-play, 32-yard drive to set up a 45-yard field goal from Jason Myers to cut the lead to four points in the final minute of the first quarter.

Green Bay answered with two 1-yard rushing TDs from Jones on its next two drives to go up, 21-3.

First, the Packers went 75 yards in nine plays on a drive that was kick-started with Rodgers completing three consecutive passes, 18- and 15-yards to Adams and an 8-yarder to Marquez Valdes-Scantling that brought Green Bay from its own 36-yard line to the Seattle 23-yard line. After an illegal block above the waist by Elgton Jenkins sent the Packers back 10 yards, Green Bay used four runs from Jones, as well as two Seattle penalties, to get seven more points.

After a 50-yard field goal attempt from Myers went wide right, the Packers took over on their own 40-yard line. Late-season pickup Tyler Ervin ran 18 yards on Green Bay's first play of a drive that used seven run plays and three pass plays to go 60 yards and put the Packers up 18 heading into halftime.

Both teams would trade scores on the first three possessions of the second half. First, Seattle used 10 plays to go 69 yards and Marshawn Lynch found the end zone from a yard out to cut the Packers' lead to 11 points.

Facing a third-and-six on the ensuing drive, Rodgers connected with Jimmy Graham for 27 yards, and then two plays later Rodgers found Adams for a 40-yard TD and Green Bay was up, 28-10. Adams' two TD receptions gave him six for his career in the postseason as he moved into a tie for No. 12 in team playoff history (WR Greg Jennings) behind only WR Antonio Freeman (10).

The Seahawks would answer with another long drive, going 84 yards in 12 plays with Russell Wilson finding Tyler Lockett for a 7-yard TD and the Green Bay lead was again cut to 11 points.

After a three-and-out by the Packers that went into the fourth quarter, Seattle marched 79 yards in nine plays and Lynch scored again from a yard out to make it 28-23 with just under 10 minutes to play.

Green Bay did not score on its next possession, but did use up almost five minutes of clock before punting to Seattle. The Seahawks had the ball with just under five minutes to play, but couldn't get a drive going and punted after five plays.

The Packers had the ball with a five-point lead and 2:32 left in the game. On third-and-8, Rodgers found Adams for a 32-yard gain. Green Bay faced another long third down, this time needing 9 yards, and Rodgers connected with Graham for a first down and the Packers would go on to run the clock out and win, 28-23.

Adams set a single-game franchise playoff record with 160 receiving yards on eight catches (20.0 avg.) and also became the first player in team history to register 150-plus receiving yards and two-plus TD catches in a postseason game.

SAN FRANCISCO 37, PACKERS 20

2019 NFC Championship

Jan. 19, 2020, at Levi's Stadium, Santa Clara

The Packers played in their sixth conference championship on the road since 1970, tied for the third most in the NFL from 1970-2019 (Dallas Cowboys, nine / New England Patriots, seven). LaFleur became the first head coach to reach a conference championship in his first season since Jim Harbaugh led San Francisco to the NFC Championship Game in 2011.

This was just the second time the Packers had been a part of a postseason game featuring two teams that both won 13-plus regular-season games. The other instance was at the 49ers in the 1997 NFC Championship Game when both teams posted 13-3 regular-season records.

Green Bay traveled to play San Francisco for the second time, having previously lost a late-November game, 37-8. Once again the 49ers jumped out to an early lead. After the Packers forced San Francisco to punt on its first possession, the 49ers would score on their final five possessions of the first half (three TDs and two field goals) to hold a 27-0 lead halfway through the game. The first-half surge by San Francisco was fueled by a rushing attack that racked up 185 yards and three TDs on 22 carries (8.4 avg.).

The Packers tried to claw their way back in the second half, scoring TDs on their first three possessions. First, Aaron Rodgers found Aaron Jones from 9 yards out to cap off an 11-play, 75-yard drive, then Jones punched it in from the 1-yard line to finish a 10-play, 75-yard drive and on the third possession, Rodgers connected with Jace Sternberger on an 8-yard strike.

The 49ers had scored on their first possession of the second half, so they had a 34-20 lead and the ball with 8:10 left in the fourth quarter. San Francisco would go 49 yards in 10 plays while using just under five minutes of clock to get three more points as Robbie Gould connected from 42 yards out.

Green Bay's next possession resulted in an interception and the 49ers would run out the clock in their 37-20 win.

Jan. 16, 2021, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

The Green Bay Packers won back-to-back division titles with a 13-3 regular-season record that also secured them a bye and the No. 1 seed in the NFC. Head Coach Matt LaFleur was just the second NFL head coach since the league went to a divisional format in 1967 to win 13-plus games and a division title in both of his first two seasons, joining George Seifert of the 49ers (1989-90).

Green Bay opened the divisional game by forcing a Rams three-and-out and a punt. The Packers marched 63 yards in 12 plays to set up a Mason Crosby 24-yard field goal.

The Rams responded with an eight-play, 62-yard drive that was highlighted by Jared Goff completing passes of 28 yards to Josh Reynolds and 19 yards to Robert Woods on back-to-back plays. The drive stalled when Preston Smith stopped Cam Akers for a 1-yard gain on third-and-2, resulting in Matt Gay connecting on a 37-yard field goal to tie the game.

The Packers answered, scoring touchdowns on each of their next four drives. Green Bay first went 84 yards in 14 plays, finishing with Aaron Rodgers finding Davante Adams for a 1-yard score. The TD grab gave Adams seven for his career and the No. 2 spot in team history for playoff receiving TDs (Antonio Freeman, 10).

The Packers defense, led by a 7-yard sack by Za'Darius Smith on second down, forced a punt after three plays on the next possession. An unsportsmanlike-conduct penalty on the punt on Nsimba Webster gave Green Bay the ball at the Rams' 47-yard line. It took the Packers nine plays to travel the rest of the way as Rodgers ran it in from a yard out. A bad snap on the extra point resulted in no kick and a failed attempt, leaving Green Bay with a 16-3 lead.

The Rams' next drive included a couple of nice runs by Akers (10 and 13 yards) and a 21-yard pass from Goff to Reynolds, as they went 75 yards in nine plays with Van Jefferson hauling in a short pass for a 4-yard TD to pull within six points with 29 seconds left in the first half.

After a touchback, Rodgers completed a 21-yard pass to Adams and a 33-yard pass to Robert Tonyan to go from their own 25-yard line to the Rams' 21-yard line. After two incompletions, Crosby was good from 39 yards out and it was 19-10 at the half.

The Packers opened the second half with the ball and for the sixth consecutive drive would finish with points. After a touchback, Aaron Jones went 60 yards to the Rams' 15-yard line. Four plays later, Jones finished the drive that had runs on five of six plays with a 1-yard TD run. A failed two-point conversion attempt left Green Bay up, 25-10.

After punts by both teams on their next possessions, the Rams drew within seven points by driving 79 yards in 11 plays with Akers finishing it off by finding the end zone from 7 yards away on a direct snap. Los Angeles tacked on a hook-and-lateral two-point conversion that saw Goff pass to Jefferson, who tossed it to Akers.

Green Bay got to the Rams' 47-yard line on the next drive, but was forced to punt. After a JK Scott punt pinned the Rams at their own 6-yard line, the Rams gained a first down, but a Kenny Clark sack of Goff led to a third-and-16 that the Rams did not convert, forcing a punt early in the fourth quarter. On the next possession, Rodgers found Allen Lazard for a 58-yard TD to put the Packers up, 32-18, with under seven minutes to play.

The Rams' next drive started at their own 41-yard line after a 38-yard kickoff return from Webster. But it wouldn't go much further as Rashan Gary sacked Goff for a loss of 4 yards to give Green Bay the ball with just under five minutes to play. It would turn out to be the final drive of the game for the Rams as the Packers, using a mix of run and pass, ran the clock out.

Jan. 24, 2021, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

The Packers played in their ninth NFC title contest since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger and their fourth since 2014 (2014, 2016, 2019), the most in the NFC over that span. It marked the first time since 1995-97 that Green Bay appeared in consecutive NFC title games. It was the third time (1996 and 2007) that Lambeau Field hosted the NFC Championship Game.

On the first drive of the game, Tampa Bay traveled 66 yards in nine plays and converted three third downs, including a 15-yard touchdown pass from Tom Brady to Mike Evans, to take a 7-0 lead.

After the teams exchanged punts, the Packers would tie it up early in the second quarter as Green Bay drove 90 yards in seven plays using a couple of big passes. Aaron Rodgers connected with Allen Lazard for 23 yards and a few plays later found Marquez Valdes-Scantling for a 50-yard TD.

The Buccaneers responded quickly and needed just four plays to cover 73 yards and take a 14-7 lead. On back-to-back snaps, Brady found Chris Godwin for a 52-yard gain and then Leonard Fournette finished the drive with a 20-yard TD run.

On the following possession, the Packers ate up over seven minutes of clock, going 69 yards in 15 plays and adding three points via a Mason Crosby 24-yard field goal.

Tampa Bay was forced to punt, and then on the fourth play of the Packers' next drive, Sean Murphy-Bunting picked off a Rodgers pass to give the Buccaneers the ball on their own 49-yard line with 28 seconds left in the first half. With eight seconds remaining, Brady found a streaking Scotty Miller for a 39-yard TD and Tampa Bay carried a 21-10 lead into the half.

On the first possession of the second half, Jordan Whitehead put a hit on Jones that would end his day and force a fumble that was recovered by Devin White, who returned it 21 yards to the GB 8-yard line. On the next play, Brady connected with Cameron Brate for an 8-yard score and the Buccaneers went up, 28-10.

The Packers would rally to get back in the game. First, Green Bay took eight plays to go 75 yards on a drive that included a 24-yard pass to Valdes-Scantling, a 16-yard pass to Lazard and a TD pass to Robert Tonyan from 8 yards out.

Green Bay's defense responded as Adrian Amos intercepted Brady on the next drive, giving the Packers the ball at their own 32-yard line. The Packers would use the running of Jamaal Williams and rookie AJ Dillon as well as the pass to march down the field, and on the 13th play of the drive, Rodgers and Davante Adams connected for a 2-yard TD. But the two-point conversion failed and the Packers trailed, 28-23, in the final seconds of the third quarter.

Jaire Alexander intercepted Brady on each of the next two possessions, giving the ball to Green Bay at their own 19-yard line and their own 24-yard line, but each ensuing drive was a three-and-out for the Packers and resulted in a punt.

With just over eight minutes to play in the game, the Buccaneers put together an eight-play drive that was capped off by a 46-yard field goal by Ryan Succop to take an eight-point lead with just under five minutes to play.

On the next drive, Green Bay vaulted into Tampa Bay territory with a 29-yard pass to Valdes-Scantling and got down to the 8-yard line before three straight incompletions led to a Crosby field goal from 26 yards out to pull the Packers to within five with 2:09 to play.

The Buccaneers faced a third-and-4 with 1:46 on the clock and a Brady pass sailed incomplete, but defensive pass interference was called on Kevin King to give Tampa Bay a first down. From there, the Buccaneers would move the sticks once more to end it.

SAN FRANCISCO 13, PACKERS 10

Jan. 22, 2022, at Lambeau Field, Green Bay

The Green Bay Packers won their third consecutive division title with a 13-4 regular-season record that also secured them a bye and the No. 1 seed in the NFC for the second straight year. Matt LaFleur became the first NFL head coach to win 13-plus games in three straight seasons.

Green Bay faced San Francisco for the second time, having previously won a late-September road game, 30-28, on a Mason Crosby field goal as time expired. That contest was played in Santa Clara, Calif., with a kickoff temperature of 69 degrees while the kickoff temperature at Lambeau for this playoff contest was 14 degrees with a wind chill of zero.

The Packers started strong, going 69 yards on 10 plays on the opening drive with a mix of run and pass. AJ Dillon finished the drive with a 6-yard run up the middle for a touchdown and Green Bay was up, 7-0.

After forcing a three-and-out on the 49ers' first offensive possession, the Packers used four plays to get to the SF 42-yard line before Fred Warner forced Marcedes Lewis to fumble and it was recovered by Dre Greenlaw. On the second play of the next possession, Rasul Douglas forced a fumble on Brandon Aiyuk that was recovered and returned 21 yards to the 49ers' 40-yard line by Krys Barnes, but the replay official overturned the call on the field, calling the pass incomplete.

Both teams ended the next few drives with punts and then late in the second quarter the 49ers drove down to the Packers' 21, where Adrian Amos intercepted Jimmy Garoppolo at the 4-yard line with just over a minute left in the first half. Aaron Rodgers connected with Aaron Jones for a 75-yard completion to the San Francisco 14 with 26 seconds left. A couple plays later, San Francisco blocked a 39-yard field goal by Crosby to end the half.

The 49ers opened the third quarter with a 45-yard kickoff return to midfield by Deebo Samuel. San Francisco went 39 yards in 10 plays and Robbie Gould connected from 29 yards out to cut the Packers' lead to four points.

After a three-and-out drive by each team, Green Bay finished the third quarter and started the fourth quarter with a 14-play, 57-yard drive that set up a Crosby field goal from 33 yards out to put the Packers up, 10-3.

San Francisco looked to answer, taking eight plays to make it down to the Green Bay 19 with just over six minutes to play, but on fourth-and-1, Elijah Mitchell was dropped for a loss of a yard by Rashan Gary and De'Vondre Campbell. The 49ers defense only allowed the Packers to gain 2 yards on three plays on the ensuing drive, and with just under five minutes to play, Jordan Willis broke through and blocked a Corey Bojorquez punt high in the air. Talanoa Hufanga picked up the loose ball and returned it 6 yards for a touchdown.

With the game tied at 10, the Packers went backwards on their next drive, resulting in a 57-yard Bojorquez punt. The 49ers started the ensuing drive at the Green Bay 39-yard line with 3:20 on the clock. Through a mix of run and pass, San Francisco traveled 44 yards in nine plays and Gould connected from 45 yards out to win the game as time expired.

PACKERS IN THE PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

The Green Bay Packers have 28 individuals in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. The Packers' total is second only to that of the Chicago Bears, who have 30 enshrinees. The Pittsburgh Steelers (26), Dallas Cowboys (22) and Washington Commanders (22) are next, followed by the New York Giants (21).

Four of the Packers' inductees were charter members of the Hall in 1963.

In addition, five other players who played briefly for Green Bay – defensive end Len Ford, linebacker Ted Hendricks, guard/coach Walt Kiesling, kicker Jan Stenerud and safety Emlen Tunnell – have their busts displayed in the Hall of Fame. Biographies of the Packers' 28 HOF inductees follow:

1963 — EARL L. "CURLY" LAMBEAU

Founder, Coach (1919-49)

Co-founded the Packers in 1919 and served as the team's head coach through the 1949 season. Won six NFL championships, tying him with George Halas and Bill Belichick for the most ever. He also was the first NFL head coach to make the forward pass an integral part of his team's offense. One of only seven coaches in NFL history to win more than 200 regular-season games (Don Shula, Halas, Tom Landry, Marty Schottenheimer, Belichick, Andy Reid). In addition to his 29 NFL seasons as Packers head coach, he also coached the Chicago Cardinals (1950-51) and Washington Redskins (1952-53). His overall regular-season record was 226-132-22 (.631). Also played halfback for the Packers from 1919 through 1929 in a Notre Dame Box offense and was one of the NFL's most prolific passers in the pre-stats era of the 1920s. Named to the NFL All-Decade Team for the 1920s. Given name was Earl Louis Lambeau. Born April 9, 1898, in Green Bay. Died June 1, 1965, at age 67. Lambeau Field named in his honor on Sept. 11, 1965.

1963 — ROBERT "CAL" HUBBARD

Tackle (1929-33, 1935)

Purchased from the New York Giants prior to the 1929 season, he played an integral role in the Packers winning a record three straight NFL championships from 1929-31. Stood 6 feet, 2 inches tall, weighed 253 pounds and was considered a behemoth in his day. Played both offense and defense in pro football's Iron Man Era and stood out on both sides of the ball. Was an official NFL All-Pro choice in each of the first three years (1931, '32, '33) such selections were made. Selected to the NFL's 50th Anniversary Team in 1969 and 75th Anniversary All-Time Team in 1994. Played for the Giants (1927-28, 1936) and Pittsburgh Pirates (1936). Only inductee in both the pro football and baseball halls of fame. Elected to baseball's hall in 1976 as an umpire. Given name was Robert Calvin Hubbard. Born Oct. 31, 1900, in Keytesville, Mo. Died Oct. 17, 1977, at age 76.

1963 — DON HUTSON

End (1935-45)

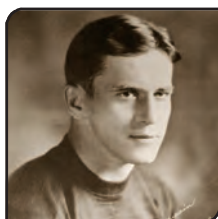

Although he played in Curly Lambeau's Notre Dame Box offensive system and mostly lined up tight to the tackle, he had no peers in his day as a receiver. Held 19 NFL records when he retired. Led the NFL in pass receptions eight times and led it in scoring five times. Winner of the Joe F. Carr Trophy, the NFL's official MVP award, in 1941 and '42. Named to the Official NFL All-Pro team in 1936 and from 1938-42. Named on the first six Associated Press All-Pro teams from 1940-45. Chosen to the NFL's 75th Anniversary All-Time Team and All-Time Team in 1994 and was the split end on the 50th Anniversary Team in 1969. Also intercepted 30 passes as a defensive back the last six years of his career and shared placekicking duties from 1940-45. Once scored a league-record 29 points in a quarter. Named to three Pro Bowls. Born Jan. 31, 1913, in Pine Bluff, Ark. Died June 26, 1997, at age 84.

1963 — JOHNNY "BLOOD" McNALLY

Halfback (1929-33, 1935-36)

Born John Victor McNally, he adopted the name Johnny Blood and used it exclusively throughout his pro football career. An elusive runner and receiver, he was one of NFL's first big-play threats. Caught 10 TD passes in 1931 before the league kept stats, but it remained an unofficial record for 12 years. Played on four NFL championship teams with the Packers (1929-31, 1936). Named to the NFL's All-Decade Team for the 1930s. Also played for the Milwaukee Badgers (1925), Duluth Eskimos (1926-27), Pottsville Maroons (1928) and Pittsburgh Pirates (1934, 1937-38). One of the most colorful players in NFL history, he was nicknamed "The Vagabond Halfback." Born Nov. 27, 1903, in New Richmond, Wis. Died Nov. 28, 1985, at age 82.

1964 — CLARKE HINKLE

Fullback (1932-41)

A tough, bruising, powerful runner and a comparatively hard-hitting linebacker in the NFL's Iron Man Era, when players played both offense and defense. His battles with Bronko Nagurski of the rival Chicago Bears were legendary. He and Nagurski were the NFL's All-Decade fullbacks for the 1930s. Retired as the NFL's all-time leading rusher with 3,860 yards. A member of the NFL's official All-Pro team four times (1936-38, 1941). Named to the NFL's 75th Anniversary All-Time Team in 1994 as a fullback, linebacker and kicker. Played on NFL championship teams in 1936 and '39. Born April 10, 1909, in Toronto, Ohio. Died Nov. 9, 1988, at age 79.

1964 — MIKE MICHALSKE

Guard (1929-35, 1937)

Rugged, raw-boned and durable. Not only a two-way player, but also one who typically played all 60 minutes of a game. On the small side, even in his day, at 6 feet tall and 210 pounds, Michalske was quick and explosive on offense and one of the first to develop blitzing and stunting tactics on defense, where he formed a formidable duo with tackle Cal Hubbard. Signed with the Packers as a free agent when the New York Yankees folded before the 1929 season. Michalske played with the Yankees in 1926 in the short-lived American Football League and for two years (1927-28) in the NFL prior to Green Bay. Named to the NFL's All-Decade Team for the 1920s. Standout lineman on three NFL championship teams from 1929-31. Given first name was August, but nicknamed "Iron Mike," which, in turn, was shortened to Mike. Born April 24, 1903, in Cleveland. Died Oct. 26, 1983, at age 80.

1966 — ARNIE HERBER

Quarterback (1930-40)

Pinpoint deep passer and pioneer of the long bomb in the NFL. In 1936, became first passer in league history to throw for more than 1,000 yards in a season. Led the NFL in passing in 1932, '34 and '36. Member of the Packers' 1930-31 title teams, but teamed with Don Hutson to star on the 1936 and '39 champs. Played halfback in Packers' Notre Dame Box system, but was inducted into the Hall of Fame and chosen as a quarterback on the NFL's All-Decade Team for the 1930s. Played for the New York Giants (1944-45) and faced the Packers in the '44 NFL Championship Game. A Green Bay native and football and basketball star at Green Bay West High School. Born April 2, 1910, in Green Bay. Died Oct. 14, 1969, at age 59.

1971 — VINCE LOMBARDI

Coach (1959-67)

Won five NFL championships over a seven-year span from 1961-67 and is the only coach in league history to win three straight titles under a playoff format. Winning coach in Super Bowls I and II; the game's trophy was named after him following his death in 1970. One of the most iconic figures in coaching history, regardless of sport. Ranks first in all-time winning percentage among NFL coaches with 100 career victories or more. Overall record was 105-35-6, a glittering .750 winning percentage, including his one season in Washington (1969). Regular-season record was 96-34-6. Postseason record, entirely in Green Bay, was 9-1. Served as Packers general manager in 1968, but was inducted as a head coach. Hired by Packers after serving as assistant coach with the New York Giants (1954-58). Born June 11, 1913, in Brooklyn, N.Y. Died Sept. 3, 1970, at age 57.

1974 — TONY CANADEO

Became only the third 1,000-yard rusher in pro football history when he gained 1,052 yards in 1949. Finished his career with 4,197 yards on 1,025 attempts, a 4.1-yard average. A durable, all-purpose halfback, he was a hard runner, an accomplished blocker, a capable passer and a good receiver. Also played defense early in his career. Spent the 1945 season in the service during World War II. Played college football at Gonzaga, where he acquired the nickname "Grey Ghost." Born May 5, 1919, in Chicago. Died Nov. 29, 2003, at age 84.

1976 — JIM TAYLOR

Fullback (1958-66)

Hard-edged, hard-nosed runner who typically dished out more punishment than he took. Rushed for more than 1,000 yards in five straight seasons from 1960-64. Spent his final season in 1967 with the New Orleans Saints. When he retired from the NFL, he ranked second to the great Jim Brown in all-time rushing yards with 8,597. Won the league rushing title in 1962 with 1,474 yards and averaged 5.4 per carry. Had 26 career 100-yard rushing games, all in a Packers uniform. Chosen by The Associated Press as the NFL's MVP in 1962. Selected MVP of the 1965 NFL Championship Game. Chosen as one of two fullbacks, along with Brown, on the NFL's 1960s All-Decade Team. Selected to five Pro Bowls. Born Sept. 20, 1935, in Baton Rouge, La. Died Oct. 13, 2018, at age 83.

1977 — FORREST GREGG

Tackle (1956, 1958-70)

A pro's pro, he was the most decorated of Vince Lombardi's offensive linemen. An anchor at right tackle, he filled in at guard in the Packers' 1961 championship run. Selected to nine Pro Bowls and was named All-Pro by The Associated Press seven times. Voted to NFL's 75th Anniversary All-Time Team in 1994. Also named to the NFL's 1960s All-Decade Team. Held the Packers' record for durability with 187 consecutive games played until he was surpassed by Brett Favre in 2003. Starter on five NFL championship teams. Spent 1957 in military service. Finished his career with the Dallas Cowboys in 1971, where he won a sixth NFL title and third Super Bowl. Born Oct. 18, 1933, in Birthright, Texas. Died April 12, 2019, at age 85.

OTHERS IN PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME WHO PLAYED FOR GREEN BAY

Len Ford — 1976

Ted Hendricks — 1990

Walt Kiesling — 1966

Jan Stenerud — 1991

Emlen Tunnell — 1967

1977 — BART STARR

Quarterback (1956-71)

Drafted in the 17th round in 1956, the 200th overall selection, and wound up winning a then-record five NFL championships as a starting quarterback. Named NFL's MVP by The Associated Press in 1966. Led the Packers to victory in Super Bowls I and II and was named the game's MVP each time. One of three QBs picked on the NFL's 1960s All-Decade Team. Led the NFL in passing in 1962, 1964 and 1966. Passed for 24,718 yards with a 57.4 completion percentage. Named to the Pro Bowl four times. Held the Packers' career record for most games played (196) until he was surpassed by Brett Favre in 2004. Played college football at Alabama. Born Jan. 9, 1934, in Montgomery, Ala. Died May 26, 2019, at age 85.

1978 — RAY NITSCHKE

"Mean on Sunday" was the title of his 1973 autobiography and his trademark as a player. Looked ferocious peering at opposing quarterbacks from his middle linebacker position and played ferociously. Named MVP of the 1962 NFL Championship Game, a brutal defensive battle vs. the New York Giants won by the Packers, 16-7. Named the only linebacker on the NFL's 50th Anniversary Team in 1969 and one of four middle linebackers chosen on the NFL's 75th Anniversary All-Time Team in 1994. Named All-Pro by The Associated Press in 1964 and '66. Selected to the Pro Bowl in 1964. Had 25 career interceptions. Born Dec. 29, 1936, in Elmwood Park, Ill. Died March 8, 1998, at age 61.

1980 — HERB ADDERLEY

Cornerback (1961-69)

At 6 feet and 205 pounds, was not only the prototypical cornerback of his day, but of all time. Had it all: speed, size, toughness, awareness and big-play ability. Also played for the Dallas Cowboys from 1970-72. Intercepted 48 passes, including 39 with the Packers. Returned seven of those 39 picks for touchdowns. Named to NFL's 1960s All-Decade Team. Named All-Pro by The Associated Press five times and was a five-time Pro Bowl selection while with the Packers. Started on six NFL championship teams, including five in Green Bay, and played in four of the first six Super Bowls, including two with Dallas. Led the Packers in kickoff returns each season from 1960-64 and averaged 25.7 yards over his career. Born June 8, 1939, in Philadelphia. Died Oct. 30, 2020, at age 81.

1981 — WILLIE DAVIS

Defensive End (1960-69)

Excelled as a pass rusher before the NFL kept tabs on sacks or he'd likely be the Packers' all-time leader. Unofficially, it is estimated that he had more than 100 career sacks, maybe more than 120. Also a highly respected team leader who served as defensive captain of the Packers' 1966 and 1967 NFL championship teams — winners of Super Bowls I and II. In all, started on five NFL championship teams. Named to the NFL's 1960s All-Decade Team. Named All-Pro by The Associated Press five times and selected to five Pro Bowls. Holds the all-time Packers record for career fumble recoveries with 21. Started NFL career with Cleveland Browns (1958-59). Born July 24, 1934, in Lisbon, La. Died April 15, 2020, at age 85.

1981 — JIM RINGO

Center (1953-63)

Undersized at 6 feet, 2 inches tall and at most 232 pounds, but cat-quick at executing difficult cut blocks. Offensive captain of Vince Lombardi's first two NFL championship teams in 1961 and '62. Also played for Philadelphia (1964-67). Chosen for NFL's 1960s All-Decade Team. Named to two Pro Bowls before Lombardi arrived in Green Bay, five more under Lombardi and three with the Eagles. Named All-Pro by The Associated Press six times with the Packers. Highly durable performer, once held NFL record for most consecutive games played (183), including 126 with Green Bay. Born Nov. 21, 1931, in Orange, N.J. Died Nov. 19, 2007, at age 75.

1986 — PAUL HORNING

Halfback (1957-62, 1964-66)

Called by Vince Lombardi "the greatest player I've ever coached" during a 1967 speech. One of the most versatile players in pro football history, he won the NFL scoring title three consecutive years (1959-61). Set a league record by scoring 176 points in 1960 (12-game season). Record stood for 46 years until broken by LaDainian Tomlinson over 16 games in 2006. Named NFL's Associated Press MVP in 1961 and also MVP of the 1961 NFL Championship Game. Lombardi viewed him as his biggest playmaker and best clutch player. As the starting left halfback, he was the ball carrier in the heyday of Lombardi's signature power sweep. Named All-Pro at halfback by The Associated Press in 1960 and 1961. Named to the NFL's 1960s All-Decade Team. Doubled as the Packers' kicker from 1958-62 and again in '64. Scored 760 career points. Bonus choice — or the first player selected overall — in the 1957 NFL Draft. Played college football at Notre Dame, winning Heisman Trophy in 1956. Born Dec. 23, 1935, in Louisville, Ky. Died Nov. 13, 2020, at age 84.

1989 — WILLIE WOOD

Safety (1960-71)

Played college football at USC in the one-platoon era, doubling as a quarterback and defensive back, and virtually had to beg for an NFL tryout. Signed with the Packers as a rookie free agent and started at free safety on five NFL championship teams. Named All-Pro by The Associated Press five straight years from 1964-68. An eight-time Pro Bowl selection. Named to the NFL's 1960s All-Decade Team. One of two safeties chosen on the Super Bowl Silver Anniversary Team in 1990. Broke open a close contest in third quarter of Super Bowl I, intercepting a Len Dawson pass and returning it 50 yards to the Kansas City Chiefs' 5. Had 48 career interceptions. Led the NFL in interceptions in 1962 with nine. Also led the league in punt returns in 1961 with a 16.1-yard average. Born Dec. 23, 1936, in Washington, D.C. Died Feb. 3, 2020, at age 83.

1995 — HENRY JORDAN

Defensive Tackle (1959-69)

Raised havoc with his quickness, especially as a pass rusher, on Vince Lombardi's five NFL championship teams. Named All-Pro by The Associated Press five straight seasons (1960-64). Also selected to play in the Pro Bowl four times. Originally a fifth-round draft choice of the Cleveland Browns; came to Green Bay in 1959 trade. Played for the Browns (1957-58). Unofficially had 3½ sacks in the 1967 Western Conference Championship Game win over the Los Angeles Rams. Born Jan. 26, 1935, in Emporia, Va. Died Feb. 21, 1977, at age 42.

2003 — JAMES LOFTON

Wide Receiver (1978-86)

Big, fast, gifted receiver who could run any route and probably could have starred in any system. Excelled as a deep threat. First Packers player without direct ties to either Curly Lambeau or Vince Lombardi to be inducted in Canton. Caught 530 passes for 9,656 yards and averaged a sensational 18.2 yards per catch in his nine seasons with the Packers. Also played for the L.A. Raiders (1987-88), Buffalo (1989-92), the L.A. Rams (1993) and Philadelphia (1993). In 16 NFL seasons, posted 764 receptions for 14,004 yards and an 18.3-yard average. Yardage total was the NFL career record at the time. Chosen for seven Pro Bowls and named All-Pro by The Associated Press twice while playing for the Packers. Named to NFL's 1980s All-Decade Team. Recorded 50-plus receptions in a season nine times. First NFL player to score a touchdown in the 1970s, '80s and '90s. Born July 5, 1956, in Fort Ord, Calif.

2006 — REGGIE WHITE

Defensive End (1993-98)

Nicknamed "Minister of Defense" while playing at the University of Tennessee. Arguably became the most dominant defensive end in NFL history when considering production against both the run and the pass. At the time of retirement, his 198 sacks were an NFL record, as were his 12 seasons with 10-plus sacks. Only player to record 10-plus sacks in nine consecutive seasons. Played six of his 15 NFL seasons with Green Bay and registered 68½ sacks, No. 3 in the NFL over that span. Named Defensive Player of the Year by The Associated Press in 1998. Named to the Pro Bowl in all six of his Packers seasons and selected AP All-Pro twice. In the Packers' Super Bowl XXXI win over New England, set a Super Bowl record with three sacks. Began his pro career with the USFL's Memphis Showboats (1984-85) before entering the NFL. Also played for the Philadelphia Eagles (1985-92) and the Carolina Panthers (2000). During eight seasons with Philadelphia, posted more sacks (124) than games played (121). A landmark free agent when he signed with Green Bay in 1993. Was selected for the NFL's 75th Anniversary All-Time Team the next year. Also chosen to the NFL's All-Decade teams for the 1980s and '90s. Elected to 13 straight Pro Bowls. Born Dec. 19, 1961, in Chattanooga, Tenn. Died Dec. 26, 2004, at age 43.

2013 — DAVE ROBINSON

Linebacker (1963-72)

At 6 feet, 3 inches tall and 245 pounds and with 4.6 speed in the 40, was the prototypical outside linebacker. Excelled at holding up the tight end at the line and nullified Hall of Famers John Mackey and Mike Ditka in the 14 games he faced them. Made three big plays that spelled the difference in three of the biggest games of Vince Lombardi's three-year title run. Plays included a game-changing 87-yard interception return in a do-or-die 1965 regular-season victory at the Baltimore Colts; a smothering pressure against Dallas quarterback Don Meredith that saved the Packers in the 1966 NFL Championship Game; and a critical blocked field goal in a 1967 playoff victory over the Los Angeles Rams. Named to the NFL's 1960s All-Decade Team. Named Associated Press All-Pro in 1967 and 1969. Three-time Pro Bowl selection. Registered 21 interceptions during his 10 seasons with Green Bay. His 12 interceptions from 1965-67 were the most in the league among linebackers. Also played for Washington (1973-74). Born May 3, 1941, in Mount Holly Township, N.J.

2015 — RON WOLF

Executive Vice President and General Manager (1992-2000)

Orchestrated one of the most remarkable rebuilding efforts in NFL history following a Packers drought of 24 years. Under his leadership from 1992-2000, the Packers were tied for the second-best regular-season record in the NFL (92-52, .639), while recording seven consecutive winning seasons (1992-98) and six straight playoff appearances (1993-98). Made three key transactions early in his time in Green Bay: hiring Mike Holmgren as head coach, trading for quarterback Brett Favre and signing defensive end Reggie White. The moves helped the Packers win three consecutive NFC Central Division championships (1995-97) and back-to-back NFC titles (1996-97). From 1992-2000, the Packers were 65-12 (.844) at Lambeau Field during the regular season and playoffs, the best home record in the NFL over that span. Began NFL career as a scout for the Oakland Raiders in 1963 and spent 23 seasons with the franchise over three separate tenures as the Raiders posted winning records in all but six of those years. In 1975, was hired by the expansion Tampa Bay Buccaneers as general manager. Born Dec. 30, 1938, in New Freedom, Pa.

2016 — BRETT FAVRE

Quarterback (1992-2007)

The ultimate iron man among NFL quarterbacks. All-time record-breaker. The savior, so to speak, of a franchise that had been mired in a nearly 25-year funk. Was all of the above during a career that might have been unmatched in Packers history. Started a remarkable 253 straight games before moving on to the N.Y. Jets (2008) and Minnesota Vikings (2009-10), where he extended his NFL record for quarterbacks to 298 games. When he retired, held the all-time league record for almost every major passing category, including attempts, completions, yards and touchdowns. Acquired in a trade after spending his rookie year with Atlanta (1991), joined the Packers at a time when they had made only two postseason appearances in 24 years. In 16 years as a starter, Green Bay made the playoffs 11 times, highlighted by a victory in Super Bowl XXXI. Born Oct. 10, 1969, in Gulfport, Miss.

2018 — JERRY KRAMER

Guard (1958-68)

One of the pulling guards on maybe the most famous play in NFL history, Vince Lombardi's power sweep, also became one of the most decorated linemen in league annals. Was the only guard selected to the NFL's 50th Anniversary Team in 1969, one of two guards on the Super Bowl Silver Anniversary Team chosen in 1990 and a five-time All-Pro selection by The Associated Press. Was the starting right guard on Lombardi's five NFL championship teams in Green Bay and also the placekicker on the 1962 title team. In Lombardi's power sweep, was almost always the inside guard and led the left halfback around the right side. He also was the lead blocker on Bart Starr's game-winning quarterback sneak in the Ice Bowl. Born Jan. 23, 1936, in Jordan, Mont.

2020 — BOBBY DILLON

Safety (1952-59)

The epitome of a great player who played for mostly bad teams, still holds the Packers' career record for interceptions with 52. Didn't play for a winner until his final season, but was a four-time Pro Bowl selection and a four-time All-Pro choice by The Associated Press. Played right safety, usually the free safety on most plays, but especially in the days of five-man defensive fronts, his assignment was to cover the best receiver one-on-one. Led the Packers in interceptions in seven of his eight seasons and three times intercepted nine passes in what were then 12-game seasons. When Vince Lombardi took over as coach in 1959, he labeled him "the best in the league" among defensive backs and one of three "untouchables" on his roster. Lost his left eye when he was 10 years old as a result of an accident and played with a glass eye. Born Feb. 23, 1930, in Pendleton, Texas. Died Aug. 22, 2019, at age 89.

2021 — CHARLES WOODSON

Cornerback/Safety (2006-12)

Started building his Hall of Fame resume during his first eight seasons with the Oakland Raiders, but he sealed the deal with his play for the Packers over a seven-year stay. Was a rare talent. Won the Heisman Trophy as a junior in 1997, playing both cornerback and wide receiver for the University of Michigan. Although selected predominantly for his play on defense, was the first Heisman winner to have played on both sides of the ball since college football adopted a two-platoon system in the early 1960s. The following spring, was the fourth overall pick in the NFL draft. In Green Bay, was given the opportunity to showcase his talent in a number of roles from cover corner to nickel back to safety. A defensive playmaker, was named the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year in 2009 and made the Pro Bowl for the third straight year when the Packers won Super Bowl XLV a year later. In all, intercepted 38 passes, scored a franchise-record 10 defensive touchdowns and was named to four Pro Bowls with the Packers. Spent 11 of his 18 NFL seasons with the Raiders. Born Oct. 7, 1976, in Fremont, Ohio.

2022 — LeROY BUTLER

Cornerback/Safety (1990-2001)

As NFL defenses became more exotic throughout the 1990s, he evolved as a player almost in lockstep and was part of the vanguard, if not the leader of it, that redefined the strong safety position. Started out as a cornerback after being drafted in the second round in 1990 as did most rookie DBs back then who had the speed to play on the outside. Switched to strong safety in 1992 under first-year head coach Mike Holmgren and new defensive coordinator Ray Rhodes. Had all the tools for what was then a more static position: speed to cover tight ends and a sure, willing tackler on run downs. Career took off when Fritz Shurmur became defensive coordinator in 1994 and started utilizing him much like an offensive weapon on defense. His new role included lining up as part of an eight-man front and creating havoc as a blitzer. Became the first player in NFL history to register 20 interceptions and 20 sacks in a career. Played 12 seasons and finished with 38 interceptions and 20½ sacks. Was named All-Pro by The Associated Press and to the Pro Bowl four times each. Also etched his name in Packers lore by being the first player to attempt a Lambeau Leap in a victory over the then-Los Angeles Raiders in 1993. Born July 19, 1968, in Jacksonville, Fla.

PACKERS HALL OF FAME, GREEN BAY

The Packers Hall of Fame, located in the Lambeau Field Atrium, owns a unique place in sports history. When it opened on July 1, 1967, in temporary quarters in the Brown County Veterans Memorial Arena, it was the first hall of fame devoted to one team.

William Brault, who was head of Green Bay's visitor bureau at the time, was the driving force behind its creation and its tremendous growth over its first 25 years. Nine years after the hall opened, it moved into a permanent home next to the arena. Then-President Gerald R. Ford dedicated the new building on April 3, 1976.

On Sept. 4, 2003, Bart Starr and Ron Wolf rededicated the Packers Hall of Fame when it moved into the Lambeau Field Atrium. The Hall was renovated again and reopened on the main floor of the Atrium on Aug. 21, 2015. For nearly two years in between, it was set up in temporary quarters in the Neville Public Museum. The latest version of the Hall covers 15,000 square feet over two floors.

To date, 166 individuals — players, coaches and contributors — have been enshrined. Two more will be added as Jordy Nelson and Josh Sitton will be inducted during a ceremony on Aug. 31, 2023. The first induction banquet was held in 1970.

The Hall of Fame originally opened in the Brown County Arena's concourse, and the plan was to stay open for roughly two months during training camp. But those best-laid plans went awry when right from the start Packers fans shattered projected attendance totals.

The Green Bay Packers Hall of Fame, Inc. is a corporation separate from the football team, organized and operated for purposes permitted for tax-exempt status under 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. All revenue is dedicated and invested only for such purposes. Donation of memorabilia is tax-deductible.

Note: Players are listed at positions that were part of the game's normal terminology when they played.

Prior to 1950, most players played both offense and defense. In the case of linemen, including ends, they usually played the same position on both sides of the ball. Backs were listed as quarterbacks, halfbacks and fullbacks, but were often interchangeable on offense, especially in Curly Lambeau's Notre Dame Box system. On defense, some backs would line up as linebackers and others in the backfield, depending on whether the scheme called for a seven-, six- or five-man line.

Since 1950, positions have been classified as offense or defense. But some positions have undergone name changes. Ends on offense were renamed wide receivers and tight ends over the course of the 1960s and halfbacks became running backs in the late 1960s. Also, there were periods where the names of certain positions differed on depth charts, in playbooks and on all-pro teams.

SELECTED AS STARTERS IN BOLD

OTHER PRO BOWL NOTES

— Years represent the season for which the player was selected, not the year the game was played. Other than in 1940 and 1942, the Pro Bowl has been played in January or February following the regular season. The first game was played following the 1938 season.

— The first five games pitted the NFL champion against the Pro All-Stars. Starting with the game that followed the 1950 season through the one played following the 2012 season, the game matched the stars of each conference. In the games that followed the 2013-15 seasons, the league changed to an unconfederated format in which players were assigned to teams through a draft and starters were selected by the Pro Bowl coaching staffs. The league returned to a traditional AFC vs. NFC format for the Pro Bowl following the 2016 season. In 2023, the Pro Bowl shifted to a Pro Bowl Games format, with events taking place over two days, leading up to 7-on-7 flag football games, rather than the traditional game, on Sunday.

— The game was not held from 1943-49.

PRO BOWL

- The NFL is the only pro sports league that combines all-star voting by fans, players and coaches.
- NFL players and coaches usually cast their Pro Bowl ballots in Week 15.
- Matt LaFleur and the communications department conduct voting, asking that (1) players not vote for their own teammates, and (2) offensive players and coaches vote for defensive players, and vice versa.

- The consensus ballots of fans, players and coaches each count one-third toward determining the 86-man Pro Bowl roster.
- Fan voting is used to break any tie.
- The NFL became the first professional league to offer online voting, in 1995.
- According to the current Collective Bargaining Agreement, each Pro Bowl player on the winning team earns $84,000; each Pro Bowl player on the losing team earns $42,000.

MONDAY NIGHT FOOTBALL

- On Monday Night Football for a 31st consecutive season, the Packers make two appearances in 2023.
- The Packers own the NFL's longest appearance streak in the history of MNF – 31 seasons (1993-2023). Prior to the current 31-year string, Green Bay didn't appear for six straight years, 1987-92.
- Brett Favre and Robert Brooks own the MNF record for longest pass completion, a 99-yard touchdown strike at Chicago on Sept. 11, 1995 (Packers franchise record, tied NFL record).
- The Packers are 37-32-1 in the regular season on MNF.

- Oct. 29, 1989—Green Bay 23, Detroit 20, at Milwaukee. Lions win toss. On first play, Murphy intercepts Peete and returns it 3 yards to Lions' 26. Jacke's 38-yard field goal seals the win at 2:14.
- Nov. 3, 1991—New York Jets 19, Green Bay 16, at New York. Packers win toss. Green Bay drives to New York 24 where Jacke's 42-yard field goal attempt is wide right. Aguiar's punt is fumbled and recovered by New York at Packers' 23. Leahy kicks 37-yard field goal at 9:40.
- Sept. 6, 1992—Minnesota 23, Green Bay 20, at Green Bay. Vikings win toss. After Minnesota punt, Packers take over at Green Bay 33. Majkowski is intercepted by Glenn at Vikings' 48. Teams trade punts. Packers punt a second time in overtime session with Vikings taking over at their 42. On second play, Allen runs 45 yards up middle to Packers' 11. One play later, Reveiz kicks 26-yard field goal at 10:20.
- Oct. 20, 1994—Minnesota 13, Green Bay 10, at Minnesota. Vikings win toss. Minnesota drives 62 yards in eight plays; Reveiz kicks 27-yard field goal with 4:26 elapsed.
- Dec. 10, 1995—Tampa Bay 13, Green Bay 10, at Tampa Bay. Buccaneers win toss. Tampa Bay drives 48 yards in seven plays; Husted kicks 47-yard field goal 3:46 into extra period.
- Oct. 14, 1996—Green Bay 23, San Francisco 20, at Green Bay. 49ers win toss. After San Francisco fails to pick up first down, Packers take over at own 44. Green Bay covers only 21 yards in six plays to reach 49ers' 35. Jacke sends his 53-yard kick – the longest field goal to win an overtime game in NFL history – squarely down the middle at 3:41.
- Nov. 6, 2000—Green Bay 26, Minnesota 20, at Green Bay. Packers win toss. After Schroeder's 22-yard reception gets Green Bay across midfield, Freeman makes miraculous catch while flat on his back at Vikings' 15, gets up and runs past stunned Minnesota defenders for 43-yard score with 3:39 elapsed, capping an 82-yard, seven-play drive.
- Dec. 24, 2000—Green Bay 17, Tampa Bay 14, at Green Bay. Packers win toss. Rossum returns kickoff 29 yards to 38. Aided by Parker's 35 yards on five carries, Green Bay drives 58 yards to Buccaneers' 4. Longwell kicks 22-yard field goal with 6:31 elapsed.
- Sept. 8, 2002—Green Bay 37, Atlanta 34, at Green Bay. Packers win toss. Roughing-the-kicker penalty keeps Packers' first possession alive, but drive stalls at Atlanta 39. Green Bay holds Falcons to three-and-out, then marches 44 yards in seven plays (six carries and one 18-yard pass from Favre to Walker). Longwell kicks 34-yard field goal with 9:45 elapsed.
- Oct. 12, 2003—Kansas City 40, Green Bay 34, at Green Bay. Chiefs win toss. Kansas City drives 41 yards to Green Bay 30, where Hunt blocks Anderson's 48-yard field-goal attempt. On next play, Ahman Green blasts into Kansas City territory but fumbles, recovered by Kansas City at Chiefs' 49. Then, on ensuing play, Trent Green hits streaking Kennison for 51-yard touchdown up right sideline with 8:50 left on the clock.
- Dec. 11, 2005—Green Bay 16, Detroit 13, at Green Bay. Packers win toss. Favre orchestrates 10-play, 56-yard drive, the only possession of the extra period. Packers enter Detroit territory after 15-yard unnecessary-roughness call. Longwell nails 28-yard FG with 9:47 left on the clock.
- Oct. 29, 2007—Green Bay 19, Denver 13, at Denver. Packers win toss. On first snap, Favre heaves pass off play-action deep down left sideline to Jennings, who has a step on Bly. Jennings catches pass in stride and strolls into end zone untouched for game-winning, 82-yard TD with just 16 seconds elapsed in extra period.

Nov. 2, 2008—Tennessee Titans 19, Green Bay 16, at Tennessee. Titans win toss. On the only possession of overtime, Tennessee drives 55 yards on 10 plays to set up Birnias, who missed 47-yard attempt at end of regulation. This one, from 41 yards out, is good with 9:36 left on clock.

Dec. 22, 2008—Chicago Bears 20, Green Bay 17, at Chicago. Bears win toss. In frigid conditions, Chicago scores on the only possession of extra frame after a seven-play, 47-yard drive. Long completions to Olsen and Forte set up Gould's 38-yard field goal at 3:32.

Oct. 10, 2010—Washington 16, Green Bay 13, at Washington. Packers win toss. Washington takes over at Green Bay 39-yard line following an interception on Packers' second possession of extra period. Benefiting from two defensive penalties on six-play drive, Redskins make it to Packers' 15, where Gano hits 33-yard field goal for win.

Oct. 17, 2010—Miami 23, Green Bay 20, at Green Bay. Dolphins win toss. Packers force overtime in consecutive weeks for first time since 1987 with 1-yard Rodgers TD run with :16 remaining in regulation. Miami assumes possession with good field position at own 48-yard line on their second series of OT. Five runs and one pass move ball to Green Bay 20, where Carpenter converts 44-yard field goal.

Nov. 24, 2013—Green Bay 26, Minnesota 26, at Green Bay. Packers win toss. After three long completions by Flynn and two runs by Lacy, Packers set up Crosby's 20-yard field goal in overtime. Peterson and Gerhart wear Packers defense down in overtime but settle for Walsh's 35-yard field goal. Marks first tie game for the Packers since 1987 and second tie ever between Packers and Vikings.

Sept. 24, 2017—Green Bay 27, Cincinnati 24, at Green Bay. Bengals win toss. On third-and-10 from Packers' 21, Rodgers takes advantage of free play and finds Allison for 72-yard pass, setting up 27-yard field goal from Crosby with 6:26 left in overtime.

Dec. 3, 2017—Green Bay 26, Tampa Bay 20, at Green Bay. Packers win toss. On only possession of overtime, Hundley leads drive that goes 72 yards on eight plays, ending with Jones' 20-yard scoring run on his only carry of game at 6:08.

Dec. 10, 2017—Green Bay 27, Cleveland 21, at Cleveland. Browns win toss. Packers force overtime in consecutive weeks for first time since 2010 with 1-yard pass to Adams from Hundley with :17 left in regulation after two-touchdown deficit in fourth quarter. Jones intercepts Kizer pass on third down to give Green Bay the ball at Cleveland 42. Adams scores on 25-yard pass from Hundley at 5:12 as Green Bay sets single-season team record with third overtime victory of the season.

Sept. 16, 2018—Green Bay 29, Minnesota 29, at Green Bay. Vikings win toss. Carlson's 49-yard field goal attempt is wide right. Teams trade punts. Vikings take over at 20 and drive 63 yards. Carlson is wide right from 35 yards as time expires.

Dec. 23, 2018—Green Bay 44, New York Jets 38, at New York. Packers win toss. On the only possession of overtime, Rodgers leads 75-yard drive on eight plays, finishing with 16-yard touchdown pass to Adams with 6:23 left in overtime.

Nov. 22, 2020—Indianapolis 34, Green Bay 31, at Indianapolis. Packers win toss. On second-and-2 from Green Bay 30, Valdes-Scantling's short pass from Rodgers is stripped by Blackmon. Colts take over at Packers' 29. Four plays later, Blankenship kicks 39-yard field goal with 7:15 left in overtime.

Oct. 10, 2021—Green Bay 25, Cincinnati 22, at Cincinnati. Bengals win toss. After each kicker misses a game-winning field goal in overtime, Rodgers leads drive from Packers' 39. Facing third-and-16, Rodgers hits Cobb for 16 yards to set up fourth-and-inches at Bengals' 32. Crosby drills 50-yard field goal after two-minute warning.

Oct. 2, 2022—Green Bay 27, New England 24, at Green Bay. Packers win toss. Both teams trade punts. A 12-play, 77-yard drive on which Dillon carried six times for 25 yards drained the final 6:47. Crosby drills 31-yard field goal for the win.

Nov. 13, 2022—Green Bay 31, Dallas 28, at Green Bay. Cowboys win toss. Prescott throws incompleton on fourth-and-3 at Packers' 35. Jones runs 9 yards on two plays. On third-and-1, Rodgers connects with Lazard on slant route for 36 yards to Dallas 20. Cowboys called for facemask on Jones' 5-yard run, setting up first-and-goal at Dallas 7. Rodgers kneels at 10 to set up Crosby's 28-yard game-winning field goal.

POSTSEASON

Dec. 26, 1965—Green Bay 13, Baltimore Colts 10, at Green Bay. Packers win toss. Moore returns kickoff to Packers' 22. Chandler punts and Haymond returns 9 yards to Colts' 41. Gilburg punts and Wood makes fair catch at Packers' 21. Chandler punts and Haymond returns 1 yard to Colts' 41. Michaels misses 47-yard field goal. Bratkowski, in relief of Starr (injured on game's first play from scrimmage), orchestrates 10-play, 62-yard drive, including 18-yard passes to Anderson and Dale, to penetrate Colts' 20. Chandler's towering kick is good from 25 yards at 13:39. Packers in following week win first of three straight NFL championships (1965-67). Chandler's controversial first field goal, sending contest into OT, sails high above right upright. NFL raises goalposts following season.

Jan. 4, 2004—Green Bay 33, Seattle 27, at Green Bay. Seahawks win toss. Morris returns kickoff to 33. On third play, Hawthorne recovers Bannister fumble at Seattle 43, but Holmgren's replay challenge reverses call. Seahawks hold Packers to three-and-out, then drive to midfield. Then, with Green Bay on an all-out blitz, Harris steps in front of quick Hasselbeck pass to left and returns interception 52 yards for touchdown. Packers win first NFL postseason overtime game decided by defensive touchdown.

Jan. 11, 2004—Philadelphia 20, Green Bay 17, at Philadelphia. Eagles win toss. Thrash returns kickoff to 28. Packers hold Eagles to three-and-out on first possession. On first Green Bay snap, in the face of heavy Philadelphia blitz, Favre and intended receiver Walker miscommunicate on deep pass, and Dawkins returns interception 35 yards to Packers' 34. Six plays later, Akers kicks 31-yard field goal. Packers become second team in NFL history to play consecutive overtime playoff games (1986 Cleveland Browns).

Jan. 20, 2008—New York Giants 23, Green Bay 20, at Green Bay. Packers win toss. Robinson returns kickoff to 26. On second-and-8, Favre's pass for Driver intercepted by Webster and returned 9 yards to Green Bay 34-yard line. After two Bradshaw carries gain 5 yards, Manning throws incomplete on third down. Tynes, who missed field goal tries of 43 and 36 yards late in fourth quarter, hits 47-yard field goal with 2:35 elapsed.

Jan. 10, 2010—Arizona 51, Green Bay 45, at Arizona. Packers win toss. On third-and-6 from Green Bay 24, Rodgers is sacked and stripped by Adams. Ball is knocked loose, deflecting off Rodgers' foot and into arms of Danksby, who returns fumble 17 yards for touchdown with 1:18 elapsed.

Jan. 18, 2015—Seattle 28, Green Bay 22, at Seattle. Seahawks win toss. Seattle drives for 3:19 and goes 87 yards in six plays. On final play, Wilson hits Kearse on deep pass down the middle for 34-yard touchdown to win game.

Jan. 16, 2016—Arizona 26, Green Bay 20, at Arizona. Cardinals win toss. Fitzgerald is uncovered, catches Palmer's short pass and goes 75 yards to Green Bay 5-yard line. On third play, he takes shovel pass and scores winning touchdown with 1:05 elapsed.

BIRTH OF A TEAM, AND A LEGEND

The Green Bay Packers, arguably the most storied franchise in the National Football League, were organized on Aug. 11, 1919, in the dingy second-floor editorial rooms of the old Green Bay Press-Gazette building, located on Cherry Street in downtown Green Bay.

Never imagining what might become of the semipro football team being formed that day, nobody documented who was there or how many were on hand. There had been no announcement of the meeting beforehand, and the Press-Gazette provided no details about the day after.

Whether a full complement of players attended or if it was simply a small gathering of the team's prime movers is never made clear. Nor was it spelled out if much of the preliminary work had been completed beforehand or if the meeting itself triggered a rapid-fire chain of events.

Whatever the case, the Press-Gazette in its Aug. 13 edition revealed that the Indian Packing Co. would sponsor the team and referred to it for the first time as the "Packers." The paper said home games would be played at Hagemeister Park; listed 38 prospective candidates for the team, mostly former standouts at Green Bay East and West high schools; and noted full uniforms would be provided to up to 20 players.

"It will be the strongest aggregation of pigskin chasers that has ever been gathered together in this city," the Press-Gazette proclaimed.

A second meeting was held at the Press-Gazette on Aug. 14, three days after the initial one, and nearly 25 players were in attendance. Curly Lambeau was elected captain of the team, and George Whitney Calhoun was named manager.

Lambeau was a former star at East High School and played on Coach Knute Rockne's first team at the University of Notre Dame in 1918. Back home after dropping out of school in December, Lambeau was working for Indian Packing at the time. Calhoun, great-grandson of Daniel Whitney, founder of the city of Green Bay, was city editor at the Press-Gazette.

The story handed down for decades was that the impetus for the initial meeting was a chance encounter at a downtown street corner between Lambeau and Calhoun. In his 1985 book about the history of the Packers, longtime executive committee member and onetime Calhoun colleague John Torinus changed the setting to a conversation over a glass of beer.

Whether it's mostly urban legend or if there's a true story in there somewhere will remain a mystery for the ages. Too much time has passed. But Lambeau and Calhoun have long been regarded as the Packers' co-founders and there's little or no evidence to dispute that.

The first season, the Packers won 10 games and lost one against opponents representing mostly nearby towns in northeastern Wisconsin and Michigan's Upper Peninsula.

The team conducted most of its practices that first year on a field next to the Indian Packing plant at the end of Morrow Street, but it played its eight home games at Hagemeister Park on an open field with no fence or bleachers. Calhoun "passed a hat," as did others, to collect spare change and help cover expenses.

The Packers again played an independent schedule against mostly neighboring towns the next year and again dominated the competition, finishing 9-1-1.

Calhoun

Better yet, their financial outlook improved considerably.

C.M. "Neil" Murphy, a local typewriter salesman, was named business manager in July, and he organized a committee to build a fence around the Hagemeister playing field so the Packers could charge admission.

Thanks to the support of Indian Packing, the local Association of Commerce, local contractor Ludolf Hansen and fans who provided volunteer labor, construction of the fence began in late August and was completed before the first game in late September.

By mid-October, two large sections of bleachers were erected so fans would no longer have to stand along the sidelines to follow the action.

JOINING THE NFL

On Aug. 27, 1921, the year-old American Professional Football Association awarded a franchise to the Acme Packers of Green Bay during a league meeting in Chicago. The Acme Packing Co., based in Chicago, had purchased Indian Packing eight months earlier. Less than a year later, the APFA would change its name to the National Football League.

Green Bay was now in the big leagues — sort of.

Most of the APFA's 21 members that second year were located in small hotbeds of football rather than big cities — places like Canton, Ohio, Hammond, Ind., and Rock Island, Ill.

Then again, compared to Green Bay, maybe those were big cities.

Green Bay was the smallest city in the league when it joined in 1921 other than Tonawanda, N.Y., which played one game on the road and folded. And except for a brief period in the mid- to late 1920s, Green Bay has remained the smallest city ever since.

Green Bay's population was 31,017, based on the 1920 U.S. Census. Not only was it the smallest city in the league, it was smaller than six other cities in Wisconsin, including Superior and Oshkosh.

No doubt to those who lived through it and also through the lens of history, it's almost incomprehensible that the Packers survived. Their 2018 season was their 100th, but until they were nudging toward 50 they were perpetually on their deathbed.

MEN WHO INFLUENCED THE PACKERS' INFANCY

- Earl "Curly" Lambeau: Co-founder, first team captain, first star. Played from 1919-29 and was head coach through the 1949 season. Took control of the franchise in early 1922 and convinced other owners to allow Green Bay back into the league after it had been expelled for violating a league rule.
- George Whitney Calhoun: Co-founder and the team's first manager in 1919. Set the schedule and passed the hat at home games that year. Also served as manager of the 1918 city team. Wrote about the Packers for the Green Bay Press-Gazette, where he worked for more than 40 years, at the same time he was serving the team in various capacities. He was secretary of the Packers into the 1940s, publicity director until 1947 and a member of the board of directors until his death in 1963.
- Frank Peck: President of Indian Packing Co. in 1919 and 1920, when it sponsored the Packers. Credited with giving Lambeau $500 to buy uniforms and get the team started.
- C.M. "Neil" Murphy: Business manager of the Packers in 1920. Led the effort to build a fence around Hagemeister Park so the Packers could charge admission and make money.
- John & J. Emmett Clair: Brothers who ran Acme Packing Co. and the Packers in 1921, the team's first year in the NFL. J. Emmett represented Green Bay at the league meeting when it was granted a franchise in August 1921.
- Andrew B. Turnbull: Business manager and one of the owners of the Press-Gazette when he took a lead role in creating the Green Bay Football Corp. and rallying local businessmen to buy stock in the team in 1923. Served as the Packers' first president from September 1923 to June 1928.

Take their first league season, for example.

The Packers pulled off a major coup when they signed lineman Howard "Cub" Buck, a veteran of the famous Canton Bulldogs. They won their inaugural league game against the Minneapolis Marines on Oct. 23, 1921. They were able to book games with the formidable Chicago Staleys (Bears) and Chicago Cardinals. And they finished with a winning record, 3-2-1.

But then scandal nearly doomed all that they had accomplished. On Dec. 4, 1921, in a non-league game against Racine billed as a battle for the state championship, the Packers used three Notre Dame players, with college eligibility remaining, under assumed names – and got caught. Less than two months later, Green Bay was booted from the league, albeit not for long.

Thanks to Lambeau's persistence and the impression Green Bay had made on other club owners during its first season, the Packers were reinstated at the next meeting in June.

Before their first league season was more than a week old, the Packers had cut ties with the debt-ridden Acme Packing Co., and were run for the rest of that season by J. Emmett Clair and his brother, John M. Clair, who had been an officer with Acme. In 1922, Lambeau and Calhoun headed a small group that organized the private Green Bay Football Club and took control of the franchise.

Plagued by limited resources and terrible weather, the new owners barely survived their first season.

A game against Columbus in early November was played in a driving rain and resulted in a loss of $1,500 when the total rainfall for the day fell three one-hundredths of an inch short of the amount needed for the Packers to collect on their rain insurance. On Thanksgiving, a 12-hour rainfall ruined what was supposed to be Booster Day, contributing to a sparse crowd for a non-league game against Duluth and another financial disaster.

Club officials nearly canceled the game, but were persuaded to play by Andrew Turnbull, one of the owners of the Press-Gazette.

Nearly 25 years later in a three-part series, Calhoun wrote that Nov. 30, 1922, "marked a turning point in the history of the Packers." He said Turnbull promised that if club officials went ahead and played their game that day, he would get Green Bay's business community to rally behind the team once the season ended.

True to his word, Turnbull led the effort to create the nonprofit Green Bay Football Corporation before the start of the next season. The Packers were now a community-owned team. Their investors were their fans.

THE IRON MAN ERA

With an improved financial outlook, Lambeau was in position to expand his recruiting efforts and bolster his roster. Over the course of the 1921 and 1922 seasons, the Packers underwent a transformation where they replaced most of their local talent with players from big-time colleges or other pro teams.

As a result, they were highly competitive on the field from the beginning and, in turn, able to establish a firm foothold within the league. In 1927, when the NFL decided to cut its franchises almost in half and eliminate many of its smaller cities, Green Bay survived.

Then, before the 1929 season, it hit the jackpot.

The Packers signed three players off other NFL teams – halfback Johnny Blood, and linemen Cal Hubbard and Mike Michalske – who would lead them to three straight NFL championships and later be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

To this day, the 1929-31 and 1965-67 Packers are the only teams to have won three straight NFL titles. The 1929-31 Packers did it when the championship was determined by league standings. The 1965-67 Packers did it under the league playoff system, which was implemented in 1933.

THE HUTSON PERIOD

While the Packers were in the process of winning the 1931 championship, they also were blindsided by what could have been a catastrophic event. In their second game, against the Brooklyn Dodgers, a local fan, Willard J. Bent, injured his back when a section of bleachers at City Stadium collapsed, and he fell nearly 10 feet to the ground.

Bent sued the Packers and was awarded roughly $5,000 following a trial in February 1933. With the country in a deep depression, the Packers' insurance company went into bankruptcy before the claim could be adjusted, and the Green Bay Football Corp. went into receivership while it appealed the case in court.

Somehow the Packers survived the proceedings long enough to be saved, once again, by two seminal events.

The first was the creation of a new corporation, The Green Bay Packers, Inc., in January 1935 following a second stock sale. That corporation remains in existence today, although "The" was removed from the name in 1997.

The other was the signing of Don Hutson less than a month later. According to lore, Hutson actually signed two contracts, one with the Packers and the other with the NFL's Brooklyn Dodgers, but was awarded to the Packers by league president Joe Carr. Carr supposedly settled the dispute based on the times postmarked on the packages containing the contracts mailed by the two clubs.

In his second game as a pro, Hutson caught an 83-yard touchdown pass from Arnie Herber that gave the Packers a 7-0 victory over the Chicago Bears. When he retired 11 years later, Hutson owned 19 NFL records and had revolutionized what was then the position of offensive end.

With money in the bank and Hutson shredding defenses like no other player in the game, the Packers would win three more NFL titles under Lambeau: in 1936, 1939 and 1944.

But when Hutson retired following the 1945 season, hard times followed. The Packers became perennial losers for the first time, and they encountered one financial crisis after another.

The war between the NFL and the newly formed All-America Football Conference left them financially strapped and unable to sign their No. 1 draft picks in 1946 and 1947.

By Thanksgiving Day 1949, the Packers had to play an intra-squad game to raise enough money to finish the season. They drew 15,000 fans to City Stadium despite cold, blustery weather and raised approximately $50,000, enough to pay the freight for their final three road games.

Meanwhile, the Packers also were losing money on their training quarters at Rockwood Lodge, located along the bay about 15 miles northeast of Green Bay, and Lambeau was immersed in a power struggle with several members of the board of directors.

Fortuitously for the Packers, the well-insured Rockwood was destroyed by fire on Jan. 24, 1950. The other problems came to a head when Lambeau resigned a week later, ending his 31-year association with the franchise, to become head coach of the Chicago Cardinals.

RONZANI REGIME

Within a week after Lambeau's departure, the Packers hired Gene Ronzani, a former player and assistant coach with the Bears, to succeed him. Then, before the end of April, the Packers launched a third stock drive.

The stock sale would raise more than $100,000 and put the franchise back on firmer footing. On the field, the losing prevailed and with two games remaining in the 1953 season, Ronzani was forced to resign.

SOLID FOOTBALL, SHAKY FINANCES, 1919-35

- The Packers enjoy a successful first season, winning 10 of 11 games, but the lack of an enclosed playing field prevents them from charging admission. The old minor league baseball park at Hagemeyer had been torn down in late spring 1918. Thus, the Packers play their eight home games in 1919 on an open field with no fence or bleachers.
- All goes well on the field in the Packers' first season in what is now the NFL, but the Green Bay Press-Gazette reports a year later that the Clair brothers, who ran the team and the Acme Packing plant in Green Bay, lost $3,800 over the course of the 1921 season.
- On Dec. 4, 1921, the Packers play Racine in a non-league game and pay three players from the University of Notre Dame to play under assumed names. The Packers get caught and get kicked out of the league in January 1922. Owners vote Green Bay back into the league six months later, but all teams are now required to post a $1,000 guarantee against using college players, a hefty sum for Curly Lambeau's group to pay now that they no longer have a packing plant sponsoring them.
- A driving rain limits attendance to about 1,500 for a game on Nov. 5, 1922, against the Columbus Panhandles – the Press-Gazette reports a team needs to draw close to 3,000 just to break even – and leaves the Packers $3,400 in debt six games into their NFL schedule. The Packers have rain insurance, but total rainfall falls three one-hundredths of an inch short of the amount needed to collect. That said, their 3-0 victory is huge. The Columbus owner is league president Joe Carr, and the Panhandles, in existence since 1907, are one of the most established teams in pro football.
- Fans organize Booster Day for Nov. 30, 1922, and it ends with a victory over Duluth in a non-league game at Hagemeyer Park. But the game is another financial disaster due to another rainstorm. The crowd falls short of 1,500.
- While little Green Bay is emerging as a strong contender on the field, the 22-team NFL is working to eliminate franchises located in smaller cities as it looks forward to the 1927 season. With that in mind, the league's franchise guarantee is bumped from $1,500 to $2,500. Members of the Packers board and local businessmen meet at the Green Bay Press-Gazette and support club president Andrew Turnbull's pitch to come up with the money to keep Green Bay in the league.
- A local fan pays $1 for a ticket to the Packers' game against Brooklyn on Sept. 20, 1931, injures his back when a set of bleachers collapses at City Stadium, and sues. In February 1933, a jury awards Willard J. Bent roughly $5,000 in damages, and the Packers' insurance company is bankrupt and can't pay. The Packers have won three straight NFL titles from 1929-31, but the Green Bay Football Corp. is forced into receivership in August 1933 to protect its assets.

BLACKBURN TAKES OVER

The Packers hired Vern Lawellen, a local attorney and one of the stars of their 1929-31 championship teams, as general manager, and plucked Lisle Blackburn from Marquette University to become their head coach as part of a reshuffling of the organization in the winter of 1954.

The Packers compiled a disappointing 17-31 record during Blackburn's four years as coach, but they also secured their future during that period by building a new, football-only stadium and drafting what would be the nucleus of future championship teams.

On April 3, 1956, voters approved a referendum to fund construction of the stadium. It was dedicated on Sept. 29, 1957, and officially named Green Bay City Stadium. It was renamed Lambeau Field in 1965.

On Blackburn's watch, the Packers also drafted Forrest Gregg, Bart Starr, Paul Hornung, Jim Taylor and Ray Nitschke, all future Pro Football Hall of Famers.

Despite his shortcomings as a coach, Blackburn had a keen eye for talent – Vince Lombardi would hire him as a scout – and an able, young personnel director in Jack Vainisi, who had been hired by Ronzani and would play a part in luring Lombardi to Green Bay.

Vainisi

McLEAN MOVES UP

After Blackburn was fired following a 3-9 finish in 1957, likeable Ray "Scooter" McLean, backfield coach of the Packers since 1951, was hired as his replacement.

McLean lasted one season. He submitted his resignation under fire on Dec. 17, 1958, following a 1-10-1 finish, the worst in Packers history.

THE LOMBARDI ERA

The Packers' search for McLean's replacement lasted more than a month. Lambeau moved back to Green Bay and applied for the general manager post. Forest Evashevski, a highly successful coach at the University of Iowa, was brought to Green Bay for an interview, but declined the job. Other candidates were considered, as well.

Finally, at 3 p.m. on Jan. 28, 1959, Packers president Dominic Olejniczak announced that Vince Lombardi had accepted a five-year deal to become the team's coach and general manager. Six days later, Lombardi was officially introduced at a press conference at Green Bay's

Hotel Northland where he declared, "I want it understood that I'm in complete command."

Although Lombardi had been backfield coach of the New York Giants for eight years, he was relatively unknown in a sports world much different than today's. Television was still in its infancy, pro football was largely viewed as a second-rate sport and few, if any, assistant coaches were household names.

As a result, a popular question in Green Bay at the time was: "Who the hell is Vince Lombardi?"

It didn't take long for people to find out.

In his first season, Lombardi went 7-5 and was named NFL Coach of the Year. In 1960, the Packers captured the Western Conference, only to lose to Philadelphia in the title game. That would be the last time Lombardi's Packers lost an NFL Championship Game.

They won five world titles in 1961, '62, '65, '66 and '67, including Super Bowls I and II. Over nine years, they compiled a glittering 98-30-4 record (.766) and won none of 10 postseason games.

The Packers would be recognized as the Team of the '60s and as one of the great dynasties in NFL history. Lombardi would be glorified as one of the game's greatest coaches and be posthumously honored by having the Super Bowl trophy named after him.

BENGTSON PERIOD

Following the third consecutive title in 1967, Lombardi turned over the head-coaching duties to Phil Bengtson and one year later announced that he was leaving Green Bay to become coach/GM of the Washington Redskins. Bengtson coached the Packers from 1968-70, compiling a 20-21-1 record. He resigned in December 1970.

THE DEVINE DAYS

Dan Devine, one of the nation's most successful college coaches, succeeded Bengtson as head coach and general manager in January 1971. After settling for a 4-8-2 record during his first year, Devine and the Packers appeared on the road to new heights when 1972 produced a 10-4 record and the team's first Central Division title since 1967. But the Packers' Super Bowl hopes dissolved in the second half of 1973 and they slipped to 5-7-2. They continued their regression in 1974, going 6-8, and Devine resigned.

THE STARR TREK

Winner of a record five NFL championships as a starting quarterback, Bart Starr was the overwhelming choice of Packers fans to succeed Devine, and the executive committee complied by awarding him a three-year contract as head coach and general manager, Dec. 24, 1974. Starr asked for "the prayers and patience of Packer fans everywhere ...

We will earn everything else."

Starr had only one season of experience as a coach – he was Devine's quarterback coach in 1972 – and things didn't turn out as he and Packers fans had hoped. He was handcuffed by a disastrous trade for aging quarterback John Hadl, which was agreed to by Devine just before the trade deadline of his final season. Having given up five prime draft picks in the Hadl deal, the Packers finished 4-10, 5-9 and 4-10 again in Starr's first three seasons. They raised hope with an 8-7-1 finish in 1978, but then couldn't get over the hump.

Over five more seasons, the Packers enjoyed only one winning record, a 5-3-1 finish in the strike-shortened 1982 season. Green Bay made the playoffs that year and beat the St. Louis Cardinals in a home playoff game, but when the Packers went 8-8 in 1983, Starr was fired the day following a disappointing 23-21 loss at Soldier Field to the rival Chicago Bears.

THE GREGG ERA

The Packers replaced Starr with another beloved player from the Lombardi era. On Dec. 24, 1983, Forrest Gregg, a former Starr teammate and one of the premier offensive tackles in football history, became the Packers' ninth head coach. Gregg had led Cincinnati into Super Bowl XVI following the 1981 season and his 19-6 record over the 1981-82 seasons was the best in pro football.

He started out with back-to-back 8-8 seasons as he tried to mold the roster in his own tough-guy image, but he went 4-12 and 5-9-1 in his final two years and resigned (Jan. 15, 1988) to become head coach at his alma mater, Southern Methodist University.

INFANTE SIGNS ON

On Feb. 3, 1988, after interviewing a host of candidates and having his preferred choice, Michigan State coach George Perles, accept the job and then back out, Executive Vice President of Football Operations Tom Braatz hired Lindy Infante as Gregg's successor. Infante, who had been the Cleveland Browns' offensive coordinator, was considered a shrewd play-caller, but except for a 10-6 finish in 1989, his teams largely struggled on offense and he was fired after four seasons.

By then, Braatz also had been fired and replaced by Ron Wolf, who was given the title of general manager and complete control over the Packers' football operation. Wolf was hired on Nov. 27, 1991. Braatz had been hired prior to Gregg's final season as coach in a power-sharing arrangement and was fired one week before Wolf was hired.

The front-office overhaul was executed by Bob Harlan, who had been named president of the Packers prior to the 1989 season after serving the team for 18 years in several administrative roles. Harlan had joined the Packers when Devine was coach and general manager and had witnessed each coaching hire in the years since finish with a worse record than his predecessor.

In the 24 seasons since Lombardi had stepped down as coach, the Packers had finished with a winning record five times and qualified for the playoffs only twice. Harlan was determined to put an end to the drought.

Wolf began the process on Dec. 22, 1991, by firing Infante.

THE HOLMGREN ERA

Wolf named Mike Holmgren, offensive architect of San Francisco's four-time Super Bowl champions, to succeed Infante, Jan. 11, 1992. Holmgren, sought by five other clubs, received a five-year contract. Next, Wolf traded for quarterback Brett Favre, who had played little in his rookie season with Atlanta. But Wolf had rated Favre much higher than most NFL scouts while he was still working for the New York Jets and confidently rolled the dice. Not only hadn't the Packers won in 24 years, but their quarterback situation had been less than desirable for most of that time, as well.

Three games into the Wolf-Holmgren Era, Favre led the Packers to a stunning, last-minute victory over the Cincinnati Bengals at Lambeau Field. The next week, he made his debut as a starter and the Packers were headed in the right direction for the first time in a quarter-century. In 1992, the Packers surprised the NFL with a 9-7 finish. Holmgren became only the third head coach in team history to register a winning record in his first season, and it was punctuated by a six-game winning streak, the team's longest since 1965.

Holmgren guided the Packers into the playoffs in 1993, forging a second-straight 9-7 record. They also won their first playoff game in 11 years on a "Hail Mary" Favre-to-Sterling Sharpe pass in the final minute that eliminated Detroit, 28-24.

They then fell at Dallas, 27-17, in the divisional round.

The Packers reached the playoffs again in 1994 and '95, only to be eliminated on two more occasions by the Cowboys. But the Favre-led Packers were on the upswing. After finishing 9-7 for a third straight time in 1994, they improved to 11-5 and won their first NFC Central Division title since 1972. They also advanced one more round in the playoffs, losing to Dallas in the NFC Championship Game in 1995 after getting bounced in the divisional round the year before. Two highlights of those seasons were holding the incomparable Barry Sanders to minus-1 yard on 13 attempts in a 16-12 playoff victory over Detroit at Lambeau Field following the 1994 season, and formally dethroning the defending Super Bowl champion San Francisco 49ers in their own stadium, 3Com Park, 27-17, in a 1995 NFC Divisional playoff.

Putting nearly three decades of disappointment emphatically behind them, the Packers rewarded their long-patience faithful in 1996. Shutting aside eight of their first nine foes, they swept to a 13-3 record and their second straight division championship. Then, they captured their first NFL title since 1967, dispatching New England, 35-21, in Super Bowl XXXI at the Louisiana Superdome.

Displaying impressive consistency on both sides of the ball, they documented their superiority, outscoring three opponents 100-48 in a postseason sweep. Appropriately, the first two wins were before their Lambeau loyalists – a 35-14 divisional triumph over the 49ers and a 30-13 win over the upstart Carolina Panthers in the NFC title game.

In winning a 12th NFL championship, extending their own league record, the Packers joined an elite group of teams with three or more Super Bowls (Dallas, San Francisco, Pittsburgh, Oakland and Washington).

The Packers thus entered 1997 with an opportunity to win back-to-back Super Bowls for a second time – and came breathtakingly close to achieving their objective. Sweeping to a second consecutive 13-3 mark, they smothered the 49ers on a soggy, rain-swept afternoon in San Francisco, 23-10.

In a seasaw affair, Super Bowl XXXII in San Diego found the Packers trailing Denver at halftime, 17-14. Hopes of a repeat were high, however, when Favre engineered an 85-yard drive, knotting the contest, 24-24, early in the fourth quarter. But the Broncos later scored with only 1:45 remaining and a last-minute Packers drive fell short when Favre's pass for tight end Mark Chmura fell incomplete inside the Denver 20, with only 28 seconds left, sealing the Broncos' 31-24 win.

A third straight Super Bowl trip, a realistic goal at the outset, eluded the Packers in 1998, their 80th season. Historic accomplishment, however, did not, as they advanced to the playoffs for the sixth year in a row, a team record, while posting a seventh consecutive winning season. They set another team record by stretching their Lambeau Field winning streak to 25 games – the second longest in NFL history – before falling to the Minnesota Vikings on Oct. 5. They finished 11-5, equaling another team standard by posting a double-digit victory total for the fourth consecutive year (11-5 in 1995, 13-3 in both 1996 and 1997). The only other time Green Bay had strung together four seasons of 10-plus wins was 67 years earlier – Lambeau's triple NFL champions of 1929-32 (12-0-1 in 1929, 10-3-1 in 1930, 12-2 in 1931 and 10-3-1 in 1932).

In the wake of these considerable achievements, the Packers' season came to a dramatic and painful end in an NFC Wild Card game at San Francisco, when a 27-23 lead abruptly dissolved into a 30-27 49ers victory. Steve Young's 25-yard touchdown pass to Terrell Owens sealed the game with just three seconds left.

Only five days later, Holmgren resigned to become head coach and director of football operations for the Seattle Seahawks.

THE RHODES SEASON

Moving swiftly, Wolf tabbed Ray Rhodes, former Eagles head coach and Green Bay defensive coordinator, as the Packers' 12th head coach on Jan. 11, 1999. The Packers launched 1999 under Rhodes in breath-taking fashion, winning three of the first four games in the last minute. Fate, however, suddenly stopped smiling as Green Bay (8-8) missed the playoffs for the first time since 1992, ending seven straight winning seasons. Saying the Packers lacked the needed toughness and fire, Wolf relieved Rhodes soon after the season finale.

THE SHERMAN TENURE

After searching more than two weeks, Wolf surprised many NFL observers by naming Mike Sherman as the Packers' 13th head coach on Jan. 18, 2000. As recently as the 1997-98 seasons, Sherman had served as the Packers' tight ends/assistant offensive line coach. Sherman finished 9-7, but out of the playoffs his first season. Soon thereafter, on Feb. 1, 2001, Wolf retired as the team's executive vice president and general manager, and Harlan quickly named Sherman to replace Wolf. Sherman became the first head coach with the GM title since Starr in 1980.

Wolf's impressive nine-year tenure included 101 total victories (including eight in the playoffs) and the NFL's best regular-season record (83-45) since the 1993 advent of free agency.

Sherman returned the Packers to the playoffs in 2001 and again in 2002, when they tied for the league's best record at 12-4. But they lost in the second round of the playoffs in 2001 and the first round in 2002.

In 2003, the Packers appeared destined to reach the NFC Championship Game, if not the Super Bowl, when they won their final four regular-season games, including an inspiring 41-7 victory over Oakland engineered by a heavy-hearted Favre following the death of his father. The following week, Green Bay captured an improbable division title in the last two minutes of the season, when Arizona upset Minnesota and the Lambeau Field crowd broke the news to the Packers.

But Donovan McNabb led the Philadelphia Eagles to a come-from-behind, 20-17 overtime win to end an emotional Packers run in the divisional playoffs.

Not to be forgotten, the 2003 season included changes to three of the most-revered records in Packers history (Gregg's 33-year-old consecutive-games streak, broken by Favre; Taylor's 41-year-old season rushing record, surpassed by Ahman Green; and Hutson's 58-year-old career scoring mark, eclipsed by Ryan Longwell).

The Packers won a third straight NFC North title under Sherman in 2004, but lost to Minnesota in a Wild Card playoff at Lambeau.

On Jan. 14, 2005, Harlan restructured the team's football operations, naming Ted Thompson general manager, with full authority over football decisions. Harlan said he based the decision on his belief in a preferred structure – separate individuals for the GM and head-coach positions.

The Packers crumbled to a 4-12 mark in 2005 and Thompson dismissed Sherman.

He made the announcement on Jan. 2, 2006, saying it was time for a new face to lead the team.

THE MCCARTHY ERA

Thompson underwent an intensive nine-day search to tab Mike McCarthy the franchise's 14th head coach (Jan. 12, 2006).

McCarthy guided the Packers to a four-game winning streak to close his first season as head coach with an 8-8 record in 2006, just behind the Giants for the NFC's last postseason spot.

The NFL's youngest club carried that momentum into 2007, winning its first four games and ultimately tying the then-franchise record for regular-season victories with a 13-3 mark.

With Joe Philbin taking over as offensive coordinator, Ryan Grant emerging at midseason as a feature back, and Favre enjoying a brilliant final season in Green Bay, the offense finished second in the league.

Grant then posted franchise playoff records of 201 rushing yards and three touchdowns in a 42-20, snow-filled NFL playoff triumph over Seattle at Lambeau. In the third-coldest game in NFL championship history, with a temperature of minus 1 and wind chill of minus 23 at kickoff, Green Bay fell at home, 23-20, in overtime to the New York Giants in the NFC Championship Game.

In 2008, the torch was passed to Aaron Rodgers from Favre, who retired in March with virtually every significant NFL passing record, un-retired in July and was traded to the New York Jets during the first week of training camp. Rodgers became just the second player in NFL history to pass for more than 4,000 yards in his first season as a starter.

On defense, the team set a franchise record with seven touchdowns, including six on interception returns, leading to Pro Bowl berths for Nick Collins, Charles Woodson and Al Harris. But the team lost seven games by four points or less and finished 6-10.

That led to a series of changes on the coaching staff, most of them on defense, as McCarthy hired Dom Capers as his new defensive coordinator. In 2009, the defense was No. 2 in the league in yards allowed and No. 1 against the run for the first time in team history, setting a franchise record for the fewest rushing yards allowed per game (83.3).

That defensive prowess was highlighted by Woodson winning NFL Defensive Player of the Year, rookie Clay Matthews leading the team in sacks, and Collins joining both as Pro Bowl honorees. On offense, the team set a new franchise record for points (461). The Packers won seven of their final eight regular-season games to finish 11-5 and earn an NFC Wild Card playoff berth.

Rodgers earned his first Pro Bowl nod and threw for a Green Bay postseason-record 423 yards and record-tying four TDs as the Packers rallied from a 21-point second-half deficit but fell 51-45 in overtime at Arizona, marking the highest-scoring postseason game in NFL history.

The team got out to a 3-1 start in 2010, but injuries to key players mounted. By season's end, the Packers would place 15 players on the season-ending injury list.

Despite the injuries, the Packers never blinked. Defensively, they ranked No. 2 in the NFL in scoring defense at 15.0 points per game. Matthews, who racked up 13½ sacks, was voted a Pro Bowl starter and a consensus first-team All-Pro and was named the league's defensive player of the year by various publications. In the secondary, Woodson set career highs in tackles and forced fumbles. Tramon Williams led the team with six interceptions, earning his first bid to the Pro Bowl, where he was joined by Collins, who was chosen for the third consecutive year.

The Packers became the first team since 1970 to never trail a game by more than seven points over an entire season. Green Bay secured the sixth and final seed in the NFC playoffs with a 10-6 record.

The Packers won the Wild Card game at Philadelphia by a score of 21-16. The following week they traveled to Atlanta and beat the top-seeded Falcons, 48-21, on the strength of a near-flawless display of quarterbacking by Rodgers (31 of 36 for 366 yards and three TDs).

For the NFC championship, the Packers beat their division rival, the Chicago Bears, 21-14, as the defense forced three Chicago turnovers.

The Super Bowl pitted the Packers against the AFC champion Pittsburgh Steelers. The Packers stormed out to a 21-3 lead in the first half, with two touchdowns from Rodgers and one on an interception return by Collins. The Packers were forced to overcome injuries, as veteran stalwarts Donald Driver and Woodson were both ruled out of the game late in the first half.

The Steelers fought their way back, but a forced fumble by Matthews at the start of the fourth quarter led to another Rodgers touchdown pass. Forcing a turnover on downs on Pittsburgh's final drive, the Packers won the franchise's fourth Super Bowl, 31-25.

Despite no offseason program and an abbreviated training-camp schedule due to the work stoppage, the Packers recorded a franchise-best 15-1 record in 2011, becoming just the sixth team in NFL history to reach the 15-win plateau, and when combining the start of 2011 with the six wins that closed out 2010, the 19-game winning streak was the longest in team history and second longest in league annals.

Rodgers earned the league's Most Valuable Player award and consensus first-team All-Pro honors from almost every major publication after posting an NFL-record 122.5 cumulative passer rating.

In the postseason, Green Bay lost to the eventual Super Bowl champion New York Giants in the divisional round, 37-20.

In 2012, the club recovered from a 2-3 start to win nine of the final 11 games and back-to-back NFC North titles. Matthews became the first player in franchise history to be named to the Pro Bowl in each of his first four seasons in the league.

After winning the Wild Card matchup with the division-rival Minnesota Vikings, the Packers fell, 45-31, to San Francisco.

The Packers welcomed the 2013 campaign with an upgraded facility that was highlighted by the addition of 6,700 new seats. Despite being beset by injuries to key players, including losing Rodgers for seven games due to a broken collarbone, Green Bay won the division for the third straight year after beating the Bears in Week 17.

The Packers' season would end at Lambeau Field in the Wild Card game, as San Francisco kicked a game-winning 33-yard field goal as time expired.

After road losses in two of the first three games of the 2014 season, the Packers won 11 of the final 13 games to finish 12-4, going 8-0 at home. Green Bay's fourth consecutive division title was led by Rodgers, who earned NFL MVP honors from AP for the second time in his career.

The Packers' home success during the regular season continued with a 26-21 win over the Dallas Cowboys in the divisional round. The season came to an end the following week in Seattle after the Seahawks rallied in the final minutes of the fourth quarter to beat the Packers, 28-22, in overtime.

In 2015, the Packers started 6-0 for just the fourth time since 1945. Green Bay honored Favre by unveiling his name and retired No. 4 during halftime of the Packers' first home Thanksgiving game since 1923. The Packers had an up-and-down last 10 games to finish with a 10-6 record and the No. 5 seed in the postseason.

After a 35-18 victory at Washington, Green Bay faced the Cardinals nearly three weeks after losing at Arizona. After a back-and-forth game, Rodgers heaved a pass to the end zone that WR Jeff Janis leaped to grab and the game went into overtime. For the second consecutive year, Green Bay's season would end on the first possession of overtime as Arizona went 80 yards in three plays to score a touchdown and win, 26-20.

The offseason saw Favre elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

After starting the 2016 season 3-1, the Packers dropped five of the next six games to sit at 4-6. A road Monday night victory at Philadelphia started a six-game winning streak that was the longest by the Packers to end a regular season since 1941 (nine games).

The NFC North-champion Packers beat the New York Giants at home, 38-13, in the Wild Card round and used two 50-plus-yard field goals from Mason Crosby in the final minutes to win, 34-31, at Dallas. Green Bay appeared in an NFC-leading fourth NFC Championship Game since 2007, but lost, 44-21, at Atlanta.

Green Bay opened the 2017 season with a 4-1 record, marking the fourth time under McCarthy that the Packers won at least four of their first five games. In Week 6, the season changed as the Packers lost Rodgers to a collarbone injury that would only allow him to play in one more game the rest of the season. Brett Hundley would step in to lead the Packers.

After three consecutive losses dropped Green Bay to 4-4, Hundley would lead the Packers to wins in three of the next five games. With playoff hopes still alive, Rodgers returned in Week 16, but the Packers fell seven points short of the Panthers. Hundley finished out a season that ended with a 7-9 record.

The offseason brought a slew of changes. Thompson transitioned to a role as senior advisor to football operations while Brian Gutekunst was named general manager and Russ Ball was promoted to executive vice president/director of football operations. McCarthy also revamped his coaching staff with numerous changes, including welcoming back Joe Philbin as offensive coordinator and hiring Mike Pettine as defensive coordinator.

The 2018 season started with a come-from-behind victory over the Bears that was fueled by a hobbled Rodgers.

Green Bay's 100th season would be the last for McCarthy. After going 3-7-1 in the next 11 games, the Packers parted ways and named offensive coordinator Philbin as interim head coach. Green Bay finished 2-2 in the final four games for an overall record of 6-9-1.

THE LaFLEUR ERA

On Jan. 8, 2019, Matt LaFleur was named the 15th head coach in franchise history. He brought 10 years of coaching experience in the NFL and 17 overall to Green Bay, having previously served as an offensive coordinator in 2017-18 (Tennessee Titans, 2018; Los Angeles Rams, 2017) and a quarterbacks coach for seven years (Atlanta Falcons, 2015-16; Notre Dame, 2014; Washington Redskins, 2010-13).

The Packers not only brought in a new coach in 2019, but Gutekunst also added veteran LBs Za'Darius Smith and Preston Smith as well as S Adrian Amos and G/T Billy Turner, who would all become key contributors.

Green Bay came out strong as LaFleur became the 19th NFL head coach and the first since Jim Harbaugh in 2011 to win at least seven of his first eight games.

The Packers fell on the road in two of the next three contests, but responded by winning their final five games to secure a 13-3 record and the No. 2 seed in the NFC as LaFleur led the biggest one-year win improvement in franchise annals (plus-seven wins).

Green Bay won its first NFC North title since 2016 and finished 6-0 in the division for just the second time (2011) since the league went to a divisional format in 1967. LaFleur became the first coach in franchise history to lead his team to the postseason in his first season and the first head coach in team history to lead the Packers to a division title in his first season.

The Packers defeated the Seattle Seahawks in the divisional round, 28-23, to advance to their first NFC title contest since 2016. That would be as far as Green Bay would go as the Packers lost, 37-20, to the 49ers in the NFC Championship Game.

RB Aaron Jones enjoyed a breakout season, registering a franchise-best 23 total touchdowns (including playoffs). T David Bakhtiari and Rodgers were original selections to the Pro Bowl and WR Davante Adams, DL Kenny Clark and Za'Darius Smith were named to the Pro Bowl as injury replacements.

The 2020 season was unlike any seen by the sports world. A global health pandemic known as COVID-19 dramatically changed how team sports operated. The normal in-person NFL offseason was switched to a virtual program for the spring. Teams first reported to their facilities for in-person practice and meetings in late July for training camp, and all preseason games were canceled. For training camp and most of the regular season, practices and games took place in front of empty stands.

The Packers opened the regular season with four consecutive wins and scored 30-plus points in each contest. Green Bay matched the four games with 30-plus points later in the season (Weeks 11-14) to mark the first time in franchise history that the Packers had two separate streaks of four straight games with 30-plus points in a season.

Green Bay lost two of the next three before back-to-back wins. An overtime loss at Indianapolis was the last of the regular-season, as Green Bay reeled off six straight wins, marking only the second time in team history (1996-97) that the Packers had ended the regular season on a winning streak of five-plus games in back-to-back years (five in 2019). Green Bay finished with a 13-3 record, marking just the second time in team history that the Packers won 13-plus games in back-to-back seasons (13-3 in both 1996 and 1997). Green Bay won the NFC North for the second consecutive season, and the 11-1 (.917) record in division games marked only the second time that the Packers had lost one or fewer division games over a two-year span (dating back to 1967).

The offense scored the second-most points in a season (509) in team history (560 in 2011). Rodgers' NFL-leading 121.5 passer rating was the second-highest single-season mark by a quarterback in NFL history, trailing only his 122.5 rating in 2011.

Rodgers was one of seven Packers named to the Pro Bowl (Adams, CB Jaire Alexander, Bakhtiari, G Elton Jenkins, Jones, Rodgers and Z. Smith), including six who were named starters (all but Jones), giving Green Bay the most starter selections since it had eight in 1967. The Packers had six players named All-Pro by AP (Alexander, Z. Smith) including four first-team selections (Adams, Bakhtiari, C Corey Linsley, Rodgers) which were the most by Green Bay since 1967 (six).

Adams had a historically great season, tying WR Sterling Sharpe (1994) for the most receiving TDs in a season (18, tied for No. 3 in NFL history). Adams was the first NFL player to have 15-plus TD receptions and average 95-plus receiving yards and eight-plus receptions per game.

After a regular season in which Green Bay earned the No. 1 seed in the NFC for the third time since 1990 (1996, 2011), the Packers beat the Los Angeles Rams to earn a trip to the NFC title game for the ninth time since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger and the fourth time since 2014 (2014, 2016, 2019), the most in the NFC over that span. It marked the first time since 1995-97 that Green Bay appeared in consecutive NFC title games. But the road would end there as the Buccaneers defeated the Packers at Lambeau, 31-26.

In 2021, the world and league continued to navigate the COVID-19 health pandemic, but preseason games and full stadiums of fans returned. It was the first season under the league's new schedule that featured a 17-game regular season while the preseason was reduced to three contests.

After a loss in Week 1 to the New Orleans Saints Green Bay went on a roll, winning seven straight contests. The winning streak was the longest by the Packers since 2011 (13) and marked the sixth time Green Bay started a season 7-1 or better, including the second time under the direction of LaFleur (1996, 2002, 2007, 2011, 2019). Dating back to 1940, it was just the second time the Packers won at least seven of their first eight games two times in the span of three seasons (8-0 in 1962 and 7-1 in 1963).

Green Bay suffered two road losses over the next three games, but got back on track and started a five-game winning streak with a victory over the Rams in Week 12. A win over Minnesota in Week 17 at the tail end of the streak secured the Packers their third consecutive 13-win season, third straight NFC North title and second consecutive No. 1 seed in the NFC.

It was the sixth time in franchise history that the Packers won at least three consecutive division titles (1960-62, 1965-67, 1995-97, 2002-04, 2011-14). Green Bay became the first team in NFL history to win 13-plus regular-season games in three straight seasons. LaFleur (39-10, .796) passed George Seifert (38-10, .791, 1989-91) for the most wins by an NFL head coach in his first three seasons in the league.

For the fourth time in his career, Rodgers led the league in passer rating (111.9) in 2021, joining Steve Young (six times), Roger Staubach (four) and Ken Anderson (four) as the only players to lead the NFL in rating at least four times since 1970. Rodgers threw for 37 touchdowns, marking his eighth season with at least 30 TD passes, the fifth most in NFL history (Tom Brady, Brett Favre and Peyton Manning, nine / Drew Brees, 10).

Rodgers was named NFL Most Valuable Player by AP and by the Pro Football Writers of America for the 2021 season. He became the fifth player in NFL history to win consecutive MVPs and ranks No. 2 with four AP MVP awards (2011, 2014, 2020, 2021), trailing only Manning's five. It was Rodgers' fourth overall PFWA MVP award (2011, 2014, 2020, 2021), tying him with Manning for the most in the history of the PFWA. Rodgers also earned All-Pro honors from the AP for the fifth time (first team in 2011, 2014, 2020 and 2021, second team in 2012) and was selected to the Pro Bowl for the 10th time in his career (2009, 2011-12, 2014-16, 2018-21), passing Favre and T Forrest Gregg for the most Pro Bowl selections by a Packer.

Adams set new single-season team records for receptions (123) and receiving yards (1,553) and became the first player in team history with three 100-catch seasons (2018, 2020-21). He was the only player in league history with 115-plus catches, 1,350-plus receiving yards and 11-plus receiving TDs in back-to-back seasons (2020-21). Adams was named All-Pro by AP as one of five unanimous first-team selections. He became the first Green Bay receiver to be selected All-Pro in back-to-back seasons since Sharpe in 1992-93. Adams also earned his fifth straight selection to the Pro Bowl (2017-21), making him only the second Packers WR to make five-plus consecutive Pro Bowls (Lofton, six in a row from 1980-85). Adams' five career selections are tied with Sharpe for the second most by a WR in franchise history (Lofton, seven).

After a successful 13-4 regular season, Green Bay hosted the San Francisco 49ers in the NFC Divisional Playoff. On a cold, snowy night at Lambeau Field, the Packers came up short as a last-second field goal by Robbie Gould ended Green Bay's season.

The 2022 season saw the Packers fall just short of the postseason with an 8-9 record, but Green Bay reached 790 regular-season victories, the most in NFL history. The Packers were 4-4 in the eight games they played against teams that made the playoffs in 2022. Of the Packers' 14 opponents, 10 finished the 2022 season with eight-plus wins.

Green Bay opened the season with wins in three of the first four contests. In Week 5, the Packers became the 32nd NFL team to play in London since 2007, falling to the Giants in what was the first London matchup between two teams with winning records. The overseas trip started what was a five-game losing streak for Green Bay, with four of the five losses coming on the road.

The Packers snapped the streak with a win over Dallas in Week 10, which was former Packers head coach Mike McCarthy's first game back at Lambeau Field. It was Green Bay's second win in overtime on the season, tied for the second most in a season by Green Bay since 2000 behind only three wins in 2017.

Green Bay lost the next two games but rebounded with its eighth straight win against the Bears, the Packers' longest winning streak vs. Chicago since a seven-gamer in 2000-03 and tied for the second longest behind only a 10-game winning streak vs. the Bears from 1994-98.

After the latest bye (Week 14) ever for Green Bay, the Packers beat the Los Angeles Rams at home, marking Green Bay's sixth straight win on Monday Night Football, the longest streak in team history.

The Packers played on Christmas for the second straight year, the fourth time in franchise history and for the first time on the road. Green Bay came back from 10 points down to win at Miami, marking the third double-digit comeback for the Packers (10 points at Chicago / 14 points vs. Dallas) and tying for the most in a single season in franchise history (2017, 2002, 1990).

After beating the Vikings at home in Week 17, Green Bay fell to the Detroit Lions to end the season.

PACKERS TIMELINE

1919

- Packers organized over course of two meetings in editorial rooms of Green Bay Press-Gazette (Aug. 11 and 14). Indian Packing Co. of Green Bay sponsors team its first two seasons.

1921

- Packers win "Ice Bowl," edge Cowboys, 21-17, for third consecutive NFL title; Bart Starr's last-minute, 1-yard sneak wins game in minus 13 temperature (Dec. 31).

14 TIMES WORLD CHAMPIONS?

The Packers won their first three NFL championships (1929-31) based on the league's final standings. In 1933, the league divided its 10 teams into two divisions and the two winners faced each other to settle the championship.

In 1932, there was an unofficial championship game won by the Chicago Bears, 9-0, over the Portsmouth Spartans. Had the NFL counted ties then like they do now, the Packers would have won a fourth straight title.

Since 1972, ties have counted as a half-win. From 1921-71, ties weren't included in a team's winning percentage.

In 1932, the Chicago-Portsmouth game was counted in the final standings. But had ties counted as a half-win, there would have been no need for an extra game.

EARL LOUIS "CURLY" LAMBEAU

Curly Lambeau, a native of Green Bay who first made a name for himself as a star football player at Green Bay East High School, was the guiding force behind the creation of the Green Bay Packers and their improbable survival in the National Football League. Maybe Lambeau's senior class prophecy best explains why he was able to not only persevere but also succeed beyond anyone else's dreams:

"When I get thru (sic) with athletics I'm going out and conquer the rest of the world," Lambeau proclaimed in his school annual.

After graduating from East in 1917, Lambeau waited a year before enrolling at the University of Notre Dame, where he started at fullback as a freshman on Knute Rockne's first team. Shortly after the season ended, Lambeau dropped out of school, fell ill with tonsillitis and eventually returned to Green Bay, where he took a job with the Indian Packing Co.

As fall approached, Lambeau's only real option for continuing his football pursuits was to join a citywide team, something Green Bay had fielded off and on going back to 1895. Together with George Whitney Calhoun, city editor at the Green Bay Press-Gazette who had managed the 1918 city team, they took a lead role in organizing a new, more formidable one.

The first meeting was held on Aug. 11, 1919. The second was held on Aug. 14, where Lambeau was named captain and Calhoun, manager. Lambeau was 21 years old at the time, and most of his teammates were like him — young former standouts at either East or West high school.

Indian Packing sponsored the semipro team, and to no one's surprise, Lambeau turned out to be its first star, leading the Packers to a 10-1 record against an independent schedule. In 1920, the Packers again played mostly teams from other Wisconsin and Upper Michigan towns, and Lambeau led them to a 9-1-1 record.

Following the 1920 season, Acme Packing Co. of Chicago purchased Indian Packing, and Lambeau persuaded John and J. Emmett Clair, who were running the plant in Green Bay, to pursue a franchise in what was then the year-old American Professional Football Association. The Clairs agreed and Acme was awarded a franchise on Aug. 27, 1921.

From the beginning, thanks in large part to Lambeau's prowess as a passer and all-around back, the Packers were competitive on the field even against the league's best. In the Packers' first league game, Lambeau led a come-from-behind, 7-6 victory over the Minneapolis Marines. The biggest play was a late pass to Buff Wagner that set up the winning touchdown.

In 1922, the APFA became the NFL, and the Packers continued to lure better players — some from big-time college programs, some with pro experience — and steadily improved.

They were 3-2-1 the first year. In their third year, they climbed to 7-2-1. In 1929, they compiled a 12-0-1 record, still the best in Packers history, and won their first of three straight NFL championships.

The Packers faced a greater struggle off the field trying to survive financially, but Lambeau nurtured the franchise in some of those areas, as well.

Both charming and persistent, he was a persuasive recruiter at a time when there was no college draft and all players were free to sign with any team. It also helped that he had a keen eye for talent.

One of only six NFL coaches to win 200 or more regular-season games, he also won a record six NFL championships, tying him with George Halas of the Chicago Bears and Bill Belichick of the New England Patriots.

The three straight titles from 1929-31 were decided by the final standings. Under the NFL's playoff system, adopted in 1933, Lambeau won three more in 1936, 1939 and 1944. To this day, more than 90 years later, only twice have teams won three straight NFL crowns: Lambeau's Packers and Vince Lombardi's 1965-67 Packers.

Six of Lambeau's players also have been inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame: Cal Hubbard, Mike Michalske, Johnny "Blood" McNally, Arnie Herber, Don Hutson and Tony Canadeo.

Even though Green Bay was the NFL's smallest city from the start, Lambeau endured only one losing season from 1921-47. The Packers finished 5-7-1 in 1933.

But the end was a bitter pill for Lambeau to swallow. After the great Don Hutson retired following the 1945 season, the troubles and rancor within the organization grew exponentially.

The 1946 purchase of Rockwood Lodge, a training quarters located 15 miles northeast of Green Bay, was draining the franchise financially. City Stadium, the Packers' home field since 1925, was structurally and economically obsolete.

Lambeau stubbornly resisted switching from his Notre Dame Box offense to a variation of the T-formation until 1947. He was spending his offseasons in California as pro football was becoming more of a year-round business, something that had become a sore point with the franchise's board of directors. "Lambeau's gone Hollywood," groused board members and fans alike.

On top of it all, there was a new league to contend with, the All-America Football Conference. The price of draft picks and veteran players was shooting skyward as the Packers' finances were dwindling.

In 1948, Green Bay finished with a losing record, 3-9, for only the second time in 28 years. The 1949 season was worse. Lambeau decided to play more of an advisory role and coach from the press box following an opening-day loss to the Chicago Bears, and the Packers dropped to 2-10. They also were forced to play an intrasquad game on Thanksgiving Day to raise enough money to hit the road for their final three games.

The discontent grew.

Before the end of the season there was a movement afoot among Lambeau's enemies on the board to oust him as coach and general manager. He survived a contentious meeting on Nov. 30, 1949, where his future was debated for nearly four hours. But he was losing his power struggle.

On Feb. 1, 1950, Lambeau resigned to become coach of the Chicago Cardinals. In less than two seasons with the Cardinals and two others with the Washington Redskins (1952-53), his record was 17-28-1.

Lambeau died of a heart attack on June 1, 1965, at the age of 67. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame as a charter member in 1963.

LAMBEAU AT A GLANCE ...

- Born April 9, 1898, in Green Bay. His father, Marcel, helped with the construction of both the Indian Packing Co. and the fence and bleachers at Hagemeister Park.
- In the fall of 1917, Lambeau planned to play at the University of Wisconsin and the school was anticipating that he'd be a key member of the freshman team, but he never practiced or enrolled at the school.
- In his one season at the University of Notre Dame, Lambeau started in the same backfield as George Gipp.
- From 1919-21, at the same time he was shepherding and playing for the early Packers, Lambeau coached Green Bay East High School. His star player was Jim Crowley, who later coached Vince Lombardi at Fordham University after gaining fame as one of Notre Dame's "Four Horsemen."
- The only coaches in NFL history who have won more regular-season games than Lambeau are Don Shula, George Halas, Bill Belichick and Tom Landry.
- The only coaches in NFL history to win as many championships as Lambeau are Halas and Belichick. They each won six.

#—Won NFL championship

DONALD MONTGOMERY HUTSON

There's no better testament to Don Hutson's dominance in pro football than the 1946 National Football League Record and Rules Manual. Nearly a full page was devoted to the 19 league records Hutson held when he retired following the 1945 season. At the time, he held eight career records, four single-season records, one game record and six miscellaneous records.

Hutson not only held those benchmarks, he literally obliterated the previous records in the process.

He was the NFL's all-time leading scorer with 825 points. Future Pro Football Hall of Fame halfback Ken Strong was second with 422. Hutson's 105 career touchdowns comprised another of his scoring records. Former Packers halfback Verne Lewellen was second with 50.

Hutson was the NFL's all-time leading receiver with 488 receptions. Jim Benton was next with 190. Hutson also held the record for most receiving yards with 7,991. Again, Benton was second with 3,309 yards, or not even half of Hutson's total.

No player before or since has statistically dominated the game the way Hutson did from 1935 to 1945.

A native of Pine Bluff, Ark., and a product of the University of Alabama, Hutson signed with the Packers in February 1935. That was the year before the first NFL draft and Hutson was free to sign with any team in the league.

The story often told by Curly Lambeau was that he scouted Hutson in the Rose Bowl and that the Alabama star signed two contracts — one with the Packers and another with John "Shipwreck" Kelly, a minority owner of the Brooklyn Dodgers — and league president Joe Carr awarded him to Green Bay based on the postmarks on the two envelopes mailed to his office. Lambeau wasn't at the Rose Bowl and the NFL office has no record of Brooklyn submitting a second contract, so only Lambeau and Hutson would have known if there was any truth to the story.

But what's beyond doubt is that Hutson couldn't have landed with a team more suited to his skills. The Packers under Lambeau were pro football's pioneers of the forward pass.

They only became more prolific with Hutson, and more successful. They had won three NFL championships before Hutson's arrival and they would win three more during his 11-year career.

Hutson set the tone in what essentially served as his coming-out party. On the first offensive play of his second pro game, he ran a fly pattern and caught an 83-yard touchdown pass from Arnie Herber as the Packers beat the rival Bears, 7-0.

Hutson would go on to lead the NFL in receptions eight times and in receiving yards seven times. He would lead it in scoring five times. He was named the league's official MVP in 1941 and 1942. He was named to either the Official NFL or The Associated Press all-pro team, or both, nine times.

Teammates and opponents alike were in awe of his abilities as a pass receiver. In 2000, Bernie Scherer, another of the Packers' ends from 1936 to 1938, said, "Don Hutson was the Jerry Rice of his era."

"He was the best I've ever seen. I don't like to compare players then with players now. But he was head and shoulders above the ones in that era," said Bulldog Turner, legendary center and linebacker for the Chicago Bears.

The rules of the game for most of Hutson's career forced players to play both offense and defense. For that reason, most ends were tall and strapping, or short and stocky. They had to be formidable blockers and play defensive end in a seven-man front.

Hutson was no different, at least until near the end of his career.

He normally lined up a yard from the left tackle in the Packers' Notre Dame Box offense, although Lambeau would put in special plays and split him out at times. Defensively, Hutson, at 6 feet, 1 inch tall and 183 pounds, played on the line for most of his first four seasons.

As a result, he was a liability as both a blocker and defender.

But he was a nonpareil as a receiver.

That's why his legacy has stood the test of time. Along with dominating the game as a receiver, he revolutionized the position. He was a specialist and a playmaker when that meant he was one-of-a-kind, not one of many.

Starting in 1939, when the Packers added blocking back-defensive end Larry Craig, Hutson also was able to move into the secondary on defense. Over his final six seasons, he intercepted 30 passes. Hutson also kicked extra points from 1940 to 1945.

Upon retirement, his No. 14 was the first retired by the Packers, and he also was one of the Pro Football Hall of Fame's charter inductees.

Donald Montgomery Hutson, born on Jan. 31, 1913, in Pine Bluff, Ark., died on June 26, 1997, at the age of 84.

HUTSON AT A GLANCE ...

- Hutson was the first Packers player to have his number retired. His No. 14 was retired in 1951. He also was a charter inductee in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1963 and in the Packers Hall of Fame in 1970.
- When Hutson played, he was listed as an end. To call him a wide receiver would be a misnomer. While he might have been a forerunner of today's wideouts, he normally lined up a yard from the left tackle in Curly Lambeau's Notre Dame Box offense.
- Hutson benefited greatly when the Packers added Larry Craig in 1939. Up to that point, Hutson had to double as an offensive and defensive end at 6 feet, 1 inch tall and 183 pounds. Craig, whose nickname was "Superman," played blocking back on offense and shifted to end on defense, allowing Hutson to move into the secondary and take less of a beating.
- While Hutson has been credited with running anywhere from 9.5 to 9.7 in the 100-yard dash, he was actually described as having "deceptive speed" during his pro career and probably ran closer to a 10-flat. As a senior, he finished second in the 220-yard dash in the Southeastern Conference meet, but he never placed in the top three in the 100. Jesse Owens' winning time in the 100 in the 1935 NCAA Track & Field Championships was 9.8.
- Hutson averaged 60 catches and 951 yards in the four seasons from 1942 to 1945, when hundreds of other NFL players were away at war, compared to averages of 39 receptions and 642 yards in his other eight seasons.

Completed 11 of 11 passes (9.1 percent) for 38 yards, 1 TD and 2 INT; returned 5 kickoffs for 45 yards; scored 823 points (including 7 for 17 on FG attempts and 172 for 183 on PAT attempts).

VINCENT THOMAS LOMBARDI

Nearly five decades after his death, Vince Lombardi remains one of the most recognizable sports figures of all time.

His name graces the Super Bowl trophy. His likeness can be seen in a 14-foot statue at Lambeau Field. A flamboyant and captivating figure, he has been the subject of a Broadway play, an HBO documentary and a best-selling biography.

In his nine seasons as head coach of the Packers, Lombardi won five NFL championships, including victories in Super Bowls I and II. His regular-season record of 89-29-4 calculates to a remarkable .754 winning percentage, and his postseason record was an even more remarkable 9-1.

And yet, Lombardi's name wasn't always so recognizable.

On Dec. 17, 1958, Ray "Scooter" McLean resigned under fire following a 1-10-1 season, the worst in Packers history. The search to replace him took exactly six weeks. At the time, Lombardi had been running the New York Giants' offense for five years. During that period, the Giants had won the 1956 NFL championship and lost the memorable 1958 title game to the Baltimore Colts in overtime. But Lombardi's title was simply backfield coach, and he wasn't well known outside NFL circles.

What's more, Lombardi had never been a head coach anywhere but St. Cecilia High School in New Jersey.

He certainly wasn't a household name in Green Bay. So when club president Dominic Olejniczak recommended him to the executive committee, member John Torinus replied, "Who the hell is Vince Lombardi?"

So did many fans. But it didn't take long to find out.

Olejniczak announced at 3 p.m. on Jan. 28, 1959, at a press conference at the Hotel Northland, that Lombardi had accepted a five-year contract as coach and general manager. Lombardi arrived in Green Bay on Feb. 2 and was introduced at a press luncheon at the Northland the next day.

It was there that he declared, "I want it understood that I'm in complete command." Just as emphatically, he also stressed, "I've never been associated with a loser and I don't expect to be now."

The Packers' board of directors officially followed through on its promises to Lombardi at an April 28 meeting when it reduced the executive committee from 13 to seven members and streamlined the administrative operation.

By then, Lombardi was well on his way to changing the culture of the organization and making a lasting impression on his players. That first offseason, he and his assistants spent countless hours watching film of the previous year's games. He summoned players for individual and small-group meetings, one of which led to the trade of the team's biggest star, receiver Billy Howton.

Lombardi ordered walls to be knocked down and carved out a nice office for himself as part of a remodeling project at the team's office building on Washington Street. He settled on retaining St. Norbert College as the team's headquarters for training camp. He changed the uniforms to a design that, for the most part, is still in use today.

Lombardi's offense was basic and methodical. His signature play was the Power Sweep, now often referred to as the Lombardi Sweep. It consisted of the halfback — normally Paul Hornung for much of Lombardi's time in Green Bay — following pulling guards Jerry Kramer and Fuzzy Thurston.

Lombardi was famous for his pursuit of perfection, often dedicating long hours of film study or practice to just one element of one play.

His first season was a stunning success. He used many of the same players from that 1-10-1 team of 1958 and finished 7-5 in 1959, winning unanimous coach of the year honors. His first game was a 9-6 victory over the Chicago Bears in City Stadium — later renamed Lambeau Field — and when it was over, the players carried their coach off the field in triumph.

In 1960, the Packers won the Western Conference title, going 8-4. That brought Lombardi to his first NFL Championship Game, which the Packers lost, 17-13, to the Eagles at Franklin Field.

It didn't take long for Lombardi to earn redemption, however. In 1961, after an 11-3 season, the Packers demolished his former team, the Giants, 37-0, winning the team's first title since 1944.

His teams went on to capture four more NFL crowns: in 1962, 1965, 1966 and 1967. Green Bay also won the first two Super Bowls after the 1966 and 1967 titles, respectively. In Lombardi's final game as Green Bay head coach, the Packers defeated Oakland, 33-14, in Super Bowl II at the Orange Bowl in Miami.

But the Packers' 1967 season isn't remembered for that Super Bowl. Instead, the 1967 campaign is remembered for the NFL title game against Dallas, perhaps the most famous game in football history, now commonly referred to as the "Ice Bowl." The Lambeau Field temperature at kickoff that day (Dec. 31, 1967) was minus 13, with the wind chill dipping to minus 46.

Lombardi had heating coils installed underneath the Lambeau Field turf prior to the season and had proudly showed them off the day before the game. But on a day when they were dearly needed, they didn't work and it wasn't because of an electrical problem. Moisture had built up overnight under a tarp and started turning to ice soon after the tarp was removed. Consequently, the thermostat couldn't be cranked up high enough to deal with the severe conditions.

With 13 seconds left, Bart Starr's 1-yard touchdown plunge gave the Packers a come-from-behind 21-17 victory.

Lombardi retired as head coach after the season, but retained his general manager's duties for one more year.

Ultimately, Lombardi was bored being "out of action" and in 1969 accepted the head-coaching position with the Washington Redskins, a franchise that hadn't had a winning season in 13 years. In Lombardi's first and only season in Washington, the team went 7-5-2.

Shortly after Lombardi's 1970 death, before Super Bowl V, commissioner Pete Rozelle made what remains arguably the greatest tribute in league history, naming the Super Bowl championship trophy the Vince Lombardi Trophy.

In August 2003, before the rededication of a renovated Curly Field, the Packers unveiled statues of Lombardi and team founder Curly Lambeau in what is now the Robert E. Harlan Plaza outside the Lambeau Field Atrium. Each statue is 14 feet high atop a four-foot base and two-foot steps.

Lombardi was named head coach of the Packers when he was 45 years old. Along with serving as an assistant with the New York Giants, he also had been a college assistant at Fordham and Army. He also played collegiately at Fordham, where he was a member of the legendary "Seven Blocks of Granite."

Perhaps the most famous quote commonly attributed to Lombardi wasn't even his own. Legendary actor John Wayne uttered the phrase "Winning isn't everything, it's the only thing!" in a 1953 film called Trouble Along the Way.

Vincent Thomas Lombardi, born June on 11, 1913, in Brooklyn, N.Y., died of cancer on Sept. 3, 1970, at the age of 57.

LOMBARDI AT A GLANCE ...

- Born June 11, 1913. Grew up in the Sheepshead Bay neighborhood of Brooklyn.
- Hoped to become a priest and enrolled at Cathedral College of the Immaculate Conception following eighth grade. Four years later, Lombardi transferred to Brooklyn's St. Francis Prep, where he played one season of high school football.
- Enrolled at Fordham University in the fall of 1933, where he played under Jim Crowley, who had played high school football at Green Bay East under Curly Lambeau. As a senior in 1936, Lombardi started at right guard on Fordham's celebrated "Seven Blocks of Granite" front line.
- Wellington Mara, late owner of the New York Giants and member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, was a classmate at Fordham. They graduated together in the spring of 1937.
- After Fordham, Lombardi played some pro ball for the Brooklyn Eagles and some semipro football for the Wilmington Clippers. He enrolled in Fordham's law school in 1938, but lasted only a semester.
- Accepted a teaching position at St. Cecilia High School in Englewood, N.J., in the fall of 1939. Got the job when former Fordham teammate and new football coach Andrew Palau asked him to be his line coach. Lombardi's starting salary was $1,700. He also coached basketball, and taught physics, chemistry and Latin.
- Became head football coach at St. Cecilia in 1942. In five seasons with the Saints, his teams compiled a 32-game unbeaten streak, including a 25-game winning streak.
- Coached as an assistant at Fordham (1946-48) and at Army (the United States Military Academy) under legendary Earl "Red" Blaik from 1949-53. Was backfield coach of the New York Giants from 1954-58.
- Carried off the field at least five times by his players. The first time was his first game with the Packers, the 1959 opener against Chicago; the last game was his last game, Super Bowl II.

GREEN BAY'S SIX RETIRED UNIFORM NUMBERS

The Green Bay Packers formally retired Brett Favre's No. 4 on Saturday, July 18, 2015, in conjunction with his induction into the Packers Hall of Fame. His retired number was formally unveiled on Thursday, Nov. 26, 2015, at a Thanksgiving night game vs. the Chicago Bears. The retirement of No. 4 marked only the sixth time in the history of the franchise that the team formally removed a uniform number from circulation.

The last player who had his number retired was Reggie White, whose No. 92 was retired in the 2005 home opener. The gesture was not spurred by White's premature death in December 2004. In fact, then-Packers CEO Bob Harlan had met with White three months before he passed away and told him of the team's plans to retire the number during the '05 season. Favre's number joined the retired numbers displayed on the green façade of Lambeau Field's north end zone.

Like Favre, the five previous players to have their number retired by the Packers are in the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

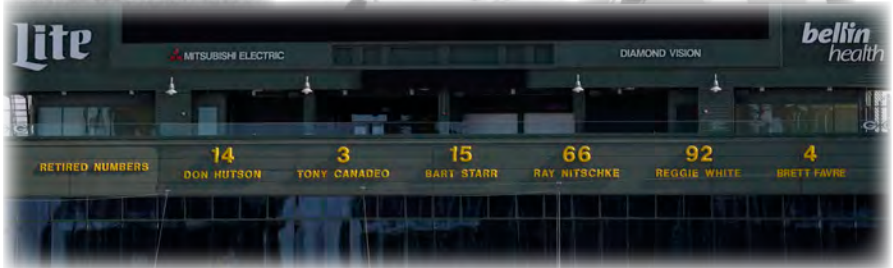

There is no documented record of Tony Canadeo having his No. 3 retired during a public ceremony, but the Packers officially recognized it as one of their retired numbers when it was included on the Lambeau Field facade in 2003, when the stadium was rededicated.

SHAREHOLDER HISTORY & FINANCIAL HISTORY

Of all the things that make the Green Bay Packers and their story incredible and unique, the most significant is simply this: The team is literally owned by its fans.

Presently, approximately 538,967 people, representing 5,204,625 shares, can lay claim to a franchise ownership interest.

Shares of stock include voting rights, but the redemption price is minimal, no dividends are ever paid, the stock cannot appreciate in value, and there are no season-ticket privileges associated with stock ownership. No shareholder is allowed to own more than 200,000 shares, a safeguard to ensure that no one individual is able to assume control of the club.

Fans took ownership of the franchise in 1923.

The Indian Packing Corporation was the team's first sponsor in 1919 and 1920. Frank L. Peck, president of Indian Packing, put up the money the first year to buy uniforms and other equipment. The team wore Indian Packing's "Council" brand emblem on its jerseys in 1920 and was run by a group led by C.M. "Neil" Murphy as business manager, Joe Delloye as secretary and Frank Jonet as treasurer. In both seasons, the Packers operated as a semipro team, playing mostly against opponents from other Wisconsin cities and Michigan's Upper Peninsula.

The Acme Packing Co. of Chicago purchased Indian Packing following the completion of the 1920 season, and through John and J. Emmett Clair, applied for a franchise in the fledgling American Professional Football Association the following August. The Clairs, who were running the Acme plant in Green Bay, had title to the team during the 1921 season.

The APFA revoked the franchise in January 1922 as a penalty for the Packers using college players under assumed names in a non-league game against Racine at the end of the 1921 season.

At its June meeting, six months later, the APFA changed its name to the National Football League, and Green Bay was readmitted thanks to the persistence of Curly Lambeau. Lambeau was awarded the franchise only after the Clair brothers finally agreed to surrender rights to it. They had moved back to Chicago, but there was concern for a period of time that they might relocate the franchise there.

Lambeau and three others – George Whitney Calhoun, Nathan Abrams and Joseph Ordens – formed a corporation called the Green Bay Football Club that ran the Packers in 1922. But it suffered heavy losses in its one season due to lack of resources and bad weather.

That was when Andrew B. Turnbull, civic leader and one of the owners of the Green Bay Press-Gazette, stepped forward and led the effort to create the Green Bay Football Corporation.

The first stock sale was launched Aug. 20, 1923. Shares were sold for $5, although anyone purchasing five shares also received a box-seat ticket for all home games. Turnbull, Lee Joannes and local attorney John Kittell had signed the first articles of incorporation six days earlier. The state of Wisconsin affixed its official seal to them Aug. 23.

The first meeting of stockholders of the Green Bay Football Corp. was held Sept. 17, 1923, at the Brown County Courthouse. Fifteen board members were elected, and they, in turn, chose a five-man Executive Committee.

Turnbull was named president; Kittell, vice president; and Joannes, secretary and treasurer. Dr. W.W. Kelly and George DeLair were elected at-large members.

The Green Bay Football Corporation continued to run the franchise until Aug. 15, 1933, when it went into receivership. Frank Jonet, who had previously audited the corporation's books, was appointed the receiver. The corporation's financial problems stemmed largely from a lawsuit brought by Willard Bent, a fan who fell from the stands at a game at City Stadium in 1931 and was awarded close to $5,000 in damages. The so-called Hungry Five, along with Jonet, ran the franchise while it was in receivership. However, the minutes of a special NFL meeting held in February 1933 stated that title to it was actually transferred into Joannes' name.

The Hungry Five included Joannes, who had been elected president of the corporation in 1930; attorney Gerald Clifford, who had been elected to the Executive Committee the same year; Turnbull, Kelly and Lambeau.

The Packers emerged from receivership in January 1935 and reorganized as The Green Bay Packers, Inc., the community-owned company that remains active today, although the word "The" was dropped in 1997 when the articles of incorporation were amended.

There now have been six stock drives since the Packers became community owned in 1923.

The second sale, in 1935, made it possible for the Packers to reorganize following more than 16 months in receivership. The third, in 1950, saved the Packers when they were facing nearly $90,000 in debt.

The fourth was launched in late 1997. It added 105,989 new shareholders and supported the Lambeau Field redevelopment project. With the NFL backing the plan, the previous 1,940 shareholders overwhelmingly voted to amend the articles of incorporation on Nov. 13, 1997. The vote authorized the Packers to sell up to one million shares to raise funds for capital improvements, and existing stockholders received a 1,000-to-1 split on their original shares. Fans immediately were able to call a special toll-free number, or tap into the team's website for information on how to buy the 400,000 shares made available to the public. In the first 11 days, roughly one-third – or $7.8 million – of the total amount transacted was sold. Orders came in at a rate of 3,500 per day during this early period, generating about $700,000 each day.

Shares of stock were purchased by citizens from all 50 states, in addition to fans in Guam and the U.S. Virgin Islands. More than half (53.6 percent) of the shares were bought by Wisconsin residents.

The fifth sale was launched in December 2011 and saw more than 250,000 people purchase over 269,000 shares. In an overwhelming response, fans purchased more than 185,000 shares in the first two days alone. By late December, the team made an additional 30,000 shares available beyond the initial 250,000 to accommodate demand. Proceeds were directed toward the 2011-2013 expansion of Lambeau Field.

For the first time, fans in Canada were able to purchase shares – 2,000 did so – and approximately 99 percent of all shares were purchased online.

The sixth offering commenced on Nov. 16, 2021, and by the time it closed on Feb. 25, 2022, 176,160 new shareholders had joined the ranks with more than 198,000 shares sold at $300 each. All 50 states were represented as well as several U.S. territories and Canada. Proceeds from the sale were directed toward ongoing construction projects at Lambeau Field, including new video boards and concourse upgrades.

Today, an annual meeting of shareholders is held in July, an event that returned to Lambeau Field in 2006. The shareholders elect a board of directors to run the corporation. The board, in turn, elects a seven-member Executive Committee, consisting of a president, vice president, treasurer, secretary and three members at large. The president is the only officer who receives compensation.

Shares of stock cannot be resold, except back to the team for a fraction of the original price. Limited transfer of shares (i.e., to heirs and relatives) is permissible.

Based on the original "Articles of Incorporation for the (then) Green Bay Football Corporation," if the Packers franchise is sold, after the payment of all expenses, any remaining funds will go to the Sullivan-Wallen Post of the American Legion in order to build "a proper soldiers' memorial." This stipulation was enacted to ensure that the club remained in Green Bay and that there could never be any financial enhancement for the shareholder. The beneficiary was changed from the Sullivan-Wallen Post to the Green Bay Packers Foundation on the basis of a shareholder vote at the November 1997 meeting.

PACKERS STRUGGLE FOR SURVIVAL: FINANCIAL UPS & DOWNS, 1919-57

$500	Sum, according to Curly Lambeau, given to him by Frank Peck, president of Indian Packing Company, for uniforms and equipment in 1919.
$276	Paid to each player at the end of the 1920 season, the Packers' second year of play as an independent team. Checks for that amount were given to the players at a team banquet at De Lair's Café in downtown Green Bay following the season. Thanks to business manager Neil Murphy's efforts to build a fence around the playing field at Hagemeister Park, allowing them to charge admission, the Packers showed a profit of $6,049.53.
$100	Original franchise fee set Sept. 17, 1920, at a meeting of the American Professional Football Association, which would become the NFL two years later. While it has been written that the fee was reduced to $50 in 1921 when the Packers joined the league, no such motion was ever recorded in the league minutes. If the Packers ever paid a franchise fee, a record of it has yet to be found.
$3,800	Amount the Green Bay Press-Gazette reported that the Clair brothers, John and J. Emmett, lost during the 1921 season, the Packers' first in what became the NFL. The Clair brothers ran both the Acme Packing Co. and the football team.
$1,000	Guarantee the Packers had to post to rejoin the NFL in 1922 after being booted out following the 1921 season for using college players under assumed names in a non-league game against Racine. Each NFL team was required to post that amount before the start of the season as a guarantee against violations of league rules.
$147.74	Reported loss of the Green Bay Football Corporation in 1923, its first season of existence. Receipts totaled $35,315.69. Expenses totaled $35,463.43, including $12,253.50 for player salaries.
$4,989	Verdict awarded in 1933 to Willard J. Bent, who fell from stands at City Stadium in 1931 and sued team. The total award was actually $5,544.10, but it was decreased 10 percent because of the plaintiff's contributory negligence. The fan's fall sent the Packers into receivership. Local accountant Frank Jonet said years later that when he was appointed receiver, the judge handed him $76.18 in cash and unpaid bills amounting to more than $15,000.
$12,100	Amount raised through the sale of stock in 1935 allowing the franchise to emerge from receivership and reorganize as the Green Bay Packers, Inc. Frank Jonet, the receiver, would later say that the Packers settled their indebtedness for about $8,000, leaving them with roughly $4,000 to start the 1935 season.
$32,000	Amount the Packers paid in 1946 for Rockwood Lodge, a training quarters they hoped would alleviate their housing problems for players. The board of directors also approved $8,000 worth of additional improvements. Also, the Packers' executive committee approved the purchase of five pre-fabricated cottages located next to the lodge at a cost of $3,500 each, or a total of $17,500.
$90,000	Loss the Packers were facing, according to club president Emil Fischer, when they announced on Nov. 14, 1949, that they would have to play an intrasquad game on Thanksgiving Day to save the franchise.
$75,000	Amount paid by the insurance company to the Packers after Rockwood Lodge burned to ground in January 1950.
$104,137.50	Funds raised by the third Packers stock drive in the spring and summer of 1950.
$12,990.49	Packers' net profit from operations in 1950.
$32,000	TV money received by the Packers in 1953, allowing them to show a profit of $29,267. The team was paid $12,000 for its Thanksgiving Day TV appearance against Detroit and $20,000 as its share of the league contract.
$611,276.68	Total ticket sales for the 1957 season, the Packers' first in new City Stadium, or what is now Lambeau Field. It was a spike of $62,000 from the previous year. The Packers played three home games in their new stadium and three others plus a preseason game in Milwaukee.

ALL-TIME GREEN BAY UNIFORM NUMBERS

1925-2022

- With help from the Pro Football Hall of Fame, which provided game programs dating back to 1925 (when the team first printed uniform numbers), the Packers constructed this list.
- Players who wore multiple numbers during their Packers tenure are denoted with an asterisk (*).
- All players in this section are believed to have played in at least one league game in the corresponding number. Players who were listed on a numerical program roster but did not play that season were omitted.
- The team invites anyone who can provide further evidence, using the same criteria, to contact the communications department.

DID YOU KNOW ...

In 1952, the National Football League established a system for numbering players, with a vague exemption for "nationally known players." A year later, such players as Otto Graham (60 to 14) changed their jerseys to conform to the system. According to the mandate, quarterbacks and kickers were numbered 1-19, running backs and defensive backs 20-49, centers and linebackers 50-59, defensive linemen, guards and tackles 60-79 and receivers 80-89. Today, quarterbacks, punters and kickers are numbered 0-19, defensive backs 0-49, running backs, fullbacks, tight ends, H-backs and wide receivers 0-49 and 80-89, offensive linemen 50-79, defensive linemen 50-79 and 90-99, and linebackers 0-59 and 90-99.

PRACTICE SQUAD, 1989-2022

In 1989, the NFL created a five-player developmental squad. The league changed the name to practice squad in 1990. Players can leave a practice squad for another team only if they join the 53-man roster of another NFL club. In 2004, the NFL expanded the squad from five to eight players, and again in 2014 from eight to 10 players. Beginning in 2020, teams were allowed to carry up to 16 players on the practice squad. The 496 players who've spent time on Green Bay's developmental/practice squad:

LAMBEAU FIELD & MISCELLANEOUS

HALLOWED GROUND

One of the most revered stadiums in the country, Lambeau Field this year is hosting its 67th season of football.

A year-round destination venue enjoyed by Packers fans in a variety of ways on a daily basis, it underwent a dramatic facelift from 2000-03 that added a host of new amenities and attractions, carrying the glorious tradition and history of the Packers forward in the "like-new" Lambeau Field. Building upon that success, the venerable stadium underwent a five-year expansion and renovation (2011-15) that saw the debut of the South End in 2013, a new section which closed the south end-zone structure and features approximately 7,000 new seats, including premium seating as well as sponsor and partner areas. Additionally, the stadium's main premium seating areas were updated in a two-year, $55 million renovation project that was fully complete at the start of the 2017 season.

Featuring the only true "retro" look in the entire league, Lambeau Field through the redevelopment and recent expansion has maintained its heart – the original seating bowl. The same hallowed ground where many of the NFL's greatest moments have transpired continues to exist, a setting in which current players will create incredible memories in future years. Even with the changes over the years, Lambeau maintains its nostalgic and intimate feel with totally unobstructed sightlines. Permeated by history, tradition and mystique, the view from inside can be awe-inspiring.

What was once just a football stadium that fans could use only 10 days during the season is today a Packers cultural center that can be enjoyed throughout the year. Within the five-story Lambeau Field Atrium, located on the stadium's east side, is the Packers Pro Shop; corporate meeting and event facilities for 25 to up to 1,200 people; the Packers Hall of Fame; and a restaurant, 1919 Kitchen & Tap (see pages 568-572 for a full listing of the Atrium dining, entertainment and retail options).

Historic Lambeau Field is the longest continuously occupied stadium in the league – 15 years more than the next-closest venue, GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium in Kansas City, at 52 years. In pro sports as a whole, only the Boston Red Sox at Fenway Park (112 seasons) and the Chicago Cubs at Wrigley Field (110 seasons) have longer active home-field tenures.

HUMBLE BEGINNINGS

The stadium that enjoys iconic status today had very humble beginnings.

Originally built at a cost of $960,000, an amount shared equally by the Packers Corporation and the city of Green Bay, the facility was financed by way of a bond issue that received 2-to-1 voter approval in a municipal referendum conducted April 3, 1956.

Located in southwest Green Bay, surrounded on three sides by the village of Ashwaubenon, Lambeau Field originally was built on farmland, purchased for $73,305. The stadium's original architect, Somerville Inc., favored the current site because it was sloped, making it perfect to build a bowl.

Dedicated as Green Bay City Stadium on Sept. 29, 1957 – a day that 32,132 fans saw Green Bay topple the hated Chicago Bears, 21-17 – attendees included Vice President Richard Nixon and NFL Commissioner Bert Bell. In 1965, the facility was renamed Lambeau Field following the death of E.L. "Curly" Lambeau, the Packers' co-founder and first coach.

SEATING EXPANSIONS: 1961-95

Prior to the 2003 redevelopment, seven seating additions – all paid for by Green Bay Packers Inc. – increased Lambeau's capacity from its original 32,154 to 38,669 in 1961, to 42,327 in 1963, to 50,852 in 1965 and to 56,263 in 1970.

Construction of 72 initial suites in 1985 moved capacity to 56,926, and a 1990 addition of 36 boxes and 1,920 theater-style club seats changed the number to 59,543. The seventh seating addition, a $4.7 million project in 1995, put 90 more suites in the previously open north end zone, for the first time giving the stadium the feel of a complete bowl and upping capacity to 60,890.

MAJOR UPGRADES NEEDED

Even with Lambeau Field's numerous smaller-scale changes and improvements through the years, the stadium was becoming outdated in the 1990s with other new NFL stadiums coming online.

As a publicly owned team, the Packers must generate a significant amount of income from their home to remain competitive. Challenges with capacity, as well as the need for updated suites plus more club seats, restrooms and concessions, made redevelopment a necessity.

Faced with these challenges, the organization went to work in October 1999, assembling a plan to protect 80 years of Packers history and ensure the club's continued viability. After several feasibility studies and with overwhelming support for renovation, as opposed to building a new stadium, the redevelopment plan was determined as the proper course of action. Unveiled in January 2000, the plan ultimately won voter approval that September with the hard work of people committed to preserving Green Bay's unique franchise.

"Our fans overwhelmingly asked us to save Lambeau Field," then-President/CEO Bob Harlan said. "This plan accomplishes that while giving the Packers an economic base to build for the future in Green Bay. We want this to be the No. 1 destination in Wisconsin. We're going to build a stadium that the rest of the National Football League wished it had."

Included in the redevelopment were more than 11,600 additional seats (the stadium's eighth addition), including roughly 6,600 more bowl seats, which increased Lambeau's capacity to 73,094 at the time. More than 4,000 of the seats were available for use during the 2002 season with construction ongoing, and capacity fluctuated between 65,290 and 66,110 as the season progressed.

The main concourse, previously so narrow in some places that it had become a safety problem, also was expanded significantly in 2002. And a new, upper concourse, complete with concession stands and restrooms, that increases the ease with which fans can move through the facility, fully debuted in 2003 with the project's completion after partial use in 2002.

Concession stands and restrooms were greatly expanded as well. Concession points of sale increased to 281 on the main and upper concourses alone, up from 186. The 2003 project dramatically increased the availability of women's and men's restrooms.

The centerpiece of the redeveloped stadium is the Lambeau Field Atrium, a 376,000-square-foot, five-plus-story structure on the east side. Molson Coors is a partner with the Packers in the Atrium and is the sponsor of the area's main entrance gate, the Miller Lite Gate. Welcoming fans is a glass wall, facing Lombardi Avenue, measuring more than 180 feet long and 80 feet high. Additionally, in July 2002, all of the team's administrative and football-operations offices also relocated to within the Atrium.

Just outside the Atrium is the Robert E. Harlan Plaza, named in honor of the former team CEO (1989-2008). In the space are bronze statues of team founder Curly Lambeau and legendary coach Vince Lombardi. Sculpted by Julie Rotblatt-Amrany (Lombardi) and Omri Amrany (Lambeau) of the Fine Art Studio of Rotblatt-Amrany in Highland Park, Ill., each statue is 14 feet tall and sits atop three feet of steps and a four-foot base. Benches throughout the area make the plaza a great place to sit and soak up the majesty of Lambeau Field.

The Packers' football facilities – a vital element in attracting players in today's ultra-competitive NFL – also were enhanced greatly by the stadium's redevelopment, debuting in time for the 2002 season. The centerpiece of these quarters is a breathtaking, 64-by-120-foot, football-shaped locker room with 64 stately wooden lockers. Another 38 lockers can be found in an adjoining, auxiliary locker room.

The football facility upgrades during the redevelopment also included a much larger athletic training room with all of the latest therapy pools, as well as a permanent X-ray machine, individual position meeting rooms with theater-style seating, a 150-plus-seat team auditorium, a basketball court with a parquet wood floor, and a racquetball court.

Additional benefits realized through the project included a modern system of field lights, a new visiting-team locker room and a larger, more comfortable and modern press box positioned along the sidelines that can seat in excess of 250 media members for a playoff game. The press box was renamed "The Lee Remmel economic impact – that supported more than $160 million in bonding. Voters approved the support by county-wide referendum on Sept. 12, 2000. (The tax ended on Sept. 30, 2015.) The state of Wisconsin approved funding of an additional $9.1 million for stadium-infrastructure improvements. The Packers, the city and the NFL contributed $125.9 million from a one-time seat-user fee ($1,400 for the six- to seven-game “Green Package” ticket holders, $600 for the two- to three-game “Gold Package” ticket holders, in 2001), proceeds from the 1997-98 stock sale and an NFL loan. And, the club pledged to cover any project cost overruns in consideration of its authority to direct the design of the building and stadium construction.

The Packers’ contribution to the project ranked as the fifth highest in NFL history at that point. Tommy Thompson, Wisconsin governor at the time, signed into law enabling legislation on May 13, 2000, in a ceremony held on the playing field. Later, on Jan. 3, 2001, the Green Bay/Brown County Professional Stadium District Board approved a new Lambeau Field 30-year lease agreement between the district, the Packers and the city of Green Bay. A groundbreaking ceremony, involving then-Governor Scott McCallum, area dignitaries and Packers officials and players, subsequently was held on May 19, 2001.

TEAM BENEFITS FROM NEW REVENUE STREAMS

The Lambeau Field Atrium, with its many attractions, created an “entertainment district” at the legendary stadium, a concept pioneered at venues like Camden Yards in Baltimore and Progressive Field in Cleveland.

Revenue generated from the Packers Pro Shop, the Packers Hall of Fame, 1919 Kitchen & Tap, the Atrium eateries and Lambeau Field events is essential to the Packers’ long-term survival. In just the first year, with only the new Pro Shop open and several gate sponsorships sold, the Packers’ NFL revenue ranking for the fiscal year 2002-03 jumped to 10th, up from 20th the prior year. The strong financial performance continued during the ensuing fiscal years as all elements of the redeveloped stadium came online; the club’s NFL revenue ranking has continued to be in the second quartile, allowing the team to continue delivering on its promise to the community and its fans – turning profitability into the preservation of the franchise and the stadium. The redevelopment’s economic impact on the area has been positive as well; more than half of the Lambeau Field events department’s bookings come from outside Brown County, bringing in additional business to the Green Bay area. The Atrium already has events booked out several years in advance.

THE PLAYING SURFACE

In 2018, the Packers renovated Lambeau Field’s playing surface, which had last been upgraded in 2007. The field’s root-zone sand stabilizing fibers were in need of replacement due to regular wear and tear of the field. The project called for the removal and replacement of the 12 inches of sand root zone, as well as the underlying pea gravel. The bottom subgrade level consisting of compacted clay and drain tile was left intact, as it is still in excellent condition. The project also allowed the organization to make slight adjustments to the field itself, including rezoning the irrigation system to allow better control and raising the pea-gravel layer two inches. On the second layer from the bottom, new tubing for the heating system was installed on the gravel layer, bringing it two inches closer to the surface to help maximize the system’s efficiency and effectiveness. Root-zone sand was then installed at a depth of 10 inches rather than the previous 12 inches. Kentucky bluegrass sod was installed, and once established, synthetic fibers from SISGrass were stitched into the profile at a depth of seven inches, with three-quarters-of-an-inch spacing between fibers. The fibers are polyethylene, replacing the polypropylene fibers that had been utilized since 2007. A slight crown of .6 percent continues to exist to assist water and snow runoff when the field is covered with a tarp. Additionally, the apron surrounding the field was recoated with the same rubberized, non-skid material that was used previously. A new system of grow lights also debuted in 2018 to further enhance the surface and extend the growing season into the cooler months.

2011-23 EXPANSION AND RENOVATION FINANCING

- Total cost: $600 million for four phases; no funding from public tax money.
- The first phase, including the south end-zone expansion, sound and video upgrades, cost $146 million and was funded by the Packers ($64 million from the organization’s fifth stock sale), an NFL loan ($61 million) and a contribution from the stadium district ($21 million).
- The second phase, including the Atrium renovations, cost $166 million and was funded by the Packers ($111 million through traditional financing) and an NFL loan ($55 million).
- The third phase, including premium seating renovations, cost $55 million and was funded by the Packers (traditional financing).
- The fourth phase, including concourse upgrades and new video boards, cost $140 million and was funded by the Packers ($76 million through traditional financing and $64 million from a sixth stock sale). A football-facilities expansion cost $100 million and was funded by the Packers (traditional financing).

SUBSEQUENT EXPANSIONS AND RENOVATION

To ensure that Lambeau Field remains among the best in professional sports, multiple expansions and renovations of the Atrium and football facilities have taken place since the initial Lambeau Field redevelopment. One project took place from 2011-15, devoting $312 million toward a variety of upgrades, including the installation of a distributed-audio system to deliver sound more consistently and evenly throughout the stadium bowl. The 2012 season featured new high-definition video boards in the end zones with displays four times larger than the old versions, as well as a new Bellin Health Gate on the north end of the stadium with an accompanying North Loft, a popular rooftop viewing platform located just beneath the scoreboard. The South End (opened in 2013) is served by the Invalisign Gate with escalators and elevators to service the five levels of seating. The multiple sections feature amenities not previously available in Lambeau Field, from viewing platforms in the general seating areas for watching the action on the field, to indoor-outdoor suite configurations and inclusive meal arrangements in the premium and partner areas. Atrium renovation work included a larger Oneida Nation Gate with plaza (2013), a new east gate – the American Family Insurance Gate – with a 50-foot Lombardi Trophy replica, a new Packers Pro Shop and a redone Harlan Plaza with a new statue – “The Lambeau Leap” – that allows visitors to replicate the fan-favorite touchdown celebration (2014). The final Atrium components, completed in 2015, are a new Packers Hall of Fame and a new restaurant, 1919 Kitchen & Tap, on the main floor of the Atrium. Enhanced internet connections also were added in 2015 in the stadium and Atrium through upgrades in cellular and wi-fi systems.

In terms of seating capacity, the ninth addition brought approximately 7,600 new seats online for the 2013 season, putting capacity at 80,735. With the debut of standing-room-only areas in 2014, capacity of Lambeau Field now stands at 81,041, second only to New York’s MetLife Stadium (82,500).

In addition to the stadium and Atrium projects, premium-seating areas underwent a two-year, $55 million renovation project, which included the installation of operable windows in the suites and updated furniture and décor in the club-seat common areas. All updates were complete by the beginning of the 2017 season.

The 2011-15 renovation project, not including the updates to the suites and club seats, cost $312 million, with no funding coming from public tax money. The first phase, including the South End expansion, sound and video upgrades, totaled $146 million and was funded by the Packers ($64 million from the organization’s fifth stock sale), an NFL loan ($61 million) and a contribution from the stadium district ($21 million). The stadium district’s user fee was updated in 2013 and set at $2,100 for the “Green Package,” and $900 for the “Gold Package.” The second phase, including the Atrium renovations, totaled $166 million and was funded by the Packers ($111 million through traditional financing) and an NFL loan ($55 million).

In 2018, the team began a multi-year concourse-renovation project to further enhance the fan experience. The multi-phase project includes concourse audio and visual upgrades and new grab-and-go concession stands throughout the stadium, and the addition of several new common areas accessible to general bowl ticket holders, including the U.S. Cellular Loft on the upper concourse and the Miller Lite End Zone bar in the lower concourse.

Ahead of the 2023 season, work was completed to replace the Lambeau Field video boards, replacing the previous boards that were installed in 2012 and had reached the end of their life. Funds from the 2021-22 stock sale supported the project, and fans will be treated to new boards that are twice as wide as the old boards and boast one of the few 4K displays in professional football, with 6-millimeter pixel spacing that will allow for crisp, clear images. The in-bowl updates also feature new auxiliary boards on the east and west sides of the stadium that will include down and distance, game clock and other elements such as scores around the league or fantasy-football information.

The football facilities have also received numerous upgrades since Lambeau Field’s redevelopment. The 2011-15 renovation project added the Conditioning, Rehabilitation and Instructional Center (CRIC), which includes an indoor, 35-yard field that can

The athletic-training facilities also were enhanced with expanded treatment space and additional hydrotherapy pools.

From 2022-23, a larger-scale renovation to the football facility took place, adding more than 200,000 square feet to the space utilized by players, coaches, personnel and support staff. Additions to the space include underground parking for players and coaches, new offices so the coaches can be closer to the players, and expansion of the CRIC so the offense and defense can utilize the space at one time. The new space also features a modern look and feel that will promote interaction and communication between coaches and players.

All told, approximately $600 million has been spent by the organization on expanding and renovating Lambeau Field and its facilities since 2011, all without public tax money.

LEGENDS ADORN THE FAÇADE

Also prominent within the stadium are the names of the 28 Packers players, coaches and contributors elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. Cornerback/safety LeRoy Butler, who played for the Packers for his entire 12-year NFL career (1990-2001), became the 28th name added to the façade in 2022 in honor of his Hall of Fame enshrinement. The Packers' 13 NFL championship seasons (south scoreboard) and six retired jersey numbers (north end zone) are displayed in the stadium as well. Favre's No. 4, which was retired on July 18, 2015, during the Packers Hall of Fame induction banquet, was formally unveiled on the north end-zone façade during a halftime ceremony on Nov. 26, 2015. The late Ted Thompson, former Packers GM, also has his name on the façade to honor his many contributions to the Packers.

HOME-FIELD ADVANTAGE

Lambeau Field is among the NFL's toughest places to play. Green Bay holds a 181-56-2 (.762) regular-season record at Lambeau since 1992, plus a 13-7 mark in the playoffs, for an overall record of 194-63-2 (.753). In the midst of nearly four full seasons at home without a defeat – prior to a 1998 Monday night loss to Minnesota, their last setback at Lambeau had come in the 1995 season opener – the Packers established the NFL's second-longest home winning streak (25). Only the Miami Dolphins (1971-74) have won more consecutive regular-season home games (27).

BUCKET-LIST DESTINATION

The NFL's longest-tenured venue, Lambeau easily ranks as one of the most recognized and envied locales in all of sports, a fact recognized in 1999 when Sports Illustrated named it the eighth-best facility in the world to watch sports – and the lone NFL stadium to make the magazine's "Top 20" list. ESPN The Magazine in 2009 and 2011-16 rated Lambeau Field as the No. 1 stadium experience in the NFL. USA Today in 2015 also ranked it No. 1, "the NFL's only historic gem, the only one that would appear on a sports bucket list." In 2017, FoxSports.com named Lambeau Field the best stadium in the NFL, describing it as "the undisputed king of NFL stadiums," and Sporting News in 2018 deemed it the No. 1 NFL stadium and "part museum, part mecca, all classic." Thousands of fans polled through SeatGeek in 2019 ranked Lambeau Field the best atmosphere in the NFL, and Forbes in 2020 named Packers fans the most passionate fans in sports. In 2022, sports betting site Betsperts honored Lambeau Field as the highest-rated venue out of 117 sports venues in the country and Bookies.com ranked the Lambeau Field pregame fan experience the league's best.

THE LAMBEAU BOWL

One of Lambeau Field's special characteristics is its classic seating bowl, now exclusive to Green Bay. The bowl design, common in many traditional college football stadiums, remains virtually untouched since the $295 million stadium renovation in 2003. Did you know ...

- The original architectural firm, Somerville Inc., favored the Lambeau construction site because it sloped, perfect for building a bowl.
- The bowl's outstanding sightlines are generally credited to Dick Gustafson, who worked closely with John Somerville during the design phase.
- Some of Gustafson's inspiration came from Michigan Stadium in Ann Arbor, where he went to college.
- Despite seating more than 62,713 (including an additional 6,601 from the recent renovation), the bowl still offers the NFL's highest percentage of great seats. Somerville credits that intimacy to the fact that the stadium was the first in the world designed exclusively for pro football.

- The original stadium district instructed Somerville to design a facility that could easily expand, and allow for offseason construction projects to be completed by August.
- The original wooden bleachers remained in place for 12 seasons. Workers replaced them with the now-iconic aluminum benches before the 1969 season.

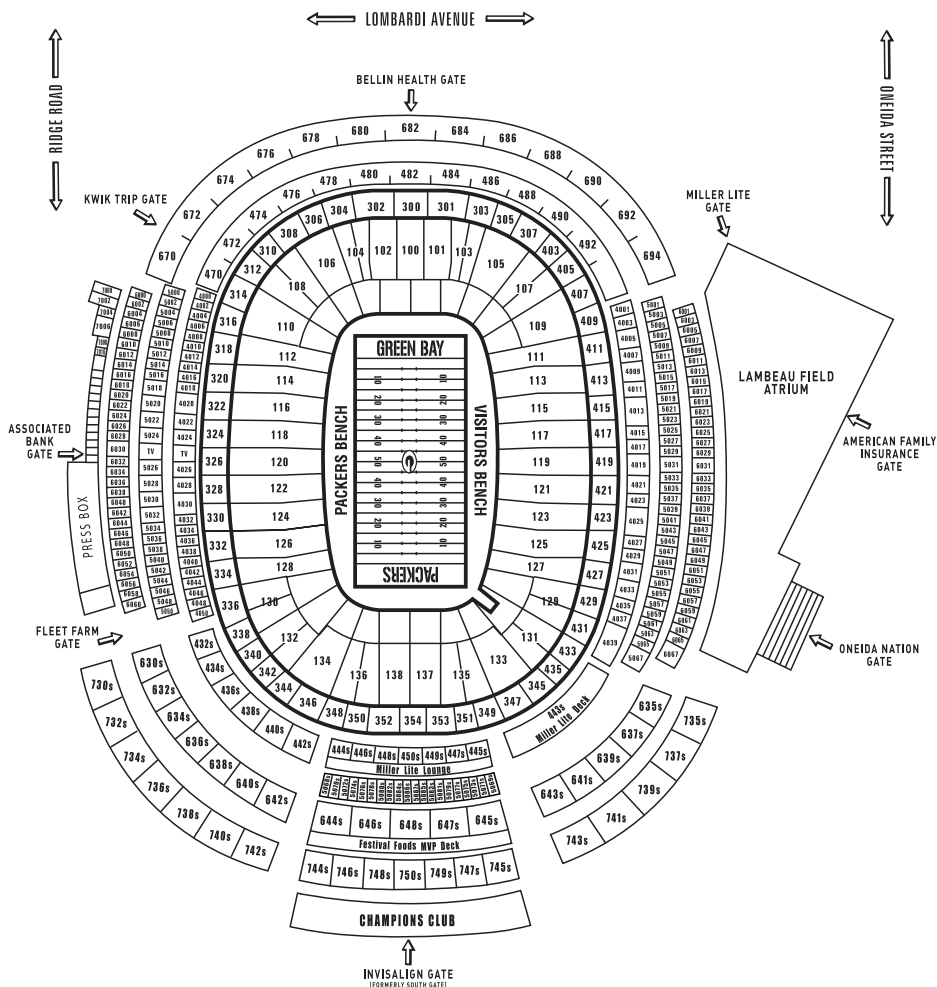

LAMBEAU HOSTS COLLEGE SPORTS, INTERNATIONAL SOCCER, CONCERTS, COMMUNITY EVENTS

Large-scale stadium events have included the Frozen Tundra Hockey Classic in February 2006, a Wisconsin Badgers-Ohio State Buckeyes matchup that drew 40,890 fans, the fourth-largest hockey crowd at the time. Two Kenny Chesney concerts (2011, and 2015 with Jason Aldean), a 2017 Billy Joel concert and a 2019 Paul McCartney concert each attracted more than 45,000 music lovers to the stadium. In 2022, international soccer made its debut at Lambeau Field with an exhibition match between European powerhouse clubs FC Bayern Munich and Manchester City. The Lambeau Field College Classic, presented by Carmex®, featuring LSU and Wisconsin in 2016, brought college football back to Lambeau Field and two passionate fan bases to Green Bay. The events were a financial boon to the local economy, with $3 million (hockey), $5 million (each concert) and $13 million (college football) impacts. College football will return once again with a game between Notre Dame and Wisconsin set for Sept. 5, 2026. Originally planned for Oct. 3, 2020, the game was rescheduled due to the COVID-19 pandemic. On the community front, the Atrium has regularly hosted free events. "Spooktacular Fun," a family Halloween event, takes place in October. Festival of Lights, a holiday-themed event in December, features a visit from Santa Claus and a 40-foot tree with 10,000 lights. Later in winter, the Atrium welcomes "Project Play 60" — a day focused on kid-friendly physical activity. More than 20,000 residents enjoy the Atrium during these days. In 2021, Lambeau Field hosted a COVID-19 community vaccination clinic in partnership with Bellin Health and Brown County Public Health, first in the Atrium and later in the Terrace Suites in the South End.

IMPROVEMENTS TO OTHER FACILITIES

In the two decades prior to the start of the 2003 redevelopment project, the Packers organization itself had spent more than $50 million on improvements to the stadium, the previous club administration building and training facilities, including construction of the original indoor practice structure in 1982 and its replacement, the Don Hutson Center, in 1994 at a cost of nearly $4.7 million. In 2019, the Don Hutson Center was renovated with new artificial turf (FieldTurf) with an updated field-marking layout that features a full-sized field. The team's two outdoor practice fields, Clarke Hinkle Field and Ray Nitschke Field, were updated in 2020 and 2021, respectively, to match the turf at Lambeau Field. As part of the recent renovations, a heating system was installed under Hinkle Field to keep the ground from freezing late in the season and afford the team the opportunity to practice outside. Nitschke Field also has a seating facility, erected in 2009, for fans attending training-camp practices.

STADIUM OWNERSHIP

Lambeau Field today is owned by the city of Green Bay, the Green Bay/Brown County Professional Football Stadium District and the Green Bay Packers. The stadium is operated by the Packers under a three-party lease with a primary term that runs through 2031. Retirement of the city's original $960,000 debt from the stadium's initial construction in 1957 was celebrated at a mortgage-burning ceremony in May 1978.

TICKETS AND WAITING LIST

While Lambeau has been sold out since 1960 and on a season-ticket basis since 1961 (350 consecutive regular-season games, not including replacement games, prior to the 2020 season), the streak was put on an unprecedented pause in 2020, when the COVID-19 pandemic prevented paid attendance during the regular season. Season-ticket holders returned to Lambeau Field for another sold-out season in 2021. The historic stadium was not the Packers' only regular-season home until 1995. The team maintained two separate ticket packages after moving all games to Green Bay, eliminating four annual dates at Milwaukee County Stadium.

In 2023, "Gold" ticket holders (made up primarily of former Milwaukee season patrons) have a three-game package consisting of one preseason contest and the second and fifth regular-season home games. "Green" season customers (made up of original Green Bay ticket holders) have a seven-game package consisting of one preseason game and the remaining six regular-season contests. The 2024 home schedule will have the Packers hosting one preseason and nine regular-season contests as part of the NFL's 17-game schedule. After being designated to play internationally in 2022 and playing at Tottenham Hotspur Stadium in London against the New York Giants, the Packers are guaranteed to play nine regular-season contests at Lambeau Field in 2024.

The block of additional seats in 2003 helped the Packers remove roughly 3,600 names from their season-ticket waiting list – which at the start of the 2023 season had more than 148,000 names on it – between both ticket packages. The 7,000-plus new seats in 2013 helped the Packers remove another 5,000 names from the list. Additionally, Brown County residents without season tickets have a chance to purchase four tickets each year through the Brown County Ticket Drawing, with 2,500 bowl tickets available for residents for each game. ADA seats also increased dramatically through both projects, rising from 56 to 756 in 2003, and to 876 currently.

Aaron Rodgers returns from second-quarter knee injury to complete 17 of 23 passes for 273 yards and three TDs in second half.

OTHER HOMES OF THE PACKERS, 1919-94

HAGEMEISTER PARK

The Packers maybe gained more cachet than one might expect of a first-year semipro football team in 1919, but the setting for their home games had a purely sandlot, pickup-game flavor.

There was no fence, no bleachers, no frills.

They simply played on an open field in Hagemeister Park (pictured below), a large public park located where Green Bay East High School and old City Stadium stand today and connected to Joannes Park.

There had been a ballpark in Hagemeister when Green Bay fielded a minor-league baseball team from 1905-14, but it was torn down in the spring of 1918. That version was referred to as the League Ballgrounds or the W-I Ballpark. The latter was a derivative of the name of the minor league — Wisconsin-Illinois — that Green Bay was a part of from 1908-14.

Throughout the summer of 1919, local sports advocates bemoaned the absence of a ballpark in a city the size of Green Bay and worried that it might prevent East and West high schools from playing home games or, worse yet, fielding teams.

It was under that cloud that the Packers were formed. Yet they somehow managed to survive.

Their only way of making money was for co-founder and manager George Whitney Calhoun, with the help of others, to pass a hat during games. Fans walked the sidelines following the ball, even edging onto the field at times, and those who didn't would pull their Model-Ts up close to the action and watch from their front seat.

The next year, local typewriter salesman C.M. "Neil" Murphy took over as business manager of the Packers and led the effort to build a fence around the field. After getting approval and support from the property owners and others, Murphy invited fans to show up on a Saturday morning with hammers in hand and help build it.

But once the season ended, the contract called for the fence and bleachers to be torn down and the lumber to be returned to the Indian Packing Co. In the spring of 1921, the ballpark was rebuilt on the same spot, with the same lumber and the same design.

When the Packers were admitted to the American Professional Football Association in August of that year, seating was expanded to about 3,500. The Packers played their games there that season and again in 1922.

BELLEVUE

When the Hagemeister ballpark was torn down in the spring of 1923 to make way for a new East High School, Bellevue Park (pictured above) was built across the East River on property owned by Hagemeister Products Co. (formerly Hagemeister Brewery). The ballpark was rushed to completion for the city's amateur baseball team and used by the Packers in 1923-24.

It's best remembered as the site of the first Packers-Bears game played in Green Bay, on Oct. 14, 1923. The Packers also were tough to beat at Bellevue, compiling a 9-2-1 record.

But the seating capacity was no more than about 3,300, parking was inadequate and fans grumbled that it was located too far from downtown.

CITY STADIUM

One of the reasons Hagemeister Park was chosen as the site for East High was because of the space available for athletic fields. The school opened in 1924, and City Stadium (pictured below in 1946 and left) was finished the following year.

The Packers played there for 32 seasons and won six of their 13 NFL championships during that period, but never played a postseason game there.

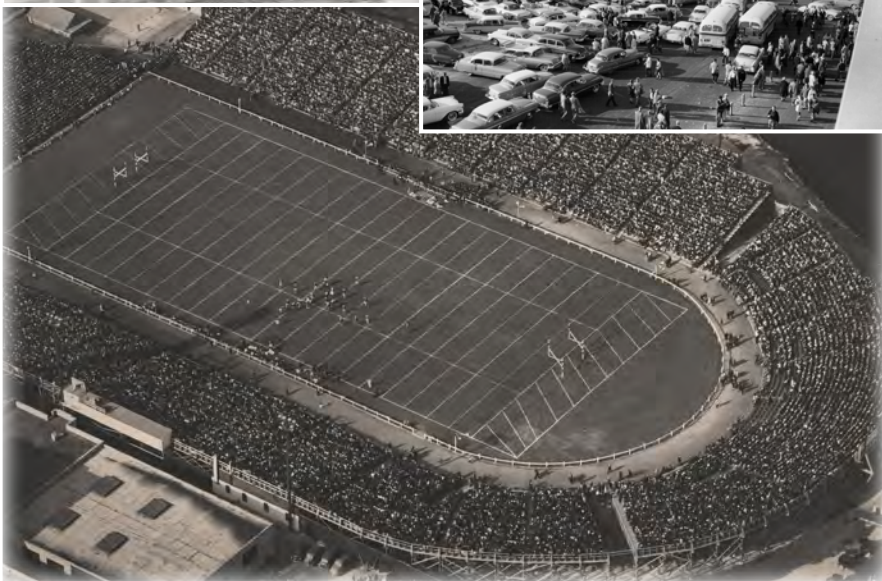

The first game was an exhibition against the Iron Mountain All-Stars played on Sept. 13, 1925, and Curly Lambeau was the star. The first NFL game was played a week later against the Hammond Pros.

The Packers played their last game there on Nov. 18, 1956, and rookie quarterback Bart Starr made his first pro start. The game featured nine future Pro Football Hall of Famers, including Starr and fellow rookie Forrest Gregg.

In all, 90 players in the Hall of Fame, including 12 Packers, played in either a regular-season or preseason game there.

When City Stadium opened, it had seating for roughly 5,700. Its peak capacity was nearly 25,000.

Its most distinctive feature might have been a 400-foot-long, 12-foot-high and 17-inch-thick sandstone entranceway built in 1940 along the west end facing Baird Street. But other than the wall, City Stadium was made of wood and had become outdated well before the Packers abandoned it for Green Bay City Stadium, or what is now Lambeau Field, in 1957.

MILWAUKEE

State Fair Park, for 18 seasons, and County Stadium (pictured above in 1994 and below in 1993), for 42 seasons, were the Packers' primary homes in Milwaukee over the 62 straight years (1933-94) that they played there.

Even though the Packers weren't based in Milwaukee, fans there embraced them as their own. As a result, when the Packers stopped playing at an aging County Stadium following the 1994 season, they determined that Milwaukee ticketholders should be offered their same allotment each year for two designated regular-season games played at Lambeau Field.

THE PACKERS' SEVEN OTHER HOMES, 1919-94

GREEN BAY

- Hagemeister Park, 1919-22...Large public park along the banks of the East River. The Packers played here on an open field in 1919. Fans helped build a fence around the playing field so the Packers could charge admission in 1920, but the small wooden ballpark was torn down following the season. In the spring of 1921, a look-alike was built on the same spot and with the same lumber to serve Green Bay's amateur baseball team. When the Packers were admitted in late August to what is now the NFL, seating was enlarged to about 3,500. The Packers played here for two seasons.
- Bellevue Park, 1922-24...When the ballpark at Hagemeister was torn down in May 1923 to allow for construction of East High School, Bellevue Park was built in less than three weeks with the same lumber. It was rushed to completion to accommodate the local amateur baseball team. The land was owned by the Hagemeister Products Co. (formerly Hagemeister Brewery) and was located at what was then the end of Main Street...Site of the first Packers-Bears game played in Green Bay.
- City Stadium, 1925-56...The Packers played here for 32 seasons...It was made almost entirely of wood and expanded several times to reach peak capacity of roughly 25,000...Curly Lambeau starred in the first game here; Bart Starr made his first pro start in the last...Twelve Packers and 90 members, in all, of the Pro Football Hall of Fame played here in a regular-season or preseason game.

MILWAUKEE

- Borchert Field, 1933...The Packers played one home game here in 1933. They played a non-league game here against Racine in 1921, one road game a year against the Milwaukee Badgers from 1922-26 and a non-league game against the Milwaukee Eagles in 1927...Named Athletic Park prior to 1928...Located on a city block bordered by Burleigh, Chambers, 8th and 7th streets.
- State Fair Park, 1934-51 (below, inset, in 1941)...Located in West Allis within the Wisconsin State Fairgrounds...In 1939, the Packers played host to an NFL Championship Game for the first time and selected State Fair Park as the site over City Stadium, triggering an outcry in Green Bay.
- Marquette Stadium, 1952...Home to Marquette University football until the school dropped the sport following the 1960 season.
- County Stadium, 1953-94...Home to baseball's Milwaukee Braves and Brewers...Off Interstate 94...Both benches were located along the east sideline...End zones ran north and south from the third-base line to right field...Demolished to make way for Miller Park, now American Family Field.

LAMBEAU FIELD ATRIUM

Key to making Lambeau Field a year-round destination venue is the 376,000-square-foot Lambeau Field Atrium, more than five stories high on the east side of the stadium.

Included within the Lambeau Field Atrium are a number of dining, entertainment and retail options for Packers fans of all ages. Free wireless internet access is available at the Atrium, too, for guests who want to use the internet while visiting a restaurant or taking part in a corporate event or meeting. The Atrium underwent a renovation, completed in August 2015, that enhances every visitor's experience.

PACKERS HALL OF FAME — The Packers and the Packers Hall of Fame Inc., a nonprofit corporation independent of the Packers, together host this special place. The Hall closed in late 2013 as part of the Atrium renovation project and reopened in August 2015 in a brand-new space located on the first and second floors of the Atrium. A tribute to the greatest story in sports, the new facility's design includes use of the latest technology, in addition to a treasure trove of artifacts, as a means to educate and inspire visitors about the rich history of the Packers, as well as the teams of today. From the team's beginnings with Curly Lambeau to the dominating era of Vince Lombardi, the Hall takes visitors on a journey that includes all 28 Packers in the Pro Football Hall of Fame, 13 world championships, including four Super Bowls, and the 168 members of the Packers Hall of Fame.

LAMBEAU FIELD STADIUM TOURS — Highlighted by a walk through the team tunnel to the hallowed ground of Lambeau Field, stadium tours allow fans to experience the Packers' history-rich facility firsthand and see several behind-the-scenes areas. Outstanding photo opportunities await themselves throughout each tour. Tour tickets are available online 30 days prior to a given date. Tickets are sold on a first-come, first-served basis for each day's available tours. A popular attraction, traditional stadium tours welcome more than 115,000 visitors annually.

Public access to the inside of Lambeau Field is available only through a tour. The stadium-tour hotline is 920-569-7512, and schedules and tickets are available online at packershofandtours.com.

Historic Lambeau Field stadium tours appear on the itineraries of sports fans and visitors from all over the world, some of whom visit Lambeau Field and Packers training camp as their family's summer vacation.

1919 KITCHEN & TAP — Inspired by the local community and the rich history of the Green Bay Packers, the gastropub is a tribute to the year the team was organized and is located on the Atrium's main floor. Featuring industrial, yet warm and rustic finishes, the restaurant has copper beer lines and exposed brick, to complement Lambeau Field's welcoming, comfortable atmosphere. The interior also includes several nods to Packers history. The restaurant offers a menu full of innovative approaches to old favorites, highlighting locally sourced ingredients to ensure the freshest seasonal foods. Guests enjoy a bar with 80 beer taps, featuring a wide variety of selections, as well as an open-concept kitchen, which allows visitors to see and hear their food being prepared. An outdoor seating area is also available.

LAMBEAU FIELD EVENTS — Whether it's an intimate meeting for five or a gathering for 1,000, Lambeau Field can accommodate a variety of events with unique space, an extraordinary staff and all-around excellence. The Lambeau Field Events Team (920-569-7515) can assist with any function with catering provided by Delaware North, a global leader in hospitality. In a typical year, the Lambeau Field Atrium hosts upwards of 900 events – including corporate, nonprofit, association and social events – and welcomes more than 100,000 guests to the facility. Most years, more than 50 percent of the department's bookings come from outside of Brown County.

The Johnsonville Tailgate Village is a vibrant gameday and event space in the parking lot on the east side of the stadium.

PACKERS PRO SHOP — Owned and operated by the Packers, the Packers Pro Shop is not only a shopping destination, but also a Packers experience. The 21,500-square-foot store, which opened in July 2014, is double the size of the previous store and located in the lobby level spanning the entire north side of the Atrium. Two entrances welcome visitors, one with a six-foot scaled replica gameday helmet, the other with a 50-foot replica Lombardi Trophy. Inside, thousands of Packers items await, from clothing to special, unique items. The experience includes a wall of video monitors and extensive jersey and hat sections, among other design features.

OTHER EVENTS

COMMUNITY EVENTS — An obvious destination for football-related events and generally taking in Packers lore, the Lambeau Field Atrium also hosts a number of community events each year that draw thousands of people. Project Play 60, a March event, focuses on getting kids out of the house to enjoy non-strenuous physical activity. Spooktacular Fun, held in October, is a Halloween event that features interactive and entertaining activities, including sing-along music, magic, miming, clowns and jugglers. Festival of Lights, a holiday-themed event in December, features a visit from Santa Claus, cookie decorating, choirs and a 40-foot tree with 10,000 lights. In addition to those regularly scheduled events, other gatherings have been held from time to time, including community send-offs for Green Bay's 127th National Guard Unit in 2005, 2009 and 2019.

FROZEN TUNDRA HOCKEY CLASSIC — From Feb. 10-12, 2006, Lambeau Field hosted the Frozen Tundra Hockey Classic, featuring the Wisconsin Badgers vs. the Ohio State Buckeyes. Among the weekend's highlights were a community skate, picture-taking with the Stanley Cup and Vince Lombardi trophies, autographs with the Badgers hockey team, and youth hockey sessions. The action culminated with a 4-2 Badgers victory in front of 40,890 fans, with the weekend bringing in nearly $3 million to the local economy.

LZ LAMBEAU — Lambeau Field hosted a "Welcome Home" weekend for Wisconsin's Vietnam veterans, Vietnam-era veterans and their families, May 20-22, 2010. Over the three days, 70,000 people took in speakers, exhibits, music and premiere segments from Wisconsin Public Television's Wisconsin Vietnam War Stories documentary. The weekend was presented in partnership with the Wisconsin Department of Veterans Affairs, the Wisconsin Historical Society, Wisconsin Public Television and statewide veterans' organizations.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL — On Saturday, Sept. 3, 2016, the stadium went collegiate, hosting the Lambeau Field College Classic, presented by Carmex®, between the LSU Tigers and the Wisconsin Badgers. The contest marked the first college football game at the historic stadium since Nov. 19, 1983, when the St. Norbert College Green Knights defeated the Fordham University Rams, 18-9. The 2016 game had an economic impact of more than $13 million, with fans from both contingents traveling to the area for the week and weekend of the game. In a thrilling finish, Wisconsin defeated LSU, 16-14, in front of a crowd of 77,823. College football was set to return to Lambeau Field in 2020, with Wisconsin facing the University of Notre Dame in the Irish's first appearance at Lambeau Field. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic causing non-conference games to be canceled in 2020, the matchup was rescheduled for Sept. 5, 2026, which will be the second of a two-game neutral-site football series that also saw the two teams meet at Soldier Field in Chicago on Sept. 25, 2021.

CONCERT TOURS — On June 11, 2011, Lambeau Field hosted its first major concert since the redevelopment was completed in 2003. More than 45,000 fans packed the stadium to take in Kenny Chesney, along with the Zac Brown Band, Billy Currington and Uncle Kracker. Chesney made a return visit on June 20, 2015, this time with Jason Aldean and others, and played to more than 50,000. On June 17, 2017, Lambeau Field welcomed legendary musician Billy Joel, who performed for more than 43,000 for his first-ever concert in Green Bay. Most recently, iconic musician Paul McCartney performed to a sold-out crowd on June 8, 2019. The concerts, all held during weekends, attracted a wide variety of music fans of all ages to the Green Bay area and each made an impact of nearly $5 million in the area.

INTERNATIONAL SOCCER — On July 23, 2022, Lambeau Field hosted a different kind of football, with an international soccer match taking place for the first time in the stadium's venerable history. The exhibition match between English Premier League club Manchester City and German Bundesliga club FC Bayern Munich was played in front of a sold-out crowd, with supporters traveling from 19 different countries and all 50 states. Lambeau Field provided an incredible backdrop for the traditions embraced by soccer enthusiasts, including flags, songs and chants. The 1-0 Manchester City victory was decided by a goal scored by Erling Haaland in the 12th minute.

TITLETOWN DEVELOPMENT

Located just west of Lambeau Field, Titledtown is the Packers' mixed-use, community development. The multi-acre park space features activities and events year-round and daily recreation no matter the season.

Titletown, currently situated on nearly 45 acres of land, builds upon the success of Lambeau Field's major redevelopment in 2003 and the Atrium renovation in 2015. The development aims to maximize its unique location to attract visitors, spur regional economic growth, offer amenities to residents and complement the greater Green Bay area's draw as an excellent location to live, work and play.

TITLETOWN

Titletown offers daily fitness and recreation activities, programs and festivals throughout the year, with live music, family-friendly holiday events and a variety of options for fun-seeking visitors from near and far. A unique Play 60-themed playground and regulation-size athletic field are popular destinations. During the colder months, Arians Hill at Titletown offers tubing and the Plaza transforms into an ice rink for skating and ice biking.

The development also offers various spaces to rent for private events, including corporate and private gatherings, with flexible indoor and outdoor options.

Titletown's initial anchor tenants, Hinterland Restaurant and Brewery, Lodge Kohler and Bellin Health Titletown Sports Medicine & Orthopedics, continue to welcome more guests each year while providing top-notch service.

Lodge Kohler, a four-diamond hotel built and managed by Kohler Co., features a modern-day lodge atmosphere with five floors. Lodge Kohler is home to a one-of-a-kind Kohler Waters Spa, a panoramic restaurant and bar – Taverne in the Sky – and a first-floor lobby café, Leaps & Bounds.

Bellin Health Titletown Sports Medicine & Orthopedics is a 52,000-square-foot facility that is geared toward injury prevention, athletic-performance improvement and treatment and therapy for injuries. The facility features the best technology and serves athletes of all ages and abilities.

The award-winning Hinterland Restaurant and Brewery features a main-floor beer hall, a farm-to-table menu and an intimate fine-dining experience on the upper level. The outdoor patio opens up to Titletown's park and diners can enjoy eating in the center of the action.

In 2019, the Packers and Microsoft opened their joint venture, TitletownTech. A one-of-a-kind partnership, TitletownTech is aimed at driving economic growth and job creation in Wisconsin by bringing world-class digital innovation and expertise to Green Bay. TitletownTech focuses on helping the region's emerging and existing businesses define and build new digital products, access capital for launching new ventures and transform their operations through technology. TitledownTech's Venture Fund counts several renowned national and regional partners among its investors, and the Fund continues to invest in businesses that are developing innovative products and services to address critical market challenges in their respective industries. In 2020, Microsoft, the Packers, the Milwaukee Bucks and the Milwaukee Brewers combined forces to create the Equity League, a new investment division of TitledownTech aimed at fostering positive social change in Wisconsin and across the country by investing in minority companies.

The TitledownTech building also includes The Turn, powered by Topgolf Suites — a 11,000-square-foot space managed by Delaware North. The venue features high-tech simulation bays with a variety of games and activities and a restaurant that serves hand-crafted dishes made with fresh ingredients and regional flavors. Also included in the building is an experiential Associated Bank branch, offering banking services and interactive activities for Packers fans.

Titledown's Phase 2 continues growing, with dozens of TitledownHomes townhomes completed and occupied by homeowners. The last six homes are currently being constructed and will be complete and move-in-ready by fall of 2023. TitledownFlats, with 152 units ranging from studios to three bedrooms, is now home to hundreds of residents. The U.S. Venture Center, a seven-story office tower on the west end of the development, also began welcoming tenants in the fall of 2021. The building is home to the headquarters of Breakthrough, as well as the Green Bay office of Miron

Construction, accounting firm CLA and professional services firm Aon. Phase 2 has also extended Titledown's public footprint further to the west, with several additional acres of plaza and green space adjacent to the TitledownFlats and the U.S. Venture Center. Titledown also includes approximately 125,000 square feet of additional space for future development; plans for the space are still being considered and may include a variety of retail, food and beverage, and entertainment offerings.

SCHEDULING FORMULA

At a league meeting on March 30, 2021, NFL clubs approved an enhanced season structure that beginning in 2021 featured each team playing 17 regular-season games and three preseason games for the first time. The NFL-NFLPA Collective Bargaining Agreement signed in March 2020 enabled the league, with the approval of the union and its players, to enhance the regular season with a move to 17 games, providing fans an extra week of regular-season NFL action. It was the first change to the season structure since the 1978 campaign ushered in an era of 16 regular-season and four preseason games.

The 17th game features teams from opposing conferences that finished in the same place within their division the previous season. Under the NFL scheduling formula, every team plays 17 games as follows:

- Home and away against its three division opponents (six games).
- The four teams from another division within its conference on a rotating three-year cycle (four games).
- The four teams from a division in the other conference on a rotating four-year cycle (four games).
- Two intra-conference games based on the prior year's standings (two games). These games will match a first-place team against the first-place teams in the two same-conference divisions the team is not scheduled to play that season. The second-place, third-place and fourth-place teams in a conference will be matched in the same way each year.
- One interconference game based on the prior year's standings on a rotating four-year cycle (one game). These games match a first-place team from one division against a first-place team in an opposite conference division that the team is not scheduled to play that season. The second-place, third-place and fourth-place teams in each division are matched in the same way each year. The home conference for this game will rotate each season, which began with AFC teams hosting the game in 2021.

* This season, "flexible scheduling" for Sunday Night Football may be used up to twice between Weeks 5-10, and at the NFL's discretion during Weeks 11-17; for Monday Night Football at the NFL's discretion in Weeks 12-17; for Thursday Night Football it may be used up to twice between Weeks 13-17. During the Flex Scheduling Windows, the games initially scheduled for Sunday Night Football (on NBC), Monday Night Football (on ESPN or ABC) and Thursday Night Football (on Amazon Prime) are tentatively scheduled and subject to change. Only Sunday afternoon games (or those listed as TBD) are eligible to be moved to Sunday night, Monday night or Thursday night, in which case the initially scheduled Sunday/Monday/Thursday night game would be moved to Sunday afternoon. Sunday afternoon games may also be moved between 1:00 p.m. and 4:05 p.m. or 4:25 p.m. ET. As in prior seasons, for Week 18, the final weekend of the season, as in prior seasons, for Week 18, the final weekend of the season, the scheduling of the Saturday, Sunday afternoon, and the Sunday night games is not assigned. The schedule for Week 18 will be announced no later than six days prior to that week's Saturday game (January 6, 2024).

PACKERS RADIO NETWORK

Wayne Larrivee and Larry McCarren enter their 25th season of broadcasts together across the Packers Radio Network in 2023. Though both are veteran broadcasters, the two were paired for the first time in 1999 to bring the color and excitement of Green Bay Packers football to fans throughout Wisconsin, Upper Michigan and four more-distant states. They surpassed Jim Irwin and Max McGee for the most regular-season and postseason games broadcast for the Packers with 313 at the 2018 season opener against Chicago.

Larrivee, who grew up as a fan of the Packers in his native Lee, Mass., enters his 46th consecutive year broadcasting NFL games, having joined Green Bay's broadcast team after 14 seasons as the radio voice of the Chicago Bears (1985-98) on WGN and WMAQ Radio in Chicago. Earlier, he had done play-by-play of Kansas City Chiefs games for seven years (1978-84) on KCMO Radio in Kansas City. Known for his thorough preparation and his moderated, yet enthusiastic, call of the action, Larrivee's more-recent credits also include play-by-play for Big Ten Conference football and basketball for the Big Ten Network and NCAA basketball for Westwood One.

Highly decorated, the 68-year-old Larrivee was named Illinois Sportscaster of the Year in 1997 and is a seven-time winner of the Silver Dome Award, presented by the Illinois Broadcasters Association, for best radio football play-by-play. He is also a four-time winner of a Midwest Emmy for Chicago Bulls basketball play-by-play. In May 2011, he was honored as Communicator of the Year by the Wisconsin Chapter of the Public Relations Society of America.

A 1977 graduate of Emerson College in Boston, he received the school's Alumni Achievement Award in June 2005 and was inducted into the Emerson College Hall of Fame in June 2018. In 2012, the college appointed him to its alumni association board of directors. Larrivee also has done play-by-play of Chicago Bulls basketball on WGN-TV from 1991-2008, Chicago Cubs baseball, University of Iowa football, Quad Cities (Iowa) Angels minor league baseball, University of Missouri basketball and Kansas City Kings basketball games.

McCarren first joined the team's broadcasts in 1995, working his first four seasons with Irwin and McGee. Inducted into the Packers Hall of Fame in 1992, he also is a favorite among television viewers in northeast Wisconsin. After 27 years, he retired from Green Bay television and joined the Green Bay Packers' digital department as their sports analyst. McCarren has been voted Wisconsin Sportscaster of the Year four times (1994, 1996, 2002, 2007) by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association. In June 2016, McCarren was inducted into the Wisconsin Broadcasters Association Hall of Fame.

An iron man at center for the Packers for 12 seasons (1973-84), McCarren played in 162 consecutive games – the sixth-longest streak in team history – helping him earn the nickname "Rock." He was voted to the Pro Bowl in 1982 and 1983. Earlier, he had been a co-captain at the University of Illinois as both a junior and senior. McCarren, 71, originally is from Park Forest, Ill.

The Game WRNW begins its second season as the flagship station of the Packers Radio Network.

The Packers Radio Network is made up of 51 stations in six states.

The Packers in 2003 permanently named the new Lambeau Field press box after team historian and longtime public relations director Lee Remmel. Remmel's 62-year association with the team began as a sportswriter in 1945 before he moved into the team's front office in 1974.
